

BURIED FAR FROM HOME

NEW PAPER IN CHARLOTTESVILLE.

It is Proposed to Issue a Daily to Meet the Demands of the People of that Growing and Enterprising City.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., August 18.—[Special.]—A car-load of emigrants on their way to Indianapolis, Ind., passed through this city early this morning. On the arrival of the train it was found that an infant, one of ten children of a family by the name of Cohen, had died between Richmond and this place. They got off here, where the child was buried, the Jews of the city rendering the necessary assistance to the family. Cohen is a Jew from Scotland. The family proceeded on their way to Indianapolis to-day.

At last Charlottesville is to have a daily paper. Mr. J. H. Lindsay, one of the editors and proprietors of the Advance, has decided to make the venture, the first issue of the paper to be gotten out on the 1st of September. Mr. Lindsay has had a great deal of experience as newspaper man and is well qualified to successfully conduct a daily paper. With a population of over 8,000 there is no reason why such a paper should not succeed in Charlottesville.

Mr. Mayor S. R. Woods, of this city, and Dr. S. Miller, lecturer on "Socialism and Communism" at the University of Virginia, left yesterday for Iowa. Dr. Miller, who was counsel to Heidelberg under Cleveland's administration, will make several speeches in German while in Iowa. On Monday evening a school went to Warnersboro to-day on their annual excursion and picnic.

Mothers in Hanover.—[Special.]—At a meeting of the residents of the upper part of Hanover county, held at Beaver Dam depot on August 14th, 1892, in the presence of a large number of the community, Mr. J. W. Moody was called to the chair and Major John Page was requested to act as secretary. The following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the chairman appoint a committee who shall, in writing, notify the Mormons that they must leave our county peacefully, if they will, within ten days, and we pledge ourselves that we will resort to means that will rid us of this nuisance.

Which resolution was signed by the following citizens present: J. M. Grymes, B. H. Howles, S. W. Hall, W. F. Jackson, Ned Holloway, Mac Norris, Tom Terrell, Joe White, James G. Luck, Luke A. Holloway, T. F. Waldrop, Lin Thompson, S. W. McWhiney, Elisha Jackson, F. C. Nuckols, W. S. Talley, J. T. Bumpass, F. M. Seay, John Page, J. W. Moody, Jr., Robert Nelson, J. B. L. Marsden, T. F. Moody, C. F. Terrell, C. B. Wampler, J. H. Beasley, C. J. Johnson, Hunter Yeaman, C. J. Jackson, W. G. Sims, H. S. Hall, J. W. Moody, Sam Smith, R. A. Woody, William J. Hall and Fenton Roland.

The secretary was requested to serve the writ of notice on the Mormons promptly, and it was determined that the meeting would reassemble at Beaver Dam depot on the fourth Saturday in August, 1892.

Norfolk Notes.—[Special.]—The observer of the "Herald" reported a large rigged steamer ashore at Fales Cape. The vessel went aground at 6 P. M. No particulars.

A young man of good address and appearance, of medium build, dark complexioned and with a thin moustache went to Messrs. W. H. Barnard & Co.'s storehouse on Main street last evening and asked Mr. Barnard to cash a check for $15, which was "certified" with the stamp of the bank of Portsmouth. It being certified three Mr. Barnard entirely off his mind and cashed it. Today he sent it to Portsmouth and the officials of the bank said it was bogus. The party left the city, it is said, for Richmond.

The People's Line steamer Lady of the Lake arrived here to-day with a large hole in the light joint on her starboard side, having been in collision with a schooner in the Potomac.

A large crowd witnessed the base-ball game this afternoon between the Old Points and Norfolk. Score 9 to 7 in favor of Old Points.

The second of the new fire engines ordered by the city of Norfolk arrived to-day, made by the Silby Works, Seneca Falls, N. Y. Cost, $3,300.

This afternoon as a Norfolk and Western train, bound to Lambert's Point, was passing through Fourth ward some negro men threw stones at the conductor, who was riding on top of a car. He fired at them with his pistol, wounding one of them in the leg.

