

On the Wild Rose Tree.

On the wild rose tree Many buds there be; Yet each sunny hour Hath but one perfect flower.

The Wife of the Priest.

A smashing couple—lady and priest— Had sought their Western home, 'tis said; The young husband, with his bride, Envoys to set the priest.

A Way-Side Flower.

They were walking up "Love Lane" in a gay, chattering procession—girls with laurel-wreathed hats, young men bearing shawls and empty baskets, a matron or two; last of all Stephen Felton, a child on either side of him, and in his arms little Nanny Forsythe half asleep.

A Farmer's Lawsuit.

A rather novel suit has been commenced in this city, says the Syracuse (N. Y.) Journal, by a disappointed farmer against a certain druggist.

Lonely Voyage.

Myer Gerson, who has been on a visit to London, returned by the steamer Greece. He reports that in midocean, the watch at the bow reported to the captain that he described ahead what seemed to be a part of a wreck.

The Female Lobbyist.

Celia Logan writes from Washington concerning this much talked-of person: She is always painted in the roseate hues of health and beauty and represented as rioting in ill-gotten gains.

How a Girl Got Into the Harem.

A few years ago an Englishwoman, named Tompkins, who kept a shop at Pera, summoned from England, to aid her in her business, a young niece, who proved to be extremely pretty and no less intelligent.

The Trial of a Cornet Player.

The trial of an amateur cornet player named Montrose, on a charge of disturbing the public peace, is reported in the Virginia City Tribune.

How They Resumed.

They looked sad, and, doubtless, felt so, as they stood up against the horse-rack. "Times is hard!" sighed one.

The Female Lobbyist.

Celia Logan writes from Washington concerning this much talked-of person: She is always painted in the roseate hues of health and beauty and represented as rioting in ill-gotten gains.

How a Girl Got Into the Harem.

A few years ago an Englishwoman, named Tompkins, who kept a shop at Pera, summoned from England, to aid her in her business, a young niece, who proved to be extremely pretty and no less intelligent.

The Trial of a Cornet Player.

The trial of an amateur cornet player named Montrose, on a charge of disturbing the public peace, is reported in the Virginia City Tribune.

How They Resumed.

They looked sad, and, doubtless, felt so, as they stood up against the horse-rack. "Times is hard!" sighed one.

The Female Lobbyist.

Celia Logan writes from Washington concerning this much talked-of person: She is always painted in the roseate hues of health and beauty and represented as rioting in ill-gotten gains.

A Funny Scene at the White House.

"Curran" writes from Washington to the Chicago Inter-Ocean: There was a very funny scene in the east room the other day. This, every one knows, is the grand reception room, extending through almost half of the lower floor, and is the first place visited by excursionists.

Awful Devastation of an Indian Village by Cholera.

One of the dark spots in Indian village life is the periodical visitation of some epidemic which exterminates every hovel and carries off one or more of the occupants.

DOMESTIC ECONOMY.

HAM TOAST.—Mix with 1 tablespoonful of finely chopped or grated ham, the beaten yolk of an egg, and a little cream and pepper; heat over the fire, and then spread the mixture either on hot buttered toast, or on slices of bread fried quite crisp in butter; serve very hot.

GREEN-CORN FRITTERS.

Take a dozen well-rifled ears of corn, grate the pulp off well, and add two eggs and a little salt. Mix well, and fry like small pan-cakes, taking care to have them thoroughly done.

SWEET-POTATO PIE.

Boil the potatoes, peel and slice them. Put a layer in the baking-dish, either with or without pastry. Dot it over with butter, sprinkle with sugar and a little allspice, or any other seasoning you may prefer.

HOME-MADE BAR SOAP.

To 74 pounds of grease add 3 gallons of strong lye. Let them stand so until the grease is nearly eaten; then put on the fire, adding slowly a cupful at a time of water, until you have used as much as 2 gallons.

CORN SOUP.

Take each quart of young corn of the cob allow 3 pints of water. Put the corn and water on to boil. When the grains are tender, have ready 2 ounces of sweet butter, mixed smooth with 1 tablespoonful of flour.

