

RED CROSS DRIVE.

City and Parish Contributing Liberally to War Fund.

Donaldsonville and Ascension parish are responding generously to the Red Cross appeal. Everybody seems to be imbued with the spirit of giving, and everybody is taking an active interest in promoting the success of the great campaign by which it is intended, through the generosity and self-sacrifice of the American people, to raise the enormous sum of $100,000,000 for carrying on the magnificent humanitarian work of the Red Cross.

Hon. R. N. Sims, team captain for Ascension parish, designated the following lieutenants to conduct the drive for subscriptions: Walter Lemann, Dr. J. T. Bringer, Dr. D. C. Brumfield, Hon. Achille I. Picard, Dr. R. W. Smith, Joseph Gonzales, Dr. M. R. Cushman, Dr. E. K. Sims, Dr. Paul T. Thibodaux, Dr. T. H. Hanson, Dr. A. W. Martin, and George B. Reuss. Dividing into teams and assigning a certain territory for each team to cover, these earnest workers made a vigorous canvass of the parish during the week, beginning Tuesday, and up to this morning had reported the following results:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Amount. Rows include Reuss team ($414.00), Hanson team (1350.50), Dr. Sims team (315.00), Thibodaux team (12.00), Brumfield-Bringer team (507.00), Picard-Gonzales team (1012.20).

Total $3610.70. Assisting Mr. Reuss were Messrs. W. P. Rochelle and Augustin Ourso. The Hanson team was composed of Dr. T. H. Hanson and Walter Lemann, and the Sims team was made up of Dr. E. K. Sims and Dr. A. W. Martin. Messrs. Picard and Gonzales were assisted by Drs. Cushman and Smith.

With very few exceptions, everybody approached cheerfully, pledged a contribution to the sacred cause. Rich and poor, white and colored, all appeared eager to assist to the extent of his or her ability in swelling the fund. The campaign will continue until next Monday, inclusive, and from the results already accomplished it is believed Ascension's total should reach $4000.

Anyone who has not yet subscribed is requested to send in their contribution to Walter Lemann not later than Monday. No citizen of the parish who can afford to contribute should fail to do so, and thus cooperate in the noble work of relieving distress and alleviating suffering not only among our own soldiers and sailors, but among the afflicted people of Belgium and France as well.

DEATH OF MRS. W. W. DEAN.

Admired Young Woman, Formerly of This City, Dies in Minneapolis.

It was with profound sorrow that the friends of the Vega family in Donaldsonville—and that means the entire community—learned of the death of Mrs. William W. Dean, of Adams, Minn., formerly Miss Lena Vega of this city, which occurred at 11:30 o'clock last Sunday forenoon at a hospital in Minneapolis. Mrs. Dean had been suffering from a nervous trouble for some years, and had submitted to several surgical operations in the hope of obtaining relief, but without a cure being effected. There was a recurrence of the affliction recently and the young woman was taken to Minneapolis for treatment. A letter containing information to this effect received by relatives here Sunday morning was closely followed by a telegram conveying the sad news of Mrs. Dean's death.

Deceased was a daughter of the late Col. A. D. Vega, and was a young woman of charming personality and cultured manners. She was educated at the Convent of the Visitation at Mobile, Ala., and seventeen years ago was married in this city to William W. Dean, a prominent banker of Adams, in which town she had since resided. Four children were born of the union—Marcelle, Dorothy, William, Jr., and Douglas—and these, with the grief-stricken husband, are left to mourn her loss.

The remains of the lamented young wife and mother were interred at Adams Tuesday morning.

Meeting of Jersey Breeders.

