AFTER GRIPPE

Vinol Restored Mr. Martin's Strength Wapakoneta, Ohio.—"I am a farmer by occupation, and the grippe left me with a bad cough and in a nervous, weak, run-down condition, and I could not seem to get anything to do me any good until I took Vinol which built me up, and my cough and nervousness are all gone, and I can now say Vinol is all that is claimed for it."—JAMES MARTIN. Vinol is a constitutional remedy for all weak, nervous and run-down conditions of men, women and children, and for chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis. X-Ray Pharmacy, Donaldsonville, La. E. SATURDAY, JANUARY 22, 1916.

Mrs. F. B. Lemann was in New Orleans this week for a visit to relatives.

Mrs. Alexander Bloemstiel went to New Orleans this morning and will return tomorrow afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Libano, of New Orleans, are here on a visit to Mrs. Libano's mother, Mrs. R. Wahl.

Miss Seessel Breuzale, of Natchitoches, is spending the week-end here as the attractive guest of Miss Nita Sims.

Miss Ada Terrio, of New Orleans, is the charming guest of Miss Enola Fernandez, having come up to attend the Landry-Vega marriage on Wednesday.

Watch out for the day and date of Tobias's big auction sale. Bankrupt stock, consisting of dry goods, clothing, pianos, organs, and high-grade second-hand furniture, will be closed out regardless of price.

Mrs. Jasmin Tobias and Miss Kate Landry, of this city, and Dr. Jules LeBlanc, of Poincortville, visited New Orleans in a party this week, going down Wednesday morning and returning Thursday afternoon.

Walter Wintter, eldest son of Christian Wintter, the well-known local baker and confectioner, arrived here last Saturday for a short visit to his father, and a cordial greeting is being extended him. The young man is a druggist, and is presently located in Chicago.

E. O. Bruner has saved the state thousands of dollars by cutting out unnecessary expense and has made the Department of Agriculture and Immigration the most important branch of your government. Vote for him and you will make no mistake.—(Adv.)

At the Methodist church tomorrow morning Rev. P. O. Lowrey will use as the theme of his sermon, "Christian Stewardship, or the Measure of a Christian's Financial Obligation to the Kingdom of God." At night the theme will be, "Why Christ Was Rejected as the Messiah by His Own Jewish People." The public is invited to attend each of these services. Seats free.

A wedding of much interest to the numerous friends of the prospective bride and groom will be that of Dr. Jules LeBlanc, of Poincortville, to Miss Kate Landry, of this city, which will be solemnized at the local Catholic church next Wednesday afternoon, the 26th inst., at 1 o'clock. No cards have been issued, but relatives and friends of the contracting parties and their families are invited through this medium to be present at the ceremony.

Miss Ruth Harper, of New Orleans, accompanied Mrs. Frances Neibergall on her visit to the local Methodist church last Sunday, the ladies being the guests of Mrs. H. L. Baker, of Plattenville. Miss Harper has been appointed as successor to the late Mrs. Meekins, who died some days ago, as missionary in charge of the Mary Werlein Mission in New Orleans. Her father, Rev. J. D. Harper, and her brother, Rev. R. H. Harper, are both Methodist ministers.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasmin Tobias went to Baton Rouge last Sunday to attend a reception given at the home of Mrs. Edward Schloss in joint commemoration of the birthday anniversaries of her attractive daughter, Miss Marie Schloss, and of Mr. Tobias, uncle of the fair co-honoree. The function was a most delightful one, upwards of forty guests being present to extend congratulations and good wishes to the birthday celebrants. Mr. and Mrs. Tobias returned home Monday.

Lee Rogge, one of the community's promising and popular boys, was painfully injured Thursday afternoon while playing with several companions in the vicinity of the municipal power plant. The young man was running at full tilt through one of the smokestacks of the old powerhouse, now lying on the ground, when his head came into contact with an iron bolt projecting through the stack, resulting in quite a severe scalp wound being sustained. Dr. J. D. Hanson sewed up the wound and the young man appeared at school next day with a bandage over his head, and to the regret of his many friends at S. J. C. I.

More than sixty members of Olive Camp No. 18, Woodmen of the World, participated in the interesting ceremonies attendant upon the formal installation of the officers elected for the ensuing year, which took place at a special meeting last Sunday afternoon. District Deputy Robert Henderson, of New Orleans, conducted the impressive, ritualistic exercises, and the official corps invested with the authority of the respective stations were as follows: Henry Dugas, consul commander; Emile Dugas, advisor; Aramis J. Melancon, banker; J. C. Bouchereau, clerk; Thom's Mary, escort; Almiré LeBlanc, watchman; Felix Sanchez, secretary; Robert Robertson, manager.

