LIFT OFF CORNS!

Apply few drops then lift sore, touchy corns off with fingers

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little Freezone on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right out. Yes, magic!

A tiny bottle of Freezone costs but a few cents at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation. Freezone is the sensational discovery of a Cincinnati genius. It is wonderful.

Truck Effects Studied.

A bulletin of wide public interest soon to be issued by the Bureau of Public Roads of the United States Department of Agriculture will deal with the subject of motor trucks, their rapidly increasing use in this country, and the effects on the highways of this new method of transporting freight. The research which forms the basis for this report, the investigators point out, is necessarily of a preliminary character, the bulk of their data having been obtained during a period when truck traffic on the highways was abnormally large on account of the war. Further study will be necessary to determine definitely the type of highway best suited to withstand this heavy traffic.

Just What She Needed.
"I used a bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets some time ago and they proved to be just what I needed," writes Mrs. Volka Bankson, Chillicothe, Mo. "They not only relieved me of indigestion but toned up my liver and rid me of backache and dizziness that I had been subject to for some time. They did me a world of good and I will always speak a good word for them."—(Adv.)

Free Ticket to the Fair.
A ticket to the South Louisiana Fair, good for any of the four big days, is given free by the merchants of Donaldsonville with each $10 purchase. This ticket will be taken by the fair association at its face value of 50 cents in exchange for a season ticket worth $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children, the holder paying the difference in cash.

The Best Advertisement.
The best advertisement any merchant can have is a satisfied customer. No greater recommendation can be given an article than the following by E. B. Milburn, Prop., Guion Drug Store, Guion, Ark. "We have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for years and have always found that it gives perfect satisfaction. That it gives perfect satisfaction." (Adv.)

A thrifty man is safe from worry. Buy wisely, save intelligently, and invest in thrift and war savings stamps.

YOUNG MEN WANTED.

Y. M. C. A. Offers Attractive Positions in Various Branches.

The Young Men's Christian Association is endeavoring to recruit young men for permanent service with the association. There will be a greatly increased demand for men to fill responsible positions opening next year. They will be wanted as executives in various branches of the movement such as city, industrial, college, rural, and foreign. Competent men will be needed in various departments of the work including athletic, educational, religious, social, boys, and business.

These vacancies exist in South American, European and Asiatic countries as well as in the United States and Mexico. These countries are calling for trained leaders in Y. M. C. A. work.

Young men with college training are most desired. Technical training in all departments of the Association's field of service is given at the Southern College of the Young Men's Christian Association. Young men who desire to consider the opportunities offered by the association for a life calling can write to Geo. D. Booth, 509 Maison Blanche annex, New Orleans, or A. K. Jones, 303 Roumain building, Baton Rouge.

Makes Money With Pigs.

A year ago Lola Thompson, a school girl of Victoria, La., joined the pig club, and borrowed $12.50 from a bank with which to purchase a gilt, reports J. C. Marston, assistant agent in Natchitoches parish. Since that time the sow has had two litters of pigs—a total of 16, thirteen of which were sold for $135. The club member still has the sow and the remaining three pigs, one of which she recently refused $45 for.

Lola's success has induced her sister to do the same, and her mother. She has a sow with a litter of pigs and is well on the way to make nice profits from her club work.

It Helps!

There can be no doubt as to the merit of Cardui, the woman's tonic, in the treatment of many troubles peculiar to women. The thousands of women who have been helped by Cardui in the past 40 years, is conclusive proof that it is a good medicine for women who suffer. It should help you, too.

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. N. E. Varner, of Hixson, Tenn., writes: "I was passing through the ... My back and sides were terrible, and my suffering indescribable. I can tell just how and where I hurt about all over. I think ... I began Cardui, and my pains grew less and less, until I was cured. I am remarkably strong for a woman 64 years of age. I do all my housework. Try Cardui, today. E-70"

PECAN CROP.

Indications Are that Yield Will Be Big this Year.

Pecans for pralines will be abundant this coming winter according to John S. Denoe, field agent for the United States Bureau of Crop Estimates. The prospect just now is particularly promising, and barring high winds and other calamities, the crop will be the best since about this time of the year something near a full production may be figured on. Better stock is being used, new enterprises have encouraged production, and more modern methods are being employed. Besides, this will probably be one of the good years for the nut.

"Not a few of our correspondents," says Mr. Denoe, "are comparing the present prospect with the yield in 1912, which they recall as a remarkable year in Louisiana for pecans. The native seedlings are for the most part loaded from bottom to top, but the yields from the so-called papershell varieties are in general disappointing, mainly on the score of the trees being not old enough as yet. In some localities excessive rains during the blooming period had a very bad effect on the cultivated stock.

