Miscellaneous.

The Duty of Giving.

There are very few persons who consider it a duty to give away any share of their riches to others. "What I have, I made by my own labor, and I have a right to do what I please with it..."

SALT YOUR CHIMNEYS.

In building a chimney, put a quantity of salt into the mortar with which the inter-courses of bricks are to be laid. The effect will be that there will never be any accumulation of soot in that chimney. The philosophy is thus stated: The salt in the portion of mortar which is exposed absorbs moisture from the mortar every damp day. The soot thus becoming damp falls down to the fireplace. This appears to be an English discovery. It is used with success in Canada.

High London collars are now worn by both ladies and gentlemen.

Brass tipped heads are pronounced vulgar, common and rowdy. Lord Stanley seems appear to retain their popularity all the year. Oxford shoes are now the secret thing to wear; also gay colored hose.

Double breasted vests are in vogue for trimming—save among ebony ladies.

Lilac and lavender muslins are greatly in favor for afternoon or evening toilets. White lace bonnets with fine ribbons are worn for riding by the ladies of Newport. It will be among the fashions next winter for brides to be married in traveling suits.

A black silk hat looks altogether out of place at the seaside. Englishmen will please take notice.

White trousers look very ancient on the street nowadays, especially when they are ironed all ways for Sunday.

Newport excoombs have hit it in the matter of hat trimmings, by wearing rooster feathers dyed their favorite hue.

White plush or cashmere double breasted jackets are worn cool mornings and evenings by young ladies at the seaside.

New Explosive—Litho-fracture is a new explosive material for breaking up stones and blasting. Its principal constituent are nitro-glycerine, gun cotton, infusoria earth and a few other secret substances. It is safe, powerful, and probably be a successful rival to nitro-glycerine and other dangerous explosives used by miners.

Jessie G. Frazer has been appointed Claim Commissioner for Middle Tennessee.

Cholera Remedy. Dr. Lisle of London says he has cured twenty cases of cholera out of twenty six by administering solution of five parts sulphuric acid to one hundred parts of distilled water, about thirty drops of which add ten drops of Sydenham's Laudanum, and four ounces of sugar and water. Dr. Dromi advocates a solution of castor oil in collodion, applied with a brush to the abdomen. The mixture forms a waterproof film, which prevents perspiration, and vomiting and cramps are instantly arrested.

Apple Dumplings.—A writer, who must know what is good, makes the following suggestion concerning a good institution: As the season for apple dumpling, allow me the liberty of saying that they can be made so that every one, even of delicate digestive powers, can eat them with impunity. The house keeper must already know, when I recommend that the dough, if it may be so called, should be made of about one pint of flour to six parts of Irish potatoes, boiled and mashed thoroughly, and every lump removed. It makes a good paste, and the dumplings can be enjoyed by every one without the fear of after unpleasant result.

The Tomato as a Healthful Food.—The tomato, besides being a valuable and nutritious article of food, possesses special medicinal qualities. It is one of the most powerful aperients of the liver and internal organs found among vegetables; and it is stated that it can be efficiently substituted for calomel, though not as searching. Diarrhea has been successfully treated with the tomato alone; and it is said to be an excellent remedy for dyspepsia and indigestion. As a vegetable for daily use, whether cooked or raw, it is among the most wholesome and healthful.
