

ANNOUNCEMENT!

WE ARE PREPARED TO RENEW, DYE, PRESS AND STERILIZE YOUR SPRING GARMENTS...

COUBRE'S SANITARY PRESSING CLUB 206 Railroad Avenue PHONE 13

SATURDAY, APRIL 27, 1918.

If you wish to enjoy a good laugh, don't fail to go to the Grand Theatre Monday night.

Mrs. Harry Weber, of Baton Rouge, spent a few days here with relatives during the early part of the week.

Mrs. Delmayne Hanson, of New Orleans, is spending the week here with her mother, Mrs. J. N. Colombe.

"Did I hear you say you were going to the picture show Monday night? I want to go, too. It's for S. V. I."

Miss Juanita Noel, of upper Ascension, returned yesterday from a delightful visit to friends in Plaquemine and Natchez, Miss.

A half-holiday was granted the pupils of the local schools Friday in observance of Liberty Day.

Mrs. Abe H. Bloomenstiel left Tuesday afternoon for Waco, Tex., where she will spend several weeks with her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Freund.

Miss Florence Michel left Friday morning for Lockport, where she will spend a few days as the guest of Miss Noelle Boudreaux, who is teaching in the high school at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Mose F. Bloomenstiel, little Carrie Bloomenstiel, and Abe H. Bloomenstiel went to Baton Rouge Thursday afternoon to attend the funeral of Jacob Farrnbacher, returning home the same night.

C. C. Weber addressed a Liberty Day rally at Brusly Landing Friday afternoon, having been detailed for the purpose by the State Council of Defense.

Mr. and Mrs. Abe H. Bloomenstiel spent last Sunday in New Orleans with relatives. They were accompanied home on the night train by their aunt, Mrs. Sam Freund, of Waco, Tex., who remained in town until Tuesday afternoon.

Members of the Methodist congregation are reminded that the services tomorrow will be at 8 p. m., instead of 11 a. m. The day being the fourth Sunday of the month, Rev. Henderson will conduct services at White Castle in the forenoon.

Miss Marjorie Arbour having been called to attend a meeting of emergency home demonstration agents to be held in Lafayette next Saturday, she requests the Chief to announce that the curb market in Donaldsonville will be deferred to Saturday, May 11.

Joe Brignac, of Head of Island, and Miss Agnes Millet, of Lake, were married at the courthouse in Donaldsonville at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon, Judge Louis Mollere officiating.

Henry Netter went to New Orleans Monday to attend the funeral of Alfred Levy, returning on the night train. Mr. Netter says the floral offerings at the funeral were exceptionally numerous and beautiful, and gave evidence of the warm affection felt for Mr. Levy and the widespread sorrow occasioned by his demise.

Ray Blumenthal, of Alexandria, spent several days here this week with his wife and baby daughter, who are the guests of Mr. Blumenthal's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Blumenthal. The young man is representing the Leon Godchaux Clothing Company at Alexandria, and returned to that city last night to resume his duties.

Miss Lorina Louniet, who is an operator in the telephone exchange at Melville, returned to that place Thursday after spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Achille Louniet, of Port Barrow. Miss Louniet came to attend the wedding of her sister, Maude, to M. P. Blouin, which was solemnized on the 14th inst.

Euclid Crochet, of Darrow, who for some time past has been filling a position on a dredgeboat engaged in levee building operations in Arkansas, tendered his resignation this week and went to New Orleans, where he enlisted in the navy. Mr. Crochet arrived Thursday for a short stay with his parents before reporting for duty on Thursday next.

Mr. and Mrs. Raphael Singer and Miss Freda Singer returned Sunday night from New Orleans, where they attended the annual convention of the Travelers' Protective Association, Louisiana division. Mr. Singer represented Post I, of Donaldsonville, and had the distinction of being elected third vice president of the association for the coming year.

Change of Bill at the Gem. "Life Mask," featuring Mme. Petrova, will be the attraction at the Gem tomorrow, instead of "The Sign of the Cross" as previously advertised.

Notice to Young Men. A meeting to re-organize the Junior Chamber of Commerce of Donaldsonville will be held in Red Men Hall next Monday night at 8 o'clock.

Charles Valsin Ferdinand Caillier, infant son of Ferdinand Caillier and Emma Julia Sterken, died Wednesday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock, aged 1 year and 11 months.

