Grandma Kilburn went to Chicago on Tuesday last. From there she goes to Worcester, Mass. She is ninety-one years old.

Whoever lost that sleeve button can recover the same by calling at this office, proving property and paying forty cents for this notice.

List of letters remaining unclaimed for at the Paw Paw postoffice for the week ending July 3d: Rev. E. M. Corey, Mr. Coffey, Mary Kinney.

The Clifton House has been repainted. Showman, the jovial proprietor of that deservedly popular hostelry, believes in keeping up with the times.

Mrs. F. W. Selick has gone to Lockport, N. Y. F. W. will join her next week when they will go to Martha's Vineyard where they will spend the summer.

Mr. J. W. Kenyon of Jackson, Mich., will lecture at Pugsley's Lake on Sunday, July 11th, at 2:30 p. m. Subject, "The Scientific and Philosophic Evidence of Man's Immortality."

The brick for the new engine house are being received. They come from the yard of Phelps & Lyon at Hartford. The walls of the building are in process of erection and will soon be completed.

Mrs. Mary E. Jones, the great walkist, has gone to Jackson—not to the state institution there however, but to give an exhibition of her pedestrian expertness at the Brunswick garden in that enterprising city.

Judge Mills held court here last Tuesday Judgment rendered against W. R. Greenman, F. W. Selick and John Lyle—$2,000—in the matter of Greenman's forfeited bond. Cornelia White divorced from her husband, Moses, and E. S. Stone from his wife, Mary.

The Hartford Day Spring has, at the head of its editorial page, "Mrs. W. H. H. Earle, publisher and proprietor." We are sure that our brethren of the press will join us in welcoming her to our fraternity and in wishing her the greatest of success and prosperity.

What a pity it is that those drunken loafers who were running horses along the road to Lake Park last Saturday morning cannot be made to realize how contemptible they appeared in the eyes of people of respectability. Perhaps, if they could, they would "go their way and sin no more."

Paige, Henry C., born Sept. 6th, 1850, at Newark, N. J., died at Paw Paw, Mich., June 28th, 1886. The funeral was held on Thursday last, instead of Wednesday as we announced last week. Rev. H. W. Harvey, assisted by Rev. L. B. Fish, officiating. His remains were laid to rest in Evergreen Cemetery.

Uncle Mather was at both the Pugsley's Lake and Four Mile Lake celebrations. He thinks he has seen as many Independence days as anyone who was present, being eighty-seven years of age. The old gentleman is hale and hearty and looks as though he was good for quite a number of future Fourths.

Next Sabbath will be a very interesting day at the M. E. Church in Paw Paw. Mrs. J. H. Still, who has been quite a number of years in India as a missionary, and has recently returned, will speak to the people in general in the morning and the young especially in the evening. She has the reputation of being an entertaining speaker. The Women's Foreign Missionary Society, as well as all others, will do well to attend and take notes.

Somebody very foolishly exploded a dynamite cartridge on the corner of Main and Kalamazoo streets last Saturday evening about ten o'clock. The result was a general shaking up and broken windows in the adjacent buildings. The best and safest place for the stuff is at the bottom of some lake.

Rev. H. W. Harvey and sister, with his brother and his brother's wife, will make a trip to Europe. Mr. Harvey will leave on Monday next. He will deliver a lecture next Friday evening on "The Lights and Shadows of Travel," admission fifteen cents. To those who know the quiet humor of Mr. Harvey's addresses, it will be needless to say the lecture will be very interesting and enjoyable. We bespeak for him, a crowded house.

An entertainment will be given on Tuesday evening, July 13th, at the Free-will Baptist Church. Miss Koon of Lisbon, Mich., will be there to entertain the people with some of her choice selections in "Reading." Do not fail to hear her if you would enjoy a treat, as those that heard her at the F. W. Baptist yearly meeting can testify. Music by the "Arian Quartette," is expected. Admission, twenty cents; children under fifteen years, ten cents.

We met him on the street, he rushed up to us frantically, a broad smile overspread his countenance, his eyes sparkled with intelligence and his whole manner indicated that his inmost soul was bursting with a desire to impart important information, as he breathlessly exclaimed, "Is this hot—? He never finished the sentence, and the corner as he gathered up the few mangled remains, gloomily and sorrowfully remarked, "Not enough to 'set' on."

Married, on Friday, July 2d, 1886, Mr. Wallace Chase to Miss May Myers, both of Waverly. The NORTHERNER congratulates the happy couple, and especially does it extend congratulations to Mr. Chase. Everybody in Paw Paw knows May, and she has just as many warm friends as she has acquaintances. May they enjoy a long and pleasant married life and may happiness and peace ever "Chase" care and sorrow from their home, making their union like one unending "May."

