Walter Lemann visited Grosse Tete Thursday on business.

J. M. Williams, of Natchitoches, is visiting friends here.

W. D. Park is spending a while with relatives at Broussard.

Charles Maurin, Sr., made a business trip to New Orleans Thursday.

Miss Odette Bourgeois, of Convent, is here on a visit to her sister, Mrs. A. A. Sarraudet.

Eugene Constantin, of Jefferson College, and Max Constantin, of Baton Rouge, spent Sunday here with relatives.

Miss Ora Gauthreaux will leave tomorrow for New Orleans, where she will be the guest of friends and relatives for a two weeks' stay.

Fernand Braud, of Thibodaux, spent several days here during the week as a guest at the hospitable home of Capt. and Mrs. Joseph Constantin.

Misses Lucille Landry, Doris Hanson and Ethel Werner, and Messrs. Armand Constantin and Leo and Ralph Scaevan, motored to Thibodaux last Sunday.

Mrs. J. L. Richard left during the early part of the week for New Orleans, where she will spend some time as the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Euclid Richard.

Let's all go to Thibodaux for Mardi Gras and help our down-the-bayou neighbors make their Carnival celebration a glorious success.

Dr. Sidney Vega has taken possession of his handsome new home in Lessard street. The dwelling is one of the most modern and comfortable in the city, and is a credit to its owner and the builder, Contractor W. C. Hazlip.

Mike Gravois, of the firm of Gravois & Martin, came up from Donaldsonville Tuesday morning and spent a few hours in town on business. Gravois & Martin will commence work Monday painting the residence of E. B. Schwing, -Plaquemine Champion.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Park was brightened Tuesday by the arrival of a sweet little daughter, who made her appearance at 9 o'clock in the morning. The Chief extends the little lady a cordial welcome to this mundane sphere, and hopes she may grow up to be a joy and blessing to her fond parents and circle of friends.

The twin boys of Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Rodrigue were christened last Sunday at the Catholic church by Rev. Joseph Marie, the names of Floyd Peter and Lloyd Paul being bestowed upon them. The sponsors for the former were A. J. Schroeder, of this city, and Miss Harriet Waguessack, of Thibodaux, and for the latter Wilfred Guigon and Miss Loretta Ferrier, both of Donaldsonville.

John Guichet is erecting on his lots in the Lemann Addition the commodious dwelling he recently purchased from the Ascension Coal Company, and which was formerly located on that concern's property on the east bank of the river in the fifth ward of the parish, where it was occupied for some years by the Grunewald family. The building will be an ornament to its new neighborhood.

Henry Dalferes, who for the past several months has been employed as bookkeeper and traveling representative of Swift & Company's local branch supply house, has been transferred to Alexandria, where he was formerly located, and left for that city this week. He is succeeded in the Swift establishment by his brother, Sabin Dalferes, heretofore employed at the J. A. Dalferes store in this city.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Donaldsonville A-muz-u Company, for the purpose of electing a board of nine directors to serve for the ensuing year, will be held at the Hotel Donaldson Monday, March 2, at 10 o'clock a. m. Stockholders who cannot be present are requested to authorize other owners of shares in the organization, by written proxy, to vote and act in their stead at this annual meeting.

The many friends here of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Crownover will be interested to learn that they are the proud parents of another lovely little daughter, who arrived at their home in Winchester, Tenn., last Saturday morning. Mrs. Crownover was before her marriage Miss Emma Sims, of Sans Souci, and has a host of friends in this community who will join the Chief in extending to her hearty congratulations and this auspicious event.

Church of the Ascension.

Services tomorrow as follows: Holy communion, 7:30 a. m.; Sunday School, 9:45 a. m.; morning prayer and sermon, 11 a. m.

In the afternoon, at 3:15 o'clock, Rev. Prosser will conduct services in the union chapel at Broussard.

The host of friends of the Dehon family will be interested to learn that they contemplate removing to Philadelphia, where Mr. Dehon will become associated in business with relatives of his who have conducted a profitable commercial enterprise in that city for many years past.

