LOOK FOR THE WAYMARK

Dana P. Smith has invented a speedometer for automobiles called the "Guide" which will soon be placed on the market. Anyone wishing to make a long or short trip can step in at any garage and for few cents can purchase the entire trip, which is all mapped out, the danger signals are in red and the distance given between all towns. It will be electric lighted and anyone wishing to travel at night can do so. The machine will soon be on sale at the garages in different towns. The machine will be patented.

BARTON-MILLER

A very pretty and informal wedding took place Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Emma R. Smith, when her niece, Carmelea Barton, was united in marriage to Leon R. Miller of Kalamazoo. The ceremony took place on the lawn, Rev. H. W. Harvey officiating with the ring service. A bit of sentiment attended the marriage, as Rev. Harvey performed the same office for the bride's parents 27 years ago.

The bride was daintily attired in pearl trimmed white chiffon worn over Chantilly lace and carried a bouquet of wild for-get-me-nots and lilies of the valley. Miss Ruth White of Dowagiac should be the next bride of the company, as she caught the bouquet. Mr. and Mrs. Miller will be at home to their friends after the first of August at Comstock, Mich.

The out of town guests were: Mrs. Miller, sr., of Comstock; Arthur Miller of Watervliet; Will Barton, Carl and Frank Barton, Mrs. Rena Walker, Miss Ruth White of Dowagiac; Mrs. Irene Hendrick Guilford of Lakewood, Ohio; Miss Cora Muelder, Miss Kadske Kelder, Miss Frances Maloney, the Misses Marie, Frances and Lucile and Master Frank York of Grand Rapids; Mrs. L. Ellis and Master Marion Ellis of Kalamazoo.

Strong Resemblance.

An elderly gentleman went into a photographic studio and asked to see the proofs of a picture recently taken of a young man whose name he gave. They were handed to him as a matter of course, and he examined them critically. He seemed pleased and finally said:

"These are of my son. This one is a remarkably good photo of him; it is very like him indeed. Has he paid you for it yet?"

"No, sir," said the photographer, "not yet."

"Ah," said the elderly gentleman, "very, very much like him indeed."—Exchange.

Uncertain.

"Better stop the car," said the owner. "There are three women crossing the street."

"I think I can dodge through," suggested the chauffeur.

"Not with wings. One of them will dodge forward, another back and the third probably will go up in the air."—Pittsburgh Post.

GOOD RACES AT HARTFORD

The racing matinee at the Fair Grounds in Hartford last Saturday afternoon, is said by those in attendance to be the very best event of its kind ever held in Van Buren county. The affair was well managed. The track was ideal, the crowd large and enthusiastic, and a splendid field of classy horses entered for the various events of the day all combined to make Hartford's first racing matinee a glorious success, and the directors and various committees are to be congratulated.

Following is a summary of the events: Class A. Trot or Pace. Best 2 in 3 heats. Six starters. Race won by Dorothy Boyd, driven by A. H. Warrilow. Time 1:09 1/2.

Class B. Pace. Best 3 in 5. Five horses started. Race won by Billy Boreal, driven by Lu DeLong. Time 1:08.

Class C. Trot. Best 3 in 5. Four starters. Won by Nellie C, driven by Frank Billington, in straight heats. Time 1:07.

Free for All Pace. Best 3 in 5. Field of three, won in straight heats by Laura Lucille, driven by Henry Clement. Time 1:03 1/2. In this race the winner Laura Lucille, stepped an eighth in 15 seconds flat. It isn't often that spectators are given the rare treat of witnessing a two minute clip at a racing matinee.

Green Race. Best 2 in 3. Four starters, won by Teddy Jr. in straight heats. Driver "Kieser" Time 1:24.

Dr. W. J. Johnson and Charles Hicks of Paw Paw, officiated in the Judges stand.

MORE THAN HE COULD STAND

Colored Man Explains Why the Game of Seven-Up Had Such Disastrous Consequences.

From a genial game of seven-up with Buck, Luke had been hale to answer to a charge of assault and battery. Exhibit 1, being Buck's nose, seemed evidence enough to prove that mayhem had taken place after the last hand. But when the verdict was pronounced, the prisoner's aggrieved air seemed to indicate an opinion that his lawyer had not done all that could have been done in his interest. This impression was confirmed when the judge asked him if he had aught to say in his own defense, and Luke stood up.

"Yas, suh, I've got a passel to say. Mister Jedge, I ast yu, is yu ever played seb'n-up?"

"That hasn't anything to do with the case, Luke," the judge interposed.

"W'y, Mister Jedge, 'scusin' me, den yu ain't understan' dis yer case. See hyer, Mister Jedge, dat Buck was fo' an' I was six, an' he begged me—yu say yu ain't played seb'n-up?"

"Well," interrupted the judge impatiently, "go on!"

"Yas, suh! Dat las' han' I's tellin' yu about—spades was trump an' I done had de jack, an' de tree-spot, an' de ten—looky hyer, Mister Jedge, is yu sure yu ain't played seb'n-up?"

"Take the prisoner away," the judge commanded.

"Jes a minute, Mister Jedge, please, suh. Yu see, suh, dat nigger Buck, he begs an' I give um one, an' dat put um five. Buck done preten' he had a po' han'—dat what he done, dat beggin' trash! He t'row down his ace, an' I puts my ten on—Jedge, ef yu had jes played dis seb'n-up!"

"Yas, suh, I'm goin' on. Buck t'row down his king, suh, an' I put on de t'ree-spot, and den dat nigger, spite er his beggin' me, t'row down er queen, an' catch my jack, yas, suh. An' den I done blip um on de nose—an' Mister Jedge, effen yu jes knowed how to play dat seb'n-up yu'd know dat was de onliest way to play dat han' on dat nigger's nose—yas, suh!"
