The managers of the excursion to Napoleonville to be given under the auspices of Blue Bucket Fire Company on Saturday next, have favored the Chief office with complimentary tickets, for which courtesy we return thanks.

The Blue Store must be doing a large business, else how could its proprietor afford to order an issue of the Chief printed in blue ink especially to call attention to his establishment? This is the kind of enterprise that commands success.

To Mr. H. E. Duffel of Woodstock plantation we are indebted for a fine stalk of stubble cane with nine joints, seven of which are red; also, for a mess of splendid tomatoes of the Peerless variety picked from vines in his garden. Who can beat the cane?

Mr. L. A. Colomb has established a general fire insurance agency in Donaldsonville and takes risks at lowest rates in the most reliable companies in this country and Europe. See his advertisement, and consult him before taking out new policies or renewing old ones elsewhere.

Our friend Mr. H. Thompson Brown sent us, through the mails, this week, from West Baton Rouge a curiosity in the shape of one of the small chameleons or lizards that abound in this region, with the peculiarity of a forked tail. The little fellow eats flies and mosquito hawks with avidity and doesn't seem at all stuck up on account of his double allowance of caudal appendage.

Colfield's Battery C is projecting a celebration of the 4th of July which promises to be an enjoyable affair. It is proposed that the battery go into camp Saturday night, July 3, at some point convenient to Donaldsonville, and that the 4th be whiled away in such sports as target practice, pigot shooting, dancing on the greensward and an exhibition of infantry and artillery drill. We hope the plan will be carried out.

Messrs. Andrew Patton and L. A. Colomb, actuary and general agent of the Louisiana Equitable Life Insurance Co., have been making a very successful canvass in the interests of that sterling and reliable company, in this parish and St. James, and have written a large number of policies. These gentlemen propose to make a tour of the Lafourche, Terrebonne and Attakapas parishes, and we bespeak for them a cordial reception from the people of those sections. They are genial, high toned gentlemen, and represent one of the soundest insurance associations in the country.

The new advertisement of the Louisiana Equitable Life and Accident Insurance Company solicits the attention of all readers of the Chief. There is no more popular or reliable insurance association in the land; it affords absolute security to policy holders, its terms are as reasonable as those of any other company, and its managers and agents are gentlemen identified with the interests of the State and their respective localities. Mr. Andrew Patton, the Actuary, is an active, thoroughgoing man of business, while Mr. L. A. Colomb, the general agent for this section of the country, is known to nearly all our local readers as a reliable and estimable gentleman with whom it is a pleasure to have business relations. With such sterling company and such worthy representatives it is no wonder that the Louisiana Equitable holds high rank in the public estimation.

THE BLUE STORE.—Our readers will doubtless be surprised to observe that the inside pages of this number of the Chief are printed with blue ink, instead of the regulation black. We take pleasure in stating that this innovation is made in honor of one of the leading mercantile establishments of Donaldsonville, the Blue Store of that venerable merchant Mr. Jos. Gondran, who first established himself in business here in 1845 and achieved permanent success by making and maintaining a reputation for liberality and fair dealing that is known throughout the length and breadth of Assumption and adjacent parishes. A visit to the Blue Store will convince customers that its proprietor and his salesmen are "true blue" and that the rates at which goods are sold is enough to make high priced dealers look blue as indigo.

At the public sale of the property belonging to the successions of Casimir and Sarah Martin, last Saturday, the lot and improvements on Mississippi street at present occupied by Mr. Simon Moyse, were purchased by Mrs. Julia Israel for $4000; the lot and buildings corner of Railroad Avenue and Opelousas street, including the unexpired lease of the premises was bid in by Mr. Alphonse Martin, the administrator of the successions for $933 50, of which $975 was for the property and $50 for the lease. A billiard table and a dozen articles of furniture were knocked down to several parties for an amount aggregating $41 55. The total sum realized from the sale was $5025 35. The purchase price of the Mississippi street property is payable one-third cash, one-third in one year, and the balance in two years; that of the Railroad Avenue property one-half cash, the balance in one year.

THE CHEEVERS CASE.—Yesterday Judge Hahn arrived from St. Charles for the purpose of assuming the bench of our District Court to consider the case of the State ex rel., Attorney General et al., vs. Jno. A. Cheevers, which had been assigned for trial that day. Owing, it seems, to a misunderstanding between senior and junior counsel for the defendant, no answer had been filed in accordance with the agreement entered into when the case was previously fixed for trial. Under the circumstances the case had to be postponed. Upon suggestion of counsel for plaintiffs the Judge ordered that the case be reassigned for trial on the third Monday of July, the 19th ultimo, to which day the court accordingly adjourned. Judge Hahn essayed to return to Hahnville yesterday but missed the train and was compelled to lay over until to-day. He was a guest in the family of District Attorney Earhart, between whom and Judge Hahn a friendship of long standing exists. The Judge honored the Chief office with a brief call during his stay.

