

No more candidates or elections for two years. How funny!

The National Educational Association will meet in Nashville next July.

The news indicates a general drawing of swords and throwing away of scabbards in Europe.

Benton McMillan was re-elected to Congress by a majority of over 6,000 votes.

The trustee of Chatham county has skipped to Canada, having a shortage of about $6,000.

Senator Colquhoun was re-elected by the Georgia legislature Tuesday by a unanimous vote.

A Democrat was elected to a state office—railroad commissioner—in Iowa, this year, the first one in 31 years.

The New York World says Cleveland's luck proved too much for his luck. Yet, it adds, luck is better than lack.

The Graphic thinks it will be necessary before long to hang a few more anarchists, and says they need it badly.

Memphis wants $11,000,000 for paving and sewerage purposes. Pulaski could give with half that sum with the $100,000 knocked off.

Mr. Samuel J. Randall is fast recovering his health and will be able to resume his seat in the next congress. He is not saying much, but keeps up a great deal of thinking.

The present bad weather is playing the mischief with cotton, as it not only delays picking, but beats out the lint and prevents the bolls from opening—Memphis Schlar.

A negro man who had attempted to rape a white girl near Petersburg, Lincoln county, was taken from the grand and swung up by the neck until he was dead. Correct.

The next legislature will be urged to pass a registration law and require all voters to produce a poll receipt before depositing their ballots.

It is probable that Mrs. John J. Littleton will get the postoffice at Nashville. Many friends of her late husband, both republican and democrat, would be pleased with her appointment.

An 8-year old colored girl was picked up on the streets of Nashville Saturday in a complete state of intoxication. The man who gave or sold her the whisky should be severely punished.

The full returns show that Cleveland received in this State 159,079 votes, Harrison 139,815 and Fisk (Prohibitionist) 5,639. Taylor for Governor, received 156,834 votes, Harrison 139,815 and Johnson (Prohibitionist) 6,434.

Democrats need trouble themselves now about an issue upon which to make the campaign in 1891. Three years of republican legislation and rule will make success enough upon which to make a successful fight.

Some rampant blatherkite democrats insist that all Federal appointments ought to resign right now out of respect. What rot! Ought President Cleveland to resign now out of self-respect. We do wish some folks would have some sense.

President Cleveland, it is said, will dispose of his property at Washington, known as Oak View, and immediately after the expiration of the term will, with his family, retire to Europe. At present prices he will realize a profit of about $100,000 on Oak View.

Mr. F. O. McGord, editor of the Pulaski Citizen, comes Tuesday to vote and left yesterday. "The General," as he is familiarly called, says that Faber or no other ever made a pencil good enough for him to "vouch" a democratic ticket. In his opinion he said some thing—Fayetteville Sun.

Fleming (Democrat) is elected Governor of West Virginia by a small but sure majority. The remainder of the State ticket has large majorities. The Legislature will stand on joint ballot, forty-six Democrats, forty-one Republicans and one Labor Union-Independent.

The democratic gain this year in Haywood county over the vote of four years ago for president was 1,664, and the gain over the vote for Bob Taylor two years ago was 2,653. If every county in the state had the same democratic gain, Tennessee this year would have been 190,000.

Mr. Johnson was positive that he would get the 117,000 prohibition vote of last year and many more. Now just leave off the "many more" and Mr. Johnson over-estimated his vote over 116,000.

Mr. Johnson is a pretty good prohibitionist but when it comes to betting how an election is going, he is a failure.

The colored republicans of Fayetteville had a rally a few nights ago. They intimated that they were going to cut down the Cleveland and Thurman pole. They were informed that such a thing as attempt to be made would not be as many republicans next day as there were then. The pole stands.

The premium list has been issued of the Tennessee Poultry and Pet Stock Association, which will hold its next exhibition in Nashville from December 10 to 15. This is the second annual exhibition, and the premiums are liberal enough to insure even a better exhibition than that of the first year.

Warden Percery is severely criticized by the press for his treatment of prisoners at the penitentiary. It is said that he has been prevented from escaping without presenting for them to put their plans into execution and then shooting them. We believe, however, that a full investigation of the matter will show that Percery, who has always shown himself to be a humane as well as watchful warden.

