Collinsburg.

Dated: Tuesday, July 11th.
Mrs. Homer Keel and children, of El Dorado, Ark., are here on a visit with Mrs. Keel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. McLeish.

Miss Mary Pickett returned home last Saturday, after a delightful visit with her sisters, Mesdames Markland and Wimblish, of Shreveport.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nattin and little boys, Robert and Junior, of Homer, spent the past week-end very pleasantly with their parents, Capt. and Mrs. J. H. Nattin.

Rev. Bell and Rev. McGeehee were guests Sunday of Mr. N. W. Sentell.

Capt. Nattin's many friends will regret to learn he is still sick-a-bed, having been ill about two weeks. Here's hoping he will soon again be up and about.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lawton and his girls, of Vivian, spent Sunday here very pleasantly with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. McLeish.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Wimblish and son, Charles, of Shreveport, were guests Sunday of Mrs. Wimblish's sister, Miss Mary Pickett.

Mr. Lee Boynton, of Oll City, spent Sunday here with his uncle, Capt. Nattin, and family. He was accompanied by Mrs. Eva Stephens and daughter, Mildred, and Mrs. Kay and son, of Mooringsport. They motored on to Plain Dealing to visit relatives, stopping by for a short visit when on their way home.

Mrs. Webb Martin, of Plain Dealing, was a guest Sunday of Mrs. M. M. Ward.

Mr. George Nattin and family, of Alden Bridge, spent Sunday here with Mr. Nattin's parents, Capt. and Mrs. Nattin.

Oak Grove.

Dated: Monday, July 10th.
Crops are looking good, and a bountiful harvest is expected.

The barbecue held at Emma on the Fourth was a marked success. The meat was cooked "just right," and cakes and other delicious eats were spread before all in plenty.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Colle, Miss Fannie Martin and Mr. Martin Colle spent yesterday with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Blunt and son, spent Saturday night and yesterday with relatives residing in Plain Dealing.

Mr. Henry Rickard made a business trip to Sarepta Saturday.

Mr. W. R. Giles is spending a few days with relatives and friends residing in this community. —GOOD EYE.

Around Arkana.

Dated: Monday, July 10th.
The Fourth passed quietly here. The day was unusually cool for this time of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Wilkins had as guests on the 4th Mr. and Mrs. Newton, Mrs. Wilkins' parents, Milo and Lula Newton, Mrs. Wilkins' brother and sister, all of Plain Dealing; Mrs. Simons and four children, from Princeton, and Mr. Ernest Wilkins, of Ivan.

Miss Martha Burton had several of her girl friends up from Benton to spend some days. From appearances, they all had a good time. Mrs. Barton gave them a picnic near the Zeigler pond.

Mrs. R. M. Burton went to Benton last Saturday (accompanied by her three lovely little daughters) to spend a few days with relatives and friends.

Mr. R. M. Burton went to Lewisville, Ark., yesterday to see his brother, Mr. J. B. Burton, who is very ill.

The protracted meeting at the Chaylybeate Church will begin on the 15th (next Saturday) according to report.

Mrs. P. D. Harrison has returned from El Dorado, Ark., where she spent several days with her sister.

Mrs. C. C. Burton and son, C. C., Jr., after spending several days in Plain Dealing, have returned home.

Mr. Beavers, a daughter, Miss Myra, were visitors to Bradley, Ark., yesterday.

Pleasant Hill.

Dated: Monday, July 10th.

The farmers of this section are busy laying by their cotton and working out young corn and other late crops. All are trying to raise plenty of peavine hay, instead of buying it.

Roy Gleason spent Saturday night and yesterday with Reginald DeMoss. Carl DeMoss was on the sick list a few days the past week.

Miss Mattie DeMoss was shopping in Plain Dealing Saturday.

Messrs. O. F. Boyd and families were shopping in Plain Dealing Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Norris visited their mother, Mrs. Minnie McKenzie, Tuesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Gleason spent Saturday in Plain Dealing with their daughter, Mrs. Will Spears.

Mr. S. L. DeMoss and son, Evans, Saturday.

The Fourth was quiet up this way. The neighbors visited that day as follows:

Mr. A. J. DeMoss and daughter, Miss Mattie, with Mr. Henry DeMoss; Mr. and Mrs. Caleb McKinney with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. DeMoss; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Harris with

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Gleason; Mr. Emmette DeMoss and family with Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Gleason. All report a pleasant day, with plenty of cake and ice cream at every home.

The dipping of cattle at the Gleason vat was resumed Thursday of last week. Up this way we are wishing this dipping problem was settled—either one way or the other. The way dipping has been conducted so far is simply a waste of time and money, with no benefit resulting, and all are mighty tired of keeping it up.

Three cheers for the Banner's last serial story, "The Homesteader." It was simply fine, and here's hoping for another just as good in the near future. —ALT.