The Blue Store is determined to take the lead for cheap goods.

EXCURSION.—The Blue Bucket Fire Company of Donaldsonville will celebrate the national holiday by an excursion to Napoleonville, leaving here on a flatboat next Saturday, the 3rd day of July, at 5 o'clock A. M. returning Sunday evening. Tickets for the round trip have been placed at the very low figure of 75 cents each, which should of itself insure a large sale. The boat engaged for the trip will be fitted up in first-class style and every possible arrangement calculated to contribute to the convenience and enjoyment of the excursionists will be made. The Blue Buckets hope to replenish an encumbered treasury with the profits of this festival and we hope their friends and the public generally will contribute liberally to the success of the affair. There will be music and dancing on route and a grand ball and musical festival at Napoleonville Saturday night. The committee of arrangements is composed as follows: V. C. Cantrelle, chairman; Jos. A. Duffel, conductor; Jos. Thompson, treasurer; Emmanuel Berier, Chas. Shallowhorn and Norbert Brand. The Napoleonville committee consists of Messrs. Gus. Nicand, chairman; Joseph Nelson and John Williams.

ARREST OF A MURDERER.—On Monday last, at an early hour of the morning, in the Snake Bend neighborhood, Sheriff P. A. Jones of this parish apprehended a colored man named Jerry Washington, a fugitive from justice charged with having murdered Andrew McCormack, another colored man, on Mr. Thos. Pugh's plantation in the parish of Assumption, on the 5th of June. Washington readily acknowledged his identity and gave the following version of the killing: He and McCormack both worked on the Pugh place. McCormack's hog invaded Washington's potato patch upon diver's occasions, and the latter, claiming to have the sanction of the owner of the plantation, shot the animal and killed it. McCormack made this circumstance the basis of several quarrels with Washington, and finally, on the day of the murder, assaulted Washington, knocked him down and kicked him. As soon as Jerry could get away, he ran into his house, seized his shot-gun and emptied a charge of buck shot into McCormack's body, killing him instantly. The prisoner was conveyed to our parish jail to await the requisition of the Assumption authorities. Sheriff Jones made the arrest on a warrant issued by O. F. Hebert, Esq., Justice of the Peace for the seventh ward of Assumption parish.

MINISTERS' INSTITUTE.—A session of the Dayist Ministers' Institute of Bible School organized in this parish under the auspices of Dr. W. H. Roberts, was held last Saturday at Rev. E. Sutherland's church in Snake Bend. We present a condensed report of the proceedings:

The meeting was called to order by J. W. Gray, president, a quorum present.

After singing and prayer, the Bible lesson for the day—the ten commandments and sixth chapter of Matthew—was taken up and fully discussed, then the following preamble and resolution were read and unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, The Police Jury of this parish has, in conformity with State laws, adopted an ordinance requiring stores, saloons, etc., to be closed on Sunday; and whereas, in our opinion the measure is a good one and should long since have been in operation; and believing that such steps are germane to the religious and moral improvement of our people and especially the rising generation, upon whom the positions and responsibilities we now hold in life must soon devolve; therefore be it

Resolved, That we, the ministers and deacons of this institute do hereby express an unqualified approval of the ordinance of the Police Jury relative to the observance of the Sabbath day, and will do all in our power to assist in the enforcement of the salutary measure.

We are indebted to Mr. P. A. Jones, Secretary of the Institute, for a copy of the constitution and regulations of the organization, besides a copy of resolutions adopted at its first session, to which we shall give attention in the columns of the Chief at an early day. The objects which are sought to be accomplished by the Institute are eminently praiseworthy and beneficial, and the Chief will do all in its power to encourage the good work.

GRASSHOPPER PICNIC.—The Grasshopper Base Ball Club gave its advertised picnic on Sunday last, under the large trees on the bottom in front of Mr. J. Adlard Brand's plantation, and although the attendance was smaller than had been anticipated, those who were present seemed to have quite an enjoyable time. Music from the Independent and Caledonia bands, swinging, archery, leap frog, ball tossing and the occasional absorption of ice cream and lemonade into the system were the attractions which served to while the time pleasantly away. About 2 o'clock in the afternoon a smart shower of rain put a temporary stop to the amusements, but the picnicers sought shelter in Mr. Brand's freight warehouse and neighboring cabins until the brief rainfall was at an end. Between 3 and 4 o'clock the party left the picnic grounds and walked up to Brand brothers' pasture, opposite Donaldsonville, to witness a match game of base ball between the Grasshopper and Bernado clubs. The ground was uneven and damp, a stiff breeze springing up and there seemed an imminent prospect of more rain, hence the game was called at the third inning and the boys concluded to defer their contest to a more favorable time and place, viz: next Sunday, on the public square in Donaldsonville. After returning across the river in the Little Minnie and the large flat she towed, the bands united and marched down front street, thence to Iberville, thence to Railroad Avenue, Attakapas street, the public square and into Phoenix Hall, followed by the ball players and sundry picnicers, armed with bats and umbrellas and going through the manual of arms under the command of the Capt. of the Burnside club. A drink of lemonade all around at the refreshment table provided in connection with the Independent Band's promenade concert, concluded the picnic experiences of the day. We hope that the continued enforcement of the salutary Sunday law will give our young men frequent opportunities hereafter to get up picnics and other festivals for the amusement of themselves and their lady friends.

