LYDIA CARR HUTCHINS

Lydia Carr was born in Oswego County, New York, August 10th, 1842. She came to Michigan with her parents when she was eleven years old. They settled in Waverly township where she received her education and where she grew to womanhood. In 1856 she was married to Delos Warner of Waverly. To this union were born five children Kate, Willard, Cora, Oliver and Eddy. Cora, at the age of nine years and Eddy at the age of three, both passed away on the same day, victims of scarlet fever. Kate and Oliver both died while yet children. Willard alone of her children survives his mother. The deceased was left to mourn the loss of her husband Delos Warner in 1879. In 1881 she was married to George Glidden and after one short year was again a widow. In 1886 she was married to George Hutchins with whom she spent over twenty-five years of blissful married life. They celebrated their silver anniversary on February 28, 1911 and Mr. Hutchins passed out of this life the following May. Soon after Mr. Hutchins' death she left the farm and moved to Paw Paw where she has since lived and where she has formed many sacred friendships. So strong was her mother love that it could not be limited to her own immediate family but found expression in the care of many others. She was god-mother to one granddaughter until the Wise Father claimed her for his own, she reared to womanhood another, Molly Warner Thyne, and she gave a mother's care and love for some time to a nephew, Arthur Warner. It is no wonder that so great a host of children and friends called her "Aunt Lydia." She was a member of the Baptist church and in the days of her health a most active worker. She was a christian of great devotion and of earnest faith. Mrs. Hutchins answered the summons of her Maker on March 23rd, 1918 at the age of seventy-five years, seven months and thirteen days. Her death is mourned by her son and his wife who have cared for her during her late illness, her grand daughters, Mrs. Molly Thyne and Mrs. Mattie German, one brother William Carr and a large number of loving relatives and friends by whom she will long be held in sacred memory. Funeral services were held from the Baptist church last Tuesday afternoon, her pastor, Rev. C. H. Heaton officiating, and burial was made in Prospect cemetery by the side of her late husband, George Hutchins.

BAPTIST CHURCH

The pastor wishes to announce the following sermon topics for April. Sunday mornings at 11:00 o'clock. General theme: "The Bible in Modern Life." April 7th. "The Bible on War." April 14th. "The Bible on Business." April 21st. "The Bible on Love and Marriage." April 28th. "The Bible on Amusements."

THE WEARY WAY.

Daily becoming less wearisome to many in Paw Paw. With a back that aches all day, with rest disturbed at night, annoying urinary disorders, tis a weary way indeed. Doan's Kidney Pills are especially for kidney trouble. Are endorsed by Paw Paw citizens. Mrs. L. C. Ballard, Berrien St., Paw Paw says: "My kidneys were always weak and I had severe pains and soreness across the small of my back. I felt weak and run down and I had dizzy headaches. My kidneys acted irregularly and my ankles became swollen. Five boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from the Paw Paw Drug Co., cured me of all the backaches. I didn't have the dizzy spells or the severe headaches I had been subject to and my kidneys were in good order."

Protection of Democracy Must Come From Those It Protects

By THEODORE N. VAIL
President of the American Telegraph and Telephone Company

Two thousand years ago a new era, a new religion, dawned upon the world.

Whatever of civilization, of freedom or of liberty we have and enjoy comes from the subordination by man of human passion and selfishness because of the teachings, the incarnation or reincarnation of the ideals and principles of that religion.

Peace and good will on earth to men. Peace on earth to men of good will is the basis of liberty of mankind.

Our democracy is based on liberty, the liberty of all to live and enjoy life, the fullest liberty to each individual consistent with the same right to all other individuals. More is impossible.

Under this civilization has come greater peace throughout the world. Wider intercommunication and more neighborly feeling toward our fellow men have been developed.

Man's self-dependence, or independence of others, has passed, but in its place have come greater possibilities of life. Dependence of man upon man implies service of man to man.

To maintain democracy, civilization and service, convention, regulation and law, an organized government is necessary.

The difference between the organization of the government by democracy and that by autocracy is that democracy is government by the will of the governed, and not the government of a few acting by usurped power or that of an insurgent minority.

Government by democracy must be enforced as vigorously, impartially, unflinchingly as that by any other government.

They who differ may express their difference, may do all possible to convert others, so long as it is not done in open defiance or in active rebellion, and so long as their actions are subordinated to the will and authority of the majority.

If and when a majority of all cannot be trusted to express the will of a people, cannot be trusted to act wisely, and all are not willing to abide by it, any government except government by force will fail.

