Speaking of coffee. "Man wants that little here below, And wants that little 'strong.'" Call and examine "THE BOSS" COFFEE POT at W. H. Wright's. See advertisement elsewhere.

Monroe steps up one notch further, commercially speaking. The Bank now issues exchange on all parts of Germany, France, England, &c.

The copartnership heretofore existing between Messrs. Koch & Wetzel was dissolved on 1st of January, 1880. Mr. Wetzel continues the business on his own account at the same place. See his notice.

We invite attention to the card of Dr. Richardson, tutor, offering the building now known as the Monroe House for rent. It is an eligible location and one of the conspicuous buildings of the city.

Among the associated press dispatches of the 10th we find one stating that Hon. W. Jasper Blackburn has issued the first number of a paper at Little Rock, called the Arkansas Republican. We wish our old confere abundant pecuniary success. He has had many ups and downs in publishing newspapers, and deserves success from the Republicans of Arkansas, his native State.

Cotton. The New Orleans "item snatchers" are again informed that when we write "receipts at the cotton yard," we mean the purchases by our merchants. Cotton has been in good demand and prices have ruled firm. Our merchants seem disposed to keep up the enviable reputation of Monroe as the best cotton market in North Louisiana. Cotton sales for the week have not been as large as they might have been, though there is a fair showing. Mr. Surghnor, city weigher, reports having weighed for the week, ending at noon yesterday, 301 bales; total to date, 3,401 bales.

River News.

The river has been and is still rising at such a rapid rate that it has been impossible for us to keep an account of the number of inches, or even feet that it has risen the past week. Suffice it to say, however, that it is booming, and now stands about 12 feet above low water mark. The arrivals for the week were quite numerous and the river front has presented an attractive as well as an animated appearance.

The John H. Hanna, from New Orleans, arrived at 8 o'clock Sunday night, and left on her return Tuesday at 3 1/2 o'clock p. m. Our merchants gave her 250 bales cotton.

If you are going down the river, you will find the Fred. A. Blanks here tomorrow evening to take you. The John Howard for Camden passed up Wednesday morning. We look for her down tomorrow or Sunday.

The Hanna leaves New Orleans tomorrow evening. She will pass Monroe Tuesday on her way to Camden.

The Corona passed up Wednesday night. She'll be down about Sunday. To-day? Yes, to-day, those who are so disposed will be on the river bank to witness the arrival of the monarch of the Ouachita, the Fred. A. Blanks.

It has been a long time since the people of the Ouachita Valley have had the satisfaction of seeing such a boat as the Blanks is represented to be, and we hope that she will be well received here. We call the attention of our readers to her advertisement to be found in another column. Capt. Jack is known everywhere as is also her clever clerk, Capt. Joe Holmes. Look-out for her to-day.

The Corona and Little Bob B., both with full loads, passed down together Thursday evening, but too late to be noticed in our last week's report. The Bob goes on dock at New Orleans for some necessary repairs.

The John Wilson, from below, arrived shortly after the departure of the above named boats bound for Camden. She had a good load. She passed down Tuesday at 5 p. m. with nearly a full load—about 2,000 bales.

The Wm. Fagan came down Sunday from Camden, with about 1,000 bales, which she discharged at Trenton, and proceeded up the Bartholomew. She was due down yesterday, but had not arrived up to the time of closing this report.

The Clara S. passed up for the Bartholomew Tuesday. She seemed to be in a big hurry, stopping only a short while here, and "hit out" like a "greased streak of lightning." Down to-day or to-morrow.

The Willie left Monday evening for Bayou Bartholomew. The Gen. Chas. H. Thompkins, the cotton seed boat of which we made mention last week, came down last Friday evening. She purchased of Mr. N. P. Cook, of the Elevator, about 4,000 sacks cotton seed. She left Saturday at 1 p. m. Capt. Fie Lee, well known as having brought the Alex. Kendall up here about 16 months ago, was in command. The Captain expresses himself as delighted with Monroe, and says the town has grown so much that he began to look for the numbers on the houses. He failed to find them, however.

The Katie P. Kountz, from appearances a near relation of the Thompkins, arrived early Sunday night, and left for Camden Monday morning. The New Orleans Times will please note that wholly and solely she belongs to St. Louis, and is in search of trade.

Grand Concert. ED. TELEGRAPH: Knowing that you are always ready to serve our Jewish cause, we respectfully request you to announce that arrangements are made to have a Grand Concert on Thursday, 29th inst., for the joint benefit of our Congregation, and the Widows and Orphans Home of New Orleans. There will be two comical pieces acted, and for the amusement of young and old, a merry dance. JEWISH FRIENDS.

The following notice appears in the Madison Journal, the first we have seen published under the provisions of Art. 48 of the Constitution:

NOTICE Is hereby given that at the session of the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, which convenes on the 2d Monday of January, 1880, application will be made for the passage of a law authorizing and requiring the holding of an election to determine whether the seat of justice in and for the parish of Madison, in the State of Louisiana, shall be changed from its present location at Delta in said parish, to Tallulah in said parish; said law to include all such provisions as may be necessary and proper to ascertain and carry into effect the will of the people of said parish, in the premises. January 10, 1880.

