

DEFENDING COLONEL POLK.

Rev. Dr. Lacy Publishes a Card Refuting the Charges Against Him.

POSTMASTER WANAMAKER'S LATEST.

He is Interesting Himself in Behalf of Van Vranken—Condition of the Weather—Crops—From Over the State.

Nonf. Va., Sept. 19.—(Special).—Rev. Dr. William S. Lacy, the distinguished pastor of the Second Presbyterian church of this city, published the following letter in defense of Colonel Polk: "I know Colonel Polk well. We were fellow-students at college and in some of the same classes. His age is nearer fifty-six than thirty-six. He is certainly past fifty. He was a soldier in the Confederate service, a lieutenant in one of the regiments of the North Carolina State troops. My impression is that he attained no higher rank than that of lieutenant and that his title of colonel is a post-bellum honor.

EASILY GUILTY. "I know he was never Governor of North Carolina (those Kansas people are easily gulled) and could never have given an order for the maltreatment of Federal prisoners. If he did do any of the kind, as alleged, he died as a soldier under orders. Whatever view may be taken on the political affiliations of a gentleman and a Christian."

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION. The Democratic executive committee of Norfolk county held a meeting to-day to make arrangements for holding the county convention to nominate a candidate for the House of Delegates. The convention will assemble in Pine-street Hall, Berkeley, October 13th. Hon. John M. Berkeley will be a candidate for reelection.

WHOSE BOY IS THIS? A boy tramp was arrested to-day and required to give an account of himself. He said his name was George Dillard, and that he had parents in Richmond. He was sent to jail and his friends were notified. On the suspicion of being an escaped convict from North Carolina, he broke jail at Henderson.

TO PROSECUTE THE COMPANY, TOO. It is thought that the Commonwealth proposes to prosecute the Commonwealth of Virginia in the killing of Mr. George C. White, but the action of the Commonwealth's attorney at the conclusion of the testimony before the jury indicated that he intended also to prosecute the railroad company, as he requested the mayor to send on the name of all the witnesses to the clerk of the court to be summoned before the next regular grand jury to testify concerning the gross negligence of the Atlantic and Danville Company as charged in the verdict of the coroner's jury.

NOFOLK NOTES. It is reported in this city that Postmaster Wanamaker has introduced himself in behalf of Van Vranken, and has been named as Secretary Tracy's successor to act.

DEMOCRATS VS. ALLIANCE. Each Have Opposing Candidates in the Field for the Legislature. KEYSVILLE, Va., Sept. 19.—(Special).—A large crowd of delegates and others assembled at Lunenburg Court-house yesterday for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the Legislature.

THE DEMOCRATS met in one hall and the Alliance delegates in another. A committee from the Alliance proposed to the Democratic convention that they would support a good Alliance Democrat if they nominated a Democrat, whereupon they nominated J. W. Overby, ex-treasurer and ex-member of the Legislature, and an Alliance man.

THE Alliance convention refused to accept Mr. Overby and nominated Mr. Elmer Williams, as their next two candidates in the field. The two conventions were in session until 11 o'clock at night. Much speech-making was indulged in and many bitter feelings engendered. It is not known yet whether the Republicans will nominate a candidate. It is to be hoped that the Alliance and Democrats will yet reconcile their differences and unite upon a third man.

THE Alliance and Democrats are harmonious in this county, and are all solid for the regular Democratic nominees.

HAMPDEN-SIDNEY NOTES. HAMPDEN-SIDNEY, Va., Sept. 19.—(Special). The sound of the hammerers are still lively among us, as the seven new homes have not all reached completion. One of the new dwellings has just been occupied by Mr. John Dalney, returned missionary from Brazil, whom we all gladly welcome to our midst. How often do occasions of rejoicing and regret come hand in hand.

While ever ready to receive new friends, we dread to say "good-bye" to those who have long had their home with us. All of our town feels regret at parting from Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Taliferro, who go to Christiansburg, Mrs. Taliferro to become principal of the Christiansburg Female College and Mr. Taliferro to assist in the business and domestic management of the institution.

Dr. Mollwaine is found to have enrolled so far 145 students at college. After a great amount of electioneering among the boys the two literary societies have taken in about the same number of members. The senior class contains thirty-five students, the largest for a great many years.

