

Patriotic Songs for To-night's Big Meeting:

THE BATTLE HYMN OF THE REPUBLIC.

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord;
He is tramping out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored;
He hath loosed the fateful lightning of his terrible, swift sword:
His truth is marching on.

I have seen him in the watch-fires of a hundred circling camps;
They have builded Him an altar in the evening dews and damps;
I can read his righteous sentence by the dim and flaring lamps:
His day is marching on.

He has sounded forth the trumpet that shall never call retreat;
He is sifting out the hearts of men before His judgment seat;
O be swift, my soul, to answer Him! be jubilant, my feet!
Our God is marching on.

In the beauty of the lilies Christ was born across the sea;
With a glory in His bosom that transfigures you and me;
As he died to make men holy, let us die to make men free,
White God is marching on.

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER.

O say can you see by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming;
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare, the bomb bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there,
O say, does the star spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

AMERICA, OUR COUNTRY.

My country! 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing:
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the Pilgrims' pride;
From ev'ry mountain side
Let freedom ring.

My native country! thee,
Land of the noble free,
Thy name I love:
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills,
Like that above.

Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song:
Let mortal tongues awake,
Let all that breathe partake,
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.

Our father's God! to Thee,
Author of liberty,
To Thee we sing,
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King.

A Guarantee

YOU want just one thing in the clothes you buy; if you get that, it's enough. You want to be satisfied with them.

A "guarantee" doesn't mean much unless it means that; and when Hart Schaffner & Marx "guarantee" clothes, that's what it means.

These makers use none but all-wool fabrics; the best of other materials; skilled craftsmanship; they design styles to express the good, new fashion-ideas; they make models to fit all sizes and shapes of men.

Hart Schaffner & Marx authorize us to guarantee their clothes and make good on it; it covers everything about clothes that may satisfy or dissatisfy; fabrics, fit, colors, tailoring, value for the price. There are no reservations or exceptions.

Look for the label.

The Hart Schaffner & Marx label in the clothes is the signature to this guarantee; we'll show it to you before you buy. It's a small thing to look for, a big thing to find.

President Wilson

is urging us all, through press, pulpit and by word of mouth, to economize during the duration of the war.

This is excellent advice at this time if properly carried out. Each person will view this from a little different angle.

We will find some who in their eagerness to "do something for their Country" will commence practicing "Extravagant Economy." They will economize on something that will seem to be saving, but in reality will be the means of a much greater expense later.

For instance, one family may go without meat or potatoes. They will save something at the Grocery store but at the expense of their physical body. Another family will economize on the childrens' shoes. They will save a few dollars on the shoes perhaps but at a doctors bill that may be greatly in excess of the price of the foot wear. Some farmers may economize by continuing to use some old worn out implement. He has for the time being apparently saved something but as this is the year of all years to work your soil for all that is in it, we would call this a case of "Extravagant Economy."

Economize in your luxuries and you will be doing your country a good deed. Economizing too much in the necessities may be detrimental to health and to your ability to help produce your share towards feeding the nations now at war.

In your economizing bear in mind that a nickel placed close enough to the eye will hide a dollar bill.
