

The True Northerner.

VOLUME XLI. NUMBER 11.

PAW PAW, VAN BUREN COUNTY, MICHIGAN, FRIDAY, MAY 3, 1895.

WHOLE NUMBER 2093.

W. R. SELICK & CO.—DRYGOODS, BOOTS AND SHOES.

Mother nature is just now setting an example which we may wisely follow. The brown meadows put on their robes of emerald and the trees exchange their poverty of naked branches for a boundless wealth of foliage. From banks where but erst-while the frosty crystals glittered, now peep up the smiling faces of the flowers. Nature and humanity are both bettered for the donning of new dresses and for the latter we display this week pretty effects in

New sidewalks have been built in front of Will Snow's and also in front of the Gorton place.

Harry Waters on a Rambler and Frank Pagstey on a Waverly made a 75 mile run Sunday.

Letters uncalled for May 3 in the Paw Paw postoffice: Mr. S. Babcock, Mr. D. E. Connine, Will C. Smith.

A much needed new sidewalk has been built in front of the residences of E. H. Lindsley and C. V. Burdick.

A. L. Lakey of Kalamazoo, was a caller at the NORTHERNER office Saturday. A pleasant musical was held at the home of LaRue Mosier, Saturday evening last.

See Broughton's two big ads. You can tell them by Broughton's characteristic border.

R. M. Buck has moved his office to the front rooms over Waters & Co's hardware store.

J. H. Waters & Co. don't monopolize the whole paper this week, but they have a big piece of it.

Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Harvey have arrived here and will at once busy themselves getting settled in their new home.

James E. Chandler and L. H. Titus were at Lansing the fore part of the week, arguing cases in the supreme court.

Paw Paw sportsmen went en masse to the trout streams Tuesday. As yet, none have reported any marvelous catches.

Rev. Fr. Mulcahy is visiting friends in Genesee county. His sister Anna is expected to accompany him home tomorrow.

There are flies on Holmes & Bilsborrow's adv., but none in the house that has screened doors and windows bought from them.

Refreshments were served by the Odd-fellows at their lodge room last Sunday afternoon at the close of the funeral of Joseph Mather.

Married, April 27th, by Mrs. Anna Barton at her home in Paw Paw, Mr. Claude Peck of Berlamont and Miss Grace Hinekey of Arlington.

The other day Jeff Chaffee came into the NORTHERNER office and left a bunch of as fine asparagus as ever grew. It grew from a last year's setting of roots.

"Those lovely hats!" was an exclamation that falls from the lips of every lady visitor at Sellick's. And they find many other things at that house to attract and please.

Mrs. Sarah Barnum is seriously ill and her recovery is not expected. It is thought she is suffering from cancer in the stomach. Isaac Barnum has been summoned by telegraph.

Attention is called to the adv. of A. L. Lakey's paints in this issue. Those who have used Lakey's paints in the past are now their firmest friends. J. H. Waters & Co. are Paw Paw agents.

E. H. Lindsley and wife will leave on Monday next for Mancelona, Mich., in hope that the northern air may benefit Mr. Lindsley's health. The length of their stay there is uncertain.

Mr. Wm. Wall, who recently entered into partnership with Geo. L. Bruner, has brought his family here for a permanent residence. They occupy Ab. Free's house on Gremps street.

Jan. A. Leech has a new scheme for hanging a painter's scaffold to ladders. It is an ingenious and convenient contrivance. Jim says he had that necessity which is the mother of invention.

By special invitation, the degree staff of the Paw Paw Oddfellows went to Decatur last Tuesday evening and conferred the inatory degree. After the "work," a fine repast was served by the ladies at Stewart's hall.

Those of our farmer friends who are interested in phosphate fertilizers can see a sample of the Tennessee product at this office, left here by Mr. B. W. Hipp of Almena, who recently returned from a trip through the south.

The village school was the only one represented in the township spelling match held at this place last Saturday. Misses Florence Dillon and Rena Waters carried off the honors and will be entitled to contest for county honors.

At the last teachers' examination, 50 per cent of the applicants received certificates in Van Buren county, 30 per cent in Kalamazoo county, 60 per cent in Cass county, 29 per cent in Berrien county and 28 per cent in Allegan county.

Harry Showerman is not satisfied with selling goods cheap. He has about fifty agent's sample stiff hats, left over from last fall, just right for boys, which he will give away free to every boy who makes a purchase of any amount until closed out.

South Haven proposes to light its streets with six arc lights and eighty-one incandescent glims. The latter may prove satisfactory to the people of South Haven, but Paw Paw people would kick vigorously against that kind of street lighting.

Grand Lecturer Arthur M. Clark will hold a masonic school of instruction with Paw Paw lodge No. 25, on the afternoon and evening of May 15. Lodges from various other places in this vicinity will attend. The excellent hall of Paw Paw lodge makes a favorite place for masonic events of this character.

Don't do anything until you see the "Golden Giant Mine," for the benefit of St. Mary's Catholic church, at Longwell's opera house, Tuesday evening, May 14. A great play, a clever company, and excellent stage settings. Reserved seats on sale at usual place on Tuesday, May 7th. Parquet, 35 cents; gallery, 25 cents.