The many friends of Culeh Weber will be deeply pained to learn that he is confined to bed with recurring attacks of the illness from which he suffered a few weeks ago, and that his attending physician fears it may be necessary to remove him to New Orleans for a surgical operation. That he may be spared this painful ordeal and soon be restored to his former good health is the warm hope of all his friends and the community in general.

A meeting of the Ascension Parish Medical Society was held at the Hotel Donaldson Wednesday, at which an interesting address was delivered by Dr. Roy M. Van Wart, an eminent neurologist of New Orleans. It is to be regretted that the attendance was so limited, only four of the thirteen physicians in the parish being present.

Invitations have been received here to the marriage of Miss Marie Henrietta Tobias, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvan Tobias, of Baton Rouge, to Emmanuel H. Dreyfous, the ceremony to be solemnized at the Istroma Hotel in Baton Rouge Thursday evening, Feb. 25, at 8 o'clock.

A civil service examination for the position of postmaster at Belle Alliance was held at that place last Saturday under the supervision of Miss Rena Landry, the efficient chief clerk of the Donaldsonville postoffice. The only applicant for the position was John F. Truxillo, formerly assessor of Assumption parish, and manager of the A-muz-u Park racetrack in this city last season.

Prof. Richard Landry, of Barton, who is presently located in Baton Rouge, and J. A. Pourrier, a leading business man of the latter city, were visitors to Donaldsonville on Thursday of last week and complimented the Chief with a pleasant call. Mr. Pourrier, then a youngster, resided in Donaldsonville with his parents at the time of the bombardment of this city by Farragut's fleet, and he talked interestingly of some of the exciting incidents and thrilling experiences of those stirring times.

The seventy-ninth anniversary of the Baton Rouge fire department will be celebrated in the usual elaborate manner next Friday, the 20th inst., at the Ascension parish athletic contests and motorcycle races in the forenoon; a parade of the fire apparatus, firemen in uniform, decorated floats and Louisiana State University corps of cadets in the afternoon, and a public ball and awarding of prizes at night. Special rates will be given on all railroads for the occasion, and a pleasant and interesting day is promised.

Arrangements have been completed for the public installation of the officers of the Mohawk Tribe of Red Men tomorrow evening, and the grand dance to follow these ceremonies, and the occasion promises to prove a most interesting and enjoyable one. The committee in charge of the event, composed of Messrs. Paul Gissard, Henry Dugas and Louis Boston, have issued a large number of invitations to "pale-faces" to be present, and every loyal Red Man, with his family, is expected to attend and assist in entertaining the tribe's guests.

Charles Langbecker writes The Chief from San Diego, California, as follows: "Received paper O. K. Leave Feb. 3 for Frisco, Portland and Seattle. Due back in Denver first week in March. This is the garden spot of California. The air here covers 40 acres, with extremely bright prospects." Mr. Langbecker, a former Donaldsonville villian who is now located in Denver, left the latter city some weeks ago, accompanied by his wife, for a tour of California and other Pacific coast states, the trip being taken in the hope of benefiting Mrs. Langbecker's health, which has not been at all good recently.

Percha J. LeGardeur, Jr., Surveyor. The proper column of today's Chief will be found the professional card of J. R. LeGardeur, Jr., of Napoleonville, who has hung out his sign as a surveyor, after having practiced for the past three years as assistant to J. C. Watters, the well-known Napoleonville civil engineer. Mr. LeGardeur is a son of R. J. LeGardeur, Sr., vice president for Assumption parish of the South Louisiana Fair Association, and is a graduate of Tulane University. Having had considerable experience in surveying, he is thoroughly qualified to execute any orders for work in that line that may be entrusted to him, and The Chief speaks for him the kind consideration of the public. Mr. LeGardeur will practice in all the parishes of this section of the state. He may be reached through telephone No. 34, Napoleonville exchange.

The Chief's telephone number is 84. Call us up whenever you have any item of news.

MODEL FARM FOR ASCENSION.

Orleanian Buys 300-Acre Tract on Crescent Plantation and will Conduct Up-to-the-Minute Agricultural Enterprise.

One of the most significant and important real estate transactions ever recorded in this section was the sale Wednesday by the Lemann Company, Limited, to J. K. Newman, a prominent young capitalist of New Orleans, of 300 acres of land on the Crescent plantation on the east bank of Bayou Lafourche, about three miles below Donaldsonville.

