

WOMAN SLEUTH
TURNS 'EM UP

Vada Pettyjohn, Formerly Well Known Here, Instrumental in Catching Four Boys With Half Gallon of "Hootch."

Four young men, whose names are not available as we go to press, were surprised Tuesday afternoon when a well dressed young woman, to whom they had offered a drink of "hootch," turned out to be a "detective" and reported the fact of the presence of the liquor to Sergeant Thompson, and had the men arrested, and the whole of one pint was found and confiscated in the name of the law. The woman "detective" was no less a person than Vada Pettyjohn, formerly Vada Lockhart, whose misfortunes, while a resident of this town, are well known. She is now a resident of Cedar Bluff. Her "sleuthing" hero this week was only incidental, her presence in the city having been required as a witness in court.

A report was current on the street this week that Chap Osborne was instrumental in bringing the woman here, but Osborne was seen by a representative of this paper, and positively denied any connection with the case whatever. This report was no doubt started by the fact that Osborne and Fullen and two women, Vada Pettyjohn and Nan Boothe, registered at the local hotel Wednesday, the 27th ulto.

Indictments Against the Four Men. The four men arrested on the evidence of Mrs. Pettyjohn—E. B. Mitchell, John Hays, Tom Hays and Wat Buffalo, were indicted by the grand jury yesterday, and will be tried for the offense.

The court-room, grand jury room, and all other available space in the court house has been well filled every day this week by witnesses, spectators and lawyers. The grand jury, the personnel of which was given in the last issue of this paper, has been making very thorough investigation of illicit liquor sales and moonshining, as a result of which a large number of indictments have been returned. Some of those indicted have confessed and accepted a road sentence and fine.

These indictments, for various and sundry offenses, were returned:

Joe Carter, Charles Phillips, Luther Owens, Otto Gullion, A. H. Fullen, Jack Lowe, John Stinson, R. C. Osborne, Walter Testerman, Red Myers, Will Serber, Joe Micchie, Dick Micchie, W. C. Phillips, Jasper Mustard, Blaise, Clarence Lowe, H. E. Dickson, Ellis Dickson, Parla Waddle, Will Lawson, R. E. Stevenson, Raymond Burke, Arthur Childress, E. M. Scott, Arch Thompson, W. A. Smith, Turner Sarver, E. B. Mitchell, Newton McCoy, Will Smith, John Hays, Tom Hays, Wat Buffalo, S. M. Dunnigan, Vicie Dunnigan.

The grand jury is still in session and other indictments are expected. Col. C. O'Leary Given $150 Damages.

The damage suit of Colonel C. O'Leary, of Bluefield against J. B. Hankins, of Graham, for $3,000, on account of Mr. O'Leary's injury by an automobile driven by Mr. Hankins, resulted Wednesday night in a verdict for the plaintiff for $150. The accident occurred in Bluefield several months ago, when the Colonel was run down by a car driven by Hankins and C. E. Young.

PROMINENT MEN TO ADDRESS
RURAL LIFE CONFERENCE.

Richmond, Va., May 1.—Plans for the Conference on Rural Life to be held in Richmond May 17th and 18th are being pushed by the general committee of the conference composed of Congressman R. Walton Moore, Dr. S. C. Mitchell, Mrs. B. B. Munford, and Dr. J. A. C. Chandler. Governor Westmoreland Davis will open the conference, the meetings of which will be held in the hall of the House of Delegates. Many of the leaders in public life in Virginia, as well as nationally known speakers, will take part in the program, and a plan for the improvement of conditions in the rural sections of Virginia will be worked out. County officers, ministers of the gospel, civic league members and all others interested in the improvement of country life are urged to attend this meeting and to take part in its deliberations.

(Special Correspondence.)

West Baden, Ind., April 30. The gymnasium of the West Baden Springs Hotel has been the scene of many interesting events, but the patrons and employees of this noted resort have assured your correspondent that the climax was reached last night when the semi-annual fight between a badger (?) and a bull dog took place. Great care always is exercised in the selection of the several hundred ladies and gentlemen present, this signal honor was conferred on your townsman, Mr. C. C. Payne. Following is a verbatim report of Mr. Payne's speech, accepted the post, as set down by the official hotel stenographer: "Ladies and gentlemen, I hail from the Old Dominion, State—Virginia! (loud applause.) I have never witnessed a badger fight. (Still louder applause.) It was not my desire to be appointed referee of this fight. I wish to say that I have no bets on the fight, consequently I am indifferent as to the outcome—bull dog and badger means the same to me. I assure you all, ladies and gentlemen, that a just and conscientious verdict will be rendered."

