EDITOR NORTHERNER:
Last Friday forenoon I spent visiting your school and passed my time in the room of Miss Dora Smith. There I found about forty-eight restless boys and girls all as quiet, gentlemanly, and obedient as one could desire, while Miss Smith moved among them in her quiet way, yet holding the rein with a firm hand. On my departure she said to me, "You are the first visitor we have had this year." I could but call to mind a song which used to be sung in the days of "Auld Lang Syne," one verse of which runs thus:

"They visit the circus,
They visit their neighbors,
They visit their flocks and the servant who labors,
Now why don't they visit the school?"

I am sure that every parent has a duty in this direction and could not help being interested in the work of both teacher and pupil, should he occasionally give the school a half day of his time.

New Suits.

Glendale.

Ben. Smith is here on business. Old Mr. Congdon is quite poorly. Dr. Ronkens patients here are all nearly well again.

Another wedding in high life. Ettie Root was married last Sunday to a man from Hastings.

Another new case of fever, John Horton is very sick with it. A Paw Paw Dr. is attending him.

Mr. Vickers got as far as Kalamazoo on his way home from the South and was taken sick, and is at this writing unable to get farther.

The many friends of Mrs. John Bennett, formerly Melissa Furbish, will be pained to hear of her death, which occurred at her home in Kalamazoo on Saturday last. She was sick only a few days.

For the Benefit of Grand Army Men.

There are thousands of comrades who fought during the war under the leadership of the four great generals, Grant, Sherman, Sheridan and McClellan, who would have purchased the memoirs of these historic captains when published, had the price been placed at a reasonable figure. There is an opportunity now, however, as "The Cosmopolitan Magazine" has purchased 600,000 volumes of the memoirs in the original subscription editions, bound in green and gold cloth, and is almost giving them away in connection with a subscription to that popular magazine. Not only should members of the Grand Army be interested in the offer, but every man and woman in the country who is at all up to the times will be interested in these books. The writers are dead; the memoirs can never be rewritten. They contain the personal history of the great commanders, and form an indispensable part of the country. No library, private or public, large or small, is complete without them. By special contract The NORTHERNER is enabled to give its readers the benefit of the great offer, as fully explained in an article headed "Wake Up." If you are not acquainted with the Magazine, send at once for a free sample copy to The Cosmopolitan Publishing Co., Madison Square, New York City.

DON'T GET IMPOSED UPON

Is a good motto to follow in buying a medicine as well as in everything else. By the universal satisfaction it has given and by the many remarkable cures it has accomplished, Dullam's Great German Blood, Liver, Stomach and Kidney Cure has proven itself unequalled for building up and cleansing your system and for all diseases arising from impure blood. Do not experiment with an untried article which you are told is as good, but be sure to get Dullam's. All druggists keep it. $1 a bottle. For sale by Longwell Bros.

Wake Up!

The age is one of rapid progress—and we are in it. Our patrons are among the most progressive of the nation. They are quick to take advantage of a good offer. We make a great many; but when we offer a set of the memoirs, either of Grant, Sheridan, Sherman, McClellan, or Lee, in their respective original editions, in connection with a year's subscription to the Cosmopolitan Magazine, and a year's subscription to THE NORTHERNER for $1.75—we fairly outdo ourselves.

Please remember that these works are not cheap reprints, but the original subscription editions. As this offer entails an actual loss of money to us, subscribers will have to pay express charges or postage on the volumes selected. Postage on General Grant's vols., at one-half cent per ounce, 43c.; Sheridan's vols., 42c.; Sherman's vols., 46c.; McClellan's vol., 24c.

Thousands of orders have already been received by the publishers, so that if our friends wish to avail themselves of this extraordinary opportunity, they must wake up. No such offer has ever before been made to the reading public, and it is doubtful if it will ever be duplicated.

Again we say, "Wake up!" If no reading terms with the magazine, send postal card request for a free sample copy to The Cosmopolitan Publishing Company, Madison Square, New York City.

THE FIRST STEP.

Perhaps you are run down, can't eat, can't sleep, can't think, can't do anything to your satisfaction, and you wonder what ails you. You should heed the warning—you are taking the first step into Nervous Prostration. You need a Nerve Tonic, and in Electric Bitters you will find the exact remedy for restoring your nervous system to its normal, healthy condition. Surprising results follow the use of this great Nerve Tonic and Alternative. Your appetite returns, good digestion is restored, and the Liver and Kidneys resume healthy action. Try a bottle. Price 50c. at Dr. J. D. Hamilton's drug store.

A Prominent Political Feature.

Hon. W. E. Bates, secretary of the Republican state central committee, and political private secretary to Senator McMillan, has engaged to supply the Detroit Journal exclusively with a weekly (Saturday) letter of Washington political gossip. Mr. Bates is thoroughly conversant with both national and state politics.

Election of officers for Brodhead Post, G. A. R., next Monday evening. A full attendance is desired.

Detroit has had a very epidemic of accidents during the past week. A horrible fire in which seven persons were cremated; a shocking accident causing two men to fall four stories, instantly killing one and fatally injuring the other, and last, but by no means least, the failure of the automatic trip regulator at the gas works, which left the city in darkness and caused numerous cases of severe burning and partial asphyxiation,—these calamities, to say nothing of many lesser ones, all in the space of three days, would seem to make Detroit an ideal field for the work of Accident Insurance companies.

It is eminently fitting that the United States should be the first foreign power to contribute to the relief of famine-stricken Russia, and to Minneapolis, the city of elevators, is due the credit of originating the movement which sends $100,000 worth of flour and wheat to the starving Russian peasantry.

The Democratic tendency to father all successful measures has inspired many witty remarks, not the least amusing of which is the prediction by a prominent Republican that, in two years from to-day, the Democrats will claim the McKinley bill as originating in their ranks.

It appears that LaGrippe has not had its day, as was hoped, for Germany is again suffering from a wide-spread attack that is much more virulent than that of two years ago, and in due season we may expect to take our second turn of this very peculiar epidemic.

It is a dubious compliment to this country that whenever a particularly sharp villain is arrested in England, he is placed on the list as an American.

CURE SCROFULA

With Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This disease may well be termed "the curse of civilization." Whether hereditary or acquired, scrofula poisons the blood, enfeebles the constitution, causes consumption, catarrh, glandular swellings, ulcers, sores, and troubles innumerable. Fortunately, there is a remedy for this evil. By the persistent use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, all traces of scrofula may be eradicated. Henry Brandt, Avoca, Neb., writes: "I suffered from scrofula, till I began the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, since which the disease has entirely disappeared. A child of mine was also cured by the same remedy."

"I was a sufferer, for years, from scrofula and blood diseases. The doctors' prescriptions being of no avail, I was at last advised to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I did so, and now feel like a new man, being fully restored to health."—C. N. Frink, Decorah, Iowa.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists; Price $1; six bottles, $5. Has cured others, will cure you.

ORDER FOR HEARING FINAL ACCOUNT.

Francis W. Shellick, administrator of said estate, comes into court and represents that he is now prepared to render his final account as said administrator, and files the same. Thereupon it is ordered that Monday, the 4th day of January next, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for examining and allowing such account, and that the heirs at law of said deceased, and all other persons interested in said estate are required to appear at a session of said court, then to be held at the probate office, in the village of Paw Paw, in said county, and show cause, if any there be, why the said account should not be allowed. And it is further ordered that said administrator give notice to the persons interested in said estate of the pendency of said account, and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the True Northerner, a newspaper printed and circulating in said county, for three successive weeks at least previous to said day of hearing.
