

MR. GRAYES FOUND GUILTY

And Given One Year's Confinement in the Penitentiary.

AN ARREST OF JUDGMENT ASKED FOR.

Motion to Be Argued by Counsel This Morning—Instructions to the Jury.

Guilty, sir. These words were spoken by the foreman of the jury.

Mr. Grayes stood up. The Sergeant passed the verdict to the clerk.

He read: We, the jury, find the prisoner (E. Buford Grayes) guilty and fix his punishment at one year in the penitentiary.

Shortly afterwards the court adjourned. Thus were the closing scenes enacted in the Grayes trial yesterday.

The proceedings began promptly at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. When the jurors were sworn to their names by Judge Anderson, he said that there might be some objection to the names of Mr. Grayes, but he had no objection.

The jury was called and stated as to the names of its members. I settled either with Mr. Childrey or Mr. Grayes, he said. Possibly for a year I have settled with Mr. Grayes. My security that my cash at the end of the year was correct is evidenced by the marks on this book.

Mr. Grayes was next called. His testimony told the whole story of Mr. Grayes' visit to his office in the company of Mr. Childrey.

Mr. Smith asked the Court to allow the jury to go out, for he was about to introduce a witness. It was but for Mr. Grayes that the jury should not hear the questioning.

The jury was carried out and Mr. Smith said it was evident that one of the defenses to be made would be that other people had access to Mr. Grayes' cash drawer better than he himself had.

The defense did not wish to ask any questions, and Mr. Levy was told to stand aside. The court at this hour (4 o'clock) took a recess until 5 o'clock. Dinner was served in the interim.

Second Session. Judge Allen ascended the bench at 9 o'clock and said that he would like to hear further in the case of the accused receiving money in the Treasurer's office.

Mr. Levy said that he would like to hear further in the case of the accused receiving money in the Treasurer's office. I see, he said, that one of the city ordinances provides that money shall be received by the Treasurer, and another ordinance provides that the clerk shall receive money in the Treasurer's office.

Mr. Childrey was called and took the witness stand and testified. The jury was then taken out and Maj. Stringfellow, addressing the Court, said it is manifestly manifest that the accused is guilty.

The Court instructs the jury that if they believe the evidence to be true, they should find the accused guilty. The building committee has the aid of a local builder and architect had by this time adopted a plan for a Gothic frame building of about 200 seating capacity.

As soon as these instructions were read Mr. Wise asked Mr. Smith if he had any instructions. Mr. Smith: No, sir, I have not.

Major Stringfellow, addressing the Court, said he was rather embarrassed, inasmuch as he had not the authority of Mr. Wharton. He thought was conclusive in the case. The book, he said, was in the State Library yesterday, but today it is not there.

INSTITUTE COMMENCEMENT.

Exercises Take Place at the Academy of Music.

SPEECH BY MR. F. H. RICHARDSON.

Delivery of Prizes—Addresses by President Jones and Others—Decorations of the Stage.

Although the day was dark and dreary and the lowering clouds hung low, yesterday was undoubtedly the brightest period in the history of the Virginia Mechanics' Institute.

Founded only a few years ago with only a pitiful handful of students and a few volunteer instructors, it has grown and prospered beyond all expectation, until now its glory sheds radiance into the lives of many hundreds of Richmond's young men.

The closing exercises of the session of this grand institution took place last evening at the Mozart Academy of Music, a most magnificent hall, but notwithstanding the weather the house was well filled with friends and relatives of the students, and looks of anxiety and anticipation were numerous.

When they filed in about 300 strong it was a spectacle of which any city might be proud. The stage was arranged in the form of a square. Its sides were covered with specimens of free-hand, mechanical and architectural drawing and specimens of modeling.

These works were far beyond the expectations of the audience, and stand the tests of the severest professional critics. Across the stage was arranged an electrical telephone which was made by one of the boys, and to one side several electrical machines made by Mr. H. Kindervater, assisted by a friend.

At 8:40 o'clock Mr. W. J. Whitehurst arose and in a few appropriate words presented Colonel H. C. Jones, the president, who made an address of welcome to those who were present and briefly stated the objects of the institute.

At 8:40 o'clock Mr. W. J. Whitehurst arose and in a few appropriate words presented Colonel H. C. Jones, the president, who made an address of welcome to those who were present and briefly stated the objects of the institute.

At 8:40 o'clock Mr. W. J. Whitehurst arose and in a few appropriate words presented Colonel H. C. Jones, the president, who made an address of welcome to those who were present and briefly stated the objects of the institute.