A meeting of the Louisiana Jersey Breeders' Association will be held next Thursday, the 28th inst., at the J. K. Newman farm on Bayou LaFourche, near Donaldsonville. The meeting will be called to order at 10:30 a. m. by Prof. C. H. Staples, of Baton Rouge, vice president of the association. James R. Black, manager of the Newman farm, will deliver the address of welcome. "The Jersey as the Friend of the Sugar Planter" will be discussed by Mr. Gay or Mr. Murrell, of Iberville parish, and "The Jersey and the Present Creamery Prices" will be the subject of a talk by J. G. Lee, Jr. An address by Hon. Harry D. Wilson, commissioner of agriculture and immigration, will bring the forenoon session to a close. Luncheon will be served on the farm, and in the afternoon the following program will be presented: "Section No. 6 of the Clayton Act," Turner E. Wright; "The Jersey's Part in the War," I. S. West, of Baton Rouge; "The Jersey for the South," Wallace MacCombie, field man of the American Jersey Cattle Club. Addresses will be delivered by the secretaries of the Shreveport and New Orleans fairs.

Local Sale of Liberty Bonds.

Subscriptions for Liberty bonds through the banks of this city totalled $26,000, of which amount the Bank of Ascension handled $20,000 and the Commercial and Savings Bank $6000. The latter institution received subscriptions from individuals to the extent of $4000, and will carry $2000 worth of bonds for its own account. No figures were obtainable from the Bank of Ascension as to what amount of the bonds applied for through that institution have been sold to individual investors. The total given above does not represent Donaldsonville's aggregate investment in these patriotic securities. For instance, the Donaldsonville Ice Company subscribed for $5000 worth of the bonds through a New Orleans connection, and it is probable that a considerable amount was applied for through other agencies than the local banks.

THE LIBERTY LOAN OVER-SUBSCRIBED.

It is intensely gratifying to every loyal American to know that the response of the people of the United States to the government's call for subscriptions to the two-billion-dollar war bond issue has been generous, general and enthusiastic, and that the footing-up of the latest returns from the financial districts into which the country is subdivided shows that more than $500,000,000 in excess of the amount called for has been offered. Only two of the twelve federal reserve districts fell short of their minimum allotments, and the deficiencies were small in these cases. In the other ten districts the surplus ranged from millions to hundreds of millions of dollars.

Louisianians will feel a special pride in the fact that New Orleans and the state at large more than met their allotments of the well-named "Liberty Loan," exceeding the minimum of $8,000,000 by over $3,400,000.

The alacrity with which all classes of the population contributed to the country's need in connection with this great bond issue, demonstrates an awakening popular sense of the immense burden and responsibility which must be borne by the United States in the world-war which we have entered, not from choice, but because we could not longer honorably or safely keep out of it; and as the conflict progresses and the necessity becomes apparent for still greater efforts and expenditures on the part of our government in order that victory may be achieved in Europe and our own land preserved from hostile invasion, we may feel confident that our people will meet all future summons for national cooperation as promptly and decisively as they have responded to the call for contributions to the Liberty Loan.

EXTRA SESSION OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Announcement is made from Baton Rouge that Governor Pleasant has decided to call an extra session of the general assembly of Louisiana, to begin July 9 and continue fifteen days. The main consideration which moved the governor to issue the call is the necessity for amending or amending the widow's dower provision of the revised statutes of the state, in order that Louisiana farmers may become beneficiaries of the system of loans at low rates of interest established by the federal farm loan bank law. The directors of the system have decided that they cannot undertake the negotiation and allowance of loans in this state until the legislation indicated is enacted, and as there are said to be Louisiana applications on file or in prospect at the New Orleans branch bank aggregating about two millions of dollars, the importance of removing the obstacle to the granting of these applications becomes clearly apparent.

The governor will designate several other subjects for deliberation and action by the general assembly, among them that of making more drastic and effective provision for the work of child education, which has been rendered of increased importance by the entrance of the United States into the war and the necessity facing the country of improving and augmenting its meat supply.

I DIDN'T RAISE MY BOY TO BE A SLAVE.

