

KELLOGG'S PERJURY BEARING FRUITS.

The disturbance in Grant parish has culminated in serious results. This was to have been expected from the moment the colored people of that parish, heading the few partisans of the white race who were bent upon trampling down the manhood of their parish in order to possess themselves of office, organized in an armed body, seized the Parish site and forcibly entered and sacked the residences and business houses of law-abiding white and colored citizens.

The next excursion of the party was over the Opelousas railroad to the country of the Teche. Thither went also Gen. Boregard, Col. Nixon and Prof. Forshey as invited guests. Avery's Island, where the famous salt mine is situated, was an object of special interest to the tourists.

Of the Teche country, Senator Cameron said, it "surpasses in loveliness all that I have ever conceived of it, a fit abode for angels, if such ever dwell on this earth." From this it would appear that the Senator was inclined to do the Teche region full justice, but we venture to say that he will next winter resent the kindness done him, by a kick at Louisiana when she asks of Congress to do this fit abode of angels the justice to place it in the keeping of civilized, intelligent beings who are its rightful owners and legally elected to rule over it.

The ostensible purpose of the visit of these gentlemen South is the inspection of the postal car system. Doubtless, there are other causes at the bottom of their protracted stay in New Orleans, one of which we imagine to be a better understanding of the muddle existing in this State.

NOT VERY HAPPY.

We feel authorized in saying, from internal evidence furnished by the following paragraph from the Madison Journal, that Col. E. B. Towne, some time in retirement, is again on the tripod of that paper:

If Gov. Kellogg has any more appointments to make for this Senatorial District, we would suggest that if he follows the advice of our Senators, Pollard and Crawford, and Chief Justice Ludeling, he will be apt to subserve the interests of the Republican party, provided he regards those gentlemen as the party in this District. We will guarantee that they will recommend no one who will not work for them, or who doubts that they possess all the virtue, intelligence and capacity of the four parishes.

No one but Col. Towne would or could manifest so much feeling, in a tender way, as is shown in this brief paragraph. The same benevolent feeling appears to have dictated the expression, in another column of our brother's paper, to the effect that "Gov." Kellogg having promised to commute Ben Smith's punishment from hanging to imprisonment for life, perhaps has changed his mind since he has learned that a few white citizens of this parish are mercifully disposed to this poor negro.

The Louisiana Congressmen voted as a unit on the back pay question, but in its usual style of protecting wrongdoers, fails to tell that they voted as a unit for back pay, Mr. Boardman, the only Democrat, among the number.

PEACE IN GRANT PARISH.

NEW ORLEANS, April 15.—The steambot Southwestern, which arrived at about 1.30 p.m. to-day, brings stirring and important news from Grant parish, and there is not a negro to be found for miles around. From passengers on the Southwestern we glean the following.

The negroes had strongly entrenched themselves in the Court House and built breastworks three and four feet high. There were, it is said, about four hundred men armed and equipped thoroughly. On Sunday, about 12 p.m., one hundred and fifty whites, who had gathered from the surrounding parishes, made an attack on the breastworks, and a brisk fight was kept up until near 3 p.m. The breastworks were then stormed and captured, the negroes taking refuge to the courthouse, the doors of which were barricaded. After some further fighting the negroes threw out a flag of truce and several men advanced on it, when they were fired upon by the besieged party, wounding several, one of whom was Captain Hadnot, who was shot in the bowels, and it is feared fatally.

The question of the President's salary is not generally understood. In fact, it has resolved itself into a question of the President's "perquisites." These are the facts: The recent session of Congress, at which the Republican majority increased Grant's salary from $25,000 to $50,000 a year (and he approved it to make it a law), also gave him $35,000 to buy new furniture; $5,000 to pay gas bills; $5,000 to buy coal; and $6,000 for his glass flower garden. Besides this, it is only a little while since between $25,000 and $30,000 were cribbed from the Treasury-building appropriation to build him a billiard room and a stable. Instead of getting $50,000 a year, he actually receives over $100,000. Pretty well, this, for a plain Republican President.