At 8:40 o'clock Mr. W. J. Whitehurst arose and in a few appropriate words presented Colonel H. C. Jones, the president, who made an address of welcome to those who were present and briefly stated the objects of the institute.

At 8:40 o'clock Mr. W. J. Whitehurst arose and in a few appropriate words presented Colonel H. C. Jones, the president, who made an address of welcome to those who were present and briefly stated the objects of the institute.

At 8:40 o'clock Mr. W. J. Whitehurst arose and in a few appropriate words presented Colonel H. C. Jones, the president, who made an address of welcome to those who were present and briefly stated the objects of the institute.

At 8:40 o'clock Mr. W. J. Whitehurst arose and in a few appropriate words presented Colonel H. C. Jones, the president, who made an address of welcome to those who were present and briefly stated the objects of the institute.

At 8:40 o'clock Mr. W. J. Whitehurst arose and in a few appropriate words presented Colonel H. C. Jones, the president, who made an address of welcome to those who were present and briefly stated the objects of the institute.

At 8:40 o'clock Mr. W. J. Whitehurst arose and in a few appropriate words presented Colonel H. C. Jones, the president, who made an address of welcome to those who were present and briefly stated the objects of the institute.

At 8:40 o'clock Mr. W. J. Whitehurst arose and in a few appropriate words presented Colonel H. C. Jones, the president, who made an address of welcome to those who were present and briefly stated the objects of the institute.

At 8:40 o'clock Mr. W. J. Whitehurst arose and in a few appropriate words presented Colonel H. C. Jones, the president, who made an address of welcome to those who were present and briefly stated the objects of the institute.

MANCHESTER'S COUNCILMEN.

They Refuse to Allow a Bridge Over Fourteenth Street.

ACTION ABOUT SWINGING OF GATES.

Various Other Matters of More or Less Interest, and City Notes in General.

The City Council held an adjourned meeting last evening with President Perdue in the chair. The meeting had been called at the suggestion of Mr. Bradley to give the Council an opportunity to wind up all old business before the retiring members go out.

The Committee on Streets presented a report recommending an alley between Fourth and Fifth and Decatur and Stockton streets, and another alley between Sixth and Seventh and Hall and Decatur streets at a mere trifling expense. The report was adopted.

A report was presented by the joint Committee on Streets and Ordinances in regard to the propriety and advisability of passing an ordinance concerning the crossing of Fourteenth street northwest of Railroad street.

The report states that Fourteenth street has been opened and dedicated 254 feet north of the Richmond and Petersburg railroad to a width of thirty-three feet and has been used as a thoroughfare by hundreds of foot-passengers. The report also sets forth that the Richmond and Petersburg Railroad Company is now erecting a bridge across their tracks at that locality, which structure will be opened and high. In conclusion, the report states that it is a necessity in that locality, and it recommends the rejection of the ordinance providing for the construction of the bridge. The report also recommends that Fourteenth street be opened from that point northward to a point on the Danville and Danville railroad to be designated by the city authorities, that a commission be appointed, and that the judge of the Hustings Court be requested to condemn the property for the opening of the street.

The latter to be properly graded when adopted. Mr. Bradley offered the adoption of the report, but Mr. Rollins wanted to have it laid on the table to enable the City Council to ascertain whether the property to be condemned actually belongs to the city. Mr. Rollins' amendment was lost and the report was adopted.

An ordinance was presented providing that all gates now opening outwards and those to be hung hereafter should open inward, the necessary changes to be made within sixty days after the passage of the ordinance. Provisions shall have to pay a fine of from $2 to $10. The ordinance was referred to the proper committee to give the property-owners an opportunity to be heard on the subject.

A communication from the Committee on Water-Works. The communication requests the city to restore the hydrant on Cowardin avenue and Semmes street, and to erect one at the corner of Semmes and Fourteenth streets. If this is done the company agrees to lay a pipe on McDonough street for hydrants to be placed where the Council may direct. The proposed pipe to be laid from Cowardin avenue to Twelfth street on Semmes street is to be six inches.

A petition from the James River Tanning Company to extend the exemption of their property for a period of five years beginning January 1, 1892, was referred to the Finance Committee.

A petition was received from Henry C. Whitlock, who wishes to be appointed city measurer, oil tester, and port warden. The petition was referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. Bradley offered a resolution providing for the introduction of an ordinance which is to create the position of city measurer and tester and port warden.

The resolution was adopted, and the Council adjourned.