Dr. M. E. Whalen is very seriously ill with rheumatism, his heart being badly affected. Early in the week he was near to death's door, but we are now pleased to say that he is somewhat better and his recovery is hoped for, though by no means certain. Dr. Hoyt is attending him, and Dr. Rose has been over from Decatur several times.

Don't overlook the county correspondence on the inside of the paper. The inside pages contain some of the NORTHERNER'S most interesting matter each week. We are receiving many compliments from our readers on the improvement made by printing all at home, while our competitors all continue to use the "Chicago patent."

The editor of the NORTHERNER acknowledges the receipt of a box of English walnuts from Mr. and Mrs. Philo Forsythe. The nuts were main-moth fellows—samples of what our old friends can raise their California home.

Last Tuesday was Miss Rose Butler's birthday. A number of her friends and neighbors met at the house in the evening—a surprise to Miss Rose—and passed the evening very pleasantly in social converse, music, etc. Refreshments were served.

While driving to the funeral of Joseph Mather last Sunday, the pole of one of the Gobleville rigs dropped to the ground, the team took fright and ran, throwing the occupants out of the carriage. Two of them were painfully, but not dangerously hurt.

While the next thing to a man or woman must be their undershirt, something that during these coming hot days will stick closer than a brother is not always desirable, but those that are advertised by Cummings' dry goods store have that cool effect that drives away that "tired feeling" so often felt.

An alarm of fire at a little after ten o'clock Saturday night, called some of our good people out of bed and others out of some other places. The blaze was in Ira Brot's barn and was extinguished without aid of the fire department before the fire bells had hardly commenced ringing and before any damage was done.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Gilman very kindly opened their pleasant home on Tuesday evening for a reception to the new pastor of the Free Baptist church. The house was filled and those present spent the evening in social fellowship and in giving to Bro. Kennan a hearty and whole-souled welcome. Ice cream and cake were served by the ladies of the church.

Prof. B. Mincer has ordered a hundred thousand handbills from the NORTHERNER job printing department, advertising the skill of himself and his son in the optical line. This large order for advertising matter speaks of a large business being done by the professor, and also of the facilities of the NORTHERNER for turning out good, cheap work.

Fred Oeobock's new barn looms up big on his lot. The foundation is now being prepared for the house, and when completed Fred will have an excellent place. Lynn Oeobock will build a house on his lot when Fred is through building. This is evidence that strict attention to business in the Model market has brought at least a reasonable compensation to its proprietors.

A letter from State Game and Fish Warden Chase L. Osborn announces that he will at once appoint Columbus Eagle as deputy game warden. This action is in response to a largely signed petition recently sent to Mr. Osborn, and will be most satisfactory to the sportsmen of this vicinity, as they hope the new deputy will put a stop to the illegal spearing that is being done every night on all our lakes.

The South Haven Sentinel says that according to the official organ of that enterprising town, the common council at its last meeting, audited bills for teaming to the amount three thousand one hundred and twenty-five dollars; for labor nine hundred dollars; for printing nine hundred and fifty dollars; and for election dinner two hundred dollars. Village taxes down there will be higher than county taxes at that rate.

The Kalamazoo News concert company gave entertainments at Longwell's opera house, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, and a matinee Wednesday afternoon. They give a good show, as would be expected of any troupe traveling under the name of the Kalamazoo News. Their method of advertising is gentle in the extreme, and we recommend the company to the liberal patronage of any towns they may visit.

A large concourse of people attended the funeral of the late Joseph Mather on Sunday last. The exercises were held at the residence in Antwerp and consisted of the impressive ceremonies of the order of Oddfellows, followed by a brief and touching address by Rev. H. W. Hays. Besides the members of his own lodge, a goodly number of Oddfellows were present from Gobleville and Decatur. The grand army comrades of the deceased were also present and participated in the exercises. The remains were interred at Prospect Hill beside the body of Mrs. Mather, who died some years ago.

Announcements. The Coterie will meet with Mrs. Lou Butler next Wednesday.

Regular communication of Paw Paw lodge No. 25, F. & A. M., on Tuesday evening next.

The monthly mother's meeting will be held Thursday, May 9th, at 2:30, in the First Baptist church. Topic, "Mother's influence."

The ladies of the Baptist church will give a ten cent supper at the church parlors next Wednesday evening. Supper from five to eight. All invited.

The subject of the sermon at the Free Baptist church Sunday morning will be "Biblical communion." Bring your bibles. There will be no evening service.

The churches of the village will unite in a temperance meeting, Sunday evening at the Disciple church. Rev. Jas. Rennie of the Presbyterian church will deliver the address.

The county spelling contest for this part of the county, to be participated in by the victors in the recent matches in the several townships will occur at the school house in this village, Saturday, May 11, at 1 o'clock p. m.

The Rebekahs will give a "poverty social" at Oddfellows' hall to-morrow (Saturday) evening. Supper—very plain—will be served at the usual hour. All members of the order are expected to appear in costume. A prize will be given to the one whose dress shows the greatest evidence of poverty.
