TO GRAVEL TOWN STREETS.

Approximately 33 Additional Blocks to Be Hard-Surfaced.

Gravel has been ordered by Road District No. 1, which includes Donaldsonville, sufficient to hard-surface approximately thirty-three additional city blocks, and the work will commence as soon as the gravel begins to arrive. Last year about eighteen blocks were gravelled by the road district and the thirty-three additional squares contemplated will make a total of fifty-one blocks hard-surfaced in the town by the district.

Following the policy pursued last year, the gravel will be laid in the principal streets where there is the most traffic and with a view of connecting the most important points. The completion of this job will leave a considerable number of blocks without gravel, but will place practically every piece of property north of the Texas and Pacific right of way within one block or less of a gravelled street.

Judge Maurin's Court.

The fourth ward justice court, presided over by Judge Maurin, who attended to a considerable portion of criminal cases from other wards, was in session this week listening to complaints.

The first case was that of ex-justice of the Peace Jos. Sevario of the ninth ward, who swore to an affidavit charging that on the 17th of August he had shot and killed the affiant, Mr. Bankston, armed with a double-barrel shotgun, laid in wait for him in the street and shot him.

Next came Freddy Carter of the A Bend settlement, who charged Joseph Joshua with assault by shooting at affiant. Constable Willie C. Breaux of the fifth ward incarcerated the defendant. Joshua was released later on bond.

A number of other cases from town ranging from slander, stealing, disturbing the peace, threats to kill, trespass, were given attention by Judge Maurin. All the cases will come up before the district court at its next jury term.

Philips-Chapman.

Last Monday at one o'clock in the afternoon "San Souci," the suburb residence of A. J. Chapman, official stenographer of the district court, Rowland W. Philips, a prominent stenographer of New York, and Miss Camilla C. Chapman, sister of A. J. Chapman, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Judge Edmund Maurin officiating. The witnesses were A. J. Chapman, Mrs. Marie Chapman, Mrs. Alma Danner and Mrs. Yallie Landry. The young couple left on the evening train for New Orleans and Tuesday sailed by steamer Monum from New Orleans for New York, the home of the groom, who is prominent and holds the position of court reporter in one of the higher tribunals.

AN EXTRAORDINARY PICTURE.

"A Woman of No Importance" to Be Shown at the Community Theatre.

This truly wonderful photoplay which will be next Thursday's offering at the Community Theatre as a lot of things to commend it to the picture-going public. One can scarcely start at anything but the story in view of the fact that the play from the able pen of Oscar Wilde has already endeared itself to playgoers in every corner of the civilized world. And yet if one forgets the history of the play, he certainly cannot fail to be impressed with the artistry of the performances given by at least two members of the company assembled to transfer the drama to the screen. Fay Compton, who plays the role of Rachel—following such actresses as Rose Coghlan, Mrs. Pat Campbell and Margaret Anglin—in her first appearance in this city gives every indication that she is one of the most capable actresses now appearing before the motion picture camera. It is of interest to observe that Miss Compton is a sister of Compton Mackenzie, the well known English novelist. Milton Rosmer has the other big role in the piece, appearing as Lord Illingworth, the type of man whose selfish gratification of his lower instincts is constantly spreading suffering and misery throughout the world. He plays the role faultlessly. In the first American stage production of the play this role was entrusted to Maurice Barrymore in support of Rose Coghlan as Rachel.

Beautiful pictures, both outdoors and indoors, have been chosen as the background for the narration of the story. They add materially to the value of the entertainment. The famous Jazzland Orchestra of Beaumont, Texas, has been engaged to furnish music from 4 to 8 o'clock p. m.

An Enjoyable Picnic.