The Criterion Spring Co. has received from the lithographer, a "proof" of the new label it has had designed for its bottled water. It is a very beautiful design and was procured at a cost of nearly $200. We understand that the waters are becoming very popular, and that orders for it are continually increasing. The company will spare no trouble or expense to introduce it to the public. A man has been employed expressly to keep the spring house open from 6:30 p. m. to 9:30 p. m., so as to afford our citizens an opportunity to partake of the water without money and without price.

The celebration at Pugsley's Lake was a grand success. The programme, as advertised, was substantially carried out. It was estimated that full 2,500 people were in attendance. The walk between Mary Jones and Charley Baker's horse attracted a good deal of attention and occasioned much merriment. It was a close contest but, owing to the manner in which she "hugged" the pole, Mary came in a little ahead. Probably no set of visitors enjoyed themselves better than the Old Fellows with their picnic. Lake Park is a very pleasant place to visit and is daily growing in popularity.

A new fence has been erected around the jail, making it impracticable for outsiders to communicate with the inmates of that institution without the knowledge of the sheriff. Some of our exchanges have been making themselves exceedingly merry over the ease and facility with which, according to their interpretation, prisoners can escape from the jail. The real facts of the case are that the jail is exceedingly strong and it is a very difficult matter indeed for parties confined therein to get out without outside help, and no one has ever escaped from the new part of the jail without such help. Now that friends of the prisoners are fenced out, as they should have been long since, there is little danger of a "jail delivery."

The celebration at Four Mile Lake on Monday last was a very pleasant affair and called out a large concourse of people, many more than the proprietor of that popular resort expected to see. In consequence of the great number seeking refreshments at the Peninsular, its resources were taxed quite severely, but Mr. and Mrs. Scoville were equal to the emergency and all their guests were entertained in fine style. Dr. Huntington's theme was "John Brown" and was very interesting and entertaining. Rides on the lake, games, dancing, fireworks, etc., occupied the time until a late hour at night. The railroad did a thriving business, but transported all who desired and did it in good shape. As a place of popular resort, Four Mile Lake is becoming widely and favorably known.

The "song-service" at the Disciple Church last Sunday evening was a very pleasant affair indeed and was enjoyed by as many as the capacious church would hold. All the churches united in it. The chorus, consisting of about sixty voices, conducted by Prof. Harrington, aided by the other members of his troupe, did some very fine singing. Miss Etta Hopping presided at the organ, and it is needless to say that her part was well performed. Such meetings are not only interesting, but very useful, and should be held more frequently. There is no reason why the singers of our town should not occasionally unite in just such a service, as there is no lack of capable conductors. We hope to see the practice of union praise meetings inaugurated and continued. Nothing would have a stronger tendency to promote the good of church work in our village.

The musical convention recently held in our village by Prof. Harrington and his corps of able assistants was a decided success and can but prove of great advantage to the culture of vocal music in our village. The class consisted of more than fifty pupils and instruction was given not only in the elements of music but to the more advanced students. Both Mr. Harrington and Mr. Munsell are thorough and competent instructors and pleasant gentlemen. Miss Davenport is a wonderfully fine soprano, and an intelligent, refined lady. Of Miss Hopping as an alto singer and an organist it is useless to make any remarks. She is so well known to all our people that any words of commendation would be entirely superfluous. The convention was closed with a grand concert on Tuesday evening, which was well patronized and that was greatly enjoyed by all who attended. Should these people ever visit our village again, they will be accorded a most hearty welcome.

Several of the good citizens of Lawrence were in town last Tuesday looking up that mandamus matter. Mr. Warner will find that the end is not yet and before he gets his saloon firmly established in our sister village he will be likely to conclude that "Jordan is a hard road to travel."

At the last meeting of Paw Paw Lodge No. 18, I. O. O. F., the following officers were duly installed: L. W. Osborne, N. G.; J. F. Bullard, V. G.; Wm. Rickerson, S.; E. M. Snow, P. S.; C. V. Bardick, T.; J. B. Rickard, W.; J. E. Phillips, Com.; J. L. Tirrell, R. S. N. G.; D. Chapman, L. S. N. G.; Fred Bassett, R. S. S.; R. E. Quick, L. S. S.; Geo. Lambert, I. G.; J. B. Foote, O. G.; A. V. McNeil, Lib.

Sunnys vs. Shadys.