A patriotic mother whose son is one of the recruits from New Orleans in Base Hospital Unit 24, which will be the first military organization to leave the southern states for France, has put to shame the weakling pliant, "I didn't raise my boy to be a soldier," with the following stirring composition, a veritable gem of rhyme, reason and maternal pride: "Suppose I am an anxious, loving mother! I'd have my son not only sweet but brave. I'd let him answer when his country calls him, For I didn't raise my boy to be a slave. 'Stop talking of your gifts on Freedom's altar! Your son's life is his own to give or keep. Come! Let us do our part and never falter. Hands off! When he is gone it's time to weep. 'Don't hang around his collar like a millstone And blight the life that once you proudly gave. When manhood comes young blood must have its freedom, And I didn't raise my boy to be a slave.'"

Going After Slackers.

Sheriff E. C. Hanson visited New Orleans Monday to attend a conference of sheriffs called by United States District Attorney Joseph W. Montgomery for the purpose of discussing matters in connection with the recent military registration. So far only four persons have been found who were in the parish on registration day, June 5, and who failed to register. Three of these were white men, two hailing from Brusly McCall and one from the New River section, and the fourth was a Donaldsonville negro. They all presented satisfactory explanations for their failure to obey the law, and after registering before the clerk of court were permitted to go free. Pursuant to instructions from the federal authorities, Sheriff Hanson is conducting a careful investigation with a view to locating possible slackers, and to this end is making a comparison of the voting registration rolls with the lists of citizens subject to the law as compiled under the terms of the conscription law. If there were any young men in this parish who purposely refrained from presenting themselves for registration, they will be hunted out and brought to severe account for their unpatriotic attitude.

PARISH FOOD COMMISSION.

Organized Campaign for Increased Production of Food Supplies.

Leon Newman, president of the police jury, and H. P. Broussard, superintendent of the public school, of Ascension parish, have constituted the following citizens to constitute the parish food preparedness commission: First ward, R. E. Noel; second ward, Adam Bergeron; third ward, James R. Black; fourth ward, Sidney Harp; fifth ward, Dr. J. T. Bringer; sixth ward, Louis Geismar; seventh ward, Sam. Barman; eighth ward, J. N. Delaune; at large, Leon Picard, J. C. Klos, Ernest Barton, Walter Lemann. Seven meetings of farmers have been held so far at different places throughout the parish, and others will be arranged during the summer, with a view of instituting an organized campaign for increased food production and the conservation of food supplies for home consumption.

MOTORS DISPLACE MULES.

Modern Equipment Broadens Field Covered by Lemann Store.

Always abreast of the times, the firm of B. Lemann & Bro., Inc., has given new evidence of its progressiveness and enterprise by "motorizing" its vehicular equipment, if the expression may be used. A step in this direction was made a year or so ago, when a two-ton Packard truck was secured. This proved such a satisfactory investment that it was recently decided to discard the mule-drawn wagons altogether. Accordingly, a two-ton Porscher truck (made in New Orleans) was placed in commission, which, with the truck previously purchased, is handling the delivery service of the store's wholesale department, and doing it in a much more expeditious, economical and generally satisfactory manner than prevailed under the old mule-wagon regime. Two new Ford runabouts have been acquired for the use of Fred. Landry and Paul Gisclair, the firm's hustling road representatives, and in view of the improved delivery service now available, the territory covered by the traveling salesmen has been materially extended and the volume of business handled thereby increased. The old Ford runabout formerly used by Mr. Landry has been converted into a one-ton truck for local delivery purposes, and the little Hupp heretofore operated by Mr. Gisclair is now doing duty as a store service car. Needless to add, the installation of this modern equipment gives the Lemann store facilities that place the establishment in the front rank of up-to-date and well-conducted commercial houses of this section.

Long Life Ended.

