Capt. Crowe came up from Sheffield Sunday.

Mr. S. Feinberg has opened a store in Decatur.

Giles has been deluged with oratory the past week.

Mr. Dick Buford is just back from a month in Texas.

Read D. B. Garrett's land sale. Do you want a good home?

Mr. G. W. Hill has been laid up with a bone fice three or four weeks.

Mrs. Jas. R. Crowe will go to Hartsville to spend a week with her parents.

Gen. Jno. C. Brown went to New Orleans Sunday night and will return yesterday.

Some people say they saw frost last Friday morning. There was frost at 8 o'clock when we looked.

Judge and Mrs. Tinsion will spend the winter again in Whitney, Fla., going about the last of October.

Mrs. J. H. Rainey and Mrs. Ed. N. Martin are attending the Nashville fair, the guests of Mrs. Wyatt Acersmith.

Dr. Talmage talks about "Straight Religion" in his week. Some men hold only a libel and try to stay without drawing.

Capt. Jay, the result predicted the rain of last Thursday night ten days before the event. He is more reliable than the weather bureau.

Miss Annie Tindell of Lewisburg visited Mrs. Minnie Dyer this week, leaving yesterday for Nashville to visit relatives and attend the fair.

Gen. Jno. S. Wilkes came in from Texas last Friday expecting to accompany his family to Eureka Springs. He went to New Orleans Sunday.

Last Friday was the biggest September cotton day we remember, 160 bales being sold from wagons on the market at an average of about $5.50.

A petition is being extensively circulated in and around Nashville for the southside people to get Bro. Bondin back next year.—Clarksville Chronicle.

The Columbia fair was a grand success. The directors had money in the bank when the fair was over. Mr. McKimmin trotted off with the best money Saturday.

Messrs. Sam. C. Mitchell, I. H. & Gailie Rainey, F. M. Bunch and Mack Edwards attended the Nashville fair. Mr. Mitchell spent Saturday at Nashville.

Mr. Geo. L. Suttle was the highest bidder for the rent of Clifton Road place, paying $1,025. He is a stirring farmer and will make money on this big plantation.

Dr. R. H. Rivers, formerly of Martin College, has just completed his fourth year's pastorate of the Broadway Methodist Church, Louisville. He must now go elsewhere.

Dixie Division, U. R. K. P., received their uniforms last week and will soon be in working trim. The Nashville Division is coming down to institute Dixie in two or three weeks.

The fair opened Tuesday morning with the usual rain. We rarely miss it. It is proposed now that we hold our fairs hereafter in August in the middle of the drought season.

Miss Aurelia Newbill who has been suffering with severe illness for many weeks was barely able to get up on Monday. She is the daughter of the late Mr. W. H. Newbill, who she now suffers from chronic pneumonia.

Mr. Howell Graham goes to Clarksville this week to enter school. He painted an ocean scene last week that will probably be shown at the fair. It would do credit to a master.

Mr. Dick Buford is going into the wholesale shoe business at Dallas, Texas, with his brother, Mr. Tom Buford, and three other gentlemen. The latter are ready doing a mammoth business.

Rev. Mr. Weaver of Fayetteville, Tenn., has accepted a call to the pastorate of the C. P. Church in Pulaski. He is an able and upright man of God, a preacher of great power. He will do good here.

Mrs. Charley Carter is Nashville this week visiting her son, Mr. Charles Carter, who is permanently employed at the penitentiary under Warden Peck. He has been there two or three months, his health forcing him to quit the printing business.

Mr. A. A. Cowdry of Gadsden, Tenn., has been in town several days with Capt. Jno. W. Morton, the general manager of the Cove Mountain. Mr. Cowdry is in the same view to accepting its management. He is a practical and successful horticulturist.

Mr. M. C. Fitzpatrick has bought Maj. Stacy's herd of registered Jersey cows and has now a herd of 20, several of them imported. Mr. Fitzpatrick sells several hundred pounds of butter a week. He runs a dairy Jersey herd at Buford's.

Dr. C. A. Abernathy's residence came near being burned last night. The screen before the fire caught and burned up, setting fire to the mantel and burning a hole in the carpet. It was discovered barely in time to prevent a disastrous conflagration.

