LOCAL JOTTINGS.

If you want a good sewing machine go to Marx Israel's and buy the Grover & Baker.

Mr. Numa Mollere is having his coffee-house on Mississippi street repaired and renovated.

The tinkling bells of a couple of Italian scissor-sharpeners resounded throughout the quiet precincts of the village yesterday.

The supply of postal cards received at the Donaldsonville post-office was exhausted the same day it arrived, and more are wanted.

You get a mighty short ride for your money crossing Bayou Lafourche on the ferry boat nowadays. The flat reaches nearly across the stream.

All of our Jewish merchants closed their stores Monday and Tuesday in commemoration of the New Year of the Israelitish faith. The first of October will be another holiday, and upon that day these stores will be again closed.

Go to the Ascension News Depot for reading matter or stationery. Will his sundry articles show in that line that will please you greatly and excite the greenbacks from your pocket with irresistible attraction. Quick sales and small profits is the motto at Wilkinson's.

That old tree that has so long stood upon the levee in front of the Market-House was yesterday felled by some enterprising wood-choppers and is being converted into fire-wood. The old wreck was no ornament to the front view of our town, and we are glad it is gone.

About two hundred persons indebted to the State for back taxes have settled up the claims against them since suits have been entered to recover the same, and it is more than probable that seven-eighths of the delinquent taxes of 1870 and 1871 will be recovered during the present year.

Two new advertisements invite the reader's attention in our columns this week—those of J. F. Parks, watchmaker and jeweller, and Mrs. Lucy Butler, keeper of a boarding and lodging house. Both parties and their establishments are too well known in Donaldsonville to require any special mention from us.

Mr. R. J. Green has nearly completed the job of painting the new Episcopal Church, and his artistic brush has much enhanced the pristine comeliness of the neat edifice. Considerable taste has been evinced in the selection of colors for the different portions of the church, and the tout ensemble is quite pleasing.

Never has such an immense and rapid sale of dry goods, etc., been made in Donaldsonville as at Mr. Marx Israel's large emporium on Mississippi street, since the arrival of the splendid fall and winter stock of merchandise a few weeks since. Low prices and first quality goods speak for themselves, and the people soon find the place were such inducements are offered to purchasers.

The monotony of a long dry spell was pleasantly broken Monday evening by a splendid shower of rain that lasted a couple of hours and freshened the atmosphere immensely, besides laying the dust in the streets and filling up the cisterns, many of which had become very nearly empty. Beautiful Indian summer weather prevailed until yesterday morning, when a slow drizzling rain set in and continued all day. The sky was gloomy but the temperature of the atmosphere quite pleasant.

The following enumeration of children between the ages of six and twenty-one years in the parish of Ascension has been returned by the Tax Collector to the State Superintendent of Public Education, in accordance with law:

The Finance Committee of the Police Jury have prosecuted the work of examining the outstanding claims against the parish with commendable energy, and we learn that a large number of warrants have been designated as having been issued without proper consideration rendered, and the repudiation of such will be recommended. We cannot specify either the number or amount of these taboored claims until the committee makes its final report.

We have it upon unexceptionable authority that as soon as this committee shall have concluded its labors and its report has been acted upon by the Jury, the injunction now prohibiting the acceptance of police jury warrants in payment of taxes due the parish will be withdrawn, thus rendering the collection of the current and delinquent parish taxes, a comparatively easy task for the Collector and an immense advantage to the people and the administration.

We are in receipt of a communication from Mr. Joseph Hughes which we regret is too lengthy for publication in our columns to-day. The subject matter of the letter is, that the writer some time since had a difficulty with a well known colored man, Wm. Ross, Esq., and was arrested upon an affidavit of the latter, charged with assault and threats to kill, and arraigned before Justice Vicknair. The trial was fixed for the second inst., and Mr. Hughes gave an appearance bond of $100. Just before the trial he was approached with a proposition to compromise the case by paying half of the costs, but declined. The case was proceeded with and Mr. Hughes wholly acquitted of the charges made against him. What he now complains of is, that the plaintiff in the case has not been compelled to pay the costs of the suit ($14), but that they have been charged to the parish. This matter deserves investigation, for if Mr. Hughes' allegation is correct, a grave injustice is being inflicted upon the tax payers of the parish—one that should be immediately reprimanded and its repetition prevented.

THE SCHOOLS.—Mrs. F. A. Burnett's school in the Seventh ward proceeds under favorable auspices. About thirty names are upon the roll, with an average daily attendance of twenty. After the cotton-picking season has closed, the number of pupils will increase considerably.