TO ISSUE CITY BONDS. A Vote of the People to be Taken—Death of Mr. Daniel Harrison. CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., Sept. 19.—(Special). At the last meeting of the city council the finance committee recommended that the sum of $7,000 be appropriated for streets next year. It was also stated that in order to place our treasury in a more healthy condition and at the same time enable the council to make judicious and much needed improvements in our streets, it is necessary to get rid of the floating debt, to which will require a vote of the people authorizing an issuance of bonds for this purpose. The committee saw no reason why this vote may not be taken at the November election.

Rev. J. O. Sessions, formerly of Georgia, now of Eastern Virginia, a son-in-law of Mr. W. R. Kent of this city, will preach at the Baptist church to-morrow, on next Tuesday Mr. Sessions and his family will leave for Louisville, Ky., where Mr. Sessions will attend the seminary at that place. Mr. Daniel Harmon, an old and respected citizen of this place, died suddenly at his residence, on Preston Heights, this morning about 1 o'clock, it is thought from apoplexy. He was in his usual health yesterday and last night, retiring about 11 o'clock. Mr. Harmon was a native of Alexandria, but has been a resident of this place for many years, where he engaged in merchandizing, afterwards filling a responsible position in a bank in this city. For some years past he has been engaged in the insurance business. He leaves a wife and five children—three sons and two daughters. The funeral services will take place on Monday, when it is expected that two of his sons residing in distant States will be present. Mr. James M. Clarkson, of Florida, has been in this city all week.

Deaths in Rockbridge. LEXINGTON, Va., Sept. 19.—(Special).—Mrs. I. P. Steele, the widow of the late J. G. Steele, who in his day was one of the most prominent lawyers in Southwest Virginia, died last night at Buena Vista, after a lingering illness. She was buried this afternoon from the Presbyterian church, this place, Rev. Dr. Preston, officiating. The large assemblage at the grave and the beautiful floral offerings attested the popularity of the deceased.

A. A. McClung, a wealthy and prominent farmer of this county, died yesterday and was buried to-day. See "Kajanka" and imagine yourself in the realm of the fairies.

FAVORABLE FOR CROPS.

Appropriate Weather for Raising Tobacco and Fodder—Reports From the State.

LYNCHBURG, Va., Sept. 19.—(Special).—Following is the twenty-eighth weekly weather crop bulletin of the Virginia State Weather Service, co-operating with the United States Weather Bureau, Department of Agriculture, for the week ending Friday, September 19, 1891, received at the central office, Lynchburg, Va. Reports for the past seven days show that the conditions as to weather and temperature have been generally very favorable to all growing crops and for preparations for seedling fall crops. The temperature was slightly below the normal at the first of the week, followed by higher temperature. The rain last Saturday was in cloudless weather and absence of rain, which has proved beneficial to all growing crops. Corn and tobacco have advanced and improved, though the high temperature of the last few days has probably been injurious to tobacco, that has been cut and housed. Plowing for fall seeding is still in progress, but in some sections it is nearly finished. The remarks of special correspondents are: Lynchburg—Rainfall, 12 inch on Saturday, followed by cloudless, fair and warm weather, with temperature at 72 on the 19th. Conditions favorable for growing tobacco and corn.

Bedford City—Tobacco cutting has begun. The leaf is large and heavy. Corn is doing well. The weather is favorable for all farm work. Farmers are in splendid condition for planting continuance, but rain is needed for continuation of this work. Farmers are all busy. Dale Enterprise—Weather conditions favorable for farm work. Corn cutting and seeding has begun. Sunshine is most needed for corn. No rainfall. Shenandoah—Conditions of the weather have been favorable to corn in ripening and all farm work. Most of the farmers are ready to seed their fall crops. No rainfall.

Notaway Courthouse—Fine, sunny weather has been highly favorable for maturing and cutting tobacco and curing corn fodder. Rainfall, 6.3 inch in two days. Richmond—Rainfall, 4.8 inch on Saturday, which was followed by weather favorable for all growing crops. Scottsville—The past week has been favorable to gathering and curing fodder and the ripening of the sweet potato and peanut crops. Another week will complete the fodder harvest. Rainfall, 2.0 inch on Sunday, followed by fair weather.