Manager L. C. Baudin of the X-Ray drug store has secured L. E. Dearborn, a competent and experienced pharmacist of New Orleans, to assist in the conduct of the prescription department of that popular establishment.

Mrs. Laura Ehrie, representing the food administration, gave a demonstration of the use of wheat substitutes in the making of pastry at the Donaldsonville High School Wednesday afternoon, using the domestic science classroom and paraphernalia for the purpose.

The Methodist parsonage was the scene of a delightful informal gathering Friday afternoon, when seventeen ladies of the congregation surprised Mrs. Henderson on the occasion of her birthday anniversary.

The Chief is in receipt of a dainty card announcing the arrival of John Wilfred Landry, Jr., on Wednesday, April 24, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Landry, in Lake Arthur, La.

Miss Rosalie Allen, who recently passed a very creditable examination for employment as a typewriter in the government service at Washington, has been notified of her appointment to a position in one of the federal departments and will leave for the national capital Monday.

A pretty home wedding was solemnized at Barton at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening, the contracting parties being Frank Honeycutt, of Red Cross, La., and Miss Katie Schultz, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike S. Schultz, of Barton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. F. Henderson, pastor of the Donaldsonville Methodist church.

Olive Camp No. 18, Woodmen of the World, at its regular meeting Wednesday night, authorized the investment of $500 of the funds of the camp in Liberty Bonds of the third issue. A similar subscription was made to the second Liberty Loan, making a total of $1000 placed at the disposal of the government by this patriotic and progressive organization.

Impressive ceremonies under the auspices of Olive Camp, Woodmen of the World, will mark the unveiling tomorrow afternoon of monuments erected by that organization to the memory of Sovereigns Frank Cannon and Robert H. Landry. Members of the camp will assemble at the forest in the Masonic Temple, from whence they will march to the Catholic cemetery at 4 o'clock.

A solemn requiem mass for the repose of the soul of the late Sergeant Arthur Folsie, who died in France on the 3rd inst. while in the military service of the United States, was held at the local Catholic church at 8 o'clock Friday morning. Rev. Father Chamblon conducted the impressive ceremonies, which were attended by relatives and the students of the Catholic schools of this city.

One of the young white men contributed by Ascension to Uncle Sam's national army, yielding to an attack of homesickness, said farewell to Camp Beauregard last Saturday without first having observed the formality of obtaining a furlough. He had secured a pass to spend the day in Alexandria, and upon seeing a south-bound train passing the impulse seized him to board it and come home for a visit.

An interesting event of the current week was the marriage of Miss Margaret M. Babin, the attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Babin, to James S. Poche, the stalwart son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Poche, which was very quietly celebrated at the local Catholic church at 1 o'clock in the afternoon of Wednesday, April 24.

The Chief is in receipt of a postcard from Frank Rieger and Bennett F. Babin, gallant Donaldsonville boys on active service with the American expeditionary force somewhere in France. The card is dated March 26 and bears this cheerful message: "Arrived safely in this beautiful, sunny country. Had a grand trip over and we both enjoyed it very much. Count on us to do our part."

Corporals Carlton Guillot and Charles Weill and Privates Sidney Acosta and Philip Delatte are here from Camp Beauregard for a week-end stay with the home folk.

ISRAEL SHOE STORE DONALDSONVILLE, LA. Specializing in Set Shoes

You Ought to Try a Pair of These Shoes. They are not only dainty in design and workmanship but the heel is well balanced and prevents, to a large extent, the constant turning of ankles.

They are not only dainty in design and workmanship but the heel is well balanced and prevents, to a large extent, the constant turning of ankles. They do not gap at the sides because of a perfect fitting last and a perfect fitting service which we extend to all customers.

Make this store your shoe headquarters. We can save you money. ISRAEL SHOE STORE DONALDSONVILLE, LA. Specializing in Set Shoes

CROWDS VIEW WAR RELICS. "Liberty Special" Enthusiastically Welcomed by Big Troop Here.

Upwards of 4000 people greeted the Liberty Loan war relic exhibit train upon its arrival here at 10:30 o'clock Monday morning, about ten minutes ahead of schedule time.

Major E. K. Sims welcomed the train and the party in charge on behalf of the citizens of Donaldsonville and vicinity, and took occasion to urge the purchase of Liberty Bonds as a tangible demonstration of loyalty.