PROCEEDINGS OF A PUBLIC MEETING IN CLATBORNE.

LIBSON, LA., April 15, 1873. Pursuant to previous notice the citizens of Libson ward met for the purpose of taking into consideration the propriety of paying or not paying taxes to the so-called Kellogg government, whereupon R. L. Dawson was called to the chair and J. McCleendon requested to act as Secretary.

- 1. That we do not believe Kellogg was elected Governor of Louisiana, and it was so decided by a Committee of Senators appointed by the Congress of the United States.
2. That we will to the last extremity resist the payment of taxes to the said so-called Kellogg government.
3. We further agree to form ourselves into an associational body for the purpose of joining in with our duly elected Governor, John McEnery, and will support him in resisting the payment of said taxes.

The New Orleans Republican says of the white men of Grant parish, that "There is a spirit elsewhere as intolomant as their own." That must be the spirit of those fellows who excited the negroes to riot and robbery and bloodshed in order to put themselves in office, and then could not tolerate the idea of standing by their deluded followers, but fled like dogs down Red river to New Orleans. As for any other spirit of intolerance worthy of being employed as a threat, the Republican may as well understand that the spirit of the men who gave Grant parish peace is the spirit that actuates the whole white people and many of the blacks of the State. We are all intolerant toward robbers, bandits and grave-diggers.

were adopted. An unmistakable earnestness characterized the meeting throughout.

THE HOG'S ENDURANCE.

The Turf, Field and Farm has the following: The hog, it would seem, is tenacious of life. In the big storm, which swept over Minnesota on the 7th of January, five hogs belonging to Mr. Nye, of Fillmore county, were buried in a snow drift. On the 7th of March, a period of fifty-eight days, the drift was opened and the hogs discovered alive. They were in fair bodily condition, but were unable to use their legs freely, having not exercised the muscles of the limbs for so long a time. Just after their rescue they preferred slop to a more solid kind of food. Mr. Nye is said to be an honest man, and his statement is regarded as strictly true. The hog, it would seem, can be an economical feeder when circumstances so compel.

GRANT'S PERQUISITES.

There is good news and a bit of sarcasm in the following from the Natchitoches Times: The Fusion parish officers and city council still retain possession in this parish, and seem to have no disposition to yield their offices without a struggle. A striking contrast to the city of New Orleans, where the Mayor, Judges, Sheriffs and other officials elected on the Fusion ticket made haste to give in their adhesion to Kellogg, before the ink of Durell's decree had become dry. And yet it is this class of men who call us submissionists, and reject all compromises!

The Mansfield Reporter says: Mr. Walker, the Chief engineer of the New Orleans, Baton Rouge and Vicksburg railroad, was in town on last Wednesday. He is now surveying the Shreveport branch, and thinks that work will commence as soon as the route is located. Two surveys will be made before he makes his report. The line he is now running passes about five miles east of this place; he thinks the next one will pass through or near this town.

Professor Ubassy, at the French game of billiards, discounted Henry Miller, a billiardist of some local celebrity in New Orleans, and beat him 117 points in 300. The highest run made by Ubassy was 83 points; his average was 16. In this game a carom counts only one point.

There is a fine opening for a young man to starve at Jackson, Miss., by publishing a monthly giving the Supreme Court decisions, as recommended by the Vicksburg Times. "Dear me, how fluidly he talks!" said Mrs. Partington, recently, at a temperance meeting. "I am always rejoiced when he mounds the nostril, for his eloquence warns every cartridge in my body."

The general appropriation bill, No. 56, passed by the Kellogg Legislature to meet the expenses of the State for the year, aggregates the snug sum of $4,106,199.12.

The spring has been every way favorable to the planters, except the cold nights and mornings. Vegetation has been at a stand-still for a week.

The people of Livingston, St. Helena, Terrebone, Morehouse, Jackson, and several other parishes have joined the tax-resisting army.

Gen. Jeff. C. Davis succeeds Gen. Canby in command of the Department of the Columbia.
