Mr. and Mrs. George Schaff and children, who have been residing at Vicksburg, Miss., arrived here this week to make their home in Donaldsonville, and are comfortably located in John Maher's attractive cottage in Claiborne street, between Railroad Avenue and Houmas street. The Chief joins their many friends in extending them a cordial welcome to our city.

We publish today statements of the condition of the Bank of Ascension and People's Bank of Donaldsonville, as furnished to the state bank examiner at the close of business on June 30. The showing made is a creditable one for this season of the year, and may be regarded with satisfaction by the stockholders, friends and patrons of the respective institutions.

Mrs. W. R. Boote, nee Mary Davie, daughter of Morgan Davis and Louisa King, of Mississippi, and widow of the late W. R. Boote of Thibodaux parish, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. A. W. Norman, on Smithfield plantation, West Baton Rouge parish, Thursday, July 2, at 7:30 o'clock p. m., aged 81 years, 4 months and 14 days. Interment in Magnolia cemetery, Baton Rouge, July 3.

Elr's Robinson, of St. Francisville, the talented young editor of the Speaking Leaf, official organ of the great council of Red Men, reservation of Louisiana, arrived in Donaldsonville last Saturday morning to participate in the Fourth of July celebration and Festival of Nations under the auspices of Mohawk Tribe, departing Tuesday morning. His visit was greatly enjoyed by his many friends here, among whom The Chief staff have the pleasure to be counted.

Luke Simoneaux, a white tenant on the Ella plantation near Paincourtville, in upper Assumption parish, was taken to New Orleans Wednesday morning for treatment at the Charity Hospital for an attack of cholera, which he contracted by skinning the carcass of a cow that had died from the disease several days previously. The local doctors diagnosis of the case was confirmed by the hospital physicians, who state that the patient has a slim chance for recovery.

The many friends here of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bates, of Shreveport, the latter formerly Miss Alice Braud, of Burnside, will be interested to learn that the little family circle of that estimable young couple has been increased by the arrival of another sweet baby daughter, who made her appearance June 29 and has been named Alice Lise, after her charming mother. Grandfather Henry C. Braud is immensely proud of his pair of queens, and with them to draw to his visions of a "full house" in the sweet bye and bye.

It is with sincere regret The Chief learns of the serious illness at Bogalusa of Prosper Plaisance, Sr., for many years a successful merchant and prominent citizen of Baton Rouge, but who since March has been making his home in the Washington parish town with his son-in-law and daughter, Ms. and Mrs. Rufus Bretling. Mr. Plaisance, whose health had commenced to fall before he left Assension, has been critically ill for several weeks, and the physicians in attendance at his bedside have given up all hope for his recovery.

A delegation of members of Olive Camp No. 18, Woodmen of the World, will leave here at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in D. Ohmeyer's capacious gasoline launch M. J. Henry, bound for Plattenville, where they will participate in the ceremonies incidental to the dedication of ten monuments in the Catholic cemetery at that place by the Plattenville camp of Woodmen of the World. One of the monuments is over the grave of Robert Rodrigue, a former member of Olive Camp, and the exercises marking the dedication of this memorial will be conducted by the local Woodmen.

Last Saturday the Donaldsonville boys who are holding down jobs with construction crews on the Illinois Central Railway in Iowa, Minnesota and South Dakota held a Louisiana reunion at East Sioux Falls, and incidentally celebrated the glorious Fourth. On Sunday they visited the city of Sioux Falls, which is seven miles from East Sioux Falls, returning to their camp at the latter place in the evening. RED MEN SCORE AGAIN.

Fourth of July Celebration and Festival of Nations Under Auspices of Mohawk Tribe a Big Success—Over $500 Cleared.