Mrs. Mona Loon Godfrey has invented a process for making illuminated cards that promises to be a great success. It is generated in a receptacle and used as fast as it appears, the process stopping the instant the light is turned off. There is therefore nothing to explode and no danger of waste. He expected to show it at the fair this week.

Books are now open for subscription to the second series of stock in the Building and Loan Association. The first has proved a marked success and demonstrated the safety of the plan. The series begins Nov. 1st and is especially valuable to persons of small incomes as it provides not a safe deposit but a profitable investment. Every working man in Pulaski ought to carry stock.

Sugar, Coffee, Canned Goods, etc., in abundance. T. J. WELLS.

Watch These Columns.

CITIZEN readers will do well and make money by watching what our merchants say and patronizing those who advertise. If you will tell them you saw their notices in THE CITIZEN and come to see if they will keep their words, you will get good bargains. Try it! Tell them you come to see if they will do as they advertised. They will do it. Try it and see if you don't save money. Watch these columns closely. It will pay you. Make a note of the names of the men who advertise and call on them first.

See that your ticket reads FOR THE Proposed Amendment.

Come in when you come to town and see the pretty things.

Big lot Chamber Sots and Library Lamps will arrive in a few days.

Fancy Goods shipped the 14th will arrive in a few days.

At the Opera House.

If you are not attending the performances at the opera house this week you are missing a treat. The London "Fleets" will be given in the average, comprising several artists of first class merit. They give a very pleasing performance, classic and refined. Be sure to see them.

A Good Dinner.

Eat dinner with the Episcopal ladies at the fair. They set a good dinner and you will add a good cause.

Cotton was worth $4.40 to $5.00 in Pulaski yesterday.

Mr. Edgar Ballentine of Courtland is attending the fair.

Mr. John Smith of Huntsville, son of ex-Mayor Smith, is in the city.

The roof of the Episcopal church was badly damaged by the rain, perhaps $200.

Miss Bettie McBride and Mr. W. Patterson of Lewisburg are visiting friends in the city.

Mr. McKimmin is not in Nashville and has no idea of going. He is going to patronize our home fair.

Mr. J. S. Patterson got in yesterday from his summer's sojourn in Lewisburg and Eikon. He reopens his gallery in Pulaski.

We have employed John Slaughter to go after that $100 for us. Our Tarpley Shop friend will probably shell out when he meets this distinguished bandit.

Col. McKimmin found a very costly ring the other day which the owner has have by describing. His exquisite workmanship indicates that it came from Tiffany. It will be exhibited if the owner is not found.

Remember the meeting next Saturday to ascertain what part Pulaski will take in the president's reception. We ought to be creditably represented by all means. Resolutions will be secured. It is desired that we all go in a body so as to be more easily handled in the procession. We should be organized. We should like to see Giles County have a long line of men. Attend the meeting Saturday and help us organize.

Rogers & Bros. Silverware the best. T. J. WELLS.

I want to buy.

A pair of perfectly matched mules of the following description: Black with mostly nose and white marked, 16 years old, good natured, and 3 or 4 years old. Will give a good price. Geo. E. NUTTLE.

Young men should see Rosenau's furnishing goods before they buy.

CHEAP.

Largest line of Furnishing Goods & Hats ever in Pulaski. Come while we are anxious to sell. We can surprise you in prices. W. H. ABERNATHY & CO.

EVERY PERSON That intends to buy him a Suit of Clothes this fall should not fail to see the celebrated Voorhis, Miller & Ruppel nice, close fitting clothing handled only by Arrowsmith, May & Co.

LADIES, LOOK OUT! And also look in at Miss M. A. Smith & Co's Millinery emporium and see the beautiful array of nice new hats, feathers, ribbons, etc., etc.,—just too lovely and nice for anything. They are just in-bran spanking new styles & shapes. Come at once.

DRESS GOODS.

We are now prepared to show the ladies a very handsome line of Dress Goods and Trimmings. Call mention only a few, viz: Broadcloth 50 inches wide, in Black and Colors; Plain and Fancy Suits in patterns, Tricots, Peques, Melange, and a large stock of Black and Mourning Goods. Brannan & Smith.

STYLISH GOODS.

We guarantee style and fit the latest and correctest thing out. No jobs! Young Gent, try us. W. H. ABERNATHY & CO.