"The crop may be summarized as spotty. In some quarters the report is that the outlook is good to best ever, while other localities mention the crop as being only fair, sometimes poor. An average of opinions for the state as a whole, based on September 15, shows 90 per cent of normal, and this figure compares with 88 on July 1, this year, and 67 one year ago.

"The native seedlings produce by far the major portion of the Louisiana crop, not much headway having been made as yet with the cultivated varieties."

No Known Cure for Hog Cholera.
"There is no known cure for hog cholera and no preventive except the anti-hog cholera serum when properly used," says J. B. Francioni, state specialist, Extension Division, Louisiana State University, "and farmers should guard against using the cures advertised by local stockeers."

"Bulletin number 225 of the Louisiana Experiment Station, Lafayette, gives the results of a fair and quite elaborate test of twenty different preparations which are being sold as cures or preventives for hog cholera, or for what the manufacturer claimed great virtues as hog cholera cure. The result of this test shows those preparations to be without value for curing and preventing hog cholera."

"The Louisiana Livestock Sanitary Board, Baton Rouge, conducted some of the tests of a few 'sure cure' hog cholera remedies and have had the same results as the Indiana Station. The same is true of other tests conducted by different state livestock sanitary boards and experiment stations."

"In spite of the fact of all tests conducted and all other proofs that hog cholera cures are of doubtful value, still many farmers will readily accept the claims of persons who offer 'sure cures' for hog cholera."

"Such worthless cures do no harm if they do no good. Such is not the case. The delay they cause in consulting the demonstration agent or veterinarian as to the proper course to follow in treating the affected animal is costing the farmer thousands of dollars."

"Treat all 'sure cures' with grave suspicion, and place dependence in anti-hog cholera serum. Proper farm sanitation, good food and proper management will reduce hog cholera to a minimum and will save much money."

Weather on Highways.

The highway weather service, one of the new enterprises of the United States Department of Agriculture, operated through the organization of the Weather Bureau, is proving of benefit to automobile owners where it has been tried. The material in charge of the Weather Bureau of Kansas City, Mo., recently reported:

"The demand for a road reporting service is quite general and insistent and it will continue so, increasingly, until dirt roads become an anachronism. This office established a road or highway reporting service April 1 of this year, and without exaggeration, it is equal to the most practical service which our office otherwise can perform. It amounts to the direction of public motor travel and persons start or postpone trips as we advise."

The highway weather service was begun as a war measure in aid of motor transportation and was conducted with emergency money until the end of the war. Though Congress made no appropriation for its continuance during the present fiscal year, the department is endeavoring to continue it without special funds to meet the expense.

Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in Michigan.
Mrs. A. H. Hall, Caseville, Mich., says: "I wish to thank you for your grand good medicine, Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. We are never without it in the house, and I am sure it saved our baby's life this summer."

Mrs. Mary Carrington, Caseville, Mich., says: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy for years and it has always given prompt relief."—(Adv.)

Food for Laying Hens.
In order to obtain an abundance of eggs it is necessary to have healthy, vigorous stock, properly fed. The following are good grain mixtures for the laying stock, the proportions being by weight: Ration 1—Equal parts of cracked corn, wheat, cracked oats, 2 parts oats, and 1 part wheat. Ration 2—2 parts cracked corn and 1 part oats. A choice of any one of these rations should be scattered in the litter twice daily, morning and evening.

Despondency.
Sufferers from indigestion are apt to become discouraged and feel that complete recovery is not to be hoped for. No one could make a greater mistake. Hundreds have been permanently cured by taking Chamberlain's Tablets and can now eat anything that they crave. These tablets strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. If you have not tried them so at once.—(Adv.)

TO KEEP WELL

A Teaspoonful of PERUNA Three Times a Day

PERUNA THE GUIDEPOST TO HEALTH

Has Never Been Down Sick Since Taking PERUNA

Read this letter from Mr. Robt. Minnick, Grass Range, Montana.

"In 1900 I was out in Kansas running a threshing engine and the threshing crew had to sleep out of doors. One of the crew brought a Peruna Almanac to the engine one day and I was feeling very ill from sleeping out. I decided to give Peruna a trial and sent for a bottle of Peruna and a box of Peruna Tablets, which straightened me out in a hurry."

"I have never been down sick since that time. I do not take any other medicine except Peruna. I always keep it on hand. If I get my feet wet, get a cold, feel chilly, or a little bad, I always take Peruna. People should not wait until they are down sick and then take it, but should keep it on hand like I do and when they feel bad, they should use it."

Ask for and then insist upon "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" and always buy them in the original Bayer package which contains proper directions and dosage.
