

The True Northerner.

Volume XLIX. Number 18.

PAW PAW, VAN BUREN COUNTY, MICHIGAN, FRIDAY, JUNE 19, 1903.

Whole Number 2517.

We are displaying this week

SOME SPECIAL THINGS IN

Ladies' White Muslin Aprons

That are positively the best values ever introduced into Paw Paw in the apron line.

We particularly call attention to those with the bretelles that come in three styles and priced at 25c, 29c and 35c.

Then we show the String Apron, with four rows of tucking and a four-inch wide embroidery insertion just above the hem. This apron is priced at 29c.

Another String Apron comes with one row of insertion four inches wide, in a variety of patterns; priced at 25c.

We have two styles of Kitchen Aprons made of gingham, made very full and long; one style has the bretelle and strings, while the other fastens closely to neck; price of each, 25c.

The entire line is properly made, so that it cannot fail to please.

WISE MAMMAS will buy the KNIT WAISTS for boys and girls; sizes, 2 to 12 years. One special feature that excels other makes is the eyeleted tapes that hold the hose supporters; no tearing or pulling the fabric. Price, 15c and 25c.

Jottings.

Advertised letters: Mrs. L. T. Alexander.

A case of scarlet fever is reported at Henry Mull's.

A number of cases of measles are scattered through the town.

Carleton Russell is running a meat wagon in the south-west part of the township.

Several out-of-town young people attended the dance at the opera house last night.

Ground was broken yesterday for the new Presbyterian parsonage. C. C. Young has the contract.

M. S. Cook has the plans for a fine new residence on his farm south of town. He will use the old one for a tenant house.

The First National bank has let the contract for their new building to Rickman. The building is to be completed October 1.

A letter addressed to "603 South Jefferson St., Kan." is held up at the post-office. Postmaster Warner must be getting cranky.

George E. Hopkins of Paw Paw and Miss Margaret A. Davis of Bristol, Tennessee, were married at Jackson by Rev. Robert W. Van Kirk.

A reception was given by Mrs. H. P. Nelson, Mrs. H. Dopp and Miss Florence Butler at the home of Mrs. Nelson, Tuesday afternoon. Refreshments were served.

Samuel Consolus, who lives west of town, suffered a slight stroke of paralysis Tuesday. He is confined to the bed, but is getting along as well as can be expected.

A number of our young people started for Chicago last Sunday morning, but on finding the train had not waited for them they decided to pass a quiet day at home instead.

Thomas Kelley of Decatur is confined in the county jail. His mind is affected and he attempted to commit suicide at his home the forepart of the week. He will be taken to the asylum at Kalamazoo.

Frank Potts, formerly a prominent business man of Decatur, died suddenly Monday at his home in Benton Harbor. His funeral was held at Decatur yesterday, under direction of the Knights of Pythias.

Miss Mabel Andrews, a member of the class of '98 of the Paw Paw high school, received her A. B. degree at the University of Michigan yesterday. She has accepted the position of preceptress of the Harbor Spring high school.

The busy season has begun at Lake Park. The buildings and boats have been repaired and the grounds made attractive. The landlord, Mr. Butterfield, will prove himself the friend of all the usual summer guests and will furnish extra good Sunday dinners.

Jennie Bishop is to be married Monday to Thomas Tracy of Grand Rapids, and will leave with him immediately for that place, where they will make their future home. Her father, with whom she has been living in the north part of town, will make his home with S. E. Allen.

The old court house was sold Wednesday to John Sherman for $261. He will move it onto his lots on west Main street for use as a storeroom. Only one other bid was received, that of E. A. Crane of Kalamazoo, the details of whose bid are set forth in a communication from him in another column.

The articles of association of the Malto-Grapo company of Paw Paw and of the Lawton Vineyards company of Lawton have been recorded in the office of the register of deeds. The character of business of each of these companies is declared to be "the manufacture and sale of fermented fruit juices and kindred products," and all business incidental thereto.

Broadhead Post, G. A. R. will hold a campfire at their hall, preceded by a picnic supper, next Thursday evening, for themselves, their families and invited guests. Visiting Co. "C" soldiers, who will be holding a reunion in this village on that date, together with their friends, will be the guests of honor. Members of the post are requested to specially interest themselves in this matter.

COMMENCEMENT.