NUMEROUS CITRUS PRESERVES.

Cut the melon into slices half an inch thick. Take off the rind. Keep them in salt water for 3 days. Boil them in fresh water 6 hours, changing the water 3 times.

CUCUMBER PICKLE.

Prepare a strong brine, in which you can keep your pickles as long as you choose. After taking them out of the brine, wash carefully, and let them soak a few days in weak vinegar, in order to extract the salt and water.

CHILI CURE—SAFE AND SURE.

Dr. Willhoff's Tonic is curative and protective. It will cure Chills and protect from further attacks. It is a preparation of the most valuable medicinal herbs, and its composition is simple and scientific.

CHEAP LIFE INSURANCE.

Twenty-five cents will buy a copy of Dr. Tarrant's Tonic, which will relieve the liver, stomach and bowels—the sources from which nearly every disease originates.

FARMERS: You want the latest Improved...

THE CATECHISM.

THE LOCOMOTIVE.

By M. N. FORNEY, MECHANICAL ENGINEER.

"THE VIBRATOR"

WITHOUT OIL OR MOTOR.

THE "GRAND GRABBER"

A Funny Scene at the White House.

"Curran" writes from Washington to the Chicago Inter-Ocean: There was a very funny scene in the east room the other day. This, every one knows, is the grand reception room, extending through almost half of the lower floor, and is the first place visited by excursionists.

Awful Devastation of an Indian Village by Cholera.

One of the dark spots in Indian village life is the periodical visitation of some epidemic which exterminates every hovel and carries off one or more of the occupants.

DOMESTIC ECONOMY.

HAM TOAST.—Mix with 1 tablespoonful of finely chopped or grated ham, the beaten yolk of an egg, and a little cream and pepper; heat over the fire, and then spread the mixture either on hot buttered toast, or on slices of bread fried quite crisp in butter; serve very hot.

GREEN-CORN FRITTERS.

Take a dozen well-rifled ears of corn, grate the pulp off well, and add two eggs and a little salt. Mix well, and fry like small pan-cakes, taking care to have them thoroughly done.

SWEET-POTATO PIE.

Boil the potatoes, peel and slice them. Put a layer in the baking-dish, either with or without pastry. Dot it over with butter, sprinkle with sugar and a little allspice, or any other seasoning you may prefer.

HOME-MADE BAR SOAP.

To 74 pounds of grease add 3 gallons of strong lye. Let them stand so until the grease is nearly eaten; then put on the fire, adding slowly a cupful at a time of water, until you have used as much as 2 gallons.

CORN SOUP.

Take each quart of young corn of the cob allow 3 pints of water. Put the corn and water on to boil. When the grains are tender, have ready 2 ounces of sweet butter, mixed smooth with 1 tablespoonful of flour.

NUMEROUS CITRUS PRESERVES.

Cut the melon into slices half an inch thick. Take off the rind. Keep them in salt water for 3 days. Boil them in fresh water 6 hours, changing the water 3 times.

CUCUMBER PICKLE.

Prepare a strong brine, in which you can keep your pickles as long as you choose. After taking them out of the brine, wash carefully, and let them soak a few days in weak vinegar, in order to extract the salt and water.

CHILI CURE—SAFE AND SURE.

Dr. Willhoff's Tonic is curative and protective. It will cure Chills and protect from further attacks. It is a preparation of the most valuable medicinal herbs, and its composition is simple and scientific.

CHEAP LIFE INSURANCE.

Twenty-five cents will buy a copy of Dr. Tarrant's Tonic, which will relieve the liver, stomach and bowels—the sources from which nearly every disease originates.

FARMERS: You want the latest Improved...

THE CATECHISM.

THE LOCOMOTIVE.

By M. N. FORNEY, MECHANICAL ENGINEER.

"THE VIBRATOR"

WITHOUT OIL OR MOTOR.

THE "GRAND GRABBER"

A Funny Scene at the White House.

