Hon. J. J. Woodman was on the floor of the house at Lansing on Monday, and made a brief address. He served in that body twelve years--four as speaker.

Harry Martin left for the agricultural college on Saturday last. He is a member of the senior class, and will receive his degree from that institution this coming spring.

The women's missionary society of the M. E. church will hold their annual thank's offering meeting next Sunday evening at their church. An interesting programme will be presented. A general invitation is extended.

The following letters remained uncalled for in the postoffice at Paw Paw, Mich., for the week ending Monday, March 13th: Mr. John Brooks, Mrs. Alma media Brooks, Phoebe Ann Coleman, D. H. Everett, Miss Ellen Healey.

The Kalamazoo people did not gulp down the $3,000 per mile and right of way proposition of the Columbus, Lima & Milwaukee road for every mile of that county the company might lay in that county, so they were to have another meeting last night to try and get things to match one another.

The donation social last Friday evening, at Mrs. Fred Hope's drew together quite a large number of the residents of the Lee district, intent on showing in a practical way their appreciation of Elder Pallister's services. He desires to heartily thank them, one and all, for their generous offering, only regretting that circumstances over which he had no control prevented the attendance of himself and family.
