GOOD WORK APPRECIATED.

Local Postmaster Complimented Upon Sales of Savings Certificates.

Dr. P. T. Thibodaux is in receipt of a letter from Lew Wallace, Jr., director of the United States government savings system at Washington, congratulating him upon the splendid work he is doing in the interest of the sale of treasury savings certificates. The letter is as follows:

August 8, 1922.
Hon. Paul Thibodaux, Postmaster, Donaldsonville, La.

My Dear Dr. Thibodaux: Mr. Davis, our Atlanta director, has advised me of the very splendid work you are doing in the interest of the sale of Treasury Savings Certificates, and I wish to state that we are very much pleased. This is a good job well done, and we want you to know that the Treasury Department here in Washington is keeping in touch with you. We wish to assure you of our complete cooperation at all times, and hope that you will keep up the good work.

Very truly yours,
LEW WALLACE, JR., Director

Pittsburg Man in Town.

Prof. William Albert Ramsey of Pittsburg, Pa., a dry cleaning scientist of national wide reputation, was in town recently investigating in behalf of the dry cleaning business, and was successful in locating a man capable of operating this modern cleaning process here in the person of Mr. B. Bayard. The advantages of this method are to wash garments in soap and water without wetting or fading the garment, and the merits of this process, which is noted for its successful cleaning of delicate fabrics, such as silks, satins, chiffons, organdy, crepes, and also gloves, mufflers and baby robes, and men's clothing as well, are depended upon in every large city in America. But it is to be remembered this system is to be operated exclusively by Mr. Bayard, who has gone to quiet an expense to install this method of cleaning in order to supply this community and his patrons with higher class work, which demonstrates the fact that he appreciates the patronage of his establishment. Prof. Ramsey, who is an authority in this line, advises all dry cleaning to be taken to Mr. Bayard, in order to receive the modern results of today.

Mrs. Maude Marshall and her son, Charles, of Chicago, who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bessonnet for several days, left for their home this afternoon. They were accompanied by Miss Maia Bessonnet, who will spend some time with Mrs. Marshall.

THE CHIEF'S POSITION MISUNDERSTOOD.

In a lengthy communication, published in last Tuesday's issue of the New Orleans Item, Senator R. B. Butler of Terrebonne, takes the Chief to task for an article appearing in its columns some time ago, and upon which the senator has placed the wrong construction.

Mr. Butler begins his communication by quoting from The Chief's article, and then he says among other things:

"From the position and use of the word 'meritorious' and the tone of comment, it is obvious that The Chief disapproves of the anti-race-ramble movement; while it is refreshing to find in its designation of those who 'argued' on the enactment, as 'fanatics'."

The Chief did not disapprove of anti-race gambling legislation. On the contrary it favored and urged the enactment of such a law, as Mr. Butler could have ascertained by reference to other issues of the paper, but The Chief deplored the fact that most of the time of the session of the Legislature was consumed in a fruitless discussion of the subject, and in the meantime much other legislation of equal merit was neglected and allowed to fall by the wayside. Nor was it intended by the words 'meritorious' and 'fanatics' to class the anti-gambling bill as 'unmeritorious' as Mr. Butler seems to hold, since The Chief would not have supported and urged the passage of an anti-gambling law if it had deemed it without merit.

Mr. Butler further finds fault with the article which he interprets as referring to those senators and representatives who supported the measure as "fanatics." In this he is very sure of the mark. No reference was made to legislators as "fanatics," nor was it the purpose to reflect upon the honesty of purpose and integrity of any member of the general assembly. There are many able and splendid men in both houses of the lawmakers, and these worked hard to serve the best interests of their state and people, but they did not accomplish as much as they might and would, had not the race-gambling legislation been permitted to monopolize so great a part of the time of the session.