Other Manchester News. A meeting of the stockholders of the Manchester Mill Company will be held at the office of the company in this city on the 30th of June.

Miss Emily B. Terrell, of King William county, has been called to this city on account of the illness of her cousin, Mrs. D. L. Pulliam.

The rainy weather has stopped the work of street improvement.

The Alert Fire Company have purchased a handsome book-case for their library.

Miss Agnes Walker at "Holly Springs," near Manchester.

CHURCH NOTES.

Confirmation Services—Christian Endeavor Society, etc.

The two chapels of St. John's church will be visited by Bishop Whittle Sunday afternoon, and the rite of confirmation administered at each.

The young People's Society of Christian Endeavor at the Seventh-street Christian church will celebrate its second anniversary on Sunday evening. An attractive programme has been arranged.

At 8:40 o'clock Mr. W. J. Whitehurst arose and in a few appropriate words presented Colonel H. C. Jones, the president, who made an address of welcome to those who were present and briefly stated the objects of the institute.

At 8:40 o'clock Mr. W. J. Whitehurst arose and in a few appropriate words presented Colonel H. C. Jones, the president, who made an address of welcome to those who were present and briefly stated the objects of the institute.

At 8:40 o'clock Mr. W. J. Whitehurst arose and in a few appropriate words presented Colonel H. C. Jones, the president, who made an address of welcome to those who were present and briefly stated the objects of the institute.

At 8:40 o'clock Mr. W. J. Whitehurst arose and in a few appropriate words presented Colonel H. C. Jones, the president, who made an address of welcome to those who were present and briefly stated the objects of the institute.

At 8:40 o'clock Mr. W. J. Whitehurst arose and in a few appropriate words presented Colonel H. C. Jones, the president, who made an address of welcome to those who were present and briefly stated the objects of the institute.

At 8:40 o'clock Mr. W. J. Whitehurst arose and in a few appropriate words presented Colonel H. C. Jones, the president, who made an address of welcome to those who were present and briefly stated the objects of the institute.

At 8:40 o'clock Mr. W. J. Whitehurst arose and in a few appropriate words presented Colonel H. C. Jones, the president, who made an address of welcome to those who were present and briefly stated the objects of the institute.

At 8:40 o'clock Mr. W. J. Whitehurst arose and in a few appropriate words presented Colonel H. C. Jones, the president, who made an address of welcome to those who were present and briefly stated the objects of the institute.

At 8:40 o'clock Mr. W. J. Whitehurst arose and in a few appropriate words presented Colonel H. C. Jones, the president, who made an address of welcome to those who were present and briefly stated the objects of the institute.

At 8:40 o'clock Mr. W. J. Whitehurst arose and in a few appropriate words presented Colonel H. C. Jones, the president, who made an address of welcome to those who were present and briefly stated the objects of the institute.

At 8:40 o'clock Mr. W. J. Whitehurst arose and in a few appropriate words presented Colonel H. C. Jones, the president, who made an address of welcome to those who were present and briefly stated the objects of the institute.

At 8:40 o'clock Mr. W. J. Whitehurst arose and in a few appropriate words presented Colonel H. C. Jones, the president, who made an address of welcome to those who were present and briefly stated the objects of the institute.

At 8:40 o'clock Mr. W. J. Whitehurst arose and in a few appropriate words presented Colonel H. C. Jones, the president, who made an address of welcome to those who were present and briefly stated the objects of the institute.

At 8:40 o'clock Mr. W. J. Whitehurst arose and in a few appropriate words presented Colonel H. C. Jones, the president, who made an address of welcome to those who were present and briefly stated the objects of the institute.

At 8:40 o'clock Mr. W. J. Whitehurst arose and in a few appropriate words presented Colonel H. C. Jones, the president, who made an address of welcome to those who were present and briefly stated the objects of the institute.

DEATHS.

Mr. Winfrey Closes His Eyes to the World. Action of Students.

Mr. Egbert Bolling Winfrey, of Buckingham, died yesterday at Richmond College after an illness of three weeks.

Mr. Winfrey was born in Buckingham county, Va., March 21, 1868, and was consequently just twenty-three years of age. His parents are still living in the same county. His oldest brother, Rev. E. W. Winfrey, is the honored pastor of the Baptist church at Culpeper, Va. He had several other brothers and sisters, all of whom made a profession of religion and became members of various churches, near the home of his childhood.

When less than twenty years of age he began to preach and gave promise of extensive usefulness in the ministry. At the time of his death he was pastor at Bethany, Caroline county, and had formerly supplied as pastor of Waller's church, in Spotsylvania, and Little River, in Louisa. He was exceedingly popular wherever he went.