A Joint Discussion.—[Special.]—A joint discussion between Mr. Meredith and Mr. Turner was arranged at the last Saturday night. Mr. Meredith led off in an hour's speech. He was followed by Mr. Turner, and Mr. Meredith had fifteen minutes for a rejoinder. Judge Ashton introduced both speakers.

Mr. Charles Burton died at his residence, about four miles above Falmouth, in Stafford county, last Tuesday. While in Falmouth Monday evening he ate heartily of watermelon, and when he reached home was seized with camp colic, from which he died next day.

He was a young man, only twenty-five years of age, and leaves a family.

Newport News Convention.—[Special.]—The Newport News Convention was held for the purpose of sending delegates to the Congressional Convention, which meets at Newport News September 14th. After organizing by the election of J. W. Wilcox as chairman and Z. J. Garrison as secretary the following uninstructed delegates were chosen: Chickahominy district, Thomas J. Pett; Tyler district, F. W. Wilcox; Harrison district, L. A. Marsten; Delegate-at-large, Edward Wilcox.

J. Jackson, of the "Southern Planter," was present and gave an interesting address in behalf of a Virginia exhibition at the World's Fair.

Union Picnic—Farmers' Convention.—[Special.]—A union picnic, combined with the Sunday school of Burkeville and Professor Crittitt's singing class, yesterday at the Spring Grove.

The Farmers' Convention met here to-day in the chapel of Southside Female Institute.

The wives and daughters of Masons will hold a lawn party on the institute campus during the session of the convention for the benefit of the building fund of the Masonic Lodge.

There is being hauled for the new addition to the Female Institute, and work will be pushed on it at once.

Motion Overruled—Deer Hunting.—[Special.]—A motion was overruled to grant a new trial in the case of the City of Salem against the Salvation Army.

The deer law expired on the 15th, and several parties are out on the "stand." One party has returned, bringing with them as trophies of their skill three deer—two bucks and one doe.

James Dent, the young white man who was so badly hurt a few days ago, lies in a precarious condition at his mother's home in this city. On several occasions it has taken several men to keep him in bed, owing to his nervousness.

Manufacture of Mineral Wool.—[Special.]—A new industry is to be located here immediately for the manufacture of a material known as "mineral wool." It is made from limestone and the slag of iron furnaces.

The abundance of these two factors for producing the material named, as well as the large transportation facilities found here, have led to the selection of Buena Vista as the place for beginning this new industry in this section of the county. Mineral tiles will also be manufactured at this establishment.

The Roanoke Association.—[Special.]—A large crowd in attendance on the Roanoke Association to-day at the Creek church. The greater part of the session

GAYETY AT THE WHITE.

OLD NORTH STATE IN THE LEAD.

Muscle Rose with its Voluptuous Swell and Soft Eyes Looked Love to Eyes That Spoke Again.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., August 17.—[Special.]—A very handsome german was given here Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Pembroke Jones, of Wilmington, N. C., in honor of Misses Kenan and French of Wilmington, and Miss Lucy Tabb of Hampton, Va., which filled the White Sulphur ball-room with a throng of merry-makers unsurpassed even in its brilliant history. The ball-room was transformed into a great booth, which glimmered with bright and rich tints and was ablaze with dazzling lights. From the central chandelier variegated ropes of fringed paper, like the soft petals of flowers strung together, radiated to the walls on every side, and there they were attached to massive backgrounds of green foliage and sweet-scented plants in tall flower-pots, which sweetened the air as well as beautified the scene. Garlands of ferns and flowers, from which swung gay lanterns, were placed on the lengthy mirrors, while the band of music was completely hidden from view by a tropical screen.

