The Holidays.

To enable the printers of our office better to enjoy the holidays, as well as to allow ourselves a short respite from business, we shall defer the next issue of the SENTINEL one week beyond the regular time, skipping one Friday— which will make the next paper appear Friday, January 4th, 1867.

War in Missouri.

By a dispatch published in another column, it will be seen that the enemy have actually been met in open armed force in Lafayette county, one of their men killed, and several wounded. It would appear from accounts that the Governor's late measures taken for the suppression of these outlaws, were neither untimely nor unjustifiable.

By the Governor, FRANCIS RODMAN, Sec'y of State. Death of Nathaniel Paschal. It has been known that the venerable and esteemed senior editor of the Missouri Republican, Nathaniel Paschal, Esq., was lying dangerously ill at his residence on Eighteenth and Lucas Place.

Poor House Again.

MR. EDITOR: Your remarks on the poor house question last week suggested a thought to me in connection therewith. A thousand dollars per annum is paid to support the poor, and does not begin to afford the proper relief.

Stago Robbery.

On last Friday morning as the Warrensburg stage was going out from Lexington when near Tebo bridge two men advanced on it with drawn pistols and demanded that the passengers, four in number, and the driver hold up their hands while they made search for money.

TAX PAYER.

This bill regulating congressional sessions, which passed the House, provides that each Congress, beginning with the fortieth, shall hold three sessions, viz: two as now, and another, beginning the 4th of March next, and every second year thereafter.

ANOTHER PROCLAMATION.

Plain Talk to the Citizens of Lafayette and Jackson Counties.

JEFFERSON CITY, December 12.—Proclamation.—To the citizens of Lafayette and Jackson counties: Having become satisfied that the ordinary process of law cannot be enforced in your counties, and that a sufficient posse will not respond to the call of an officer for that purpose, I have, by authority of the Act of the General Assembly of the 14th of March, 1866, entitled "An act to provide for the enforcement of the civil law," &c., called into active service twenty-four companies of cavalry and ten companies of infantry, for duty in the counties of Lafayette and Jackson, which counties will be required to raise by taxation, the amount necessary to pay said force.

Adroit Robbery in New Orleans.

Mr. Leypyre, of the banking house of Messrs. Pike, Leypyre & Brother, yesterday visited the post-office about 1 o'clock, for the purpose of procuring a lot of revenue stamps.

Death of Nathaniel Paschal.

It has been known that the venerable and esteemed senior editor of the Missouri Republican, Nathaniel Paschal, Esq., was lying dangerously ill at his residence on Eighteenth and Lucas Place.

DISPATCHES by the Atlantic.

This is certainly the most startling item of news that has crossed the Atlantic ocean for many years. It portends great and signal changes, both political and ecclesiastical in Europe.

CAUTION.—A new and dangerous.

imitation of the five dollar note—national currency—has quite recently been put afloat in New York and other cities. The engraving is said to be finely executed, and the bill, in the main, well calculated to deceive.

Stago Robbery.—The U. S. Express.

On last Friday morning as the Warrensburg stage was going out from Lexington when near Tebo bridge two men advanced on it with drawn pistols and demanded that the passengers, four in number, and the driver hold up their hands while they made search for money.

FIGHT AT LEXINGTON!

Bushwhackers Enter the Town in Force.

CLEMENS KILLED AND OTHER OUTLAWS MORTALLY WOUNDED.

Arrest of Prominent Secessionists as Hostages.

The following is a Dispatch to the Missouri Democrat: JEFFERSON CITY, Dec. 4.—Adjutant General Simpson has just handed me the following telegram from Colonel Montgomery at Lexington, via Warrensburg: Bushwhackers came into Lexington in force yesterday under command of Pool and Clemens. Colonel Montgomery demanded the surrender of Clemens, and on refusal a fight ensued, in which Clemens was killed and other bushwhackers mortally wounded.

An Item for our Lady Readers.—Winter Cloaks.

Demorest says it seems to be settled that long cloaks will not be fashionable this winter. There has been a decided effort to introduce them, but it does not meet with much favor. The long cloak is very much like the old-fashioned pelisse. It is generally made in velvet, in thick ribbed silk or plain cloth, and is always lined and buttoned all the way down in front.
