All-wool scarlet undershirts at Mrs. M. Israel & Co.'s for 75 cents.

The prolonged and serious illness of our talented young townsman, Michel Tobias, Esq., is a cause of much anxiety and regret to his relatives and friends.

Get your Christmas and New Years sweetmeats and chicken fixings at Maurin's Cheap Grocery Emporium.

A large crowd of people attended the night performance of the Locillard circus, Monday night, and the exhibition was of a very satisfactory character.

Those splendid men's white shirts for $1 each at Kilne's Old Reliable Store are the best article for the price ever sold in Donaldsonville.

Messrs. Geo. Y. Deligny of Assumption and J. Achille Landry of the Philadelphia Store, Assumption parish, were in town yesterday and honored our office with a call.

Don't forget that Ingman receives subscriptions for any periodical published. By giving him your subscription you will save money.

We had the pleasure yesterday of meeting Messrs. C. Z. Rooin, H. D. Minor and Adam Brand, well known and much respected citizens of the eighth ward of this parish, who visited town on a business mission.

We were glad to find them all in the enjoyment of excellent health.

Don't fail to read carefully all the announcements of MRS. M. ISRAEL & Co., offering unsurpassed bargains.

They not only have the largest store, the most extensive and best assorted stock, but their prices cannot be

The cold and rainy weather of fall and winter approaches. Get your overcoats and umbrellas at Mrs. M. Israel & Co.

THE EYE—It is simply wonderful, the reputation Hawkes' spectacles and eye-glasses have attained throughout the United States.

It is with sincere regret that we chronicle the dangerous illness of Mrs. C. L. Stevens, the estimable mother of Mrs. A. J. Greenwood of the Dugas plantation.

New mackerel and codfish, best and cheapest in the market, at Maurin's Cheap Grocery Emporium.

Mr. F. B. Didiary, our able and agreeable confidant of the St. James Creole Female, passed through Donaldsonville last Wednesday, on his way back from a visit to his friend Rev. Renard at Patecourtville.

We are much pleased to have the opportunity of congratulating our esteemed young friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. Arthur Melancon, upon the birth of an infant son, their first born, who opened his sweet little eyes on this big world last Thursday.

A FINE PICTURE.—Mr. Charles S. Gray of Oak Lawn, Assumption, a painter from whom brush a number of works of a high order of merit have emanated, has executed an excellent copy of "The Boy Jesus in the Temple," a noted painting by Dr. J. M. Heinrich Hoffman of Dresden, and placed it in raffle for the benefit of his orphaned niece and nephew, George and Lucie Deconno.

ALL STYLES, all sizes, but only one kind of price and the lowest.

WILLIAM B. HOWATKIN.—Mr. Francis Gomez, Jr., a citizen of this parish, was returning from Thibodaux in a buggy last Saturday, and upon reaching a point two miles below Napoleonville, about 8 o'clock P. M., he was attacked by a couple of colored highwaymen, who sprang from a Cherokee hedge alongside the road and stopped his mule.

ALL STYLES, all sizes, but only one kind of price and the lowest.