Snakes as Life Destroyers.

The loss of life in India due to the ravages of venomous snakes is almost incredible. Yet the disease which is as wily and deadly as the deadliest Indian reptile, is winding its coil around thousands of people while the victims are unconscious of its presence. It has long been a hobby with incompetent physicians to assume that consumption is incurable after the formation of tubercles has begun; and in every case they fail to effect a cure—of course tubercles had begun to form and they were incurable. The records of medical science disprove any such theory. On the contrary, in cases of lung disease which had been cured and the patients lived forty and fifty years in robust health, post-mortem examinations showed large cicatrices (scars) where the tubercles had been formed and removed. The tubercles are removed by absorption into the blood. An efficient alternative, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, must be used to cleanse the blood of scrofulous impurities. For tubercular consumption, is only a form of scrofulous disease. Golden Medical Discovery is a sovereign remedy for all forms of scrofulous disease, or king's-evil, such as tumors, white swellings, fever-sores, scrofulous sores, eyes, as well as for other blood and skin diseases.

The Sunday Law.

Interesting Developments in the Controversy—The Sunday Ordinance Enforced and the Injunction Appealed From—Merchants who Closed their Stores last Sunday.

As was generally anticipated, application was made to Judge Cheevers on behalf of our Town Council, last week, for an injunction restraining the Police Jury and District Attorney Earhart from enforcing Ordinance No. 9, commonly designated "the Sunday law," so far as its provisions apply to the incorporated limits of Donaldsonville. The petition was presented and the order of injunction granted on Thursday, the 17th inst., but the papers were not filed in the office of the Clerk of Court until Saturday morning, the purpose of the delay evidently being to deprive the District Attorney and associate counsel of the opportunity to take measures to set aside the injunction before Sunday. These tactics were anticipated, however, and an application to bond the injunction prepared, but the unlooked for absence of Judge Cheevers—who left for St. James early Saturday morning in company with the Town Council's attorneys—prevented a presentation of the application until late in the evening, when the Judge returned. He declined to accept a bond, we understand, on the ground that he could not estimate the damage which might result to the applicants for injunction in case of a suspension of the order.

On Tuesday District Attorney Earhart filed a suspensive appeal to the Supreme Court from the injunction so far as it is presumed to affect the State of Louisiana represented by himself. Judge Cheevers promptly granted the appeal, which is made returnable on the third Monday of next January, at New Orleans.

Proceedings were at once instituted in Justice Butler's court against the parties who kept their stores and places of business open last Sunday in violation of the Police Jury's ordinance, and the following were arrested and required to furnish bonds in the sum of $50 each for appearance in the District Court: Messrs. Simon Moyse, Maus Tobias, S. Weinshack, E. L. Weber, J. J. Lafargue, Fred. Rogge, Andrew Spies, Gustave Israel, Paul Leffevre, Emmanuel Berier, Jos. A. Duffel, Casimir Martin. Mr. Jos. Gondran is also one of the offenders but he was absent from town when the arrests were made. Messrs. A. Genazzini, Prudhomme Mollere, E. Ramirez and Thos. O'Malley also kept their places of business open, but the necessary papers have not yet been prepared in their cases.

Following is a list of the parties who, in spite of the strenuous expostulations of the opponents of the Sunday law and the extra-judicial assurances of town officers that they would suffer no penalty for disobeying the law, kept their places of business closed. We shall designate this list a

ROLL OF HONOR.

Bernard Lemann, M. Israel & Co., A. Kline, A. Rougeau, J. P. Park, Singer Agency, A. D. Vega, Alfred Guignon, Francis Vichnair, John Solovano, Mrs. J. Lemann, Mrs. M. Blum.

In case we have omitted any names which should be included in the list, it will give us pleasure to supply the omission hereafter. These parties are to be commended as good citizens, who place obedience to law above the consideration of a little temporary pecuniary loss and business inconvenience. We believe all who follow the example they have set will reap an ultimate reward that will more than compensate for disadvantages sustained at present.

Outside of town, we hear of only two stores that opened: that of Geo. A. Feig in Port Barrow, and one in Snake Bend. The proprietors were both arrested. Mr. Feig furnished an appearance bond and the other party, whose name we have not learned, is said to have paid the fine imposed.