Last Thursday a group of altar boys under the care of Brother Ignatius, and accompanied by Rev. C. M. Chambon and Brother Emmanuel, went on a picnic to Baton Rouge. Crossing the river on the 9 o'clock ferry the party proceeded via the Jefferson Highway and arrived at St. Vincent's Academy in the Capital City a little before 11 o'clock. Shortly after their arrival a sumptuous lunch was served which was greatly enjoyed by all. In the afternoon the boys accompanied by Brother Cyril of St. Vincent's Academy and Brother Ignatius, went sight seeing. The objects they enjoyed the most were the capitol building and the Standard Oil Company's plant. At the capitol they were shown through both rooms of the legislature and ascended to the top of the building where they had a fine view of the whole city and surrounding country. On the return trip, one of the cars experienced tire trouble, which caused delay and at 6 o'clock they were still some distance from Darrou, but by speeding up a little and blowing the horns when approaching the landing they attracted the attention of the captain of the boat, which had already left on the last trip, and he returned to the Darrou wharf to take them on, and the party reached home safely at 6:30 o'clock after a day of pleasure and delight, punctuated with a little excitement and speed thrills on their return journey.

Bank Celebrates.

The Bank of Lafourche of Thibodaux celebrated its twenty-fifth anniversary by a reunion of the directors, officers, assistant cashiers and clerks, in the directors' room last Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock, followed by a banquet at Jeffries Hotel, of which John M. Maher of this city is lessee, at 8 p. m. The menu for the occasion consisted of shrimp cocktail, gumbo a la Creole, broiled trout, turkey and dressing, sugar peas (French), petit pois, stuffed eggplants, river shrimp, tomato salad, celery, cakes, ice cream, souvenir la monnaie, coffee, tea or milk, pop and Bordeaux. The menu and names of the officers and directors of the bank were printed in silver letters on a neat and attractive embossed folder. All those present relished the repast served by Mr. Maher and were loud in their praise of the selection of the menu and the excellency of the cooking and service.

Burnside Notes and Leaks.

By Henry C. Brand.

J. F. Saxon went to New Orleans Wednesday, returning the next day with his son, Jim, who spent two months in Savannah, Ga. While on his vacation he enjoyed several auto drives, one of 300 miles to Asheville, N. C.

Victor Grima, only son of George Grima, rice broker of New Orleans, was a business visitor here this week. He was the guest of Edgard J. Waguessack.

Rice buyers are as thick as fiddlers in hades. They all seem to have a "gentlemen's agreement" as to the price to pay for the cereal. Very little difference whether you sell to A or B, New Orleans or Baton Rouge. The gateway to the Burnside depot has been made easy for automobiles and trucks. A cattle guard level with the ground affords freedom of passage day and night without delay or cost. The plantation gate will have to be used by vehicles drawn by horses for a while longer until it will be removed and the road to the depot opened to all.

When a new levee is built that destroys a ramp, it should be restored, whether by the United States government, the state or levee board, and maintenance afterwards by the same governing authorities. Wave wash is attended to on the river side, why not rain wash on ramps on the levee side? Why? because the planters, farmers, storekeepers and the public generally have no lobby at Washington or Baton Rouge.

It is regrettable that the Fourth Road District in this parish has been enjoined the suit is against the State Highway Commission. Evidently our police jury at its meeting of July 26, feared serious trouble "in case the suit it pressed," and they deemed it necessary to employ an attorney to act as special counsel. Act. No. 125 of 1912, Section 1, provides that the district attorneys of the several judicial districts to be regular attorneys and counsels of the police juries, etc., Section 2, provides for the retention of special counsel on approval of the governor and attorney general, and "that no police jury shall retain or employ any special attorney or counsel to ferry the party in any special matter to pay any compensation for any legal services whatever unless a real necessity exists therefor, * * *. Stating fully the reasons for such action."

Now, the police jury, in passing the resolution asking for help: "Whereas, the police jury is informed that the auxiliary road board of the Road District No. 4 will be made a party defendant to said suit, and whereas it is necessary that the said auxiliary road board employ an attorney at law as special counsel, to represent and defend it in said suit." The question is, why should it employ special counsel to defend police juries and boards when necessary, by giving good reasons for help, must be that in case a weakling was elected district attorney in any judicial district, then they would not be helpless. May be a wise precaution.

The latest heard from James K. Vardaman, was that he was running for Mississippi with 70,000 votes for the United States senate, followed by a man with 64,000 votes and a woman with 17,000 votes, all headed for Washington, D. C. This gives former president Wilson a majority of 11,000. Hubert Stephens' majority over Vardaman will be announced after September 5. On August 15, last, Vardaman received 43 per cent of the total vote cast. Miss Kearney, since the election, has donated her 17,000 votes to Stephens. Big hearted woman.

