FOUND.—Four false teeth, in gold plate, which the owner can get by calling at this office and paying for this notice.

FISHING TACKLE.—Spring opens beautifully, and the fish will soon begin to bite. Call on JIMMIE OSBORN and supply yourself with tackle. He has a splendid stock, just received.

ERRATA.—In speaking last week of Dr. Church's proposed changes in the Methodist Church, we stated that he wanted to adopt the pew system and do away with free sittings. This is a mistake. The pews are to be free under his new programme.

OUR STREETS.—We rejoice to see our corporate authorities displaying the proper energy in repairing our streets. We notice that a number of white laborers are now engaged in opening and repairing culverts near the Methodist Church. The work is to extend to all parts of town.

FLOWERS.—Spring, bright, beautiful Spring, with her sunshine and her flowers, is approaching. Her coming has been heralded to this office by a beautiful bouquet—the first and the prettiest of the season. Some fair damsel had it put into our sanctum, as she would steal the heart of a "feller," "on the sly." We thank you, fair one; send us a curl and a kiss next time.

Wall Paper.—When neatness is cheapness, how foolish it is not to be neat. Wall paper is one of the cheapest things in the world, and yet there is nothing more essential to the neat appearance of your house. OSBORN & Co. have just received a large lot of it, and they bought it to sell. Better go to see them before it has been picked over.

No MAIL.—There was no mail at this place from Nashville last Wednesday. Reason—there was no Route Agent aboard the train. Overslept himself that morning, probably. All right, though of course. He ought to have his ease and pleasure, though the whole route from Nashville south go without mail.

Sewing MACHINES are the most ornamental as well as useful things about a house. In fact, they are indispensable in "well regulated families." First, there should be one of the female persuasion, with curls, ruby lips, sparkling eyes, etc., and then one of the Florence or Howe pattern. Either of the latter may be obtained of FRANK BROWN, and FRANK BROWN "order" obtain one of the former. Maybe somebody would swap.

Anyhow, read the advertisement headed "Sewing Machines."

An Affray on Shoal Creek.—On Sunday evening last, on Shoal creek, near Mt. Rozell, a man by the name of Davis was attacked by a party of four men, among whom were two Whites and a Mr. Weldon. Davis being alone and unarmed, made an effort to get out of the way, but was pursued by the party, all being on horseback, and was finally overtaken by one of the Whites, who presented a pistol and attempted to shoot him, whereupon he turned, wrested White's pistol from his hands, and fired at him, killing White's horse. By this time White's party came up, and Davis escaped into the woods, carrying with him White's pistol.

On Monday morning Davis procured a State's warrant, and with an officer and a posse of men started in search of the Whites and their party. Meantime the White party was searching for Davis. Finally the two parties met, and the Whites were ordered to surrender. They refused. The order was repeated by the officer, who told them that he had a warrant for their arrest. Finding themselves encompassed by posse comitatus, equipped with arms and authority, they fled; whereupon an attempt was made to arrest their flight with bullets. Two of them were wounded—White, slightly, in the arm, and Weldon severely, in the body—but all made their escape.

Davis had been a rebel soldier, and the Whites—had not.

Bethany High School.

It affords us great satisfaction to learn that this deservedly popular institution is now in a most flourishing condition. Situated in one of the most lovely regions of country, in our dear old State of Tennessee, and in our fertile and hospitable old county of Giles, under a corps of teachers thoroughly educated, both in head and heart; surrounded immediately by a score or more of the best families of the South, and possessing within itself every facility enjoyed by any other school in the country, it is certainly a most desirable institution to patronize.

It is designed for the education of both sexes, and the buildings as well as the regulations of the school were originally devised and constructed with this specially in view. The two never meet except in the recitation room.

The boarding house for young ladies is under the special supervision of one of the teachers, Rev. I. N. CALDWELL, at the very moderate price of $4 per week, while the tuition remains the same as before the war. Young men board in the immediate neighborhood in the best of families.

The principal of this school, Rev. W. E. CALDWELL, deserves great credit for the commendable zeal he has displayed in behalf of education, and the indomitable energy he has exercised in placing the High school upon such respectable and, we hope, successful footing. Certainly he deserves the patronage of the Southern people, and we feel safe in saying that all of his scholars will leave him improved, not only in mind, but "in morals and manners."