The sixth ward school, under the direction of Mr. J. C. W. Richardson, has an attendance of forty pupils. The public school of the fifth ward has been opened in Washington school house, and will soon be a large and flourishing institution.

A gentleman named St. Helen has been appointed assistant teacher in the seventh ward, and has opened school in Rev. Grandison Burnett's church. The appointment of a teacher and assistant for the eighth ward will probably be made during the coming week. The supervising director will visit the ward to-morrow and ascertain the best locality for the establishment of a school and also the best qualified applicant for the position of teacher.

We will attempt to give a complete report of all the schools of the parish in next issue.

A general reorganization of the N. O., M. & T. R. R. Co., has taken place, and it is announced that the basis thereof will insure the early completion of our railroad to its proposed terminus, Houston, Texas. Two companies have been formed, one to take charge of the New Orleans & Mobile road, the other of the New Orleans & Texas road, what has heretofore been known as the Louisiana Division of the N. O. M. & T. R. R. The two roads are to be entirely independent of each other. Three of the charter directors of the Texas road are to be New Orleans men—Messrs. S. H. Kennedy, L. F. Generes and Col. Hunt of the firm of Macaulay & Hunt. The first election of directors will take place on the first Monday of June, 1874. It is proposed to wipe out all the obligations of the old company and begin with a new slate. This plan will need legislative sanction, and hence can not be carried into effect until after next January, but as the men engineering it are of well known energy and experience in such matters we have confidence in their ultimate success. Besides completing the road to Texas, it is proposed to build a branch line from Vermilionville to Shreveport. This will make the thoroughfare the best paying and most important railroad in the South, and an invaluable acquisition to New Orleans.

BASE BALL NOTES.—A game of ball between the second nine of the Independent Rangers and a new club called the Young Cotton Planters took place upon the grounds of the Rangers last Saturday, and resulted in favor of the second nine by a score of 36 to 17. Mr. J. B. Hebert was umpire for the game. Only five innings were played.

A game is to be played to-morrow by the Stonewall club of Iberville and the Independent Rangers, upon the grounds of the latter club. This will be the second game between these two clubs, the Rangers having been victorious in the first contest.

At French Settlement, Livingston parish, next Sunday, there is to be a game played for the championship of the Amite district—that is, one of a series of games for that district—by the Pelican club of Hope Villa and the French Settlement club. The prize for the winning club in this series of games is a beautiful banner, donated by the officers of one of the steamboats plying the Amite river, and three clubs are participating in the contest.

The Springfield colored club of Donaldsonville crossed the river last Sunday and defeated the Ascension club by the remarkable score of 53 to 3 in three innings.

A match game will be played at the Dutch Stores to-morrow by the Keener and Red Stocking clubs. The Keener club had been invited to play the Burnsides in Donaldsonville, but on account of the previous engagement to meet the Red Stockings, were compelled to decline. They will come to Donaldsonville on the Sunday following, October 5th.

PERSONAL.—Messrs. Solomon Barmon and S. E. Hanna of New River were in town Tuesday morning, and paid our office a visit. They speak discouragingly of the prospects of New River cotton planters.

Mr. Bernard Lemann, an universally respected citizen and extensive property holder, has been appointed by Acting Governor Antoine to fill the vacancy in the Town Council caused by the resignation of Mr. Antoine Rodrigue. Mr. Lemann is a thorough business man and takes great interest in the condition of our town, and his presence in the Council will be a great acquisition for that body.

Charles Hill, Esq., Inspector of Tax Collector's offices, was in town Tuesday, and after spending a few hours left for Napoleonville. Mr. Hill is a genial gentleman whom none know but to hold in high regard. To innumerable pleasant social attributes he adds an energy and knowledge of business that makes him an invaluable assistant to Auditor Clinton. Good fortune follow you, Charles!

Dr. W. M. McCalliard has had an aggravated case of dengue, but is now almost fully recovered and able to do justice to his constantly increasing practice.

Parish Attorney Duffel has again returned from the sea-shore, and this time, we believe, he intends to stay. F. P. Poche, Esq., of St. James, junior member of the well known firm of Legendre & Poche, has returned from his northern trip. He had a pleasant time, and is much improved in health.

That talented legal gentleman, Judge E. Beauvais, called at our office a couple of times this week. He is acquiring a lucrative practice.

ANOTHER VICTORY FOR THE BURNSIDE BASE BALL CLUB.

They Visit New River and Vanquish the Independent Rangers—A Large Number of People Witness the Game—"Our Boys" Well Received by the New Riverites.