The Sullivan and Behrman factions in New Orleans are now arrayed against each other and are known as the new and old regulars. They are regulars all the time after the spoils. They should sail under the name G. O. P. (Good Orleans Patronage) and allow the voters to distinguish for themselves between the good and the bad to fill the offices. This should be the only issue. Try it.

Alberado Brothers Try Marine Corps.

Donaldsonville has sent another young man to the most interesting and efficient branch of the service, the U. S. Marine Corps, in the person of Edward Alberado who successfully passed the physical examination in New Orleans, last Monday, and will later be transferred to the Marine training camp, Parris Island, S. C. E. P. Alberado, of Edgard, was not so fortunate and was rejected by the examining physician for defective teeth. This is the third son of Mr. and Mrs. Alberado who has entered or tried to enter the Marine Corps, the elder son having lately re-enlisted. Also, Wilfred Monticino, born in Donaldsonville, but lately a resident of New Orleans, was accepted for enlistment August 7 at the recruiting station 535 St. Charles street. Captain E. C. Nicholas officer in charge of the New Orleans district, announces that the present standards for enlistment are rather easy, but will soon be raised as very many are applying for enlistment. The standards are: Age 18 to 35; height, at least 5 feet 4 inches; weight at least 115 pounds, and applicants must be able to read and write English, must have good teeth, eyes, ears and feet. A substitution is now at Room 103 postoffice building, Lake Charles, La., where applicants are also being accepted.

LeBlanc-Rome. Wilfred J. LeBlanc of Belle Alliance and Miss Rita Rome of Romeville, St. James parish, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at a nuptial mass, at St. Michael Church, Convent, on Thursday, August 17, Rev. Father J. Delahaye officiating. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Edward J. Rome. She wore a becoming gown of soft crepe satin, navy blue and gray with hat to match and carried a bouquet of white asters. Her only attendant, Miss Blanche Rome, wore a lovely crepe satin, navy blue and tan gown with hat to match. Alwyn LeBlanc of New Orleans acted as best man to the groom. An "Ave Maria" was beautifully rendered by Joseph B. Dornier, and "O Salutaris" by Miss Jeanne Aymé. After the wedding dinner at the home of the bride's parents the couple motored to Donaldsonville where they boarded a Texas and Pacific train for a brief bridal trip to Dallas, Texas. They will make their home in Labadieville. The Chief extends congratulations to the newly-wedded pair and best wishes for a life of peace and happiness.

George W. Dodge Passes Away. George W. Dodge, prominent citizen and business man of Assumption parish, died at his home on Bayou Lafourche near Napoleonville, last Monday night, after a long illness, aged 57 years. Mr. Dodge was president of the Bank of Assumption and a member of the board of directors of the Interstate Trust and Banking Company of New Orleans. For years he was engaged in the lumber business, owning and operating a sawmill near Napoleonville in partnership with Emil Sandberry. Mr. Dodge was immensely wealthy and had extensive family and business connections and stood very high wherever he was known. He took an active part in and contributed freely to civic organizations in his community. The funeral took place in Napoleonville Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, and was one of the largest ever held in that city.

A big fair will be given in the yard of Robt. Brandt's residence on New Hope plantation today and tomorrow, for the benefit of the Smoke Bend Catholic church. The restaurant will be in the hands of experienced ladies and the meals will satisfy the tastes of the most fastidious. Everything will be sold at popular prices. There were competitive games for children at four o'clock today. The Texas original Jazzland orchestra will furnish music throughout the big festival. Amusements for everybody. All are invited to come and patronize this worthy cause.

Jos. V. Gaudin of this parish and Miss Felicie Roger of Labadieville, will be married at the Catholic church at the latter place next Thursday, August 31. The prospective groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gaudin of McCall and is employed as a salesman in the Wheeler Coffee Company's store in this city. The bride-to-be is a daughter of Mrs. Felicien Roger. She is a charming and attractive young lady and a great favorite in Labadieville circles.
