GOBLEVILLE

We forgot to mention last week that Mr. and Mrs. Whitney entertained their son and family of Chicago and daughter Holo Rinn of Kalamazoo from Decoration day until the following Sunday night.

In speaking of the Decoration day exercises we forgot to mention a recitation given by Bonabelle Styles. She recited a poem about the experiences of her grandfather during the Civil war, which was written by her grandmother. Mrs. M. J. Buckner at the conclusion of the recitation, pointed to him and said "there he is now," it was fine.

A farewell reception was given Mr. and Mrs. Wood last Monday evening at the F. B. church where they will be greatly missed. We are sorry to lose them, but glad they will be no further away than Bangor, and their many friends wish them success in their new work.

The M. E. Sunday School is preparing a fine Children's Day program for Sunday, June 16. The Baptist church held their program last Sunday and it was fine.

The Woman's Fortnightly club held a very pleasant outing at Hall's Spring in honor of Mrs. Wood, their first president and Mrs. Bradshaw. These ladies have been earnest workers in this organization and will be greatly missed by their associates.

The new Mill looks fine, the brick work is completed up to the first story.

Hadson & Sons have purchased the entire stock of C. H. Ruel of Pine Grove. Mr. Ruel is in poor health and will come here to live with their son Clyde soon.

Leo Sage was home last week.

Floy Trim is home from Bad Axe where she was employed as a milliner.

Mrs. Burch of Pittsburgh is visiting Mrs. F. S. Powers.

Charles Showerman will leave soon for Dakota. The W. R. C. and G. A. R. members were invited to spend last Thursday with them. Thirty-nine people sat down to a chicken dinner which was finished with short cake and all passed a very enjoyable day, saddened only by the going away of Mr. and Mrs. Showerman. All hope they will return to Michigan so that many more happy birthdays may be enjoyed with them.

Mrs. Dell Adams with the assistance of neighbors celebrated her birthday last Saturday.

Wm. Beardsley of Findley, Ohio is visiting at the home of his brother H. C. Beardsley.

BLOOMINGDALE

Mrs. Dora Tice of Western Michigan is visiting her aunt Mrs. Harrison. Mrs. Tice was formerly a resident of Bloomingdale.

The graduating exercises of school were held at the skating rink on Thursday evening, with thirteen in the graduating class. The hall was nicely decorated with tree bough and evergreens and a large crowd was present. The exercises were fine. The address was given by Hon. J. L. Hooper of Battle Creek.

C. L. Brown, an old teacher of the school here in the 70's was in town a few days ago.

J. Bewley who has been seriously ill, is again able to be out.

HAPPY WOMEN.

Plenty of them in Paw Paw and Good Reason for it. Wouldn't any woman be happy. After years of backache suffering, days of misery, nights of unrest, the distress of urinary troubles, when she finds freedom. Many readers will profit by the following.

Mrs. J. Cleveland, Brown St., Paw Paw says: "I always have Doan's Kidney Pills on hand. When the kidneys get disordered I have dull, nagging backaches and rheumatic pains in my limbs. Doan's Kidney Pills always give me relief by removing the rheumatic twinges and other kidney complaint."

Price 60 cents at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Cleveland had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.