To-day a rule was taken on District Attorney Earhart to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt of court in violating the injunction granted against the Sunday law, by prosecuting parties who opened their places of business last Sunday. The rule was signed by Judge Cheevers yesterday, but, as in the case of the injunction proceedings, the papers were not filed until Saturday evening, and service was not made upon the District Attorney until after 11 o'clock, though he was commanded to appear and make his answer at 4 P. M.

A large crowd gathered at the Court House to witness the trial of the rule, and the anti-Sunday law element fondly hoped to see our vigilant District Attorney placed in default for doing his duty, but the expectation was disappointed. Mr. Earhart took the ground that sufficient time had not been allowed him to respond to the rule, and his argument was ably seconded by Mr. Frederick Duffel; R. N. Sims, Esq., counsel for the town authorities, argued to the contrary, but subsequently acknowledged that a further delay should be granted. Judge Cheevers recognized the justice of the demand, and ordered that the matter be reassigned for Monday, the 19th of July.

We think it may be accepted as a sound proposition of law that the State of Louisiana, represented by its Attorney General and District Attorneys can not be enjoined from proceeding with the execution of a statute prescribing a penalty for a crime or misdemeanor. If prosecution of violators of the Sunday law can be enjoined, why should not violations of the statutes against murder, arson or larceny be amenable to suspension by the same process and at any time it suited the convenience of law breakers to seek immunity by this remedy? The idea seems absurd on its face, and it is so pronounced by every lawyer whom we have heard express an opinion on the subject.

The Sunday law should be respected and obeyed until the suit instituted to test it is decided by the Supreme Court. Our citizens and merchants will find in this course of action their only safety from the penalties prescribed for infraction of its provisions.

Terrebonne Politics.

Republican Mass Meeting in the First Ward—Endorsement of Garfield, Arthur and Beattie.

A mass meeting of the Republicans of the parish of Terrebonne was held in the first ward on the 9th inst., for the purpose of ratifying the nominations of Gen. J. A. Garfield and Gen. C. A. Arthur, for President and Vice President, and also that of Hon. Taylor Beattie, for Congress from the third district.

The meeting was called to order by Hon. W. T. Moore. The Rev. George Deas offering up the usual prayer.

On motion of Hon. O. Crozier the permanent organization was reported as follows:

President, B. H. Lewis; Vice President, Hon. W. T. Moore, Year Crozier, Willis Smith, Rev. George Deas, R. B. Davis, John Dickson, Wm. Parker, Rev. Austin Kennedy, Thos. Coleman, Robert Roberts, Smart Evans, Benjamin Jackson, David Ross, J. H. Thomas, Secretaries, Isaac Brown, R. B. Davis.

On motion, the report was adopted.

The meeting was addressed by Messrs. O. Crozier, Robt. Roberts, W. T. Moore, R. B. Davis, Jefferson Alexander, B. H. Thomas and Rev. George Deas, who in an able and telling speech.

On motion of B. H. Lewis, it was

Resolved, That we, the Republicans of the first ward of the parish of Terrebonne, in mass meeting assembled, do endorse the nominations of Gen. James A. Garfield for President and Chester A. Arthur for Vice President, and pledge them our undivided support, feeling assured that they will lead us to victory on the day of election.

Resolved, That in the nomination of Gen. Garfield the convention at Chicago displayed sound wisdom and judgment, and that we recognize in him a man of ability and worth, and believe he will be able to bring to his support, many from the opposing party.

Resolved, That with Gen. James A. Garfield and Chester A. Arthur at the head of the government there will be peace, freedom, prosperity and happiness.

Resolved, That the unanimous nomination of Judge Taylor Beattie for Congress from the third district meets with our most hearty approval, and that we regard him as the most worthy, competent and deserving candidate that could have been placed before the people. That we endorse his official record; that as a Judge he was just, upright and impartial, making no exceptions in the execution of the law. That we pledge ourselves to do all in our power to insure his election to the National Congress, feeling that it will be to the best interest of capital and labor to elect a man favoring the protective tariff; a man opposed to party government and one who is an enemy to the corrupt workings of rings. That in him we will have a strong and faithful supporter of internal improvements; the enlargement of our channels; rebuilding of the levees; increase in commerce, agriculture and finance. That as a member of Congress the people of Louisiana will be represented by one of her ablest sons; as a statesman he has no superior; one who knows and feels the wants of the popular masses of the people, and whose efforts will be devoted to the work of causing the waste places of his native State to bloom again.

Resolved, That a copy of those resolutions be sent to the Hon. Taylor Beattie and a copy to the Louisiana, Donaldsonville Chief, Morgan City Free Press and Terrebonne Chronicle.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

B. H. LEWIS, President.