"Curran" writes from Washington to the Chicago Inter-Ocean: There was a very funny scene in the east room the other day. This, every one knows, is the grand reception room, extending through almost half of the lower floor, and is the first place visited by excursionists.

Awful Devastation of an Indian Village by Cholera.

One of the dark spots in Indian village life is the periodical visitation of some epidemic which exterminates every hovel and carries off one or more of the occupants.

DOMESTIC ECONOMY.

HAM TOAST.—Mix with 1 tablespoonful of finely chopped or grated ham, the beaten yolk of an egg, and a little cream and pepper; heat over the fire, and then spread the mixture either on hot buttered toast, or on slices of bread fried quite crisp in butter; serve very hot.

GREEN-CORN FRITTERS.

Take a dozen well-rifled ears of corn, grate the pulp off well, and add two eggs and a little salt. Mix well, and fry like small pan-cakes, taking care to have them thoroughly done.

SWEET-POTATO PIE.

Boil the potatoes, peel and slice them. Put a layer in the baking-dish, either with or without pastry. Dot it over with butter, sprinkle with sugar and a little allspice, or any other seasoning you may prefer.

HOME-MADE BAR SOAP.

To 74 pounds of grease add 3 gallons of strong lye. Let them stand so until the grease is nearly eaten; then put on the fire, adding slowly a cupful at a time of water, until you have used as much as 2 gallons.

CORN SOUP.

Take each quart of young corn of the cob allow 3 pints of water. Put the corn and water on to boil. When the grains are tender, have ready 2 ounces of sweet butter, mixed smooth with 1 tablespoonful of flour.

NUMEROUS CITRUS PRESERVES.

Cut the melon into slices half an inch thick. Take off the rind. Keep them in salt water for 3 days. Boil them in fresh water 6 hours, changing the water 3 times.

CUCUMBER PICKLE.

Prepare a strong brine, in which you can keep your pickles as long as you choose. After taking them out of the brine, wash carefully, and let them soak a few days in weak vinegar, in order to extract the salt and water.

CHILI CURE—SAFE AND SURE.

Dr. Willhoff's Tonic is curative and protective. It will cure Chills and protect from further attacks. It is a preparation of the most valuable medicinal herbs, and its composition is simple and scientific.

CHEAP LIFE INSURANCE.

Twenty-five cents will buy a copy of Dr. Tarrant's Tonic, which will relieve the liver, stomach and bowels—the sources from which nearly every disease originates.

FARMERS: You want the latest Improved...

THE CATECHISM.

THE LOCOMOTIVE.

By M. N. FORNEY, MECHANICAL ENGINEER.

"THE VIBRATOR"

WITHOUT OIL OR MOTOR.

THE "GRAND GRABBER"

A Funny Scene at the White House.

"Curran" writes from Washington to the Chicago Inter-Ocean: There was a very funny scene in the east room the other day. This, every one knows, is the grand reception room, extending through almost half of the lower floor, and is the first place visited by excursionists.

Awful Devastation of an Indian Village by Cholera.

One of the dark spots in Indian village life is the periodical visitation of some epidemic which exterminates every hovel and carries off one or more of the occupants.

DOMESTIC ECONOMY.

HAM TOAST.—Mix with 1 tablespoonful of finely chopped or grated ham, the beaten yolk of an egg, and a little cream and pepper; heat over the fire, and then spread the mixture either on hot buttered toast, or on slices of bread fried quite crisp in butter; serve very hot.

GREEN-CORN FRITTERS.

Take a dozen well-rifled ears of corn, grate the pulp off well, and add two eggs and a little salt. Mix well, and fry like small pan-cakes, taking care to have them thoroughly done.

SWEET-POTATO PIE.

Boil the potatoes, peel and slice them. Put a layer in the baking-dish, either with or without pastry. Dot it over with butter, sprinkle with sugar and a little allspice, or any other seasoning you may prefer.

HOME-MADE BAR SOAP.