As advertised, the "Sunnyside and Shady-side nines" met at the fair grounds on Thursday afternoon last, and the "Shadys" were victorious. The "Sunnys" with the following nine—ten, as they thought a second catcher necessary—who played in various positions: Pete MacCellar, Claude Long, Charley Cole, C. L. Fitch, Jimmie Denning, Bert Cole, Geo. Longwell, A. F. Hayes, Jay Randall, Harry Longwell and Bob Chapman, substitute, and the "Shadys" with Judge Hilton, M. Lang, Fred Covert, John Breck, J. E. Chandler, Will Bryant, John Wood, Elmer Harwick (Tongs), John McGraw and Ed. Gilman.

At about two o'clock, the seemingly invincible "Sunnys" headed by a "Mascot"—Prof. Baker's little boy—each armed with a broom, marched with much assurance to their sure and easy defeat. On their arrival at the diamond, they were met by the "Shadys" with blood in their eyes and malice in their hearts.

Promptly at 2:30, the game was called by "Dad" Briggs, umpire, with the "Sunnys" at the bat and the Judge in the box, who pitched one of his unequalled games, holding the "Sunnys" down to two runs, much to Harry's disgust. The "Shadys" then came to bat, but failed to solve Lawyer Fitch's curves and twists and were retired with but a single score. After the second inning, Fitch gave out and Dunning was placed in the box; Hilton gave way to Breck one inning later. Early in the game, on account of injuries—invincible—MacCellar was succeeded by Chapman, the wild-eyed NORTHERNER compositor. We then thought the game assured to the "Sunnys," as "ye editor" of the Courier, one of his compositors and two of our own types were wielding the willow and doing fine fielding, but we were doomed to disappointment. Charley Cole was laid up for repairs and Geo. Longwell took his place behind the bat but soon received a foul tip on the end of one of his fingers and retired from the game. After some discussion and a little vigorous kicking on the part of the "Shadys," Frank Clancy was substituted and our hopes again revived but alas! we hoped in vain, the "Sunnys" were destined to defeat. In the last half of the eighth, and the first half of the ninth each side was retired in one, two, three order, each scoring a goose egg. The last half of the ninth was not played, the official score standing thirty-eight to twenty-eight in favor of the "Shadys," who marched back to town carrying the brooms and "Mascot" and dragging the "Sunny" banner in the dust. The "Sunnys" have not been seen since.

The principal features of the game were errors by all, heavy slugging by many, particularly by the Courier man, our Illiptian and Lawyer Fitch, daring base running by Randall, Judge Hilton's puzzling curves and the masterly manner in which they were not caught. The "Sunnys" Mascot remarked that they were "pretty well done up" and that while "he lived on the sunny side, his office was on the shady side." We noticed Justice Richards driving around town with a broom, while, in imitation of Chicago clackers, Guy Harrison, the champion kicker, was tooting a tin horn. As this is understood to be a series of best two in three, there is hope that the "Sunnys" if they ever get back to town and feover their normal condition, may turn the tide as did the Detroiters when they played their last series with the Chicagoes. In the next game, the "Sunnys" propose to have a couple of good players to whom they are clearly entitled, who were barred out of Thursday's game.

Base Ball Billets.

The Sunnys have lost faith in Mascot. Lawyer Fitch's four leaved clover failed to bring the predicted "good luck" to the Sunnys.

The motto adopted by the Sunnys is, "Let not him that putteth the armor on boast like him that layeth it off."

Sunny Randall's hot foot tips would have "broke him all up" but for the frequent visits made to him by MacCellar with the arnica bottle.

Shady Gilman's numerous hot flies captured in the right field so used up his hands that he has since been unable to measure off tape.

Sunny Fitch's hot grounders fielded to first, together with his nimble base running lamed him to such an extent that he has withdrawn from the club.

Tongs, the Shady second catcher, took some very fine foot tips, but owing to some misunderstanding in his physical structure, grounders seemed to find an egress between his knees.

Our clever-sized and spruce-looking "Chan" of the Shadys, made some most magnificent (endeavors at) playing at short; the grace with which he scooped those daisy-cutters and sent them flying to first base, (and beyond) was simply marvelous.

The Sunnys have been talking of getting some uniforms, but after witnessing the poorness of the material in some of the Shadys' suits, Captain Covert's for instance, they have concluded to wait and see if they can't get some that will neither rip, tear nor ravel.

Great credit is due to the little, sawed-off captain of the Sunnys for his lively base running and heavy slugging; also to that well developed and manly form of the captain of the Shadys for his athletic feats. He so tore up the ground around first base in a few moments that it took the boys two days to fill it in.

MacCellar, of the Sunny-side, played well in the frontispiece of the game, but a report being circulated that there had been thirty cents lost on the ground, called to his mind the good luck he had in Detroit, and he immediately quit the game and commenced looking for it. We think it was a pnt up job to defeat the Sunnys.