In all the glory of their splendid new uniforms, the first nine of the Burnside club left town last Sunday morning, about eight o'clock, in the large wagon belonging to the Ascension Brass Band, drawn by four mules. Proceeding up the river to Mr. Felix Rodrigue's store, they left the gaudy vehicle and the long-eared motive power to enjoy well earned rest and provender and walked to Dominique's ferry landing, where they entered skiffs and were rowed across the river to New River lane. Mr. Felix Reynaud's wagon here awaited them, and they were soon aboard the vehicle and bound down the beautiful lane. Arriving at Mr. Reynaud's about twelve o'clock, they were invited to partake of a bountiful cold lunch spread for their benefit by the lady of the house, and right heartily did they enjoy it. After a brief rest, they proceeded to Mr. V. P. Landry's place, stopping a moment at Mr. J. B. Hebert's to indulge in a glass of pure cool milk. Shortly after reaching the end of their journey they partook of a dinner in Mr. Landry's ball room, in company with the Independent Rangers and some invited guests, and then repaired to the ball field.

A large crowd of spectators had assembled to witness the game and much discussion upon the probable result thereof took place among them.

At 2 1/2 o'clock the captains tossed a nickel for choice of innings, the Burnside officer winning the toss and sending the Rangers to bat. Henry D. Minor, Esq., was chosen umpire and "play" was called. By the score which we give below it will be seen that the Rangers took the lead and kept it until the fifth inning, when the Burnsides, who had been gradually but surely creeping up, forged ahead and easily won the game by a score of 77 to 38. In the sixth inning an error was made by the scorers which added 6 runs to the score of the Rangers that were made after three men had been put out. The result should have been 77 to 32. The batting of the Burnsides was excellent and their fielding quite good. The Rangers play well together, and in fact are in better training, we think, than were their opponents, but the Burnside nine were too strong for them. The base play of the Rangers was very good, but few wild throws being made during the game. Among the players who deserve special mention are the first and second basemen of the Burnside club, who excelled in their positions. The following is the detailed score:

BURNSIDE.	O. R.	I. RANGERS.	O. R.

Time of game—2:15.

It being after sundown, the game was called at the conclusion of the eighth inning. Cheers were given for each club and for the umpire, and the players again repaired to the ball-room where they partook of a hearty supper. The Burnside boys then bid their New River friends good-bye, mounted the wagon and started upon their return trip singing some appropriate songs in honor of their victory. Another halt was made at Mr. Felix Reynaud's, where the "spiritually inclined" imbibed a horn of fire-water or wine. Upon leaving, three hearty cheers were given for Mr. Reynaud, to whose kindness and hospitality so much of the pleasure of the trip was due. The river was reached at 9 1/2 o'clock, and as luck would have it, the steamer B. L. Hodges was at New River Landing and the captain very kindly consented to carry the party across the river and make a special landing for them at Dr. Ballard's place, free of charge. Of course this offer was gratefully accepted, and when the boys left the boat they gave three rousing cheers for Capt. Baranco and the Hodges. Walking down to Mr. Rodrigue's store they made a vigorous attack upon his stock of gingerbread, hatched up the refreshed mules and set out for home, where they arrived at two o'clock in the morning, tired and sleepy, but withal in excellent health, and greatly pleased with their trip and signal victory.

Call for a Convention of Colored Men.

WHEREAS, On July 20, 1873, at a meeting of the committee of colored men appointed for the purpose of collecting and preparing testimony in regard to the transgressions against the Republican voters in the State during the recent election, for presentation to Congress at its session in December ensuing, it was deemed advisable to call a State convention of colored men for the purpose of electing delegates to be associated with members of the committee in such presentation, for the better advocacy of our cause and the more extensive representation of our people, that by the agreements and conclusions deducible, the enormous wrongs inflicted may be exposed and justice vindicated; and
Whereas, I have been authorized to issue a call for such convention; and
Whereas, said committee, at a meeting of July 30, 1873, adopted the following resolutions:

That this committee proceed to the election of ten members of this committee who shall jointly proceed to Washington with the delegates to be elected by the convention called to meet November 17, 1873.
That the ratio of representation of the delegation to be elected by the convention be three delegates from each congressional district of the State.
That those resolutions be inserted in the call for the convention.
Under the auspices, and by direction of the committee of colored men, I therefore issue the following call:

That the various representative districts throughout the State proceed as soon as practicable to the election of delegates to a convention of colored men, to assemble in Mechanics' Institute, in the city of New Orleans, at 12 o'clock M. on MONDAY, November 17, 1873, to elect three delegates from each congressional district for the purposes named. The basis of representation in the convention to be double that in the House of Representatives. Notification of the election of delegates to be promptly forwarded to me.