Norfolk—Conditions generally very favorable for all growing crops. Rainfall, 3.5 inch on Saturday and Sunday, followed by fair weather. Danvers at the Millboro. MILLBORO SPRINGS, Va., Sept. 19.—(Special). Saturday about 90 persons put in their appearance here and were warmly and hospitably welcomed by Mr. J. H. Miller, the proprietor, for a dance. After a rest of all the good things music was sounded in the ball-room. Miss D. Gwyn danced with Mr. Lyle. Miss Eva Revercomb with C. C. Cuthbert. Miss Ella Wallace with P. A. Tankersley. Miss Beaty with E. B. Wright. Miss Mary Gwyn with W. Canley. Miss Mattie Revercomb with W. Canley. Miss Minnie Mayo with Mr. Tankersley. Miss Maggie Miller with R. Lipscomb. Miss Vivian Vance with H. C. Wright. Estee Mayo with J. Kincaid. Mr. Gwyn with A. S. Beatty. Miss Lillie Stetson with J. D. Bradley. Miss Mattie Miller with William A. Venable. Miss Jennie Maloney with Mr. Tyne, and Miss Percy with Mr. Riverscomb. The guests departed from the hotel at 10 o'clock, for Highland, Allegheny, West Virginia, Maryland, Washington city and New York.

Alexandria Affairs. ALEXANDRIA, Va., Sept. 19.—(Special).—Next week the schools will have all opened. The public schools start with about the same number of pupils as last year. The John's Academy has a good school this year—boys there from all over the country. Three is the number from Richmond. The Jeff Phillips case goes over until next month, as do several important cases on the docket of Judge Norton. The market space was reopened this morning. The fight for the House of Delegates in Prince William will be warm. The candidates are Captain R. H. Tyler, Colonel Edmund Berkeley, and Dr. John S. Powell. The Alexandria brick concern is loading a schooner with brick for Norfolk. This vessel will be the first laden schooner to go out of Hunting creek in fifty years. The Misses Klunfelter, of Baltimore, are visiting the Misses King. Rev. Mr. James I. Vance has returned.

Handsome Monument Unveiled. WINCHESTER, Va., Sept. 19.—(Special).—The Gettysburg Monument Association unveiled a handsome granite monument to-day in the cemetery in memory of General David A. Russell. The floral tributes were profuse, and a large crowd was present. The veil was raised by surviving relatives from Massachusetts, Ohio and New York, consisting of Colonel Russell, two sisters and two nephews. Major-General Wright delivered the opening address. The monument was presented by Major-General Gatty and was received on the part of the Government by Captain W. A. Donaldson, superintendent of the cemetery. The veterans received a cordial welcome here and returned to Philadelphia this evening after a three days' visit.

Highland Springs Matters. HIGHLAND SPRINGS, Va., Sept. 19.—(Special).—The school board have appointed Miss Taghler as teacher for the new school at Taghler's springs, which will open Monday, September 21st, in the new school-house on Juniper avenue. The set of hand instruments for the Highland Springs brass band arrived from Boston Thursday and Mr. James M. Hayhorn has been appointed leader for the band. About two thousand volumes of books have been shipped from Boston for the public library, which will be opened as soon as arrangements are completed.

Charged With Assault. CLYBURN FORD, Va., Sept. 19.—(Special).—Jim Holman, charged with assault here this afternoon, charged with assaulting two young ladies on the street. They will have their preliminary trial in the morning. Since the arrival of the pay-car yesterday a number of the railroad employes have been "making money," and as a result the lock-up is overflowing.

Injured In a Fight. SALEM, Va., Sept. 19.—(Special).—A young man named Hofager yesterday morning struck A. M. Martin in the forehead with a rock at an apple butter boiling, fracturing Martin's skull. The parties were in a spring race at the place, and the difficulty grew out of an old grudge. Martin may recover, and Hofager is out of jail under $200 bail.

Church Sociable. BUENA VISTA, Va., Sept. 18.—(Special).—The Presbyterian congregation at Buena Vista met by appointment at the residence of the pastor, Rev. Robert F. Campbell, last evening, and enjoyed a most delightful entertainment. Among the visitors present was Miss Emily Glasgow, of Richmond.