Billiousness disappears after occasional doses of Ayer's Pills.

The "civilized" cow continues to annihilate the fodder bundles that our country friends bring with them when they come to town with their cotton. Somebody will please invent an electric attachment to a wagon whereby the cow can't come within ten feet of the wagon.

Something for Hunters. The celebrated Parker and Colt's B. L. shot guns, now admitted the best in the world, can be bought at Rills' bookstore for less money than they will cost in New Orleans. Mr. Rills only asks that you call and get his prices. Don't send your money abroad when you can do as well, if not better, at home.

In Memoriam. SUNBEAM SOCIETY, MONROE, LA. Whosoever God has seen fit in His wise providence, to remove from our midst, to that shore where sin and sorrow are felt and feared no more, our much beloved brother, HUGH DUNCAN BARRINGTON, after a short illness.

Resolved, That in the death of brother Hugh Duncan Barrington we mourn the loss of a kind and affectionate brother who endeared himself to each and every member of the Sunbeam Society.

Resolved, further, That we tender our heart-felt sympathies to the family of the deceased, in their bereavement; and that the usual badge of mourning be worn for a period of thirty days as a testimonial of our love for him; and that a copy of these resolutions be placed on record as a part of the minutes of this Society.

Safe at home, brother, you here no longer stay, A weary pilgrim on the shore of time; God in His wisdom has summoned you away To join the angelic throng in that beautiful clime.

One by one our links are broken— Links that bind life's precious years; One by one are the farewells spoken, Naught is left us but grief and tears.

Sadly we miss you, but how feebly expressed The anguish of our hearts since you are gone; To-day you are happy, mingling with the blest, While here we linger to weep and mourn.

You were devoted to us in this world of strife, No sacrifice for us you deemed too great, And your memory we'll cherish as long as there is life.

'Till the Master calls us, farewell—we wait. Bereaved ones, look up and let us pray Oh, Father thy will be done— We'll meet our dear brother in Heaven some day. Where pain and death can never come.

R. FERDINAND COOK, GEORGE CHEATMAN, C. WALTER SCOTT.

EDUCATIONAL.

LOUISIANA STATE UNIVERSITY AND AGRICULTURAL AND MECHANICAL COLLEGE, BATON ROUGE, LA.

Is now in successful operation, with good prospect of a large patronage. Session begins, by law, October 5 and ends July 4.

Facilities for Instruction—Very good; an experienced Faculty, now of four Professors; the number of students to be increased; much philosophical and chemical apparatus; good appliances for instruction in Engineering; large museums of Natural History; a library of fourteen thousand volumes, and a good equipment of small arms and artillery for military exercises. Efforts are also making to get in readiness Workshops and an Experimental Farm, for which 125 acres of good land have been secured.

Course of Study embraces a wide field of literature and science; and parents will select the studies which they may wish their sons to pursue. The military exercises are ranked as studies, only obligatory on the cadets, who are quartered in the University building and optional with other students, who board in Baton Rouge. To become "student" or "cadet," is optional with the parent.

Students are graded to young men and youths not under fourteen years of age, who are proficient in the branches of a common English education. They can enter at any time during the session, and are charged only from date of entrance. Students may be residents of other States.

State (or beneficiary) cadets cannot be received, unless the legislature makes an appropriation to pay their expenses. Expenses.— tuition and the use of library and apparatus are absolutely free. Students can find good boarding in Baton Rouge for about $1 a week, and those who form "messes" can maintain themselves for $4 to $5 a month.

Expenses for a Military Cadet.—Fixed expenses per month: Board, lodging and servant attendance, $12; washing and mending, $2 50; fuel and lights, 50 cents; medical attendance, $1; total, $16; or for the session of nine months $144 at that rate for part of session. Payable monthly in advance. Contingent expenses per session—estimated—uniform clothing, $47; text-books and stationery, $15; board, $144; carriage and contingencies, $5; total, $211. Payable $48 on entrance, balance $24 January 1. In case of withdrawal from the Institution, cadets will be charged only for the time of attendance, except that there will be no retention of fees for the last two months of the session.

Location healthy, and desirable for delicate youths who may not be able to stand a colder climate. For further information, address D. F. HOYD, President.

HAMBURG HIGH SCHOOL. After a short recess for the holidays, we shall resume our duties on Monday, January 5, 1880. Six and a half months, twenty-six weeks, yet remain of the scholastic year. One hundred and thirty dollars, cash, will pay all scholastic expenses, in the house of the undersigned, except books and music. The discipline will be that of a boarding school, the instruction thorough; the location one of superior healthfulness. In Music, Mathematics and Languages, not even the colleges can surpass us. D. C. R. CONNER, Y. Principal, Hamburg, Ark.