After the main business of the meeting had been satisfactorily disposed of, a tempting supper was served in the lodge room, and the delightful spread was despatched with even a greater measure of enjoyment and satisfaction than had characterized the discussion of the preceding portion of the program. The menu comprised chicken sauce piquante, cold ham and pork, potato salad, olives, pickles and other good things, with accompanying "irrigants" and "chaser."

Henry Dugas, newly installed consul commander, served as master of ceremonies, and brief talks were made by District Deputy Henderson, Edmund Maurin, Aramis J. Melancon, and Emile Dugas.

The committee in charge of the feast was composed of Justillien Delatte, Robert Robertson and Nick Eris. John Delatte rendered expert and appreciated service as chief cook.

A Charming Affair. One of the most enjoyable events of the winter social season was the five hundred party and tea given yesterday afternoon by Miss Nita Sims in honor of her house guest, Miss Seessel Breuzale, of Natchitoches.

The drawing room was charmingly decorated with potted plants, cut flowers and ferns, and the color scheme of pink and white was carried out artistically in the floral arrangement of the dining-room and tea table. The latter was presided over by Mrs. Pierre Blanchard. The prizes, a lovely cosy corner lamp, an attractive picture and a dainty hair pin tray, were won by Misses Laure Fernandez, Annie Laurie Pujos, Magda Alleman, Ethel and Clara Park, Laure Fernandez, and Miriam Blum.

Opening of New Store Announced. I wish to notify my friends and patrons that I am preparing to move into the store building I recently purchased at No. 562-4 Railroad avenue, corner Claiborne street, and that I shall be ready for business in the new location Monday, Jan. 31. With enlarged quarters and improved facilities I shall be able to offer even better service than heretofore, and I cordially invite the public to call and inspect my new place of business, and to look over the splendid assortment of merchandise of every description that will be therein displayed for their consideration.

Thanking you for the generous measure of patronage accorded me in the past, and trusting to be favored with a continuance thereof in the future, I am, Respectfully, HABIL SHAHEEN, Proprietor Donaldsonville Racket and 5 and 10-Cent Store.

Ushers' Society Organized. Rev. Minor Chauvin of the local Catholic church last Sunday organized an Ushers' Society, the members of which will take up the collection at the Sunday services and act as ushers. It has been prohibited for gentlemen to stand in the rear of the church, and any visitor or other worshipper who may have no regular pew, upon entering the church, will be directed to a vacant pew by one of the regular ushers, who will be standing near the main entrance and can be distinguished by badges.

The officers and members of the society are as follows: Chas. A. Maurin, Jr., president; Emile Rodrigue, vice president; Elmo Rodrigue, secretary; Charles Melancon, Pat. Stakelum, Paul Thibodaux, Victor Maurin, Edwin Gros, Alex. Collet, Robert Michel, L. P. Boudreaux, D. C. Mattingly, Albert Landry and Lonny Blanchard.

Escapes Injury in Accident. Dr. John D. Hanson met with what could have been quite a serious accident Friday forenoon while responding to a call from Lauderdale. He was driving in his buggy along the river road, and having inadvertently passed the entrance to the cut-off, was attempting to turn around when he backed into a deep ditch, causing the vehicle to overturn. Dr. Hanson was pinned in the capstern conveyance, but fortunately his horse was not a fractious animal and bystanders who had witnessed the accident rushed to the scene and rescued the physician from his perilous position. He was not injured in the least, and the only damage resulting from the up-set was to the top of the buggy, which was partially wrecked. With a physician's characteristic courage and loyalty to duty, the doctor proceeded on his way and answered his call.

A Mistatement Corrected. The Chief last week, in commenting on the candidacy of Joseph P. Thiac for member of the Democratic state central executive committee from Ascension parish, stated that this position was presently held by Hon. Henry C. Braud, of Burnside, who was a candidate for re-election. Our attention has been called to the fact that this statement is erroneous. Sabin Dalferes is now representing Ascension as state central committeeman. Mr. Braud not having served in this capacity since 1904.

TRILBY. Famous Dramatic Play to Be Seen at Jimmie's Theatre.