At that juncture Mr. Payne shed his coat and rolled up his sleeves, prepared for any emergency. The stage was set. A Chicago Jew, who had agreed to act as time keeper, tugged at the end of a rope held by an ebony attache of the hotel, eager to have it out with the occupant of the "badger" box, which was placed in the center of the arena. "ONE—TWO—THREE!" shouted the Jew as he leaped about four feet to one side to avoid the expected rush of the "badger." But, it may be added, Mr. Payne, realizing that he was the cynosure of every eye, never batted a lid.

The spectators were in a tense state of expectancy. All eyes were now focused on the box which held the "badger," including Mr. Payne's. The lid was gingerly lifted and a negro boy who was the custodian of the "badger" gave a swift strong haul to the cord and now here comes the badger and out rolled—now here comes the delicate and difficult part of the story. It was not a badger. It wasn't anything that looks like a badger. Don Juan would have recognized it, it being the same article of furniture he discovered when he disappeared under Lady Inez's bed, full particulars of which may be found in Byron's poem.

Mr. Payne lost no time in rolling down his sleeves and recovering his coat, meanwhile taking a hasty and melancholy side glance at the howling spectators who by a common impulse towards the stage to congratulate the brave referee. The Jew, losing his temper, grabbed the "badger" and broke into a thousand more or less, cream-colored smithereens while Mr. Payne, to avoid the mad rush of the crowd, modestly retired through a rear exit.

HIGH SCHOOL TEAM GOES TO UNIVERSITY.

Miss Dorothy Hankins, Miss Louisa Witten, Moss Peery and Joseph Gillespie left Wednesday evening for Charlottesville, Virginia, where they will enter the reading and debating contests at the University. They were accompanied by Miss Anita Gillespie, a member of the Tazewell High School Faculty, and Miss Mae Brown, of this town.

These young debaters and readers made a fine record at the University last year, and much is expected from them this session.

6 KILLED, 27 HURT, IN N. & W. WRECK.

Six persons were killed and twenty-seven injured, nine seriously, when Norfolk and Western passenger train No. 160 crashed through an open switch and into four loaded coal cars, on the Tug Fork branch of the road, in the city limits of Gary, W. Va., Monday.

The dead are: Ricardo Quintanali, residence undetermined.
Mrs. Fred Pearson, Wilcox W. Va.
Lawrence Harris, negro, Havaco, W. Va.
Arthur Hill, Gary, W. Va.
George W. Robinson, Gary, W. Va.
An unidentified white woman.

The train, a local operating between Welch and Gary on the Tug Fork branch, was backing into the station at Welch when the crash came. Two coaches of wooden construction on the rear of the train were demolished.

When information of the wreck reached the Bluefield Hospital ambulances were rushed to the scene and the injured, including many women and children, were taken to the institution. Practically all passengers on the train were residents of this section.

A special train, carrying officials of the Norfolk and Western, left here for Welch shortly after word of the accident was received in Bluefield. They will investigate, in an effort to place responsibility for the open switch through which the passenger plunged into the coal cars.

A relief train with doctors and nurses were made up at Bluefield and left for the scene of the accident about 3:15 o'clock.

BIG PETRIFIED STUMP UN-EARTHED AT NORTON.

Carlton McCall, assistant cashier of the First National Bank at Norton, unearthed a petrified hickory stump while digging a foundation for a modern residence he is building at Norton. The stump is about four feet high and eighteen inches thick. It is thought Mr. McCall will have the stump smoothed up and use it in his front yard as a curio.

A number of years ago when Norton was known as Princess Flats, a good portion of the level section was a marsh or swamp and was gradually filled by the railroads and dirt dug up from hillside excavations, and it is probable that during this period petrification took place to be discovered in later years—Appalachia Independent.

LAWYER KILLS
SELF AND WIFE

L. J. Holland, Attorney of Bluefield, Married only Three Days, Uses Razor With Deadly Effect.

L. J. Holland, a prominent Bluefield attorney, killed his bride of three days, by cutting her throat with a razor, and then killed himself with the same instrument. The tragedy occurred in the Carroll hotel in Lynchburg, last Monday morning, in which city the marriage took place on Friday.

Mrs. Holland, the victim, who was a Miss Sizer, had been Holland's stenographer for several years. She was a highly respected young woman in the city, where she had lived with her parents for years. Holland was one of the most prominent attorneys of Bluefield and of West Virginia, an active worker in the Presbyterian church. Miss Sizer was an active member of the First Baptist church. From best information it appears that Holland feared that his marriage would be considered hasty and illadvised, and brooding over this lost his mental balance, in fact, became crazy.

The dreadful affair cast a gloom over the city of Bluefield, and community.

NUMBER OF EXAMINATIONS AT TUBERCULAR CLINICS.

