HOUSE WORK A PLEASURE.

The Vacuum Cleaner and How it Has Revolutionized House Cleaning—Does its Work Thoroughly and is an Aid to Health.

The practical application of mechanics to the difficult task of cleaning house has brought into being the vacuum cleaner, one of the greatest labor saving devices ever introduced to the housewife.

In the old days it was the custom to take the carpets and rugs into the yard and beat them thoroughly; the rooms were swept, and, after the dust had settled, the things were dusted. With the new process it is not necessary to take a single thing out of the room, for the rugs and carpets can be easily cleaned just where they lie without a single blister on the hand, no perspiration and fatigue. When the sweeping is done there is no dust flying about in the air to settle in every nook and cranny, for the vacuum cleaner sucks up every particle of dirt and deposits it in a tight receptacle where it can be removed at will and thrown into the ash can.

The invention of the vacuum cleaner came about in this way. A man was watching the action of an electric fan and noted that particles of lint and dirt were drawn into the fan by the strong suction. This gave him an idea and he began the work which resulted in the vacuum cleaner operated by an electric motor. The cleaner consists of a small motor which drives a powerful fan. There is a revolving brush which thoroughly beats the carpet or rug ahead of the suction produced by the fan. The dirt-laden air is carried through the machine, depositing its burden in an airtight receptacle. This device is easily attached to the electric light socket with a long flexible wire and can be used to do all the cleaning about the house except the actual scrubbing. Flexible hose nozzles are attachable which permit the machine to be operated for cleaning upholstery, bedding, curtains or furniture.

It is a fact recognized by the medical fraternity that, through the elimination of dust and disease-producing germs, the sanitary device contributes to the health of the family.

It will lift moth eggs and germs with alacrity. As a clothes brush the device is unexcelled, the appropriate attachment being of great efficiency not only for cleaning men's clothing, but for furs, cloth gowns, the bottom of skirts where mud or dust has collected, and for many other uses which experience will suggest.

These vacuum cleaners are very powerful and many of them will actually suck up a quantity of flour placed beneath a heavy rug. They will pick up carpet tacks, pebbles and all the litter on the floor.

The carpet sweeper was a great improvement over the old broom, but at best the sweeper only cleaned the surface of the carpet and stirred up not a little dust. The vacuum cleaner cleans up every crack and crevice and pulls the dust from the warp and woof of the carpets.

A Golden Wedding

means that man and wife have lived to a good old age and consequently have kept healthy. The best way to keep healthy is to see that your liver does its duty 365 days out of 365. The only way to do this is to keep Ballard's Herbine in the house and take it whenever your liver gets inactive. 50 cents per bottle. Sold by X-Ray Pharmacy.

The rice crop in this section is in fine condition and promises a nice yield. Cane is doing well and corn is showing up splendidly. In the New River section, where most of the cotton grown in the parish is cultivated, the boll weevil has made its appearance and considerable injury has been inflicted on the crop. In fact, in many instances the farmers have become so discouraged that they have plowed up their cotton and planted corn in its stead.

"Is Life Worth Saving?"

Mrs. Mollie McRaney, Prentiss, Miss., writes that she had a severe case of kidney and bladder trouble, and that four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy cured her sound and well. She closes her letter by saying: "I heartily recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy to any sufferer from kidney disease. It saved my life." Sold by X-Ray Pharmacy.

Many of the showers of the past two weeks have been accompanied by high winds, with brilliant electrical displays, and some small damage resulted from these sources. An old frame building on the Lemann Company's Dugas plantation, used as a feed storehouse, was set on fire by lightning and burned to the ground.

BOYS' CORN CLUB.

Exhibit to be Held at Gonzales in October. Numerous Prizes for Successful Competitors—List of Members.

Donaldsonville, La., July 1, 1910.

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE PARISH:

Gentlemen:—The object of the boys' corn club is the same as that among men; that is, better methods of farming and greater yields at less cost. Many of the boys in the club who begin to study agriculture in this way will continue the study in the agricultural colleges; others will continue such efforts on their farms, and all of them will make more useful and more efficient citizens.

From the pleasant and profitable experience of owning and managing their small plots, they will develop into intelligent, independent citizens and farmers. The country needs such a citizenship, and such a life offers great opportunities.

The professions are crowded and the wage-earners must pay high prices for the necessities of life. The wise and judicious producer can enjoy health, wealth and contentment.

It is my intention to hold an exhibit at Gonzales in October, at which time premiums will be given to the successful contestants among the corn club members as follows: Greatest yield per acre; best exhibit of ten ears; best individual ear; best written account showing the history of the crop; best showing of profit on the investment; best essay on corn; best corn judging.

