PULASKI, TENN.

FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 8th, 1866.

Pulaski Lodge No. 12, I. O. O. F.

For the information of country members, we are requested to announce that this Lodge meets regularly every Friday night. Election of officers the last Friday in June.

Soda Water

At Woodring & Co's., over May's old store.

CUTLERY.—If you want good cutlery, go to Hugh Ewing, of the house of J. D. Flautt & Co. If you don't believe he keeps it, come up and examine a specimen now in our possession.

Breast Pin Found.

A Ladie's Breast Pin found and deposited at this office. The owner can get it by describing property and paying one dollar for this notice.

If you want to keep cool these hot days go to Woodring & Co's. and get some excellent Ice Cream and Soda Water.

THRESHING MACHINES.—Wilkinson and Webb are agents for the best Threshing Machine ever known in these parts, except one. A friend of ours says his wife is the best. See advertisement.

FEMIAN FROM PULASKI.—Capt. McDanel left here a week or two ago with forty-nine letters for the front. At Nashville, we learn, his company was increased to more than a hundred.

SODA WATER.—At Woodring & Co's., over May's old store.

"The Southern Family Visitor" is the name of a new paper to be printed at Grenada, Miss., in octavo form, devoted to literature, science, religion and general news, and to be edited by Rev. Albert Moore, formerly of this place.

Burdett Re-opened.

We are gratified to be able to announce that the heavy hand recently laid on Dr. Burdett by some of his Eastern creditors has been raised, and he has possession of his Drug Store again. We hope to see him and the entire south free from yankee domination some day. Let his friends give him a patronage that will enable him to pay out.

ICE CREAM, Cakes, Candies and Cigars at Woodring & Co's., over May's old store.

The Recent Storms.

Pulaski seems to have been in the track of storms lately. The destructive tornado which visited us only a few months ago, seems to have been the commencement of a series or season of storms. We have had more wind, and hail, and lightning this year, than was ever known before in the same length of time. In fact, we have been visited so often in this way lately, that timid people now imagine every cloud to contain a storm of some kind.

On Saturday last, the town and county were visited with a heavy hail-storm, accompanied with considerable wind, and followed by a deluge of rain—all together doing farmers great injury. A pair of mules belonging to Messrs Reed and Ballentine, and used by them at their Steam Mill, were killed by a stroke of lightning.

Again, on Tuesday night about 9 o'clock, we had the heaviest thunder storm ever witnessed by the oldest inhabitant, accompanied with another flood of rain, also doing great damage to farms and fences. One corner of Dr. Batte's residence was badly shivered by a stroke of lightning. Reed and Ballentine lost several thousand feet of lumber by the overflow in Pleasant Run.

"Good News."

Everybody read and hand it to your neighbor to read!

The Tennessee Legislature has adjourned at last, and you had better paper your houses before it meets again and passes a prohibition act. Call on Jimmie Osborne and get your Wall Paper while there is no danger.

He will sell you any kind you want and as much as you want. His prices are very low.

Gold in New York on the 6th was 1.44.

Work for the Worthy.

Under this heading may be found on the first page of this paper, an appeal in behalf of the maimed Confederates. In a part of the edition, this able and elegantly written appeal contained several errors, which we hope the reader will correct and attribute to the types.

Would it not be commendable for the Benevolent Association to extend its charities to the widows and orphans of our dead heroes? Surely the loved ones of those who so nobly sacrificed their lives for a cause we all believed sacred, are entitled to the means of subsistence at our hands.

Deprived of the companionship and protection of those in whom all the hopes of the future were centered, life, uncheered by the friendship and sympathy of the people for whom the sacrifices were made, is to the widows and orphans of the dead Confederates, a dreary, cheerless blank. Their loved ones sleep among strangers,

By strangers' hands their humble graves adorned, By strangers honored, and by strangers mourned, and though we may not be able to bring them home to rest, yet no true man or woman will refuse to contribute a small sum to relieve the wants and necessities of their bereaved and suffering dependants.

They fell devoted, but undying; The very gale their names seem sighing; Their spirits wrap the dusky mountain; Their memory sparkles o'er the fountain; The meaneast rill, the mightiest river, Rolls mingling with their fame forever.

Yet all the glory they have won will not support their widows and orphans. Then let the noble work of charity be extended.