Catholic Church Fair.
The several churches in charge of the various departments of the fair and festival, which will be given at the fair grounds on Saturday and Sunday, September 9 and 10, report satisfactory progress. The horse races and baseball will prove interesting and attractive to a large number of lovers of the sport. The entertainments by the "Fanny Men of Casey Land" of Orleans Parish, Knights of Columbus, will be a distinctive feature. There will be many other amusements to please and delight old and young alike. Excursions will be taken by those in charge of the restaurant, in the selection and preparation of the menu with a view of regaling all those who patronize this department with a sumptuous, tempting and appetizing meal. There will be cakes, candies, ice cream and cold drinks galore the hazaar will offer a display of all kinds of toys for the children, and fancy work and a variety of useful articles for the "grown-ups," and the candy wheel might be expected to attract its full share of attention. There will be music by a brass band during the day and by an orchestra at night. The grounds will be beautifully illuminated and the grounds committee will see to it that the best of order prevails. Everybody is invited to join hands and co-operate with the various committees in charge with a view of making the affair the big financial success that it deserves.

Levee Contract Awarded.

According to a news article in today's Times-Picayune, bids for the construction of six levees in the Fourth Mississippi District, totalling $288,271.45, were accepted by Major R. T. Coier, United States engineer for the Mississippi district with headquarters in New Orleans. Among the levees mentioned for which bids were accepted is the Sims levee in the Lafourche levee district, 868 feet long. This news item contrasts with the article appearing elsewhere in The Chief, in which it is stated that the protest filed with Major Coier, by the residents of Faubourg la Pipe, against the construction by the federal government of the levee along the line of the levee, out by the federal engineers had produced the desired effect and that the government would abandon the project and refer it to the levee board.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Veron of Smoke Bend announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Ella, to O. J. Bourgeois of Litcher. The happy event will take place at St. Francis of Assisium church, Smoke Bend, on Monday, morning August 21, at 5 o'clock. The prospective bride is an attractive and lovable young lady and numbers her friends by the score. The groom-to-be is a young man of sterling qualities and in the world war fought bravely in defense of his country. He was wounded in battle and was a patient at the Marine Hospital in Washington, D. C., for twenty-one months.

JEFFERSON PARISH AGAIN.

Fourteen Strike breakers Illegally Arrested and Held in Jail.

The "free state" of Jefferson is again in the limelight, this time, due to the alleged illegal arrest and ill-treatment of fifteen men, who are alleged to have been held in jail incommunicado for several days and brutally beaten by their jailers. The men were released last Saturday on writs of habeas corpus sued out before the federal court. Governor Parker has ordered an investigation made of the alleged outrage and it is said that the United States district attorney will also conduct an investigation.

Referring to the fourteen strike breakers imprisoned in the Gretna jail the following is from the New Orleans States of the 6th inst. "Hazlip said he was a student at the state university and came to New Orleans to make a little money to help him through school during the winter months. He said his home was in Donaldsonville, La., and that he had worked for a while in Baton Rouge selling insurance and that things were not very good in an outside way and came here where he obtained a job as a guard from the 'jurns' detective agency with Allen, who was also severely beaten."

Clyde Hazlip referred to above, is a son of Mrs. W. C. Hazlip of this city. He graduated from the Donaldsonville High School about three years ago, and has been a student at the Louisiana State University for the past two years. He is intelligent and ambitious and a splendid young man. He accepted a position as strike breaker to earn money to pay his way through the university. The affair is much regretted here where Mr. Hazlip has many friends.

All of the goods are fresh and of the latest patterns and there are large varieties to select from. The sale will present a rare opportunity to those who are so disposed to stock up on seasonal merchandise at exceptionally low prices."

G. B. Reuss, planter and member of the police jury from the first ward, who with his estimable wife is spending sometime at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Clippert in Derroit, Mich., has sent to a friend in this city a quite grand up here. Wraps and overcoats are worn with comfort."

Burnside Notes and Leaks.

By Henry C. Braud.