The death of Mrs. J. D. Montamat on June 9 marked the passing of probably the oldest resident of Donaldsonville, she having attained the age of 110 years Nov. 23 last. Born in Cuba and reared in the United States, one parent having been French and the other Spanish, she felt a pride in being king to four nationalities. She was living in New Orleans in 1812, when the army of Jackson defeated the army of Pakenham, being then a child of five years, and all her life remembered a number of incidents connected with that famous battle. She related that one man was jailed for refusing the use of his cotton to Jackson for breastworks, and that one of the street yells of the populace was, "We will sweeten Pakenham's coffee with gun powder tea, and pack him up like pork from Tennessee." Of her four marriages, so far as we have the information, the only descendants living are a grandson and granddaughter residing at Galvez, in this parish, at which place she was buried.

Special Meeting of Police Jury.

Donaldsonville, La., June 13, 1917. At the call of President Newman, the police jury convened in special session, with the same members present and absent as above enumerated.

President Newman stated the purpose of the meeting was to prepare a budget of estimated expenditures for the fiscal year 1917-18, and to transact such other business as may require attention.

In view of the fact that the probable revenues of the parish for the current year will not be definitely known until after the assessment rolls have been finally passed upon and accepted by the Board of State Affairs, it was decided to postpone the formulation of a budget until a later date.

Mr. Landry, offered the following resolution:

Be it resolved by the police jury of the parish of Ascension, that the action of the board of supervisors of the third road district of the parish of Ascension in purchasing a traction engine, road grader and road drag from the Louisiana Road Machinery Co., be ratified and approved, and that this police jury does hereby set aside and place for the payment of the cost of said apparatus, to-wit, $1955, a sufficient amount out of its appropriations to said third road district.

Be it further resolved, that three certificates of indebtedness maturing on the first day of May in the years 1918, 1919 and 1920, respectively, be issued and executed in the following form, to-wit:

"State of Louisiana, Parish of Ascension—Know all men by these presents that the parish of Ascension, for value received, hereby acknowledges itself indebted unto and promises to pay to the bearer hereof, on the first day of May, 191... the sum of $661.62, in lawful money of the United States of America, with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent per annum from date until paid, payable annually. Both principal and interest of this certificate are payable at the office of the Louisiana Road Machinery Co., New Orleans, La.

"This certificate is one of a series of three certificates aggregating the principal sum of $1955, all of like date and tenor except as to date of maturity, which are authorized and issued under a valid resolution of the police jury of the parish of Ascension, for the purpose of paying for the cost of the traction engine, road grader and road drag purchased by the board of supervisors of the third road district of the parish of Ascension, state of Louisiana, and all of which certificates in principal and interest are secured by pledge of this police jury of the appropriations made by it to said road district. Said certificates are hereby signed by the president and clerk of this police jury and the president of the board of supervisors of said road district, and bear the seal of the parish of Ascension, La., this 13th day of June, 1917. Said certificates have been further authorized by virtue of a resolution of the board of supervisors of the third road district of the parish of Ascension."

On motion of Mr. Landry, seconded by Mr. Newman, the resolution was adopted, roll-call resulting in a vote of 8 yeas and no nays.

Mr. Reuss offered a resolution appropriating $200, or as much thereof as may be necessary, for the purpose of repairing the bridge across Bayou Manchac at Hope Villa. The resolution was seconded by Mr. Landry, and on roll-call adopted by a vote of 8 yeas and no nays.

On motion of Mr. Nargassans, seconded by Mr. Cambre and unanimously adopted, the sum of $1200, or as much thereof as may be necessary, was appropriated to build a bridge across Lake in the eighth ward.

Mr. Cambre offered a resolution appropriating $500, or as much thereof as may be necessary, for the building of a bridge across Bayou Pierre (water hole). The resolution was seconded by Mr. Reuss, and on roll-call adopted by a vote of 8 yeas and no nays.

