 This will certify that two members of my immediate family, after having suffered for years from Menstrual Irregularity, being treated without benefit by physicians, were at length completely cured by one bottle

BEATTY'S PIANOS AND OR-GANS.

Hon. Daniel F. Beatty, the great Organ and Piano Manufacturer, is building and shipping more Organs and Pianos than ever. In 1870 Mr.
 Beatty left home a penniless plowboy, and by his indomitable will he has worked his way up so as to sell as far, nearly 100,000 of Beatty's Organs and Pianos since 1870. Nothing seems to dishearten him; obstacles laid in his way, that would have wrecked any ordinary man forever, he turns to an advertisement and comes out of it brighter than ever.
 His instruments, as is well known, are very popular and are to be found in all parts of the world. We are informed that during the next ten months he intends to sell 200,000 more of his make, that means a business of $20,000,000 if we average them at $100 each. It is already the largest business of the kind in existence—Send to Daniel F. Beatty, Washington, New Jersey, for Catalogue.

 to his duties in the bank after a few days absence at Abingdon.

Charles Buffalow again was allowed bail until next term of county court and left for Pocahontas.

By a vote of the Republican State Convention the Roanoke Herald was made the organ of the party.

The usual tenth day of May rain was on time in great shape, more welcome than the frost of last May.

The very handsome catalogue of Sullins College, session '91-2, has just been issued and shows 202 matriculates.

"Easy as an old shoe" is expressive of the comfort in one of Frank & Co's new shoes of high grade, now at low cost.

It was estimated that one thousand persons were at the Gospel tent, Sunday morning last, to hear Rev. Mr. Williams.

The Norton Herald has begun publication by Messrs. Vicars and Coman. It succeeds the Bickley Mills Post and the Workingman.

Messrs. Mitchell and Ford, lessees of the Graham ice plant, have an advertisement elsewhere, Messrs Doak & Co. will keep the product on hand.

Mr. R. K. Gillespie, who has been at his father's for some months, on account of his affliction, moved with his family back to the country this week.

The streets have been having some necessary spring cleaning under Sergeant McClintock. Blue grass is more attractive elsewhere than about curbstones.

The county Democracy made a good selection in its choice for county chairman. Sam Thompson has the confidence of all who know him and his Democracy is unquestioned.

At the missionary meeting at Bluefield this week Mrs. James O'Keefe, always an active spirit in church work of any kind, read a paper on a subject pertaining to the work.

There is yet considerable activity in the sale of fine horses, bringing good prices, at Tazewell. This is headquarters for fine stock and those wanting such usually find their way here.

Rev. J. N. Harman has commeneed work on his new house on the lot nearly opposite that of Rev. Mr.
 Simmons and in a relative position to that of Rev. Mr. Leslie, north of the gospel tent's location.

TO QUIT—I. Frank & Co., who for a while have been carrying in connection with their clothing business, a full line of gentlemen's boots and shoes, will sell all they have at cost to get the room for an increase in their stock of clothing.

Mrs. Shrock, mother in law of Rev. D. V. Price, and who lived here with him during his pastorate, died in Chattanooga some days since from paralysis. Mrs. Shrock was a good and a useful woman and her death will be severely felt by her family.

The city council of Portsmouth has voted $300, in addition to the amount given by the board of trade, for the entertainment of the Virginia Press Association, which meets in that city in July. The program, as partially made out, is a very attractive one.

Bessie H. Bedloe, Burlington, Vt., had a disease of the scalp, causing her hair to become very harsh and dry, and to fall so freely that she scarcely dared to comb it. Ayer's Hair Vigor gave her a healthy scalp, removed the dandruff, and made the hair thick and glossy.

The senior class of Tazewell Female Seminary planted, last week, on the lawn, a tree, which, if the young ladies are as successful in arboriculture as they have been in other things, will, after many years, be an ornament, as they also doubtless will be, to their alma mater.

Not many physicians make great therapeutic discoveries. For the most part they content themselves with administering judiciously what is prescribed in the books. To Dr.
 J. C. Ayer, however, is due the credit of discovering that great of blood purifiers—Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Upon request the merchants of the town closed their stores during the hours for service at the tent, which made the business street appear very much deserted. It is a very praiseworthy custom, especially in small towns where the public is put to no very great inconvenience.

Elsewhere will be seen the advertisement of the great wholesale hardware house of W. W. Woodruff & Co., Knoxville. Since the building of the Clinch Valley railroad Knoxville is now one of the nearest markets for this section, which makes quite a difference in freight charges.

The citizens of Bristol, Va., are thinking of lending a helping hand to the Bristol, Elizabethton and North Carolina railroad. The projectors of this line declare that they must yet have the sum of $50,000 before they can complete the thirty five miles now under course of construction. Bristol, Va., thinks of giving half of this amount and if she does the Tennessee side will give the other half.