Mrs. C. S. McFarland was the overnight guest of the Savons last week. Both the steamers Virgie and Ruth passed their annual United States government inspection satisfactorily recently.

One of the oldest, most venerable and plain "old timers" in Donaldsonville is 82 years old. Mrs. Felix Gauthreau was born in this parish August 3, 1840. A sufferer for thirty years, she is still in physical and mental vigor.

Mr. and Mrs. Saxon gave my little guests, Mary D., Alice Elise and H. C., a delightful trip to Baton Rouge last week in their new Hudson six, the latest automobile to make its debut at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Johnson have returned and are occupying the top floor of the depot building as a residence.

A letter received from Dr. Miles, dated Otilin, Ontario, Canada, August 2, reads: "We have had a cool summer and I have had some very good fishing. I caught one bass weighing almost four pounds, and he certainly put up a big fight on my 8-ounce rod. The golden rod is blooming and many autumn berries getting red and I see a few ducks flying, all of which looks like fall and makes me glad, for I am always thinking of coming back home when I am away. There is no place like the Houmas to me, filled with hundreds of such happy days and memories. I enjoy reading your weekly letter to The Chief."

The building of a new levee at Riverton made it necessary to destroy all the trees fronting the residence, only one solitary live oak remains near the public road. The old levee which was replaced by the new was built 43 years ago. At that time one-half of the beautiful oak grove was destroyed. Today all a gone. Sad memories.

I have been favored with a copy of an address issued to the voters of Shreveport by Hon. L. E. Thomas, in his race for mayor of the second city of the state. Mr. Thomas appeals to "shrewd looking men and women of Shreveport for support." Again he says: "As your mayor it would be my purpose to attend all great national and congressional congresses and see that the natural advantages of Shreveport are duly presented by advertisement, speech and otherwise. From private information given me, he will be elected. If so, then I predict that at a meeting of all the mayors of the country, held anywhere he will be as the late Newton C. Blanchard was in the Southern States' Convention of governors held in Chattanooga, Tenn., in November 1905, to discuss yellow fever and quarantine, the equal if not the peer of them all."

Dr. Arminio Fraga in company with Dr. Ralph Hopkins, visited the Leper Home this week. Dr. Fraga was sent to the United States a year ago by the Brazilian government to make a study of the principal hospitals of this country, and especially to secure data on leprosy. The doctor reports that there are 5000 lepers in Brazil. The latest statistics gives the total in the United States as 1200, with 500 sojourning in Louisiana. Of the latter number 170 are at the Leper home.

Some eighteen years ago, a plantation negro labor, born on the Clark plantation about thirty years before, became patriotic and quit "the plow and two mule" and joined the army. Jackson Whiteside is now on a furlough, coming from New Mexico, near the Mexican border, where his company is stationed. Jack is visiting two aunts and other relatives. He called to pay his respects to me. I found him as polite and courteous as any true soldier can be after serving his country faithfully for eighteen years.

Mrs. P. A. Poche and her step-daughter, Miss Ivy Poche, left Wednesday for New Orleans, at which place they took a steamer for their home in Havana, Cuba. The visitors spent four weeks here as the guests of Mrs. Poche's mother, Mrs. Ozeme Landry.

What Is a Good Shoe?

THAT question can be answered by asking another one—What is a good foot?

A good foot doesn't ache. It doesn't sag down in the middle. It is springy in action. It doesn't easily get tired. It is free from callouses and corns. And it is good to look at because it isn't deformed.

And a good shoe doesn't make the foot tired. It supports the arch. It is flexible and responds to every movement. It is so comfortable that the foot isn't conscious of wearing it. And it is smart-looking, long-wearing and shape-keeping.

Good shoes and good feet travel together.

Edwin Clapp Shoes will give you that comfort, value and satisfaction we have described. Your feet will feel good in them—because for sixty-nine years no finer shoes have been made on this continent.

Just try a pair.