The officers and soldiers aboard the train, as well as every member of the crew, were entertained at luncheon by the ladies of the local Red Cross branch. The spread was served in the office of the Donaldsonville Rice Mill, and consisted of baked chicken with oyster dressing, sliced ham, potato salad, rye bread, fruit, candy and coffee.

Promptly at 1 o'clock the "Liberty Special" left for Plaquemine. The Claiborne Williams brass band, which had furnished music during the stay of the train here, went along to deliver the trip to the next stopping place.

An interesting event of the current week was the marriage of Miss Margaret M. Babin, the attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Babin, to James S. Poche, the stalwart son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Poche, which was very quietly celebrated at the local Catholic church at 1 o'clock in the afternoon of Wednesday, April 24.

DRAFTED MEN DEPART.

Detachments of Whites and Negroes Entrain for Camp Pike.

Ascension this week contributed forty-one more men to America's national army, four of the number being whites and the remainder negroes.

Whitney Rodrigue, Donaldsonville. Charles Guedry, Smoke Bend. Samuel Joseph Landry, Klotzville. John Arthur Gauthreaux, Darrow.

Tom Dak, formerly of Donaldsonville and now located in Fort Worth, Texas, had been notified to report for Entrainment with this increment, but failed to appear.

The selectmen were escorted to the depot by the cadet military companies of the St. Joseph Commercial Institute and the Donaldsonville High School, and the members of the exemption board.

This afternoon a detachment of 37 negroes left for Camp Pike on a special train over the Texas & Pacific road which passed here at 2:40 o'clock. As has been the case heretofore with reference to the departure of colored selectmen from Donaldsonville, the men were given a "going send-off" by the members of both races.

Composing the colored quota were the following men: Andrew Barnett, Melkia Williams, Mace Bedney, William Davis, Octave Jacobs, Nathan Irwin, Parish Cain, Eugene Swazay, Wm. Henry Porter, David LeBlanc, Albert Williams, Lorraine Cornish, Clarence Frenniah, Elvin Butler, Caleb Edwards, Bert Curtis, Henry Potts, Joseph Noel, Lorenzo Hamilton, James Ulmer, Clairville Monday, Randolph Irwin, Jonas Winzy, Etienne Joseph, Clifford LeBlanc, Washington Bell, Joseph Ned Richard, Levy Martin, Cleveland Marshall, Edward Colwart, Ben King, Oscar Valentine, John Dorsey, Loville Jackson, Walter Martin, Joe Windling.

The following men who were to have gone forward with this contingent failed to answer to their names at roll-call: Joseph Robinson, Modeste, Melvin Johnson, Alexandria, Sam. Davis, DeQuincy, La. Edward Johnson, McElroy. The next movement of selectmen from Ascension will take place Wednesday afternoon, May 1, when the following white quota will be sent to Camp MacArthur, at Waco, Texas: Adam Theodore Elliser, Dutchtown and McElroy. Leonard B. Glorioso, Donaldsonville. Alonzo Sanchez, White Castle and McCall. Leonce Guedry, Cornoview, John Francis Justice, Barton. Moise Dille, Smoke Bend.

The cases of 118 men granted deferred classification by the local board on dependent claims, and which were appealed on behalf of the government by C. C. Weber, local attorney representing the war departments, have been passed upon by the district appeal board, with the result that 115 of the men have been placed in Class 1. Of these, 74 are men who have married since May 16, 1917, and 41 are men who claimed exemption because of dependent relatives. The ruling of the local board was sustained in the cases of one married man and two with dependent relatives. Seventeen additional appeals were taken by Attorney Weber Monday, all but one of them affecting registrants who claim to have relatives dependent upon them.

Willard Casso and Miss Carrie Weill, well-known young people of Port Barrow, were married at the St. Francis of Assisium Catholic church in Smoke Bend at 9 o'clock Thursday night. Rev. Adr. Loochs officiating. The ceremony was of a very informal nature, only the members of the two families being present. The groom is the son of Joseph Casso, and the bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Weill. Both have a wide circle of friends who will be agreeably interested to learn of their marriage, and who will join in wishing them an abundance of happiness and prosperity. The young couple will make their home in Port Barrow.

Be sure to go to the Grand Theatre Monday night. Special program. Excellent music.

