Seventy-six years ago to-day, in the first lodge of the I. O. O. F. Since that time the order has grown to be one of brated by Van Buren county Oddfel-a number of Paw Paw brothers and We don't know whether there is a blind tiger in town or not, but the streets were disgraced Saturday night by a number of drunken tiger rushers.

If the illegal sellers of liquor can be detected, they should be punished.
Whether the sellers be punished or not, it is the duty of the village marshal to arrest all drunks who appear on the streets and see that they are prosecuted under the village ordinance.

Complaints are made that at some of the churches in town certain youngsters who are old enough to know better assemble themselves and behave in a disorderly manner, greatly to the disturbance of the worshippers. Such conduct is very reprehensible and is punishable under the law with severe penalties. People will not long tolerate such behavior and those guilty of it are liable to get themselves into serious difficulty.

The Kalamazoo News Concert Company, which will appear at Longwell's opera house, on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, April 29, 30 and May 1, in varied programs of dramatic readings and songs, will give to each purchaser of a 25 cent concert ticket, one of Paul de Longpre's famous flower pieces. They include orchids, pansies, golden rod and sweet peas, and are well worth framing. Reserved seats without extra charge.

Complaints have been made to the authorities concerning trespasses and vandalisms committed on the schoolhouse premises. Not only will future acts of the kind be prosecuted to the full extent of the law, but a repetition of the offense will lead to prosecution for past transgressions, as the evidence against the perpetrators is conclusive.
This word of warning should be sufficient and it will be an evidence of wisdom to heed it. The school grounds are not a public landing place and will not be permitted to be used as such at any time.

A state spelling contest is the means being used to decide who among the schoolma'ams and others know English as it should be spelled. In preparation for the contest for county honors, township spelling matches will be held Saturday, April 27. On Saturday, May 11, the winners will contest for county honors at Decatur, Paw Paw, Hartford, South Haven, Bangor and Gobleville.
Commissioner O'Leary has the supervision of the work in this county. Remember the spelling match for Paw Paw township will be held at the school house in this village on Saturday of this week, April 27, at 2 o'clock p. m.

ness. They will be at home to their

ARE FOR TEMPERANCE.

THE W. C. T. U. CONVENTION

For Van Buren County Held Interesting Sessions in Paw Paw This Week.

The tenth annual convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union of Van Buren county was in session at the Baptist church in this village, Wednesday and Thursday of this week. On account of lateness of the narrow gauge train, the opening session Wednesday morning was but slightly attended and but little business was transacted.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.

The session was opened with a bible reading by Mrs. Barton, her selections being to the point of calling attention to the temperance women of old testament times, down to the wonderful Mary, mother of the One who is mighty among the mighty. Mary sat at the feet of Jesus; if we sat there more of the time we would be better prepared for our work. The disciples left Jesus, but the women stayed by him. She spoke of Paul's praise to the women who had been helpers in his work and thought women should be helpers to men, equal in all respects, but not above.

Then came the roll call and reading of minutes, followed by a beautifully rendered solo by Mrs. Paige, "Some Time."

Mrs. E. H. Browne of this place was on the program for a paper, but instead read an article from the Letter, tending to show the uselessness of trying to secure temperance legislation except through the prohibition party.

After a solo, "Follow Thee," by Mrs.
Renwick, Mrs. M. S. Todd of Berrien Springs, superintendent of scientific instruction, gave a paper showing the awful effects of alcoholic poison on the human system. This paper was one of the very best of the meeting, explaining as it did the influence of alcohol on the brain, heart and other organs of the body and comparing the injury done by it with that done by other drugs, and always showing alcohol upon the evil side of the comparison.

Mrs. C. E. Brown of Kalamazoo, district president, then gave the ladies an illustration of the way to conduct a model union. Systematized work was the keynote of her plan, and Van Buren county unions cannot fail to be benefited by the influence of her address.

WEDNESDAY EVENING.

The session was opened by a song by the choir, a mixed quartette, and devotional exercises consisting of scripture reading by Rev. Brundage of the Baptist church and prayer by Rev.
Kennan of the Free Baptist church.

After another song came the address of welcome by Mrs. E. H. Browne, responding to Mrs. Loomis' Home of Lawrence. Among other good things, she spoke of the common talk about the "coming woman"; she thought the coming woman was already here and wondered where could be found the "coming man."

Miss Mattie Cooley sang a solo, after which came the principal address of the evening by the district president, Mrs.
Brown. She started by relating that Talmage says that he preaches ten sermons to men where he does one to women, because he thinks the men are more in need of them. But she wanted to talk to the women, as they are the real "power behind the throne." She spoke of obstacles in the carrying out of W. C. T. U. work and urged the ladies to do their duty all the time. She wished a reporter, if one was present, to publish as coming from her and not from the W. C. T. U. the fact that if all church members would live up to their profession, vote as they pray, etc., the church would prosper and temperance reform work would be accomplished.

THURSDAY FORENOON.

The following resolutions were adopted at the Thursday morning session:

Resolved—The W. C. T. U. as an organization shares the belief of many other missionary societies that the "golden age" is somewhere near, when every plant that our Heavenly Father hath not plucked shall be rooted up.
Resolved—That we, as a body, earnestly pray for strength to break up the fallow ground of ignorance and error, and for wisdom to sow the seeds of righteousness and purity and temperance and that we may both winnow and weed so well that even the angel reapers sent forth to gather the harvest may not be hindered by any other mis-erious weeds that need to be uprooted.
Resolved—That we consider the next forward step to be taken by our unions should be to secure the enactment of a law that alcohol should be labeled as other poisons.

Resolved—That we will carry out the recommendations of our district president with regard to the way we conduct our local unions, as far as possible.

Resolved—That it is the judgment of this convention that the right of suffrage should be based on an educational test, instead of on sex, as at present.

Resolved—That we influence, as far as possible, the ladies of our county to exercise the right of school suffrage, and in thus improving our present opportunities show our willingness and ability to use further rights.

Resolved—That we use our influence with school boards to prevent hiring teachers that are addicted to the use of tobacco, in accordance with the resolutions passed at the teachers' convention, recently held at Lansing.

Resolved—That we commend the action of the supervisors of our county in refusing to submit the county option law for a reconsideration by the people, as petitioned to do this spring, and that we thank our presenting attorney for his faithful work in making the law effective.

Resolved—That we should refrain from all harsh criticisms of each other's work, giving heed to the command, "Let each esteem the other better than themselves."

Resolved—That the thanks of this convention are due to those who have welcomed us so cordially to their homes, to the singers for their beautiful songs, to the Baptist society for the use of their church, also to Mr.
Drown for his kindness in carrying delegates to the places of entertainment, and to all others who have helped to make the convention a success.

Resolved—That it is the sense of this union that the men who perjured themselves in presenting the petitions for reconsideration of county option should be prosecuted in due form of law.
Resolved—That all resolutions are given for the benefit of workers and should receive careful consideration by the local unions.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON.

A mothers' meeting occupied the time. Mrs. E. Neff read a paper on "Purity, Health and Heredity." Mrs.
Pritchard treated "Scientific Temperance Instruction." Mrs. Neff conducted the mothers' meeting. Mrs. Barton read a devotional bible reading and Mrs. Hard read an excellent paper on "The Influence of Mothers," which could not but benefit every mother who