The following resolution was offered by Mr. Newman:

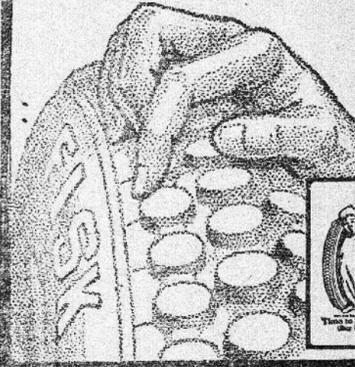

Be it resolved by the police jury of the parish of Ascension, that this body do offer for sale on the 23rd day of June, 1917, the forty (40) bonds aggregating $10,000 already authorized by the police jury of the parish of Ascension; that the president of the parish be and he is instructed to publish notice in the official journal of the parish of Ascension for the period of fifteen days before the date of sale, to-wit, of the fact that such bonds will be offered for sale on that date, and that sealed bids be received for the same, and that on said date the bids be opened and the open said bids thus received and formally Gallant Veteran of Confederacy Passes Away at Ripe Age.

Ursin LeBoeuf, a veteran of Co. E, 18th Louisiana Regiment, Confederate States Army, departed this life Wednesday, June 20, at the residence of his son, Emile LeBoeuf, in Faubourg la Pipe, aged 82 years and 3 months. Despite his advanced age Mr. LeBoeuf was in good health up to a few days before his death, and displayed his accustomed vigor by visiting friends, coming to town, and enjoying his meals. He was taken ill Monday, and notwithstanding all that could be done to stay the approach of death, at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon he closed his eyes in the last long sleep and quietly passed from this world into that undiscovered country beyond the tomb.

Mr. LeBoeuf was a native of St. James parish. At the outbreak of the civil war, when about 26 years of age, he enlisted in the famous Chasseurs of St. James, Capt. Alfred Roman commanding, and participated in the numerous hard-fought battles in which that command was engaged throughout the long and bitter struggle between the states. The brigade of which the 18th Louisiana Regiment was a part figured prominently in the battle of Shiloh, young LeBoeuf being an active participant in the fight and displaying much gallantry under fire. Remaining faithful to the southern cause until the last, Veteran LeBoeuf was paroled at Natchitoches in June, 1865.

The remains of the venerable gentleman were laid to rest Thursday afternoon beside those of his departed comrades in the tomb of Major Victor Maurin Camp No. 88, U. C. V., in the Catholic cemetery, after impressive services at Ascension church conducted by Rev. C. M. Chambon, chaplain of the camp. An unusually large assemblage of relatives and friends attended the funeral, giving evidence of the esteem in which the deceased was held throughout this section. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Edwin, Walter, Sidney, James, Oswald and W. A. Poche, Jr., grandsons of the deceased.

Mr. LeBoeuf is survived by three sons, Messrs. Frank, Joseph and Emile LeBoeuf, prominent rice planters of this parish, and a half-brother, Geriel LeBoeuf, of Monroe, La., besides twenty grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the bereaved sons and other relatives.

The entertainment will be under the general management of Wallace Barron, who will be assisted by Mr. and Mrs. George B. Reuss, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hayward, Mr. and Mrs. George Bergeron, Mr. and Mrs. Rodolph Landry, Mr. and Mrs. Emile LeBlanc, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Horard, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Noel, Mrs. J. E. St. Martin and others. A menu of the affair will be delicious, and served at the low price of $1, the menu to comprise chicken sauce piquante, courthouillon, shrimp and chicken gumbo, turtle soup a la Mrs. St. Martin, and other delectable dishes for which this immediate section of south Louisiana is widely famed. These distinctive gastronomic delights will be prepared by such well-known chefs as Clay Dugas of Belle Rose, Ernest LeBlanc, George Bergeron, and Mrs. J. E. St. Martin. Music will be furnished by a string band, and conveyances will be operated between this city and the festival grounds for the accommodation of Donaldsonvillians and persons residing at intermediate points who may wish to attend the entertainment.

J. W. Stephenson, of Burnside, was in town Thursday to attend a meeting of the jury commission, of which he is a member.
