There were twenty-two who responded to the invitation, the out-of-town guests being Mrs. C. D. Hicks and Mrs. P. C. Lambert, of Shreveport. An interesting program was given, after which the hostesses served plate lunch of sandwiches, ice tea and cake. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. G. W. Chambers.

Eighth Birthday Anniversary.

Thursday of last week Mr. W. C. Raines, assisted by his nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Raines, entertained at a dinner in honor of the eighth birthday anniversary of his mother, Mrs. L. C. Raines.

The plantation home, near McDade, under the skillful hands of Mrs. Sam

Raines, was especially pretty with its decoration of pot plants and cut flowers. Mrs. Raines also prepared and directed the serving of the excellent dinner. The centerpiece of the table was forgotten, with maiden-hair and asparagus ferns, the place cards being decorated with bougainvilleas of the same dainty design.

The guests for this auspicious occasion were the children and grandchildren of Mrs. L. C. Raines. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hickman and W. B. Jr., of Haughton; Mrs. E. G. Horn and Laurie and Mrs. R. H. Raines and daughters, Martha and Carrie, of Shreveport, and Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Bledsoe and sons, Leon and Marlon, of Bossier City.

Mrs. Raines is one of Bossier's oldest and best known citizens, having moved to old Filmore seventy-eight years ago and has resided in the parish continuously since that time. She is remarkably well preserved and keeps informed at all times on general topics of the day, always looking forward to the coming of the Banner, for she remembers when it was founded—sixty-two years ago—and has ever since read it without interruption.

At an appropriate time during the afternoon Mrs. Sam Raines entertained with a musical program, giving a number of vocal selections well suited to the occasion.

Mrs. Raines, sr., was the recipient of a number of pretty and useful gifts, tokens of love and esteem from members of her family.

May we all help her celebrate her 90th birthday anniversary.

Boy Scout Troop Grows.

Scout Master R. W. Smith was host last Friday evening to Boy Scout Troop No. 34. Mr. Stone, council for the East District, and Mr. C. M. Richardson, executive secretary for the Boy Scout movement, both of Shreveport, visited the troop and gave some splendid instruction and assistance.

The boys are very enthusiastic over their troop and are gaining new members each week. The membership is now sixteen, and it is hoped and expected that within a short time every eligible boy in Bossier City will be lined up in the movement.

After the business session Mr. Smith, assisted by Mr. C. H. Wallace, gave the boys a "watermelon cutting" on the lawn. Watermelons and cantaloupes were plentiful, and the party was voted a grand success.

The next meeting of the troop will be held to-morrow (Friday) evening at the home of Mr. G. W. Chambers. All boys between the ages of twelve and eighteen years are invited to be in attendance.

A Six-o'Clock Dinner.

Thursday of last week Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Curtis entertained at six-o'clock dinner in honor of the first anniversary of their marriage. The home was made prettier by the profusion of cut flowers. Mrs. Curtis was at one time a teacher of domestic science and in the preparation of the splendid spread she proved herself more than worthy of the numerous honors she has won along these lines.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Teague and Mr. P. A. Shipp.

Mrs. Curtis received a number of useful and appropriate gifts. Many happy returns of the day, friends.

Making Mistakes.

Clipped from an exchange.]
When a plumber makes a mistake, he charges twice for it.
When a lawyer makes a mistake, it is just what he wanted, because he has a chance to try the case all over again.
When a carpenter makes a mistake, it's just what he expected.
When a doctor makes a mistake, he buries it.
When a judge makes a mistake, it becomes the law of the land.
When a preacher makes a mistake, nobody knows the difference.
But when the editor makes a mistake—good night!

Local and Personal

—An improvement in town is a new shingle roof on Mrs. Mary Taylor's residence. We are told that the home is also being remodeled within.

—Midling cotton was quoted at 20% cents a pound in Shreveport to-day. During the day there were 25 bales of cotton received in the city, and the receipts for the season up to the close of the day were given as 63,706 bales.

—Contractor R. C. Purcell, of Plain Dealing, has Mrs. M. H. Hanks' new cottage about completed. We are told that the timbers for this job were cut before being shipped here, which explains why it has been finished up so quickly.