COLONEL FULKERSON DID NOT GO TO THE REUNION OF VETERANS ON ACCOUNT OF A TIMES EDITORIAL. BRISTOL, TENN., Sept. 19.—(Special).—On August 11th Colonel A. Fulkerson, who was a major of the Nineteenth Tennessee Infantry and afterwards colonel of the Sixty-third Tennessee, received an invitation to a reunion of the Seventh division of Federal troops, (General George W. Morgan's command), to take place September 17th, 18th and 19th. He accepted and a few days afterwards saw in THE TIMES an article which referred to the sentiment expressed in Detroit at the G. A. R. reunion, when a song about "No Union between the blue and the gray" was sung and loudly applauded. He then wrote to Captain John M. Brooks, by whom he had been invited, and asked if the article was true. A good deal of correspondence took place, and as Colonel Fulkerson could get no plain denial of the sentiment expressed, he declined to go to the reunion.

Parlor Cars on C. & O. The White Sulphur parlor cars running between the White Sulphur and Richmond on trains Nos. 5 and 6 will be withdrawn in a few days.

THE SOUTHERN EXPOSITION.

Raleigh Making Elaborate Preparations for the Great Event.

SOME OF ITS ATTRACTIVE FEATURES.

Programme of the Musical Festival—Description of the Buildings—Preparations for Entertaining the Visitors.

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 19.—(Special).—On all sides are to be seen here the most active and extensive preparations for the opening of the great Interstate Southern Exposition, October 1st, which date is now so close at hand. Ten days hence will see the city overflowing with visitors, and one of the most notable shows ever seen in the South will be opened to the public. The whole city is beginning to realize the importance of the event, and all are absorbed in preparation for it. Nearly all the prominent business houses on the principal streets have been handsomely furnished, and a general tendency is to be seen on all sides toward putting things in the best possible condition for the reception of the visitors. Extensive arrangements are being made for the accommodation of the crowds.

The city has taken official action and the Board of Aldermen has created a bureau which is now canvassing the city and taking a list of all parties who will entertain visitors. All rooms which can possibly be secured are being gotten in readiness by the bureau for the accommodation of the crowds. At the Exposition grounds and buildings a general of the busiest activity is presented. Scene-Manager John T. Patrick's office, a large area enclosed by a railing, is located in the central portion of the main building, and here are employed a corps of fifteen or twenty young ladies, typewriters and stenographers, the ceaseless click of whose machines is heard from morning till night. A vast volume of correspondence is being carried on. A large corps of clerks is also busy sending out various kinds of Exposition literature.

THE MAIN BUILDING. The main Exposition building is thirteen hundred feet in length, one of the largest buildings of the kind ever constructed in the South. This great length was attained by connecting the old Exposition building, which was used for the North Carolina Exposition in 1884, and the State Fair building, which was erected in 1887. The interior of this mammoth structure has been rendered most attractive by the beauties of the decorator's art, and a large force of these artists under the supervision of Mittelfelder, of Richmond, have been busily engaged for several weeks past in the fitting and attractive arrangement of the work of putting in the vast piles of exhibits which have been kept boxed up for the present. It has been in earnest and every effort will now be made to get the big show thoroughly ready for the opening of the Exposition on October 1st by Governor Thomas M. Holt. It is also learned that the Governors of Florida, Texas and Kentucky will be present at the opening. The first day, in which there will be elaborate fairs, bands of music and military display. Exhibits are pouring in daily by car loads from all over the South and railroad men here state that freight traffic is very heavy in consequence.

THE MUSICAL FESTIVAL. The opening of the Exposition will be signalized by a very unique and artistic feature. This will be the grand Exposition music festival, which will be held on the nights of October 1st and 2d. It will be the most noted gathering of musicians ever assembled in the State and one of the most scientific, pretensions and elaborate programmes ever held in the history of the world. The festival is under the direction of Professor A. Pauli, of this city, for years professor of music at St. Mary's School and Peace Institute, of this city. There will be a chorus of 300 voices made up from Salem, Winston-Salem, Greensboro, and other cities of musical note. There will also be present the famous Salem orchestra, made up of the most skilled musicians of that old Moravian community. Professor Leo Wheat, the eminent musician and composer, will be in charge of the festival. The programme will embrace classical selections and productions of the highest order. The chorus will render such songs as "The Song of the Sea," "The Song of the Mountains," "The Song of the Plains," "The Song of the Valley," "The Song of the Forest," "The Song of the Field," "The Song of the Garden," "The Song of the Home," "The Song of the Church," "The Song of the State," "The Song of the Nation," "The Song of the World." The programme will also include a choice selection of solos, duets and quartets to be rendered by the most accomplished musicians of the State.

