And decide for yourself.

Hers is one case of it:
Mrs. H. S. Harris, LaGrave and Pine streets, Paw Paw, says: "In 1901 I gave a statement for publication in which I stated that Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Longwell Bros.' Drug Store, had brought me great relief from pain in the back and a lameness across my loins which had caused me considerable suffering. Several years have since passed and I am just as willing to testify in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills as I was before. I never fail to recommend this remedy when I have the opportunity, knowing it to be one of merit."