A Red Fox Captured.

Some of our country friends had an exciting chase on Tuesday last after a red fox. He had been committing depredations for some time among the flocks of Jno. P. Williams, and a party of old hunters, including Milt Marks, Jas. F. Smith, Alonzo Wilkinson, A. G. Steel and others, by preconcerted arrangement, collected there on the day mentioned with a view to check his career. Accordingly three excellent packs of dogs were put in after him, and soon the hills echoed with the music of the many voiced trio, and the valleys reverberated with the excited and exciting shouts of the sportsmen, as the red swamp devil leaped from his rock-ribbed covert, and took to the fields and meadows. The chase was a most exciting one, the fox having run eight miles on an air line, southward, before he changed his course. Old fox-hunters will readily imagine the grandeur of a chase across an open country for eight miles on an air line, with thirty or forty full voiced hounds in hot pursuit, and every bound "open," and half a dozen or more booted and spurred knights devoting themselves to the scene, speeding over the hills in pursuit of the flying game!

The fox was finally caught, and proved to be a veritable red fox, and supposed to be the only one in this part of the country. His body was not near so large, but his legs black and much longer than those of the gray fox. His skin was salted and stuffed, and may be seen at Esq'r. Jim. Smith's.

The Franklin (Tenn.) Review says it don't know which is the worst, the Radicals or the cut-worms. Both are doing their best to destroy the country.

A gold watch worth less than one hundred dollars is taxed one dollar; if worth that sum or more, two dollars.

List of Prices for Advertisers.

8 squares	34.00	56.00	79.00	112.00
9 squares	38.25	63.00	89.00	126.00
10 squares	42.50	70.00	99.00	140.00

This does not interfere with any contract entered into before the 14th of May, 1866.

RATES OF POSTAGE.

In consequence of the general ignorance in the South of the rules of postage established by law, many letters of importance are daily lost to these interested by being registered or insufficiently stamped. The regulations require that all such letters dropped into post offices shall be immediately forwarded to the Dead Letter office, where they are never heard from unless they contain money, or other enclosures of value. We give below some information which may prevent vexation to correspondents:

The rate of postage on letters within the United States is 3 cents for every letter or sealed package weighing one-half ounce or under. Those over one-half ounce, 6 cents, and 8 cents for every additional half ounce. Prepayment with stamps in all cases is required. All letters without the necessary postage stamps, or which are stamped with revenue stamps, will be forwarded to the Dead Letter office immediately after being dropped into any post office.

Postage stamps issued prior to 1860 are worthless, and will not answer for present purposes.

We learn from the Chattanooga Union

that the United States Government is repairing all the churches of that place that were damaged by their army. Such acts of sheer justice will have unmeasurable effect in the work of reconciliation. The desecration and spoliation of the churches in the South, are regarded as unmitigated outrages by the people, and a decent respect for the cause of christianity should prompt the government, to make amends, so far as it now can, for this disregard of the sacred rights of the people.—Ex.

We hope the Methodist and Cumberland churches of this place may succeed in securing damages. Both of these churches were shamefully abused, and the latter has not yet been repaired.

A coward may fight; a coward may conquer; but a coward can never forgive.

HYMENIAL RERORT.

Here love his golden shaft employs, here lights His radiant lamp and waves his purple wings— Reigns here and revels.

MARRIED.—Near Lynnville station, on Tuesday 29th ult., by Rev. Wm. Dearing, Mr. James H. Burrow to Miss Jennie Davis—all of Giles county.

We hope there may soon be Borough's enough to make a town.

MISCELLANEOUS.

NASHVILLE Weekly Republican Banner.

Representative Organ of the People, and Largest Circulation in City and State.

THE WEEKLY BANNER is the cheapest and best newspaper now published in Tennessee, containing the freshest news and most reliable information. Its proprietors spare no pains nor expense, to make it a first class paper, and claim that it deserves the cordial support of the people.

It will contain the daily city Police Reports, Market reports, Legislative Reports, Telegraph Reports, together with every item of local interest occurring during the week. Its Commercial character is established in the fact that its uniform correctness in giving quotations, has created a demand for it by all who look to this market and the East. We give all so in each weekly issue, a considerable amount of Agricultural reading of value to farmers and others.