We shall have more to say upon the general subject of education in a future issue.

Mrs. STONEWALL JACKSON has written a letter stating that the contributions that are called for on her behalf are given under a false impression, and it is inconsistent with her ideas of rectitude and honor to accept them. She begs that all efforts made to raise funds for her "relief" will be immediately stopped.

An Illinois paper urges the farmers of that region to cultivate castor beans. Some years ago, when they were worth only one dollar a bushel, it was considered remunerative to cultivate them; but now they bring from five to six dollars per bushel, and must be regarded as a profitable crop.

Out of a population of five thousand, Fredericksburg, Va., sent one thousand two hundred to the Confederate army. Over one-tenth of the number were killed or died in the service, and at least ten per cent. more are disabled.

A terrible tornado occurred at Knoxville, Tenn., on Friday last, which blew down thirty buildings, unroofed the depot and machine-shop of the Virginia Central Railroad, and destroyed a large amount of other property.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

The Elite Art Gallery,

OPENED IN PULASKI, TENN.

A PHOTOGRAPHER who understands his business, (from North of Huntsville, Madison Co., Ala.) has opened his Elite Art Gallery in Pulaski, and very respectfully tenders his services to the generous and intelligent people of Giles.

Size, Coloring, etc. In this Celebrated Establishment are made those beautiful pictures of Every Style, and of All Sizes, from Life-size to the smallest Finger-Ring-Miniature, and so elegantly colored in Oil, that the Hair, Eyes, Complexion and Expression can be so well represented as (almost) "a living creature."

"PEARL MINIATURES." These Portraits are Rich, Complete and Beautiful. They can be highly colored and given a delicate cast of complexion not possessed by the Fair Lady, or even the Pure Alabaster Whiteness of Babe. In this respect only are these likenesses flattering. Of the myriads of pictures taken in the various styles of art, the "Pearl" is unquestionably the prettiest and most remarkably Life-like Portrait that the world ever saw. It is Elegant.

Photographs, Vignettes, Cartes de Visite, etc. Taken in the latest, most popular and approved styles known to the art of Sun-drawing. My productions of all other kinds known to the profession, will also compare favorably with any Heliographic specimens of Art in Christendom. (Hence you see the folly of expending on railroads and at boat-landed times and risk of life to distant cities or foreign countries.) They have the middle tint—are Rich in tone, Complete in detail, Bold in feature, and as to finish and durability, there is no question of their Superiority.

OLD PICTURES, Etc., of any kind copied to any size. I also take pictures of individuals on Horse-back or in Buggies, Playing at Games, Groups, and other Subjects in Uniform, Masons and Old-Fashioned Regalia, etc., and colored, if desired, by the most Accomplished Artist in this country.

WARRANT EVERY PICTURE, and Guarantee Satisfaction to Every Customer, or Make No Charge.

IMPORTANCE OF PICTURES. If you want likenesses for your friends and relatives, come at once, for sickness or some other hidden monster may forever deprive you from another opportunity so favorable. It is a privilege to have likenesses of dear ones whether we see them again or not. These little Keepsakes are jewels. Many who read this will testify to the truth in these lines, for they, like myself, in this respect, feel and have felt the want of miniatures to recall the features of dear brothers who fall in battle or were otherwise sacrificed upon the altar of our beloved South—Fond and peaceful recollections to their precious memories.

Hues, Colors, Dressing, &c. White, Gray and Black, take w.g. and black. Crimson, Orange, Brown, Green and deep Red, takes dark. Magenta, Yellow, Pink, Purple and Blue, take light. Checked and Flowered goods take well enough. Dark Drapery is (rather) most pleasing.

PRICES. Photographs, $8 per doz.; $3 1/2 per half doz. Pearls, $15, $10 and $20 apiece. Other pictures at various rates. Double price for 1/2 children.

ARTISTS. D. T. GRIFFIN, Wilson Co., Tenn. WILLIAM COOPER, Nashville, Tenn. W. D. MURPHY, Madison Co., Ala. Ladies and Gentlemen are invited to see specimens Up-stairs, precisely East of the Court House.

Very Respectfully, Jan 5, 1y W. D. MURPHY.