Unusually Interesting Week in Paw Paw Schools.

Fine Class Graduated—Good Programs in All Departments—Will Be Big Attendance at Alumni Banquet this Evening.

Commencement week in the Paw Paw Paw schools for the year 1903 is one of the most interesting and successful closings of a school year in the history of our excellent educational institution. All the exercises have been of a high character and well attended, and the alumni banquet this evening will be one of the largest in the history of the association, nearly 150 pickets having sold, showing that the old graduates have lost none of their interest in their alma mater.

On account of low water, it is impossible to give electric light service later than 11 o'clock, so the alumni reception this evening will be from 7 to 8 o'clock, and the company will go to the opera house for the banquet promptly at 8. Following is the program at the hall.

Business. BANQUET. Toastmaster, Marion O. Rowland, '86. Instrumental Solo. Selected FLOY SNOW MORE, '97. Welcome. "The Lucky Thirteen," RESA RAE VAN FOSSEN, '94. Response. CLARENCE HUTCHINS, '03. The Belle. GLENN E. WARNER, '01. Vocal Solo, "When All the Rest Forsake You," Greely GRACE HAYDEN, '01. True Culture. ANNA BROWNE SCOTT, '73. The highest culture is to speak no ill; the best reformer is the man whose eyes are quick to see all beauty and all worth, and by his own discreet, well-ordered life, alone reproves the erring. —Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

Reading. JANE BROUGHTON, '97. Selection, "Now the Evening Bells Are Sounding," (by request) (From Kretzer's Opera, "A Night in Grenada.") GABRIELLE FLOY SNOW MORE, '97. Prince. MR. BRUCE A. CUMINGS. Brigands. HAROLD D. SPICER, '98. RALPH E. JENNINGS, '89. MR. JOHN HAWORTH. Quartette. GRACE HAYDEN, '01. MATIE COOLEY, '94. MR. HERBERT MORE. MR. CLAUDE SNOW. The Bright Side of a Dark Subject. BEATRICE M. GRAINE, '97. Delusions. LOWELL A. PACKER, '96. "Toss 'em thus, from childhood's hour, I've seen my fondest hopes decay." Trio. "Friends, Good Night," Flotow. MRS. FLOY MORE. MISS GRACE HAYDEN. MISS MATIE COOLEY.

The grades assemble at the high school room this morning to receive their certificates of advancement.

Class Day. The first exercises of the week were those of class day, at the high school Wednesday afternoon, and the room was filled with an interested audience.

Miss Myrtle Ball gave the salutatory, and did herself and class great credit, both by her thoughtful production and the fine style of delivery. The class motto, "Bound to Succeed," voices the spirit that ran through the salutatory, the idea that pluck, not luck, is the secret of success.

A fine violin solo was given by Miss Aileen Buskirk, who has made excellent use of her opportunities during her violin study at Detroit, and is now one of our best musicians.

The class history was given by Miss Sadie L. Busley, and was well written and well delivered, under the title, "The Illustrious Thirteen."

The class oration was given by Earl C. Pugsley, on "John Sobieski," the Polish patriot-king. The subject was one well calculated to awake the young man's enthusiasm, and he gave a fine, spirited oration.

Miss Grace Hayden sang a solo, after which Miss Halo H. North read the class poem, showing much talent in this direction.

The class prophecy by Miss Blanche Parker was unique, the fair prophetess reading the future of herself and classmates from the petals of a beautiful red rose—the class flower. The prophecy had the usual humorous hits and foretold the brightest of futures, which we hope may be realized in large measure.

A. W. Sawyer gave a well-rendered cornet solo, after which Miss Eva B. Campbell gave the valedictory, perseverance being its keynote. She turned a neat epigram by saying that the correct way to spell "success" is "w-o-r-k."

This production was the full equal of the other parts of the program, which was of such excellence as to cause regret that time would not permit the other members of the class to have a part of it.

Following is the roll of the class of 1903: Mae E. Fitzgerald, Clarence L. Hutchins, Bessie M. Baker, Abigail E. Allen, C. Fay Pugsley, Eva B. Campbell, Sadie L. Busley, Halo H. North, E. Blanche Parker, Jennie R. Hall, T. Albert Smith, Earl C. Pugsley, Myrtle Ball.

Grammar School Exercises. The grammar school exercises opened at the opera house Wednesday evening
