Harvest Festival, Oct. 3.

Don Haggart arrived home Tuesday from the west.

J. H. Haynes of Decatur was a caller at the NORTHERNER office, Tuesday.

All roads will lead to Paw Paw next week—Thursday—the Harvest Festival.

Mrs. J. I. Breck of Jackson is visiting her parents and friends in this place.

Regular convocation of Paw Paw Chapter No. 34, R. A. M., this (Friday) evening.

W. H. Bullard of Niles was here visiting, his brother J. F., the fore part of the week.

Wm. Kraiger of Westwood, Mich., was a caller at the NORTHERNER office, Wednesday.

Mrs. L. B. Coy is enjoying a visit with her sister, Mrs. Harwood, from Clinton, Ill.

Bert Bryar went to St. Joseph and Cass counties the fore part of the week, on business.

Elder Brooks will occupy the pulpit again next Sunday morning, at the Disciple church.

The Farmers' Union club will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Horning, Wednesday, Oct. 2.

Mr. George Van Duzen of Petoskey is visiting his son Henry and other relatives in this vicinity.

Henry Fye and family have removed to Kalamazoo, where he has a job working for the Lake Shore road.

Rev. E. W. Cumings of Barre, Vt., a brother of Jay Cumings, will preach at the Presbyterian church next Sunday.

Don't forget the Harvest Festival, Thursday, Oct. 3.

W. J. Sellick is home from his trip to England and Scotland.

Elam Warner had the misfortune to lose a fine Jersey cow.

Miss Grace Austin has gone to Hillsdale to take the music course at the college.

Geo. M. Harrison is in Decatur to-day to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Walter Russell.

Julian Sheldon and wife left Monday for Oklahoma, where they will spend five or six weeks with friends.

Bert P. Bryar went to Kalamazoo yesterday, to accept a position in the office of the National Harrow Co.

Miss Alice Lucas left Tuesday morning for Toledo, Ohio, summoned there by the serious illness of her mother.

Ed. Cumings of Buffalo, a former resident of this place, has been here visiting Paw Paw relatives and friends.

Mrs. Thomas Tuckey has been quite ill with blood poisoning, which started from a small pimple on one of her hands.

Regular communion services will be held at the Presbyterian church on Sunday, Oct. 6, at the usual hour of worship.

Glendale and Almena will combine to play ball with the Paw Paw team tomorrow (Saturday). Admission, gents 10 cents; ladies free.

William Bryar, who has been ill for the past few days, is again at his old stand in Rosenbaum & Speyers.—Kalamazoo Telegraph.

Miss Ella Gorton is making extensive repairs on her residence on Elm street. When completed, it will be occupied by Mesdames Wilson and Darling.

On Monday last, Sheriff Lamberson conveyed Elmer Labadie to the Ionia prison, which will be his address for the next two years and nine months.

Chas. Duncome of Keeler has been here this week on business in the circuit court. His son Bert and his daughter, Mrs. Lila Longwell, accompanied him.

Married, at the Baptist parsonage, Paw Paw, Mich., Sept. 31, 1895, by Rev. N. C. Brundage, Mr. Ambrose Fisher and Miss Gertrude Haney, both of Hartford.

Among the Decatur people attending court this week, we noticed Cashier A. H. Huyck, of the First State bank, M. V. Barron and S. O. Van Hise of the M. C. freight office.

General Wm. Shakespeare and Attorney Dorr O. French of Kalamazoo were here Saturday on business in the probate court. General Shakespeare was here again on Monday.

Attorneys W. G. Howard of Kalamazoo, L. A. Tabor of Lawton, Spafford, Tryon of Dowagiac, F. W. Smith and A. L. Moulton of Decatur were engaged in the circuit court, Tuesday.

Anson Carpenter and Walter Bass, the two Decatur "bootleggers," were given seventy-five days each in the county bastille. Fines are no longer legal tender for violations of the local option law.

On Wednesday evening, Mrs. Columbus Engle gave a dinner to a few of her lady friends in honor of Mrs. O. N. Hilton of Denver, Col., and Mrs. Chas. Beasley of Jacksonville, Ill. A very pleasant time is reported.

A mothers' meeting will be held in the parlors of the Baptist church next Thursday afternoon at half past two. Subject, "Our duty to the children." A cordial invitation is given to all ladies interested in children.

At Decatur the other day, on the house they are building for Mrs. Baker, Russell Mentor and Joel Monroe laid 11 1/2 thousand shingles in 13 hours and 30 minutes. They are looking for some one who can beat that record.

Rev. Mrs. Barton will preach from the Free Will Baptist pulpit next Sunday morning. In the evening, at the same church, memorial services will be held for Rev. James L. Phillips, Sunday school missionary in India.

Elmer Sirrine has entered the employ of the map company that is engaged in the publication of county atlases in this state. He is now delivering the goods in Allegan county and will probably begin in this county soon.

J. W. Russell, formerly pastor of the Christian church at this place, will be married on the 17th day of October at Grand Rapids, to Miss Hattie Hastings of that city. Elder J. H. Hammond of Decatur will be the officiating clergyman.

At 12 o'clock noon, Oct. 3, the day of the Harvest Festival, twelve small boxes will be thrown from the roof of Broughton's store. One of the boxes will contain an order which will entitle the holder to any pair of shoes he may select from Broughton's big stock.

The Sunday edition of the Chicago Times-Herald states that the engagement of Miss Helen Harrison, daughter of Mrs. Wm. H. Hogan, to Sheridan F. Master of Kalamazoo, Mich., has been announced. Mr. Master is secretary of the TRUE NORTHERNER Publishing Company.