"Trilby," pictured in five acts of startling and superb photodrama, will be the offering at Jimmie's Theatre on the occasion of the formal opening of that ultra modern and cozy little playhouse, Sunday, Jan. 30. This picture has been proclaimed to be one of the most powerful and realistic feature productions ever filmed, and was shown at Shubert Theatre in New York city for a long time at a high scale of prices to immense audiences. Clara Kimball Young, the queenly screen artist, and Wilton Lackaye, the distinguished dramatic star, who originated the role of "Svengali" in the legitimate production, are seen in the leading roles, supported by Chester Barnett, Paul McAllister and an all-star cast. Over two hundred and fifty scenes are required for the presentation of "Trilby," and the total cost of the production amounted to $71,000.

A brief synopsis of the story is as follows: Trilby, a model for an obscure sculptor, seeking adventure, meets lit-

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

The Chief is not responsible for views expressed by correspondents.

Safety First. Self preservation is the law of life, and while we are all more or less tossed upon the uncertain seas, few of us have the desire to launch our boat upon the one that has no shores. My experience in being tossed upon a tempest of tin fenders and rubber wheels last Wednesday evening about six-thirty prompts me to call attention to the parking of cars in front of the theatre, causing the view of pedestrians to be hidden from the many mad-rushing cars winding their way up and down the street, which resulted in my being hurled across the street, barely escaping with my life, and now nursing an elegant assortment of punctures and pains. Unless this practice of reckless driving is stopped, some good person will meet with possibly a fatal accident in a similar manner. C. M. ODELL.

Mrs. Walter Lemann was in New Orleans for a short stay during the week.

HIGH SCHOOL HAPPENINGS.

Institutional and Student Activities Interestingly Reported.

By Roland Binings.

The high school department started the mid-term examinations Wednesday and finished on Friday. The questions were sent out by the state department of education. School activities were suspended for the week, while everyone "boned" for the exams.

Dr. E. K. Sims talked very interestingly Monday morning to the entire school about the importance of proper sanitation, with special reference to the prevention of grippe. On Tuesday morning Dr. John S. Thibaut made a very instructive talk to the senior class on the origin and nature of money. His address was greatly enjoyed by the class. We hope to have Dr. Thibaut talk again, as he is an excellent speaker and the subjects he discusses are sure to be made clear.

The students have been enjoying a record or two on the Victrola at morning exercises every day. The Victrola is played in every room, and later will be used in connection with the callisthenic drill, which every student will be required to go through in the morning before school is convened.

New officers for the Senior Literary Society have been elected. They are as follows: President, Gay Martin; vice president, Kline Sims; secretary and treasurer, Minnie Bush. The program for the meetings of the society will be published in The Chief. Sessions are held every other Friday, at 2:40 o'clock p. m.

Basketball practice will be started Monday, and judging from the material on hand "Hit" will turn out a crack team. We will not wait for games, as a schedule has already been prepared. The senior class rings were received some time ago. They are of exquisite design and have proved entirely satisfactory to the members of the class.

There will be a Victrola recital in the high school auditorium every Friday night, followed by a jitney dance. The program for next Friday is as follows:

Band selection, "Battleship Connecticut March," Victor Military Band.

Tenor solo with orchestra, "The Trumpeter," John McCormack.

Violin solo, "Traumerei," Maud Powell.

Band selection, "Tennessee, I Hear You Calling Me," Victor Military Band.

Contralto solo with orchestra, "The Rosary," Ernestine Schumann-Heink.

Soprano solo with violin accompaniment, "Angel's Serenade," Alma Gluck.

Orchestra selection, "Tally-Ho Fox Trot," McKee's Orchestra.

Tenor solo with orchestra, "Cielo Turchino," Enrico Caruso.

Memorial Services For Rev. Massardier. The first of a series of monthly "mind" services in memory of the late Very Rev. Canon J. M. T. Massardier were held at the Catholic church at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday morning. The pupils of the three Catholic schools of the city attended in a body, and quite a large number of the laity were also present. Rev. Joseph Boudreaux, of Mater Dolorosa church, New Orleans, was the celebrant of the mass, and Rev. Benedict Stetter, O. S. B., of Chicuba, La., gave the solemn rites of absolution at the conclusion of the impressive ceremonial. Several priests from New Orleans and neighboring parishes were present in the sanctuary, among them being Very Rev. Canon Racine, rector of St. Louis Cathedral, New Orleans; Revs. G. Bosch, Stenmans, Cartisser, Barbe, Stetter, P. Gruel, and A. J. Francon, and Minor Chauvin, local rector.