The number of applicants for examination at the tuberculosis clinic held in the county last week was surprisingly large.

The total number of persons examined was 216. Of this number only 80 were negative, or non-tubercular, according to the official report sent out from Richmond, of the number examined. 31 are reported as active. Of the 31 active cases, 15 are reported as "advanced," 13 moderately advanced, and 3 cases incipient, or just beginning. 42 cases are reported as "suspicious." Eight cases are reported as "arrested," that is, persons who have been apparently cured.

The report covers the clinics held in Fluvanna and Prince Edward Counties also. It is shown that Tazewell is more seriously effected than either of the other two counties named. In the three counties eleven incipient cases were found.

The report calls attention to the fact that the cost of the three clinics was under $400.00. Placing one life at $5,000.00, the saving to the state in money would be $50,000.00. Now, that these incipient cases are known, their lives should be saved, and will be, if precautions are taken and advice followed.

The report says: It is estimated that one active case of tuberculosis infects at least ten others and the beneficial results of such clinics will be realized there when it is noted that all three cases discovered are advised and helped toward sanatorium treatment where they may regain health and cease spreading infection. Most incipient cases have a good chance for recovery, as have also many advanced cases.

Estimating the economic value of life at $5,000 the saving of the eleven incipient cases only will be a saving to the State of $55,000; this in comparison with the cost of the three clinics which was under $400.00.

CEDAR BLUFF IS THRIVING.

Cedar Bluff, Va., May 3. Ours is not a pretentious town; but our government considers that we are on the map, and we are honored with two post offices, two rail roads, two roller mills, a blanket factory, a high school, two organized churches, a flourishing Sunday school, a Masonic Lodge, a thriving Woman's Missionary Society, a poultry company, a Methodist parsonage, 3 resident ministers, an up to date barber shop, five stores all doing a flourishing business, and a mineral spring whose medicinal waters are unsurpassed.

A number of our people went to Richlands to see the specialist to learn how to ward off tubercular tendencies, and to disappoint the undertaker for many years to come. They returned full of optimism.

There are some encroachments of physical ills for which there are no antiseptics, or antidotes; but spiritual infirmities—a thousand times worse than physical ills—there is an infallible physician who has never lost a patient, and whose treatment is free; why not give him a chance? Mrs. Maggie White of Davy, W. Va., has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Wingo, and other kindred; but has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Greasy are the happy young parents of a son who has just arrived. From hence forth Charley will be numbered with the fathers of the community. This son and a young brother of the father will easily pass as twins, as their advent was almost simultaneous.

Rev. T. A. Repass, of Tazewell, spent last Sunday visiting his mother while here he preached in the Methodist church to the delight of old friends and kindred.

The most prominent theme before our people, at this time, is Christian Education. It is kept foremost in all of our church services. We have it for breakfast, dinner and supper. It must not fail.

CIVIC LEAGUE FLOWER SALE
MAY 14.

The civic league has determined on Saturday, May 14th, as the day for the plant and shrubbery sale. It is urged that plants and other forms of vegetation in the way of flowers be ready by ten o'clock Saturday morning, May 14th. The sale will begin at 2 p. m.

HAVE YOU SEEN EDDIE'S PONY?

Eddie Witten, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Witten, is much distressed over the disappearance of his brown and white pony, which strayed away from this town one day this week. The pony was last seen on the river road near James Ed. Peery's one day this week and any information leading to its recovery will be greatly appreciated by young Mr. Witten.

SWAT THE FLY AND RATS.

The continued cold weather allows a running start on the fly. Swat every one of them however. But the bad rats are with us in force. One brood of 10 chicks was robbed on Tazewell Avenue on Wednesday of 6 of the chicks, in broad day light. Poison, shoot, trap—anything and anyway to get rid of the pests. Swat, swat.

REV. R. A. OWEN TO SPEAK.

Rev. R. A. Owen will speak on Christian Education Monday night, May 9, at the Cove; Tuesday night at Liberty Hill; Monday night, 16, at White Church, and Tuesday night at Pleasant Hill.

On the success of this mighty movement depends the future spiritual prosperity of our great nation.

SUPPRESS RUFFIANISM AT THE THEATRE.

Attention has been called heretofore to the noise and rowdiness among a number of small boys, and some not so small—in the New Theatre. Quite a number of youngsters collect together, and whoop and howl like Comanche Indians, both before and during the show this disturbance goes on at intervals, and for the sake of the comfort and enjoyment of the patrons who pay their money to see the picture and want a quiet hour, this disturbing element should be suppressed. Please call attention to this in your paper.

NEW TOWN COUNCIL.

