Wool Wanted

We are not speculators or dictators, but we do represent the best wool dealers who have ever bought wool in this section. One company has bought a majority of the wool in Virginia for the past 15 years. Their record is clean. They came to the wool growers again this year through us as their representatives and promise you the highest market value for your wool. We solicit your patronage and promise you "Square Deal in Return." Remember, we have for sale the best field seeds obtainable. We guarantee our "Star" brands. Can furnish "Gilt Edge" or "Gold Medal."

Premium For Corn and Wheat

J. T. Peery, of Burke's Garden, agent for the Chicomanga Fertilizer Company, of Atlanta, makes the following attractive offer to the users of his fertilizers:

For the best bushel of wheat grown in this county—two bags of his best brand of fertilizer.

For the best 20 ears of corn, two bags of his best brand of corn fertilizer. The only conditions are that the corn and wheat must be grown by the use of his fertilizer.

The contest will be decided at the fair next fall. Mr. Peery is too well known to need any commendation; his fertilizer has been used extensively, not only in his community, but all over the county for years; see what you can do; write Mr. Peery in Burke's Garden for further information, price of fertilizer, etc.

FOR SALE

Burke's Garden News.

Burke's Garden, February 16—The "younger set" defied the weather and attended a much enjoyed party given by Miss Mary Moss on last Saturday afternoon in honor of St. Valentine. Among those invited were: Misses Lettie Moss, Bertie Thompson, Pearl Rhudy, Grace Howell, Gladys Adams, Nellie Kelly, Lucile Snapp and Pansy Meek, and Messrs. David Crockett, Leath Dunn, Minnie Lawson, George and Charles Gose, Vance Stowers, Vint Moss, George Kelly, and Buford Shelton. The youngsters arrived at two o'clock and made merry until six.

Master Joseph Moss is ill with pneumonia.

Mr. Thomas Rhudy expects to move his family on next Tuesday to their new home at Cave Spring, five miles south of Roanoke. Mr. Rhudy's sale took place on Tuesday of this week.

Mr. Stephen Groseclose, who has been sick with grip, is improving.

Ups and Downs

There are ups and downs in every well regulated life. There are ups and downs in every business. There are ups and downs in our business.

And while most everything is up you'll find that almost all of our canned fruits and vegetables are down. You will find here old prices quoted on almost every item in our canned goods department—in fact some kinds are even down below old prices.

And every can of fruit and vegetables must be the best of its kind, or you don't have to pay for it.

The Most For Your FURS

I have been buying furs for more than 25 years and know furs when I see them. I have been and am still paying as much or more for furs than any buyer in Southwest Virginia shipping to the eastern markets and if you want the most money and liberal grades don't fail to see me before selling your furs. Most of the fur men know me and know I do what I say I do.

Yours for furs,
D. Angus,