Rocky Mount.

Dated: Wednesday, July 12th.

Miss Esther Black was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Black Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bounds and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bounds.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hall, Sr., from Houghton, spent the past week-end at the home of their son, Dr. J. B. Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Blunt and Rev. Tatum were guests yesterday of Mrs. Blunt's mother, Mrs. Smith, of Sarepta.

Plain Dealing, Route Two.

Dated: Monday, July 10th.

The farmers are now much behind with the cultivation of their crops, partly due to the heavy rain Monday of last week.

An enjoyable and well attended barbecue was given by the residents of the Helfner community on the Fourth. Following the big dinner—an abundance of tempting food being spread for all—the crowd gathered to witness the baseball games, which, as usual, were lively contests. The Helfner boys taking a game from Mot by the score of 25 to 12, then crossed bats with the Bradley, Ark., team—present for the

RUPTURE EXPERT HERE

Seeley, Famous in This Specialty, Called to Shreveport.

F. H. SEELEY, of Chicago and Philadelphia, the noted truss expert, will personally be at the Youree Hotel, and will remain in Shreveport Friday only, July 21st. Mr. Seeley says:

"The Spermatic Shield will not only retain any case of rupture perfectly, but contracts the opening in ten days on the average case. Being a vast advancement over all former methods—exemplifying instantaneous effects—immediately appreciable and withstanding any strain or position no matter the size or location. Large or difficult cases, or incisional ruptures (following operations) specially solicited."

This instrument received the only award in England and in Spain, producing results without surgery, injections, medical treatments or prescriptions. Mr. Seeley has documents from the United States Government, Washington, D. C., for inspection. He will be glad to demonstrate without charge or fee, if desired. Business demands prevent stopping at any other place in this section.

P. S.—Every statement in this notice has been verified before the Federal and State Courts.—F. H. SEELEY.

FROM BOSSIER CITY.

—Mrs. W. W. Coleman, of Shreveport, visited her sister, Mrs. Del Southernland, last Friday.

—Mr. R. E. Wells, of Beaumont, Texas, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Wilkinson.

—Mr. Willie Delp, of the Midway community, was here this week to visit his sister, Mrs. D. E. Sorrell.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Curtis spent the Fourth at the Shreveport Fair Grounds and in visiting friends residing in the city.

—Miss Lottie Mae Hanks has returned home from an enjoyable visit in Bolton, Miss., where she went to attend the wedding of a cousin.

—Mrs. W. W. Crane, of Ida, is with her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Miller. Mrs. Crane was at a Shreveport sanitarium before coming here. She is improving nicely.

—Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln, of Sunflower plantation, and Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Gilmore formed a pleasant party to motor to Mandeville to spend the Fourth and attend a big barbecue.

—Mr. T. R. Miller was on the sick list several days of last week. He is out again, but is not as yet well. He and the members of his family may, at an early date, go to Rosebourn Springs, Texas, to recuperate.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Colquitt and family have returned home from Mineral Wells, Texas. They report a very enjoyable and beneficial trip. Going out the trip was made in one day, with breakfast in Marshall, dinner in Willis Point and supper in Mineral Wells.

—Mrs. Ben Green is in Ringgold with her father, Mr. Ed Foster. She was heavily summoned to Ringgold by the illness of her sister, Miss Toole, who underwent an operation some days ago. Late reports are to the effect that her sister is doing as well as could be expected.

—Mr. and Mrs. Gus Allen have moved to Vivian, to the regret of a large circle of Bossier City friends. Mr. Allen is at present running the Vivian bus and finds he can be at home more by having that town as his place of residence. It is hoped he and Mrs. Allen will soon be "back home."

—Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Adair and children attended the celebration held at the Shreveport Fair Grounds on the Fourth. Mr. Adair took the little folks along for a ride on the merry-go-round, and when getting off, with both children in his arms, stepped in a hole and fell, badly spraining his ankle.

—Last Saturday afternoon officers arrested Mr. R. Odell, a white man from Shreveport, and a charge of transporting liquor was booked against him. For some time past Odell has been making trips through Bossier City and suspicion had been aroused. When arrested last Saturday he had a half gallon of moonshine in his automobile.

—The little son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Tillman, of Shreveport, was run down by an automobile last Friday night. His hip was badly cut and several stitches were taken when surgical attention was given, but no serious injuries resulted. Little "Totus" is quite a favorite in Bossier City, being frequently a visitor here with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Yar brough and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Tillman.

—The tool house on the school grounds is now under course of construction and the excavating for the new building will begin this week (it is hoped). More lots have been purchased for the school grounds, which will be thoroughly equipped as a playground. The correspondent regrets that a full list of the teachers for the 1922-23 term of school is not yet available and hopes to be able to give this information, as well as a brief history of the Bossier City School, in next week's issue of the Banner.