At a meeting held at the Court House, May 2, a new Council was nominated as follows:
Mayor, A. St. Clair.
Councilmen: A. C. Buchanan, H. L. Spratt, B. W. Stras, Jr., G. M. Mullins, R. P. Copenhaver, J. N. Johnson, T. A. Repass, Recorder.

MRS. M. J. DAVIDSON.

Mrs. Mattie Jane Davidson, one of Tazewell's best women, died last Sunday morning after a brief illness, at her home in this town.

The funeral service was held at the home, Monday afternoon, conducted by her pastor, Rev. Geo. Lambert. Burial was had in the new cemetery. A very large crowd was present, and the funeral tributes were profuse and beautiful.

Deceased leaves five sons and two daughters—John, William, James Eugene and Donk, Miss Julia, Tazewell and Mrs. J. W. Bano, of White Gate, Va. Two brothers, H. E. and Alex Harman, of Tazewell; three sisters, Mrs. G. W. Donk, Mrs. A. G. Kiser and Mrs. A. B. White, all of this town.

John A. Davidson, of Blaine County, husband of deceased, died January, 1896; In May, 1906, Mrs. Davidson moved to Tazewell. She was 71 years of age.

Mrs. Davidson was a woman of sterling, Christian character, a quiet, unassuming, cheerful woman whose friends and admirers include all who knew her. Her death was a surprise and shock to the entire community, as only a few people had heard of her illness. She was confined to her bed only about a week. The immediate cause of her death it is said, was heart trouble.

She leaves a legacy of the example of a splendid life to her children. "All mothers go to heaven" is well known saying, where they wait to welcome their families at the great reunion.

KEEP IN TOUCH WITH THE BILLY SUNDAY REVIVAL.

The Billy Sunday meeting to be held in Bluefield beginning May 8th should interest every one in Tazewell County. The Bluefield Daily Telegraph will report the meeting in detail each day and print the sermons.

Keep in touch with the progress of this revival by subscribing for the Daily Telegraph. A. M. Black represents the Daily Telegraph in Tazewell. For the special rate of $1 the Telegraph will be mailed to your address daily throughout the entire time of the Sunday meeting or the paper will be sent to you for three months for $1.75. COMMUNITY CHURCH PASTOR
BARRIED OUT.

Rev. Dr. John Haynes Holmes, pastor of a community church in New York, was refused permission to speak in a school meeting in Brooklyn, a few evenings ago, by the Board of Education. Dr. Holmes subject was to be, "The collapse of civilization; can it be saved?" Dr. Holmes claims that his exclusion was due to his failure to measure up to the orthodox opinions as held by the Board of Education, to which superintendents and teachers are compelled to subscribe.

The Board said that the children of the public schools receive instruction "in the basis of American citizenship," and the forum should be denied to any speaker "to hold religion to scorn and government to ridicule." Is this "Community church" pastor a true sample. We wonder.

CIVIC LEAGUE HOLDS MEETING.

The regular meeting of the Civic League was held at 3:30 Tuesday, the 26th, in the school building. The attendance was small but those present were much encouraged by the reports of committees. Sanitation chairman reporting trash cans purchased for aid in keeping our streets tidy. Ways and Means Chairman a flower and plant sale for the 10th of May. Outdoor or Civic Art chairman that through her influence work is started for beautifying the church lots. Membership and School chairman gave reports of good work done. At the close of the business hour we started our class in citizenship with a fine address by our Mayor, A. C. Buchanan, on the duties and powers of Mayor and Council in which he gave as much information and many helpful suggestions. The address at our next meeting will relate to the supervisors duties and their relation to us, our school and community. The purpose of the citizenship class is not only to train us to understand the machinery of our government, local, state and national, so we can more intelligently vote but gives us a greater interest and more intelligent part in the problems that confront us.

Voting is a community interest and the woman vote will not help unless the home-making, wage earning, home loving, industrious women use the ballot intelligently. Let us by study and work be an aid and not a hindrance.

A civic organization means the women of Tazewell, you and I, are organized for helpful cooperation in making Tazewell a better place in which to live.

ANNUAL TOWN CLEAN UP.

May 9, and 10th are hereby fixed for the annual cleaning up of the town. On those days if the people of the town will collect all the trash on their premises and put it in barrels or boxes and place same on a convenient street or alley, where it may be reached by trucks, it will be moved at the expense of the town.

If your trash is not collected and placed where it can be reached on the days named, you will be required to move it off your premises at your own expense. You will feel better about it and save every body trouble if you will co-operate in this matter and help get the town clean and in sanitary condition.

No ashes will be moved; you will have to attend to that yourself.

Remember the dates, Monday and Tuesday, May 9 and 10. Let everybody take a pride in the appearance of his premises, which controls the appearance of the town.

A. C. BUCHANAN, Mayor.
April 28, 1921.