After some preparations in primary schools he spent one session at Homestead Academy, Chesterfield county, and entered Richmond College in September, 1889. Few students in so early a career are so promising. At the close of his first session at college he was awarded a medal in the Philologist Society for improvement in debate.

At a meeting of students held in the College chapel yesterday afternoon suitable resolutions touching the death of Mr. Winfrey were presented by a committee consisting of Messrs. W. Owen Carver, C. T. Taylor and T. S. Dunaway, and tender and appropriate remarks were made by Rev. Dr. C. H. Ryland, Professor H. H. Harris, and Messrs. Taylor, Loving, Carver, Britt and Allison.

The remains will be taken to Buckingham for burial to-day, accompanied by Messrs. M. J. Hoover, J. E. Hixson, W. C. Blair, J. S. Ryland and W. B. Loving.

Other Deaths. The funeral of Miss Katie C. Healy took place yesterday morning at 9 o'clock from St. Peter's cathedral. The deceased was seventy-eight years old and a brother of Mr. James L. Apperson. He was widely known and generally esteemed and respected.

To Declare a Dividend. There was a meeting of the stockholders of the Richmond and Harrisonburg Land Company yesterday afternoon. It was decided to declare a dividend of 10 per cent, on stock Reports from the general manager showed that prospects of improvement of property at Harrisonburg were flattering. A vote of thanks was tendered the president of the company, Mr. H. L. Polonzo, for his zeal in the promotion of the company's interests.

His Condition Improving. The condition of Mr. Charles W. Harwood, of the Associated Railways, is much improved. The nervous shock given to his system by the removal of the accident on last Tuesday has ceased and the swelling on his face has subsided and is not showing further. He will be able to resume his duties next week. He is still weak and confined to his bed.

Not to Be Hanged. Governor McKinney yesterday commuted to six years' confinement the penalty of Randall Watson (colored), who was sentenced on January 6, 1890, by the judge of the Circuit Court of Greensville, to be hanged for the killing of Joseph Robinson on December 26, 1886. Watson has been confined in jail for more than four years.

Nursing Mothers. Convalescents and invalids derive their strength and tone from the use of Export Brewing, brewed by the Baltimore Brewing Company. It is a delightful malt beverage, having slowly ripened by half-year's storage. It is absolutely pure, invigorating and palatable. It is perfect. The trial of a case containing one dozen bottles will convince you. It is sold only in bottles.

Headquarters. Richmond Light Infantry, May 15, 1891. All persons having bills against the Blues' bazaar, or against the company, will please present them at once for payment.

Clothing. SATURDAY SPECIALS. 3,978—Black Cheviot Sack Suit, reduced to-day from $10 to $7.50.

4,126—Mixed Cheviot Sack Suit, reduced to-day from $10 to $7.50.

2,316—Striped Cheviot Sack Suit, reduced to-day from $10 to $7.50.

4,075—Mixed Cheviot Outaway Suit, reduced to-day from $13.50 to $10.

3,075—Light-Gray Home-Spun Outaway Suit, reduced to-day from $15 to $10.

FREE.

An extra pair of Knee-Pants with every Knee-Pant Suit.

See our $1.00 Derby Hats.

See our 25c., 35c. and 45c. Underwear.

THE BOSTON.

Opp. Postoffice.

PICNICS, EXCURSIONS, &c.

FIRST MOONLIGHT OF THE SEASON TO DUTCH GAP.

BY THE CHURCH OF THE COVENANT.

TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 19, 1891.

Boat leaves Ariel's Wharf promptly at 7:30. Tickets 50 cents. Music. Hot Supper on European plan.

COME AND GET YOUR HAIR CUT AT SEITZ'S.

The best white barber in the land, for only 10c. on Eleventh street near Main, down stairs.

WON BY MRS. FAIRLAMB.

The piano which was offered at the Blues' bazaar as a prize, and which has been drawn by No. 401, has been won by Mrs. H. Fairlamb. The piano was yesterday turned over to the lucky winner.

WON BY MRS. FAIRLAMB.

The piano which was offered at the Blues' bazaar as a prize, and which has been drawn by No. 401, has been won by Mrs. H. Fairlamb. The piano was yesterday turned over to the lucky winner.

WON BY MRS. FAIRLAMB.

The piano which was offered at the Blues' bazaar as a prize, and which has been drawn by No. 401, has been won by Mrs. H. Fairlamb. The piano was yesterday turned over to the lucky winner.