EXPLOSION NOTES. The electric street-car line is being completed to the Exposition grounds, which are about a mile and a half from the city. The electric cars will be run out at frequent intervals. Trains will also be run by the Raleigh and Gaston railroad, whose track runs immediately by the grounds. These trains will be run at intervals of ten minutes. There will be various attractions at the Exposition for the amusement as well as instruction of the crowds. A switchback has been constructed on the most improved and modern order at a cost of $1,000. Arrangements have been made for bicycle races and exhibitions. There will be a grand parade on the 1st of October, and a grand military display on the 2d. The programme will also include a choice selection of solos, duets and quartets to be rendered by the most accomplished musicians of the State.

NOT A JILTED LOVER. Sensational Developments to be Made in the Baumgarten Suicide. CHARLOTTE, N. C., Sept. 19.—(Special).—Interesting facts have developed in regard to the reported suicide of Moses Baumgarten, of this city, which occurred in Charleston. Letters from his fiancée found in his trunk, furnished food for a thrilling romance. They have not been given to the public. At any rate he was not a jilted lover, as was assumed as the cause of his death. The young lady has been in a great nervous state since the death of her lover. A serious cutting affair occurred here this afternoon between June Lee and Rosa Wolfe, who were both citizens of Barton township. Lee was cut six places. Wolfe was placed under a heavy bond. Both men were drinking. The Good Samaritan Hospital for negroes will be opened this week.

Other North State News. State Auditor Sandefur to-day paid $400 reward for the capture and delivery of William and Thomas Whitson, two brothers wanted for the murder of C. C. Bird, in Mitchell county, over two years ago. The reward of $200 each has been outstanding for both murderers since 1882 and they have just been captured. Governor Holt to-day authorized the exchange of courts between Judges W. A. Hoke and J. T. Graves, by which Judge Hoke will hold full terms of the York and Stokes courts and Judge Graves will hold full terms of the Lincoln, Forsyth and Cleveland courts.

Another Serious Collision. MASON, MISS., Sept. 19.—At the Columbus street crossing here this morning, the engine of a south-bound train collided with a wagon on which were seated Fred Avery, seventeen years old, Her Curry, aged ten, and Willie Welch, aged eleven. The train was severely injured at the head and side. Curry's skull and right arm and spine were injured and Welch's skull is fractured, his right leg broken at the thigh and he is also injured internally and cannot live.

BLUE RIDGE SPRINGS.

The Season Drawing to a Close, but Gaiety Still Kept Up.

BLUE RIDGE SPRINGS, Va., Sept. 19.—Parting is such sorrow that in our narrow-minded view of what seems best to us we often think it would have been better had we never met with those who grew to be dear—and then we never had parted. For three months we have been bound together as a nation without sections, as a large family circle under one roof and all impelled by the same interests and desires—and now, as the days grow shorter, our happy circle is broken, and those whom we have grown to love are taken from us, and to a cup of unalloyed pleasure is added the one drop which embitters the whole.

These very warm days in September have kept a large crowd at summer resorts, and there seems to be a scarcely noticeable lull in the gaiety of the season. By daytime the beautiful lawn is dotted about with tennis-players and groups of pleasure-seekers, who his to the shade of some wide spreading oak to enjoy their novels, fancy work or bird-talking. In the evening the lights of the ball-room are rendered attractive by music and dancing and card parties.

On Monday night there was a very enjoyable though somewhat out of the stereotyped line of entertainment—a "cake-walk." It consisted of a series of dances among the occasional music performers, who were the noble effort that was made for that grace which was to bear off the "cake," and it was a labyrinthine puzzle in itself for the judges to decide in favor of any one, but after due consideration it was awarded to Miss Louise Shepard, of Alabama.