The property will be developed into a model farm by the purchaser, who plans to operate an up-to-date agricultural enterprise patterned after the famous Biltmore Farm of the Vanderbilt estate near Asheville, North Carolina.

A dairy conducted along the most modern and scientific principles, with a herd of thoroughbred cows, will be an important feature of the farm, and it is planned to ship milk, butter and other dairy products to New Orleans daily in large quantities, besides supplying the local market with these articles.

The farming operations will include the cultivation of corn, oats, peas, hay and other forage crops, and will represent the very newest developments in scientific agriculture. A silo will be constructed, and the buildings and equipment throughout will be of the most modern and substantial character. Close attention will be paid to the saving of labor and the observance of the most rigid sanitary regulations, and a large part of the work on the farm will be done by means of electric power, which will be obtained from the municipally-owned electric light and waterworks plant in this city.

Mr. Newman is a son of Isidore Newman, the wealthy New Orleans financier and philanthropist. He said it is his purpose to demonstrate that the rich alluvial lands of south Louisiana constitute the finest farming section in the world, and that he proposes to enter into the venture on a large scale and to adopt the most approved methods, confident in the belief that the enterprise will prove a paying proposition from the start and in time will yield a large return on the investment.

The importance of this enterprise to the agricultural industry of Louisiana in general, and that of this section in particular, can hardly be overestimated. Its establishment is a source of intense gratification and pride to the progressive citizens of the parish, and every co-operation will be extended Mr. Newman and his co-adjutors to make the venture successful from the outset and productive of the most beneficial and satisfactory results.

Death of Ernest Veron. Ernest Veron, formerly of Smoke Bend, Ascension parish, but for the past eighteen months a resident of Lutcher, died at the Charity Hospital in New Orleans at 4:30 o'clock last Saturday morning, aged fifty-nine years, three months and seven days. Deceased was operated on for cancer of the ear about one week prior to his death, and although every resource that the medical science could suggest was employed in an effort to restore him to health, human agency availed not to avert the inevitable end. His remains were brought to Smoke Bend and conveyed to the residence of his son, Arthur Veron, from whence the funeral took place at 11:30 a. m. Sunday, with services at the St. Francis of Assisium church in Smoke Bend and interment in the Donaldsonville Catholic cemetery.

Both Mr. Veron and his wife, formerly Miss Amelia Rousseau, were natives of Smoke Bend, and resided there up to the latter part of 1912, when they removed to Lutcher. Deceased was an excellent citizen in every respect, and enjoyed the unqualified esteem and confidence of those who knew him. The expressions of sorrow heard on all sides when the announcement of his demise was received accentuated the high regard in which he was held and constituted a deserved tribute to his memory.

Besides his devoted wife, Mr. Veron is survived by five sons, Messrs. Wallace, Arthur, Hendrick, O'Neal and Dyer Veron, and three daughters, Mrs. Joseph R. LeBlanc, of Lutcher; Mrs. P. U. Jannville, of Smoke Bend; and Mrs. Philip Dominique, of New Orleans. With each and all of these, and other relatives bereaved by the passing away of this good and honorable man, the citizens of this community and the parish at large sympathize most profoundly and tenderly sincere condolences.

L. Stewart.

Death of Mrs. A. C. Hundley. Mrs. A. C. Hundley, nee Anna R. Barnes, died at the family home in Lessard street at 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, aged seventy-two years. She had been in failing health for some time, but was confined to bed for scarcely more than twenty-four hours preceding her death, having become seriously ill Monday morning.

Benefit Dance for Lock Fund. The newly-organized Donaldsonville Lodge No. 1191, Loyal Order of Moose, will have a dance to be given in Ascension Hall next Thursday night for the benefit of the campaign fund of the Bayou Lafourche Lock Association, and the worthy object of the entertainment should assure its unqualified success.

Delightful Motor Car Ride. T. W. Maddux, the affable young division roadmaster of the Texas and Pacific Railroad, tendered a few of his friends a delightful motor-car ride Tuesday evening.