—Not every exhibit you make at the Parish Fair will win a prize—but each individual exhibit will be a contribution to the general exhibit and will in some measure have a part in the success of the fair. Don't lose sight of these facts. One should not always strive for gain, anyway.

—We were pleased to meet on the streets of Benton Monday Congressman John N. Sandlin, of Minden, then at home on a brief visit. He stated that he would leave within a few days for Washington to resume his official duties, provided no one offered as an opponent for his seat in Congress.

—A number of old friends residing in Benton were pleased to see Mrs. Mary Johnston, of Shreveport—a former neighbor—here on a visit Sunday. She was accompanied by her youngest son, Capt. John B. Johnston, of Shreveport, and his baby daughter, Anne Carter. Mr. T. H. Marbury, Registrar of Voters over in Caddo Parish, was also a member of the party.

—Rev. H. J. McGehee, having been called to Mississippi on account of the illness of his father, will take his summer vacation at this time, instead of later, as planned, and will not be here to preach Sunday morning or the first Sunday in August (a regular appointment). In connection with this announcement we are requested to say that Mr. McGehee expects to return home in ample time to fill the pulpit at the local Presbyterian Church the first Sunday in September.

To Foster Benton's Development.

A public mass meeting was advertised and held at the Court House Friday evening of last week, for the purpose of discussing the proposition of reincorporating the Village of Benton and installing lights. The meeting was largely attended by both men and women, in about equal proportion.

The gathering was called to order by Mr. W. D. Smith, cashier of the Bank of Benton, who stated the purpose of the meeting and urged action on important matters pertaining to improvement of the town in general, after which Mr. L. B. Duke was elected chairman and Mr. R. V. Kerr, secretary.

The chairman made a talk along general lines of improvement for the town, which was followed by a spirited round-table speech making. The chairman then, by request, appointed the following committee on ways and means, namely: Messrs. W. D. Smith, W. I. Gayle and L. G. Smith, who are to report their findings to another meeting called for to-morrow night (the 28th).

With the interest manifested by the citizens at this meeting, and with good crop prospects, together with indications of early oil developments in this section, Benton is expected to take on new life.

Shop Talk, and So On.

Friend "Dick" Wise, of the Plain Dealing section, being just a little slow in making his last subscription remittance, hands us this note: "Carelessness caused this delay, and carelessness caused this delay, and carelessness caused this delay. But let the Banner come on six months. Maybe there will be some more." Sure, Mr. Wise: and we are also obliged to you for that dollar. You have been reading the Banner ever since the woods burned off and you wouldn't give it up at this late date if you had to market a sack of boll weevils to raise the price—and you know that's so.

Mr. Dewey Moore, whose home is near Collinsburg, in making a remittance on subscription takes occasion to refer to the old reliable as a "dandy little paper." Maybe so, Mister Dewey, but if not, we are none the less obliged to you for thinking so and saying so. We are hoping to soon get "rigged up" in such way as will enable us to make the Banner somewhat more presentable and we expect then to add that insert section that has been missing for some time past.

Mr. W. D. Smith, residing five miles east of Benton, has just had us print for him a supply of envelopes and note heads that set forth the side line in which he and his good' wife are engaged—the raising of purebred Plymouth Rock chickens, "bred to lay," according to what Will says. When he called by some days ago the two jobs—neat enough for anybody, of an calling—were delivered to him, and now whenever he and Miss Jessie write letters they will also be advertising their chickens. Which isn't a bad idea, all of which the rest of you successful Bossier Parish farmers should bear in mind and have us print for you some stationery that advertises your side lines.

The above paragraphs have been in type for some time, awaiting an issue of the Banner when there was room for their insertion. Truth is, that so many of our friends make such comment at the time they renew their subscriptions that we cannot always find time and space in the paper to acknowledge the same. However, when such kindly comment goes unnoticed on our part it does not indicate that what is said on the part of the subscriber is any the less appreciated. And this all the Banner's old friends will please bear in mind.

IF YOU have need of a paper of pins, a yard of silk, a bottle of perfume or any piece of merchandise in stock, write to Miss Willing, our store shopper, personally. She will give your order the same careful attention you would receive if buying over the counter, and mail the goods out to you the same day