With an enjoyable dance in Red Men Hall as its concluding feature, Mohawk Tribe's unique three-day festival of Nations was brought to a close Monday night, after realizing in the fullest degree the object made by its originators that it would be one of the most original and interesting affairs of its kind ever given here. The measure of success achieved by the delightful entertainment exceeded the most sanguine expectations of the promoters and attests in a convincing manner the wide popularity of the Red Men order throughout this section, besides reflecting much credit upon the indefatigable ladies and gentlemen, members of Mohawk Tribe and Napanee Council, Degree of Pocahontas, who planned the details of the novel affair and directed its management. The gross receipts totalled $1003.60, and the net profit will be in excess of $500.

The festival opened auspiciously Saturday evening with a Fourth of July celebration and patriotic display. Dr. Paul T. Thibodaux, sachem of Mohawk Tribe, officiated as master of ceremonies, and eloquent addresses were delivered by Mayor Walter Lemann, Dr. J. E. Doussan of Louisiana reservation, and Great Prophet Peter Brisma of Napoleonville. The speakers addressed the crowd from the second-story gallery of Red Men Hall, the auditors being grouped in the street below. A fine display of fireworks preceded the forensic feature of the program and the American flag was raised with inspiring effect during the exercises, fountains of colored fire illuminating the scene as Old Glory was unfurled to the breeze.

On Sunday a convocation of Haymakers was held in Red Men Hall from 10 to 3 o'clock p. m., when a large number of "bums" were initiated into the mysteries of the fun and good-fellowship degree by Mohawk Hayloft No. 33 1/2.

At 5 o'clock a burlesque Haymakers' parade traversed Mississippi street and Railroad avenue, being compelled to disband by a downpour of rain before completing the route of march. The display, ranging in character of features from the grotesque and most laughable to the cleverest and most laughable seen here in years, and was witnessed by a big crowd of spectators, including many visiting Red Men from Geismar, Napoleonville, Thibodaux, Plaquemine, Whitecastle, St. James and other points.

Monday's program included a live stock conference in Red Men Hall at 6 p. m., at which addresses were delivered by Dr. W. H. Dairyple and E. L. Jordan, of the Louisiana State University, who discussed topics pertaining to stock raising and feeding and imparted much valuable information on these subjects. The entries in the poultry show were judged by Mr. Jordan and Mrs. G. D. Bentley, and blue and red ribbons were presented to the prize winners in the various classes. A number of high-grade birds were exhibited and this feature of the festival proved particularly interesting.

Another display that attracted much attention was the Donaldsonville booth, wherein was shown many of the truck and farm products grown in this vicinity, exemplifying the extent to which diversified farming is already practiced here and demonstrating some of the possibilities for money-making along this line. The display included an exhibit of canned goods put up by local householders, supplementing an extensive showing of the products of the local farm and garden, and specimens of every vegetable, fruit, flower and staple crop grown in this section, that are in season, were to be seen.

The attractively decorated booths containing the various attractions of the festival were located in the Vega building, and numerous nations were represented by lovely young women garbed in the national dress of the respective countries.

The pair of registered thoroughbred Duroc-Jersey pigs from Evan J. McColl's Evan Hall hog farm, Mohawk Chief I and Napanee Queen I, were won by Wallie Higginson, who immediately disposed of them to Charles Wilbert, Sr., of Plaquemine. These pigs were born March 1 and 6, respectively, and weighed 55 and 60 pounds on July 4.

Paul Giscard's guess of $1002.95 as the gross receipts of the festival was the closest made, and he was awarded the gold-handled umbrella donated by F. L. Trepanier.

The beautiful Japanese kimono embroidered by Miss Amelle Ciro was won by Miss Adele Dubon, of Baton Rouge. Miss Vella LeBlanc was the fortunate winner of the silver-handled umbrella donated by M. Schneider. The I. O. R. M. gold emblem was won by J. C. Babin, who presented it to Oscar Gomezaux, in the contest between the Loyal Order of Moose and the Woodmen of the World, the gold emblem of the latter organization. The contestants in the Speaking Leaf contest failed to secure the required number of subscriptions and were awarded ten per cent of the amount collected.

