OBITUARY

"GRANDMA" KIMBALL.

Susan Bailey was born in Cambridge, England. She was married at the age of 19 and came to America in 1856, and Paw Paw has been her home all these years. She was one of that rugged vigorous English stock, that gave her a strong constitution, and kept her in splendid health all these years. She has been in failing health only during the past year, but her recuperative powers were wonderful and she was walking about the house, only a few days prior to her death which occurred on Wednesday night of last week.

She had been married three times, and three children are left to mourn the death of a kind and loving mother. The children are Henry Holt; Mrs. E. B. Welch, and Fred Kimball, all of whom were at her bedside during the last hours. She has made her home for some time with the daughter, Mrs. Welch, and never was a daughter more devoted, and never was a mother more tenderly cared for than was Mrs. Kimball. She loved her children and they in turn worshipped her, and in fact she was loved by all whose good fortune it was to know her. As a mark of affection and esteem, she was familiarly called "Grand ma" by nearly everybody. The funeral services were held from the Welch home on Saturday, Rev. H. W. Harvey officiating. Interment was in Prospect cemetery.

Card of Thanks.

We appreciate sincerely the many acts of love and kindness shown by our sterling friends in our great loss. Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Welch, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Holt, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Kimball.

MRS. NELLIE B. PROCTOR.

Nellie B. Schloyler was born January 9, 1886, in Rollersville, Sandusky county, Ohio. She came with her parents to Michigan in 1897. She was married September 25, 1902. One year ago this month she lost a little eight-year-old daughter, since which time her health has failed rapidly. On the 2nd day of last February she went from Lawton to her sister, Mrs. Mary Rollins of Kalama-zoo, and remarked to her that she had "come home to die." On the 15th of this month she was taken to Borgess hospital in that city. She died Saturday morning, March 23, 1912, at 7 o'clock, of tuberculosis.

Deceased leaves a husband and two small sons, a sister and brother in Kalama-zoo, a father and mother and a sister in Almema township, this county, and a brother in Tago, Minn., besides a host of friends wherever she was known.

Funeral services were held in the M. E. church at Lawton, March 25, conducted by Rev. F. M. Cosner. Burial in East Porter cemetery beside her little daughter.

ELEANOR PRICE MYERS.

Eleanor Ruth Price was born in the state of New York 73 years ago and departed this life March 20, 1912 at Erie, Pa.

She was the daughter of Marquis De Lafayette and Catherine Maria Price.

In 1859 she was united in marriage to James McDonald to whom was born one son, both of whom preceded her to the home beyond. In 1867 she was married to Amos Hall, who answered the heavenly summons in 1887.

In 1893 she was joined in holy wedlock to Andrew J. Myers who is left to mourn her loss. Besides her bereaved husband she leaves one brother, A. A. Price of Lawton, Mich., two sisters, Mrs. Rachel Baldwin, Lawton, Mich., and Mrs. Laura Withnell of Arcade, N. Y., besides several nephews and nieces.

She was a devoted member of the First Christian church. Her joy was in doing for others and her host of friends will never cease to remember her. She was a member of Laura Rebeckah lodge No. 101 I. O. O. F.; the W. C. T. U. and the P. H. C., where she will be greatly missed as she was an ardent and faithful worker.

MRS. REBECCA HOGUE.

A telephone message Thursday morning stated that Mrs. Rebecca Hogue, mother of Mrs. B. E. Warner, died at her home in Dutton, Michigan, on Wednesday. She was 77 years of age and had been ill but two weeks. Mrs. Warner was called there and was with her mother during her last hours. She leaves three daughters, and two sons. The funeral will be held from the home in Dutton on Saturday. Burial in Middleville. Mr. Warner will join his wife today.

MRS. NEWELL CRISSEY.

Mrs. Newell Crissey one of the old residents of Lawrence passed away last week, and was laid to rest on Monday. She was well known here, and will be missed by a large circle of friends and neighbors.

MRS. HELEN COOPER.

Word comes that Mrs. Lynna Cooper, formerly of this place, died in Lawrence last week and was buried there on Saturday. The True Northerner has been unable to get particulars of her sickness.

MRS. JOHN DILLON.

The remains of Mrs. John Dillon passed through Paw Paw Thursday and were taken to the Waverly cemetery for burial.

AUCTION SALE.