Premiums will be awarded for first and second places, and even for third place, if possible.

Judges will be secured from Baton Rouge, a brass band will be on hand, speeches will be made, and the people of Gonzales will be asked to provide for the crowd.

What will you do, Mr. Citizen, toward fostering this move which means so much not only to the country boy, but to you? Give us your contribution. Now is the time.

A despatch from Baton Rouge on the 4th inst., said: The Standard Oil Company is reported to be about to make extensive additions to its monster plant just above this city. At a recent visit of the directors of the parent organization, including such men as Mr. Archbold and others high in the affairs of the company, it was announced that the local plant is to be greatly enlarged and made into one of the Standard's largest refineries and distributing plants. It is reported that over a million dollars will be expended in the additions to be made to the plant.

LAMBREMONT COMPLIMENTED

Lieutenant Governor Presented With Diamond Studded Watch and Other Hand-some Testimonials of Esteem—Pleasant Incidents Mark Closing Days of Louisiana General Assembly.

The high personal esteem and admiration which Lieutenant Governor Paul M. Lambremont enjoys among the membership of the Louisiana senate took concrete form Wednesday morning in the shape of a brilliant presentation service in the senate chamber just before the opening of the day's session.

Acting as spokesman for the senate, W. H. Peterman, of Avoyelles, in an address that was studded with sentiment, formally presented to the lieutenant governor a beautifully engraved Elgin watch set with diamonds and handsomely monogrammed. The inscription on the timepiece is: "Presented by the Louisiana state senate, session 1910, to Hon. P. M. Lambremont, lieutenant governor, in commemoration of his magnificent and impartial record as presiding officer."

The watch contains twenty-one jewels and is accompanied by a heavy solid gold chain.

Governor Lambremont responded with feeling. He said the testimonial brought him the glad tidings that he has made good his promise to discharge his full duty to his state and to his party. He announced that in only a short time he will leave the office of lieutenant governor to step into one higher and then he said he wanted senators to know then as now they will find the door open, and they will always find him a true, loyal and staunch friend. The lieutenant governor's address was greeted with tumultuous applause.

Esteem for the accomplished president pro tem was shown in the emblematic form of a handsome gold-headed walking cane. Senator Walter L. Gleason of Orleans made the presentation address on behalf of the senate membership. The cane bears the inscription, "Presented by the Louisiana state senate, session 1910, to Hon. T. C. Barrett, president pro tem."

Mr. Barrett was taken completely by surprise. He responded eloquently and with much feeling.

Mr. Gueydan, representing the "unified and solid minority," as he expressed it, rose to second all that had been said for the lieutenant governor and the president pro tem, and for this time at least to vote with the majority. Scarcely had the lieutenant governor recovered from the surprise of his first present when Senator John Marks of Assumption arose to voice the sentiments of Secretary O. H. Simpson and his assistants. The gift was in the shape of a beautiful gold-handled umbrella bearing this inscription, "From the secretary and assistant secretaries of the Louisiana senate, 1910." The initials are inscribed on the butt of the handle.

SALLY AT GUEYDAN.

Senator Perrin convulsed the senate with the announcement, "I just rise to express my pleasure over the surrender of General Castro."

The remark was a friendly sally at Senator Gueydan, who looks like the picture of the ex-Venezuelan president. Mr. Gueydan took it as it was given, and joined in a hearty laugh. Mr. Marks offered the following resolution, and it was adopted by a rising vote: "Whereas, Lieutenant Governor Lambremont during his term of office has discharged the arduous duties of presiding officer of the senate with marked distinction and impartiality; and

"Whereas, we recognize in him a man of sterling qualities, both of heart and mind;

"Therefore, be it resolved by the senate of the state of Louisiana, That we extend to him our heartfelt thanks and loyal appreciation for his uniform courtesy and even-handed justice to all.

"Be it further resolved, That it is our sincere hope that his future career may be crowned with success in all his undertakings."—Daily States.

At the opening of Thursday's session, Senator Gueydan of Vermilion presented to Mr. Lambremont, on behalf of the senate pages, a handsome set of gold cuff buttons, and on Thursday night he was handed a magnificent watch charm bearing the emblem of the Knights of Columbus, with the compliments of the enrollment clerks of the senate. On the inside of the charm are the lieutenant governor's initials and the date of the presentation. Senator Rush Wimberly, of Bienville, acted as the mouthpiece of the enrollment clerks.