Great Sachem Doussan proved the champion gumbo eater, consuming five plates in one sitting, while G. P. Reynolds of New Orleans, great judo sagamore, carried off the laurels as champion ice cream absorber, his record being three gallons in one sitting.

Kalli Jacob Arrested in Trinidad. Special Agent F. C. Pendleton of the Department of Justice, in charge at New Orleans, received word Friday of the arrest at Port-of-Spain, Trinidad, of Kalli Jacob, formerly a well-known merchant of this city, who jumped his bond of $1500 and disappeared a few days before he was to be tried in the Baton Rouge division of the United States district court on an indictment charging him with concealing his assets in bankruptcy. Jacob will be brought back to Louisiana for trial.

Methodist Services. Sunday School will be held at the Methodist church tomorrow at 9:30 a. m., and regular services will be conducted at 11 a. m.

Next Wednesday night, at 8 o'clock, Rev. B. W. Cole, a Baptist minister of Gonzales, will deliver a temperance lecture. The attendance of the public is invited.

TO THE PUBLIC. Donaldsonville, La., July 11, 1914.

ON behalf of the members of Mohawk Tribe No. 33, Improved Order of Red Men, we desire to express our great appreciation of the assistance rendered by the people of this community in celebrating our nation's birthday, and making our "Festival of Nations" the gratifying success that it was.

We feel that this "greatest Fourth of July celebration in the history of Donaldsonville," as some people termed it, was made possible by the unlimited moral support we received from the palaces of our city and parish. It makes us feel that Mohawk Tribe of Red Men is a real live factor in the upbuilding of our hunting grounds, and that the old prejudice against the primitive Red Men is being gradually supplanted by a feeling of appreciation of their good traits, as exemplified by the Improved Order of Red Men, on the part of the white nation.

The financial returns of our festival were very satisfactory, and would have been larger but for one feature of our program which was not so well named, namely, the rain. Possibly we may be termed "rainmakers" instead of Haymakers. But "let's be thankful," everybody had a good time, anyway.

CITY COUNCIL IN SESSION.

Five Hundred Dollars Appropriated to Fair Association—Temporary Market to be Provided Pending Erection of New Building.

Donaldsonville, La., July 7, 1914. A postponed regular meeting of the commission council was held this day at 8 o'clock p. m. Commissioners present: Walter Lemann and W. J. LeBlanc. Absent: Frank Milano.

The minutes of the regular meeting of June 3, and a special meeting held June 8, were read and approved. Mayor Lemann presented the following report and resume of the results achieved by the commission administration for the first year ending June 14, and on motion, duly seconded and carried, the same was ordered received and spread upon the minutes of the council:

(Owing to lack of space, publication of this report is deferred until next issue.—Editor.) On motion, seconded and carried, the sum of five hundred dollars ($500) was appropriated for the South Louisiana Interparochial Fair to be held in Donaldsonville in October of this year. Mr. Lemann stated that all of the neighboring parishes and towns are contributing liberally, and that Donaldsonville should lead in fostering such a worthy undertaking which is certain to result in untold benefits and advantages to the city.

The clerk was instructed to advertise for bids for the privilege of collecting and removing paper, refuse and garbage about the city. Mr. Lemann stated that during the month conferences were had with the various butchers relative to finding a suitable place in which to establish a temporary market; that a building in Railroad avenue had been selected, which the city contemplates renting and turning over to the butchers for that purpose. He said that Mr. Milano would ascertain the cost of screening the building and otherwise putting the same in shape for occupancy.

The following report of cash receipts and disbursements for the month of June was submitted:

Table with columns for Receipts and Disbursements. Receipts: June 1—Balance, $2454 15; June 1—Cash from bridge, 33 41; June 13—Cash from sale of old mule, 35 00. Total: $2522 56.