Ask About Dickey Glazed Hollow Tile Silos. There are only two kinds of silos, Temporary Silos and Permanent Silos. If you want a temporary silo you do not want a Dickey Silo. If you want a permanent silo you DO want a Dickey Silo.

Hardware! Hardware! We are offering every article in this particular line at a Special Cut in Prices. If you are interested it will pay you to call and make your purchases here before going elsewhere.

Now is the time to dispose of your JUNK. I buy for spot cash, and at liberal prices, all kinds of Scrap Iron, Metals, Rubber, Rope, Bones, Bags, Paper, Sacks, Empty Barrels, Old Gold and Silver, Old False Teeth, Etc. Also, Pecans in any quantity.

PROMULGATION OF ELECTION.

State of Louisiana—Parish of Ascension. BY the direction of the school board notice is hereby given that on the 17th day of April, 1918, an election was held in School District No. 3, in the parish of Ascension, Louisiana, to determine the proposition to levy a two-mill ($0.02) special tax on all property subject to taxation in School District No. 3, parish of Ascension, Louisiana, annually, for a period of ten years, for the purpose of giving additional aid to the Oak Grove agricultural department in said school district.

That the majority of the taxpayers voting at said election in favor of said proposition was 25 in number and $41,872 in amount; and that therefore the said proposition was carried. This done and signed on this 24th day of April, 1918, at Donaldsonville, in the parish of Ascension. W. B. STUART, President, Ascension Parish School Board. H. P. BROUSSARD, Secretary, Ascension Parish School Board.

NOTICE

YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED that your state and parish taxes on immovable property for the year 1917 are now due, unpaid and delinquent. If not paid in twenty days, I will proceed to seize and sell property to satisfy same and costs, as required by section 52 of Act No. 179 of 1908. Said non-residents, together with property and taxes assessed to them, are as follows: Jack Shiro, vacant lots 4 and 5, square 102, St. Elmo, assessment $100, taxes $1.50. Willie Brown, vacant lots 15 and 16, St. Elmo, assessment $100, taxes $1.50. P. F. Meyers, vacant lots 2 and 32, square 49, St. Elmo, assessment $100, taxes $1.50. To the above amounts add interest at the rate of ten per cent. per annum from Jan. 1, 1918, until paid, and costs of this notice. E. C. HANSON, Sheriff and Tax Collector, Parish of Ascension, La., April 20, 1918.

McCALL'S FASHION AUTHORITY. For Nearly 50 Years! Join the 1,300,000 women who turn to McCall's every month for correct fashioning for patterns, for economical buying, for fancy needlework, for good stories—fun, pleasure, for help, for style. McCall's Fashioning Co. 10c a Copy 75c a Year. FREE! SEND A POSTAL CARD AND ASK FOR SAMPLE COPY OF McCALL'S or STAY-AT-HOME OFFER TO WOMEN OF LACK OF CLOTHING WITHOUT COST OF PATTERN. If not paid in twenty days, I will proceed to seize and sell property to satisfy same and costs, as required by section 52 of Act No. 179 of 1908. Said non-residents, together with property and taxes assessed to them, are as follows: Jack Shiro, vacant lots 4 and 5, square 102, St. Elmo, assessment $100, taxes $1.50. Willie Brown, vacant lots 15 and 16, St. Elmo, assessment $100, taxes $1.50. P. F. Meyers, vacant lots 2 and 32, square 49, St. Elmo, assessment $100, taxes $1.50. To the above amounts add interest at the rate of ten per cent. per annum from Jan. 1, 1918, until paid, and costs of this notice. E. C. HANSON, Sheriff and Tax Collector, Parish of Ascension, La., April 20, 1918.

NOTICE. NOTICE is hereby given that ASCENSION FARMS & DEVELOPMENT COMPANY, a corporation organized by act before Walter Lemann, notary public for the parish of Ascension, on the 21st day of March, 1914, recorded in the parish of Ascension in Miscellaneous Book 7, folio 458, has been, by proceedings duly taken in accordance with law, and now stands, DISSOLVED. FOR SALE. UPRIGHT FISCHER PIANO, black walnut case, in good condition. A bargain for a quick purchaser. Apply to office of this paper. WANTED. CLERKS for dry goods and general merchandise. Apply to or address WILLIAMS BROS., Litcher, La.