To 74 pounds of grease add 3 gallons of strong lye. Let them stand so until the grease is nearly eaten; then put on the fire, adding slowly a cupful at a time of water, until you have used as much as 2 gallons.

CORN SOUP.

Take each quart of young corn of the cob allow 3 pints of water. Put the corn and water on to boil. When the grains are tender, have ready 2 ounces of sweet butter, mixed smooth with 1 tablespoonful of flour.

NUMEROUS CITRUS PRESERVES.

Cut the melon into slices half an inch thick. Take off the rind. Keep them in salt water for 3 days. Boil them in fresh water 6 hours, changing the water 3 times.

CUCUMBER PICKLE.

Prepare a strong brine, in which you can keep your pickles as long as you choose. After taking them out of the brine, wash carefully, and let them soak a few days in weak vinegar, in order to extract the salt and water.

CHILI CURE—SAFE AND SURE.

Dr. Willhoff's Tonic is curative and protective. It will cure Chills and protect from further attacks. It is a preparation of the most valuable medicinal herbs, and its composition is simple and scientific.

CHEAP LIFE INSURANCE.

Twenty-five cents will buy a copy of Dr. Tarrant's Tonic, which will relieve the liver, stomach and bowels—the sources from which nearly every disease originates.

FARMERS: You want the latest Improved...

THE CATECHISM.

THE LOCOMOTIVE.

By M. N. FORNEY, MECHANICAL ENGINEER.

"THE VIBRATOR"

WITHOUT OIL OR MOTOR.

THE "GRAND GRABBER"

A Funny Scene at the White House.

"Curran" writes from Washington to the Chicago Inter-Ocean: There was a very funny scene in the east room the other day. This, every one knows, is the grand reception room, extending through almost half of the lower floor, and is the first place visited by excursionists.

Awful Devastation of an Indian Village by Cholera.

One of the dark spots in Indian village life is the periodical visitation of some epidemic which exterminates every hovel and carries off one or more of the occupants.

DOMESTIC ECONOMY.

HAM TOAST.—Mix with 1 tablespoonful of finely chopped or grated ham, the beaten yolk of an egg, and a little cream and pepper; heat over the fire, and then spread the mixture either on hot buttered toast, or on slices of bread fried quite crisp in butter; serve very hot.

GREEN-CORN FRITTERS.

Take a dozen well-rifled ears of corn, grate the pulp off well, and add two eggs and a little salt. Mix well, and fry like small pan-cakes, taking care to have them thoroughly done.

SWEET-POTATO PIE.

Boil the potatoes, peel and slice them. Put a layer in the baking-dish, either with or without pastry. Dot it over with butter, sprinkle with sugar and a little allspice, or any other seasoning you may prefer.

HOME-MADE BAR SOAP.

To 74 pounds of grease add 3 gallons of strong lye. Let them stand so until the grease is nearly eaten; then put on the fire, adding slowly a cupful at a time of water, until you have used as much as 2 gallons.

CORN SOUP.

Take each quart of young corn of the cob allow 3 pints of water. Put the corn and water on to boil. When the grains are tender, have ready 2 ounces of sweet butter, mixed smooth with 1 tablespoonful of flour.

NUMEROUS CITRUS PRESERVES.

Cut the melon into slices half an inch thick. Take off the rind. Keep them in salt water for 3 days. Boil them in fresh water 6 hours, changing the water 3 times.

CUCUMBER PICKLE.

Prepare a strong brine, in which you can keep your pickles as long as you choose. After taking them out of the brine, wash carefully, and let them soak a few days in weak vinegar, in order to extract the salt and water.

CHILI CURE—SAFE AND SURE.

Dr. Willhoff's Tonic is curative and protective. It will cure Chills and protect from further attacks. It is a preparation of the most valuable medicinal herbs, and its composition is simple and scientific.

CHEAP LIFE INSURANCE.

Twenty-five cents will buy a copy of Dr. Tarrant's Tonic, which will relieve the liver, stomach and bowels—the sources from which nearly every disease originates.

FARMERS