On Tuesday morning a party of thirty excursionists started in a special car which was chartered by Mr. H. D. Lafferty, of Louisville, Ky., for a trip to Luray Cave and the Natural Bridge. A band of music was furnished for the occasion and a caterer from Lynchburg furnished everything that was tempting to the palate. The party was chaperoned by Mesdames Cardozo, Cassell, Alfriend and Wolfe. It consisted of Misses Annie and Lelia Gray, Alice Stone, Alfriend, Gasquet, and Saunders; also Messrs. Tanall, Coffin, Cashman, Alfriend, Cardozo, Lafferty, Lavelle, Tennant, Taylor, Wombie and Gasquet. On Wednesday night they returned to Blue Ridge, after having spent a delightful two days on such a pleasant trip. On Thursday at 12 A. M. Mr. Harry Lee Tanall, of Roanoke, gave a most recherche champagne luncheon to twenty-four of his friends. The tables were spread artistically and Mrs. Lou Cardozo presided over the guest, which was a most graceful and which is much to be regretted.

Among those present were Misses Mary and Sallie Alfriend, Mamie Saunders, Anne D. Armistead, Fanny Spicer and Evelyn Gasquet, also Messrs. Coffin, Lafferty, Cardozo, Taylor, Tanall, Gray, Gasquet, Wombie, Alfriend, and Mr. and Mrs. James Cassell and Mrs. Lou J. Cardozo, of Richmond. Many good toasts were drunk to our kind host, and good wishes for numberless happy returns of his birthday—that it would ever give to others as much pleasure as the celebration of this one had given to his friends.

On Friday night there was a very pleasant little dance here, at which both Roanoke and Richmond were well represented. John A. Carr, Roanoke, Va.; John B. Cary, T. D. Parrish, and Miss Sallie Moore, of Richmond; Mr. A. M. Moore, Misses E. B. Morgan and M. L. Watson and J. M. Morgan of Columbus, Miss.; also, W. Bailey Saunders, of Richmond, Va.; J. C. Cooper, wife and child, Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs. Preston Nash, Richmond, Va.; Wm. M. Dunn, New York; C. P. Wiley, Salem, Va.; J. F. Slaughter, Lynchburg, Va.; W. R. Burwell and wife, Charlotte, N. C.; Frank Johnston, Chattanooga, Tenn.; James T. Gray, Richmond, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Meers, Hampton, Va.; G. C. Meigs, Fort Monroe, Va.; Mrs. George Marshall and Mrs. Susie Daney, Vicksburg, Miss.; J. L. Pemberton, Washington, D. C.; John P. Tilton, Boston; Sol Meyer, Monroe and Mrs. R. Hoffma, Virginia; Mrs. George W. Ingersoll, Roanoke, Va.; Colonel and Mrs. J. C. Roanoke, Roanoke, Va.; C. B. Cushman, Roanoke; H. P. Woodson, Lynchburg, Va.

THE KILLING JUSTIFIED. Joseph T. Howerton Dismissed on the Charge of Killing His Nephew. DANVILLE, Va., Sept. 19.—(Special).—Joseph T. Howerton, a well known and prominent farmer of this county, living in the Mountain Hill neighborhood, was arrested this morning, charged with killing his nephew, William Howerton, Jr., of Reidsville, N. C. The case was heard by Justice H. J. Dodson, at Elliott's Store, on Monday night, and the 5th instant William Howerton left Reidsville to visit his uncle's family at Mountain Hill. In Danville he got drunk and became belligerent. On his way from Danville to Mountain Hill he told several people that he was going to whip Miller because Miller was a drunkard. He was met by Joseph T. Howerton. When he reached Miller's house he found that Miller, who is an engineer on the Atlantic and Danville road, was away from home. He told Mrs. Miller, his cousin, he had come there to whip Miller because Miller was a drunkard. He had a quarrel with Mrs. Miller. In the absence of her husband Mrs. Miller went to her father, and appealed to him for protection. Joseph T. Howerton, the father, went to where William Howerton was, and demanded of him to stop why he had quarrelled with Mrs. Miller. In the absence of her husband Mrs. Miller went to her father, and appealed to him for protection. Joseph T. Howerton, the father, went to where William Howerton was, and demanded of him to stop why he had quarrelled with Mrs. Miller.