Our democracy is now threatened from without and the democracy of the whole world is at stake.

The protection of our democracy must come from those it protects. Every individual to its protection owes all life, liberty, substance. To the protection of that democracy he must if necessary devote all.

Let us dedicate to our country, in whatever way, whenever and wherever we may be called, our unhesitating, unflinching service, implicit in its obedience and subordination to duty and authority.

Build Up the Virtues in Children and the Faults Will Disappear

By MRS. ELVIRA HYATT

It pays to have high ideals for our children and to respect their individuality. Much can be accomplished by expecting children to be good, and by showing them that we trust them.

We should never call a child "bad," never wound his self-respect. This does not mean that his naughty actions should be "glossed over," but as one wise educator has expressed it, we should realize that every fault is simply the absence of some virtue, and we should try to build up that quality in which the child is deficient, rather than condemn him for that which he has not.

Build up the virtues and the faults will disappear. If a child is selfish we should dwell on unselfishness; if the child is untidy, on neatness; if slow, on quickness; and we should always remember to praise even the slightest sign of the virtue we are working to cultivate. A child will try to live up to the thing for which he is praised. "How quiet and helpful my little Peggy is today" will do more good than a dozen scoldings about noise and mischief.

Stories can be told to arouse and stimulate high ideals. Stories have a wonderful educational value and almost any lesson can be taught in story form. Tell stories about birds, trees, flowers, animals, great and good men, simple stories of home and family life, stories from history and from the Bible. The eager little minds are ready for anything you wish to give them, and if you are a natural story-teller great indeed is your opportunity. Ideals of right conduct, love of family and sympathy with every living thing can all be given through the right use of stories.

Much has been said and written about parental influence, but volumes more are needed on post-natal influences. One of the first things a baby learns is to "smile back" at his mother, and in all his earliest years the child reflects the attitudes of those around him. He imitates the things which he sees and hears, in order to understand them, and "as the twig is bent the tree's inclined."

To Do Everything Possible to Help Win the War Is Object of Railroads

By R. H. AISHTON, President Chicago & North Western Railroad

To do everything possible to help win the war has been the object of the railroads since the war began and will be their object until the war is won. Everything else must be subordinated to that object. That is why the railroads of this country have eliminated all individual interests and competitive rivalries and have been operated as parts of a single system under the railroads' war board.

With no increase in their facilities, the railroads have transported an enormous volume of government business, including troop movements, in addition to the heaviest commercial freight and passenger traffic ever known. With the continued patriotic co-operation of the public, the railroads will keep on doing what is most necessary to win the war.

They have not broken down and will not break down under the enormous burden imposed on them by war conditions.

They look to the future with confidence and hope in view of the assurances contained in the president's proclamation assuming on behalf of the federal government their control and direction, and will continue to render the best service of which they are capable under the new order of things.

Astigmatism is not a Disease

Because astigmatism often causes discomfort, and aching in the eyes, some folks think it is a disease. This is a mistake.

Astigmatism is an uneven surface of the cornea, the front part of the eye. This causes part of the light rays to focus on the retina, while others do not. It is a mechanical trouble which medicine cannot help, but which properly fitted glasses end.

L. LEVY, ophthalmologist is expert in fitting glasses to correct astigmatism.

Rheumatism Yields

Only rheumatic sufferers know the agony of its darting pains, aching joints or twisting cords. But some few have not known that has been correcting this trouble when other treatments have utterly failed.

Scott's is essentially blood-food in such rich, concentrated form that its oil gets into the blood to alleviate this stubborn malady.

Get a bottle of Scott's Emulsion or advise an ailing friend. No alcohol.

The Norwegian cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion is now refined in our own American laboratories which makes it pure and palatable. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J., 17-22

THE GREAT WAR HAS MADE CIGARETTE A NECESSITY

"Our boys must have their smokes. Send them cigarettes!" This is a familiar appeal now to all of us.

Among those most in demand is the new famous "toasted" cigarette—LUCKY STRIKE. Thousands of this favorite brand have been shipped to France. There is something homelike and friendly to the boys in the sight of the familiar green packages with the red circle.

This homelike, appetizing quality of the LUCKY STRIKE cigarette is largely due to the fact that the Burley tobacco used in making it has been toasted. "It's toasted" was the "slogan" that made a great success of LUCKY STRIKE in less than a year. Now the American Tobacco Co. is making 15 million LUCKY STRIKE Cigarettes a day.

A good part of this immense production is making its way across the water to cheer our boys