Thousands of dollars are to be spent on the Fair Grounds this year in the way of improvements. Additional land has been bought so that the race track can be lengthened to a full half a mile and be graded to a level. A grand stand will be built on the north side, and the present building moved back some feet for use as an exhibition hall. President Walton and Secretary Gildersleeve are at work for the coming exhibition.

At a meeting of the Tazewell Street Railway Co., on the 4th inst., organization under its charter was effected by the election of the following officers and directors: President, A. J. Tynes; Secretary and Treasurer, W. T. Gillespie; Directors, A. J. Tynes, C. A. Fudge, J. R.
 Gildersleeve, W. G. Harrison, J.
 D. Harrison, Geo. W. Gillespie, R.
 K. Gillespie and W. T. Gillespie.
 This company is the successor, in the ownership of the present street car line, to the Tazewell C. H. Improvement Co., which built it. It has been in successful operation since its building and does a good business, besides being a public convenience.

Evangelist M. B. Williams has been holding his revival meetings during the week with good attendance and noticeable results. He uses to some extent the now common evangelistic methods for securing attendance, but that accomplished, his sermons are earnest and honest. There is just a smack of Salvation Army about the meetings, but any criticisms passed are not from church people. They all work with him. He had often been requested to come to this place to hold a meeting. Other ministers had told him of their futile efforts to break through the ice of the Tazewell churches and people, that he would find attentive and courteous audiences, but cold and seemingly immovable. He was induced to come because of these urgent requests. His meetings will continue till Sunday night.

Col. Cheves, canvasser for the Prohibition party, spoke Wednesday afternoon in Mr. Williams' tent to a fairly large audience. He makes a very plausible argument in favor of the new party and organizes clubs to which women and boys over 17 are eligible to membership, as his idea is that eventually women will be given the right of suffrage and that by the time the boys are grown the party may expect to be able to elect a president. While it is a little odd to hear a "Kentucky Colonel" advocating temperance, the speaker was undoubtedly in earnest and said much that was forcibly true, especially as to the present dominance of the rum power in politics. He makes the usual mistake of trying to parallel the original abolition movement and one result of the late war with the prohibition crusade. He advises all in favor of prohibition to vote the straight ticket this fall and ever hereafter.

Address,
MITCHELL & FORD,

LESSEES GRAHAM ICE PLANT, GRAHAM, VIRGINIA.

We heard a remark the other day to the effect that the promised salary for ministers was slow of collection at Tazewell, and as the remark was made by an official of one of the churches, evidently there was truth in it. If there is one debt of man or woman that should have precedence over others, it would seem that this would appeal most effectively to the conscience for settlement. A preacher accepts a charge when he is informed as to the amount of salary he may expect with which to meet his living expenses, and preachers' incomes are not generally so large that they have not learned to count dollars and to know how much is necessary to enable them to live respectably. He takes the word of the church that, while he labors, it will shield him from embarrassment. He does not present his bill monthly and demand its payment as other salaried officials do. His church, by its own action, owes him a debt, a debt of honor and duty that should be paid and paid promptly, and if his church is made up of the right kind of stuff, its pastor will never know a day of mental discomfort on that score. Some churches, when seeking a pastor, have very expanded ideas and then suffer from contracted pockets when it becomes their religious and honorable duty to pay him. A hard working, capable man is worthy of his hire, as as much so in the ministry as in other vocations. If we were supplying churches, we would give slow paying congregations the worst dose of preacher we could find, until they knew how to appreciate a good one and his necessities. We once heard a man say that some churches would "pack a preacher in ice and then cuss him if he didn't sweat," meaning that the cares of life were allowed to blunt his efforts at usefulness. A man who meets every want and whim of himself before thinking of his obligation to his pastor, is religionless, if we know the meaning of the word. Tazewell, with her boasted good credit, would make a poor exhibit with her church notes protested. Our information is that preachers are generally paid, but the point is, not soon enough to prevent its appearing to have been done under pressure.

COME OFF, ALEX.
 Evangelist Williams will pitch his tent at Tazewell C. H. about the 8th of May. The ministers seem to be trying hard to save the old sinners 'round about Tazewell. If they can succeed in downing the devil there, they will have easy sailing in the rest of the county.—Tazewell Index.

CONSUMPTION CURED.
 An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Ath-ma, and all Throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper. W. A. Noves,

STATE BOARD OF TRADE.
 The Chamber of Commerce of Richmond, Va., has undertaken a worthy work in moving towards the formation of a State Board of trade.
 The Chamber has appointed a committee to make arrangements for a meeting of representatives of all the boards of trade and similar organizations in the State at Richmond, on May 20, for the purpose of forming a State body representative of all the various organizations. The object of this movement is to secure unity of action in all matters that relate to the commercial interests of Virginia.
 In an organization of this character there are immense potentialities.