No criticism is so severe as the presence of a good example. The one thing that competitors cannot forgive about the "H. S. & M." clothing is its perfection. It sets a mark so high that they cannot reach it. The prices are as low as for inferior goods. See them at E. Smith & Co's.

Next Sunday, Rev. Fr. Mulcahy will make his farewell address to the congregation at St. Mary's church. He will go to Benton Harbor. This change comes as a deserved promotion to Fr. Mulcahy, who has made a host of friends, both in his congregation and out of it, during his stay in Paw Paw. A farewell reception will be given him at the rectory this (Friday) evening. Rev. Fr. Wall of Dexter will be his successor here.

There is to be a fruit social at the home of Mrs. Addie Hunt on this (Friday) evening, given by the young people of the Presbyterian church; everything free. Mrs. Hunt, who has been away, is expected home for this occasion.

That there may be no mistakes, it is publicly announced that all who propose to compete for any of the purses offered in the Harvest Festival, Oct. 3, sports or other attractions, must hand in their names to the committee on or before Oct. 2. Any class not being filled on that day may be declared off by the committee.

Mr. Allen G. Dayton dropped dead while at work in his barn in Waverly, just at sunset Friday evening. He would have been 70 years old had he lived until next April. He was born in Ohio and came to Michigan when 35 years old. He had lived in Waverly 29 years. The funeral was held at the Glendale church Sunday afternoon. Burial in the Glendale cemetery.

Owing to ill health, Judge Buck was compelled to adjourn court from Friday until Tuesday. This necessitated the continuance for the term of all untried criminal cases, viz: Judson Bailey, Will Barnes and Asa W. Benson, violation of local option law, and Christina Popenick, exposing poison. As none of these respondents were in jail, they were willing to have their cases continued.

The two boys, Harris and Bearup, alias Shirley and Hesselman, were convicted, on Friday last, of participation in the Hartford house robbery. Owing to their youth, both being under the age of fifteen years, and their previous good record, the court was merciful to them and sentenced them to the industrial school at Lansing, where they will remain until they reach the age of seventeen years.

The Paw Paw Valley Spiritual association will hold a meeting at Longwell's opera house, Paw Paw, Sunday, Oct. 6. Dr. A. B. Spinnery of Reed City, formerly of Detroit, will give three lectures, at 10:30 a. m., 2:30 p. m., and 7:30 p. m. Subject, "Spiritualism, ancient and modern, as a science, a philosophy and a religion, what it has done for the world and what it will do." Music by the girl quartet. Good test mediums are expected to be present.

At the time of the arrest of the four parties for entering the residence of George Chamberlain last 4th of July, at Hartford, we observed that they had probably all given fictitious names. This observation was verified on their trial. Their fictitious and real names were as follows: Peter Johnson is Charles Thorne, Otto Ellsworth is Otto Brode, Gaylord Shirley is James Harris, Bert Hesselman is George Bearup. They were all from the vicinity of Elkhart, Ind.

Of course all business men will decorate their places of business for the Harvest Festival. In addition to this, the streets and town generally should be appropriately decorated with evergreens, etc. The NORTHERNER would suggest that the young men of the town and others who have not had to contribute to the finances of the occasion, take this upon themselves as their especial part in the great celebration. Everyone should do something to help the festival along.

Mrs. Abbie L. Rouse, wife of S. L. Rouse of Hobart, aged 43, died Sunday night, Sept. 15th, at 1 o'clock, in Muskegon, where she was taken about a week before for special treatment. She was well known to many people in this vicinity. The funeral ceremony of Mrs. Rouse took place in the parlors of the City Hospital, under the direction of the ladies of the W. C. T. U. A most impressive sermon was delivered by Rev. J. B. Banker of the First Baptist church.

Saturday evening, a meeting was held to organize a band association, which was done by the election of the following officers: Pres., Geo. M. Harrison; vice pres., T. C. Tynes; sec'y, T. J. Cavanaugh; treas., J. D. Holmes. These, with the addition of L. A. Packer, form the board of directors. The band will consist of 13 pieces, as follows: Emory Ball, leader and E flat cornet; L. A. Packer, H. E. Swan and Frank Avery, B-flat cornets; A. J. Sakun, clarinet; Wilbur Warner, baritone; Clare Martin, Roy Hinkley, alto; Jesse Thomas, Bert McLoud, tenors; Neil Chappell, tuba; Frank Bass, snare drum; John Beatty, bass drum. The boys are now soliciting funds for the purchase of instruments, and promise in return to see that no instruments are appropriated by members of the band and that they will play without charge for all public celebrations in Paw Paw.

Judge Buck was very brief in his sentence of Thorne and Brode, alias Johnson and Ellsworth. Evidently he did not think they were fit subjects for a moral lecture. He simply told them to stand up and asked if they had anything to say why sentence should not be passed upon them, to which each replied in the negative and asked the mercy of the court. Continuing, the judge said: "The court knows nothing of your previous history, except what was developed on your trial. Judging from that the extreme penalty that the court can impose is none too severe. The judgment of the court is that you each be taken hence to the state prison at Jackson, there to be confined at hard labor for a period of five years from and including this day. Mr. Sheriff, remand the prisoners." Neither of them betrayed the least sign of emotion when the sentence was pronounced, and Brode suggested to the court that the authorities had deprived him of $2.50 in money that should be returned to him. The court replied that he had nothing to do with that matter. The sheriff on Saturday landed the convicts safely in Jackson and, without doubt, drew a sigh of relief when he had them safely off his hands. They have been a thorn in the flesh during the entire period of their stay in jail.