The Memphis Avalanche publishes a letter written to Col. J. W. Jefferson, of Memphis, by Gen. Harrison, in which the president-elect says:

"I notice what you say about the situation there and assure you that I appreciate its gravity and that the most sincere desire is to well-inform the people of the affairs of the South. I do most sincerely wish to promote the general good of our whole people without reference to state lines, and I shall be glad to have the freest advice and co-operation of law abiding and conservative people in all the states. Very truly yours,"

W. O. T. U. The seventh annual session of the W. O. T. U. closed at Knoxville Friday. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Merriweather, of Memphis; vice-president, Mrs. E. Roach, of Chattanooga; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Abernathy, of Memphis. The plan of work for the coming year includes a petition to the legislature for the creation of a reform school and the passage of a law prohibiting the employment in factories of girls under sixteen years of age, that no colored people be allowed to organize a state union of their own, and thus secure national representation.

Major E. B. Stallman. Major Stallman is one of the most successful railroad managers in the United States, and the directors of the L. & N. railroad company showed their respect for his ability by electing him third vice-president of the road. While he is ever vigilant and mindful of the interests of the company, he is always prompt and accommodating to everybody.

Who will the prohibitionists of Tennessee appeal to now for legislation in behalf of their cause? They staked all on the success of the third party, and made an ignominious failure. They failed to elect a single representative to the legislature. They abused both the old parties, especially the democratic, as being opposed to temperance and morality, and cannot consistently ask any honors of them. The ticket is the cause of prohibition back twenty years. They set up shop for themselves, asking no favors from either party, and may expect none.

A Tennessee exchange expresses the hope that not a single democrat throughout the length and breadth of the land will accept office, place power or patronage. As a democrat, the negro said to an unbidden guest, "You'd better wait till you're axed."

It is proper that the democracy of Tennessee should express thanks to Chairman Williams and the members of the executive committee for their efforts in the campaign. Colonel Williams is a fine organizer and he and his committee did faithful work.

The New York World in a concluding paragraph to a lengthy article on parties, says: "However wisely managed, democratic parties are bound to prevail with the people. Let us be ready to take advantage of such mistakes as our opponents may make. But let us rely upon the strength of our own cause, and to the favorable verdict of the country at the next presidential election."

This cabinet making for Harrison by the democratic editors of the country is childish and disgusting. We have no voice in this matter, and ought not to be asked to elect to select this man or that for his cabinet. Our time for dictating these appointments ended on the 6th of November. Stop such foolishness.

The Murfreesboro Free Press thinks the rule "to the victor belongs the spoils" ought not to be enforced to Europe. At present prices he will realize a profit of about $100,000 on Oak View.

Dr. Cochran, in answer to inquiry whether he would spread, and does not believe that Decatur is any more liable to yellow fever than any other town in the same latitude.

Mr. Watterson offers a far-fetched reason for the failure of his free trade policy in the late election. He says thousands voted for the Republican ticket because they were made to understand that the "free trade" idea was derived from the Constitution of the Confederacy, and would annul the Thirtieth Amendment. Filippine amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

It is urged that in order to educate the people up to the advantages of permanent tariff reform clubs in every city, town and hamlet in the whole country.

The Fort Worth Gazette's definition of an independent: "A man en route from one point to another."

The vote of Fisk is put down by the party, the national organ of his voice, at 300,000.

The Memphis Appeal thinks going to the northwest for our candidate in 1892 we may somewhat change the conditions and take from New York something of the importance that attaches to it as a pivotal State. The South cannot be neutral. It must be democratic.

Little Rock had another big blaze Sunday night, destroying about $50,000 worth of property. This makes the loss in that city from fire for the past month $210,000.

TERRIBLE FOREWARMING. Cough in the morning, hurried or difficult breathing, rattling phlegm, tightness in the chest, quickened pulse, chilliness in the evening or sweat at night, all or any of these things are the first stages of consumption. Dr. Acker's English Remedy for Consumption will cure these fearful symptoms and is endorsed by a positive guarantee by Anderson & Co.

"SHE IS GRATEFUL." "I saved the life of my little girl by a prompt use of Dr. Acker's English Remedy for Consumption. Mrs. Wm. Y. Harlan, New York. Sold by Anderson & Co."

Death has again invaded our city and claimed for its victim Mrs. Mary L. Lucas. She died on Saturday, November 17th, at 10 o'clock, of typhoid fever. The remains were interred at the Hughes cemetery. The family have the sympathy of the neighborhood, in their sad bereavement. There are three more cases of this fever and there is some fear that it will spread.

The election passed off very quietly and the democrats made a large turnout but we are very sorry to say to no good effect.
