The First Sale. Monday, August 21st, Lloyd brought to his merchants, Goldstein, the first bale of the season; and we will have a sale to follow by six days. We will venture to say that Lloyd Talbot does not hang round the courts and meetings.

Why Family Should Have in the House. Imported Dublin Guinness, the bottle or dozen at SUMMERFIELD'S.

Prayer. Our young man, Lloyd Talbot, presented to the family with some of the best of his ever saw here. They were from from his father's garden in Greenville, and would have weighed at least half a pound each, and were of delicious flavor.

Lumber! Lumber! Lumber!!! For sale by Morgan & Platt, from $12 to $18 per thousand feet. We notice amongst the deaths in Memphis last week a large proportion classed congestive fever. We fear that it will develop into fever of another name before the season closes. Mortuary records in the large cities of the South have generally exhibited congestive and malarial fevers in August, but in September another name is used. The authorities in Memphis should be on the alert. The fevers that begin with congestive fevers generally close with yellow fever.

Buy your Lumber of Morgan & Platt at City Saw Mills, from $12 to $18 per thousand. We might have a good rain in this town if the grangers would give their consent; but they are pulling against us. They fear that rain will injure the cotton, and that is all they have to bank on now, as corn is gone beyond redemption in many places. It places a praying man in a bad position. He don't know whether to pull for a good rain or to bunch and run 'em further.

SPORTSMEN. Buy your Fishing Tackle, Powder and Shot from J. H. A. FRANK & Co. Special to the Daily Vicksburg. New Orleans, Aug. 8. An armed party of two hundred citizens entered Minden, Webster parish, a day or two since and drove out all Radical office holders. No violence.

BUTTER. Fresh 3 lb. Edgo Goshen Butter on Ice at J. H. A. FRANK & Co. New Orleans, August 15. Telegrams from Monroe, Trenton, Baton Rouge, Farmerville, Shreveport, Louisiana, and Canton, Camden, Coffeeville, Holly Springs, Durant, Natchez, Meridian, Mississippi, and points in Tennessee, Arkansas and Texas report cotton and corn suffering from long continued drought.

Lumber! Lumber! Lumber!!! For sale by Morgan & Platt, from $12 to $18 per thousand feet. The Vicksburg papers properly denounce the recent popular expulsion of the "Bonell family" by the citizens of that city; it was something which the authorities should never have permitted. It will be remembered that one of the Bonells recently killed a young man named Wahl; and they recently engaged in a street skirmish with another Wahl, and his friends; consequent upon which the entire family was expelled from the city.

Something New. THE CREAMATE PUNCH AT SUMMERFIELD'S. We elsewhere publish certain communications relative to the crime in Innesque to which we allude last week; one is from a responsible citizen of Myerville, the other from our local correspondent, an honest industrious law-abiding colored man. His account of this brutal affair needs no comment, as it is to be read in the paper and columns of the 21st. We simply call the attention of the citizens who constitute the next Grand Jury at Innesque, and of the proper authorities to it.

GRANDS. Buy your Grass Blowers, Hoes, Hayforks, Garden Rakes, Spades and other Agricultural and Horticultural Implements from J. H. A. FRANK & Co. We have had a number of inquiries for a number of years past, but we do not remember to dry a spring and summer of this kind. The fall of 1855 was one of unusual drought—so much so that in many places the crops were killed. We have had almost uninterrupted growth since the first of May, and the corn crop is well up to a total failure.