At 10 o'clock the guests assembled in the drawing-room, where the fair dancers met their escorts and received their badges from the gracious hand of Mrs. Thomas H. Carter. The dainty passport to the charmed precincts justly earned the name of "ribbon in shades of violet, blue, yellow and pink, bearing the words, 'White Sulphur Springs, August 16, 1892.' Mrs. Pembroke Jones to Miss Kenan, Miss French and Miss Tabb. Upon each of these badges was the seal of North Carolina in red wax, and from narrow ribbons in black and yellow the staunch colors of the old North State. Mrs. Jones received her guests in the center of the ball-room, and was dressed in a most becoming imported costume of pale blue and gold.

The hosts were Mr. Pembroke Jones and Mr. Walters, of Baltimore. The dancers made a complete chain around the great ball-room, and as every two chains were tied together by huge bows of satin ribbon and numbered, each couple drew the number of the other. General Charles J. Anderson, of Richmond, led this rarely beautiful german, and with such skill did he direct his battalions that as the lines now marched and now whirled in harmonious measure spontaneous applause rang from the corners of the crowded room. In the corner long tables were burdened with elegant favors of every description.

The best reserved for the last, being jeweler's boxes containing some pretty conceits. Some fifty charming married people took part in the Virginia waltz, and the music, which was then announced, and it was one of the handsomest ever given at the White on a similar occasion.

A toast proposed to North Carolina, the native State of the host and hostess, was responded to by Mr. J. J. Jones, of the latter State, in a manner which elicited the tribute of perfect silence while he spoke and then the tribute of deafening applause when his gallant climax was reached.

The favors were most gracefully presided over by Mrs. Roger A. Fryer, Mrs. Thomas H. Carter, Mrs. Warren G. Elliott and Miss M. E. Jones.

The exquisite souvenirs were distributed to the dancers by two of the loveliest and most attractive young ladies at the springs, Miss Ellen Boshier and Miss Carrie Reinhardt. The other guests present were Judge and Mrs. Roger A. Fryer, Judge and Mrs. Bruce, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Potts, Mrs. George Taylor, Mrs. J. Cox, Colonel and Mrs. I. H. Carter, Mrs. and Mrs. Robert Boshier, Mrs. Charles Wortham, Mrs. Robert Whitlock, Mr. and Mrs. Havemeyer, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Elliott, Mrs. Charles J. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Bates, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reinhardt, Mr. and Mrs. Wilkins Bruce, Mrs. James Y. Leigh, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Barton Grundy, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Frazier, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Ware, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Philip, Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford, Mrs. Noble, Mrs. Robert, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. D. Cullen, Mrs. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Dunham, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Simonds, Mrs. William Hickman, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Bates, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haskins, Mrs. William White, Mr. and Mrs. George Bloomer, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Welch, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Latimer, Mr. and Mrs. Brannin Shirley, Mr. and Mrs. Ashton Starke, Mrs. Rutter, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Bates, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Knowles, Mr. and Mrs. J. Drexel, Mrs. Atkinson, Mrs. Patton, Misses Kenan, French, Tabb, Caroline Wood, Virginia Cooper, Janie Smith, Mattie Clark, Havemeyer, Daininger, Bell, Gaines, Margaret Young, Eugene Tennant, Ann Tennant, Judith Carrington, May Field, Catherine Cowell, Mary Bruce, Clara Riche, Nina Whitehead Maginnis, Kate Bell, Ada Cox, Fannie Dickinson, Cary Shields, Jessie Allen, Annie L. The regular German on Wednesday night was a great success.

The World's Fair concert, under the management of Mrs. W. R. Beale, of Buchanan, takes place on the 26th instant. There will be a full meeting of the board and much interest centres on this work.

VIRGINIA LADY SWINDLED.—An Ohio Sharper Dupes Mrs. Gore, of Loudoun County, of $3,900.

SPRINGFIELD, O., August 18.—There is great excitement at Bellefontaine, O., near this city, over the embezzlement of large amounts by one John H. Sweet. He would get large amounts of money from people over the country, who would confidentially send it to him to loan for them. It is astonishing how successfully he worked the loan racket and what large amounts of money he got his hands on.

One of the most distressing cases of Sweet's robberies was that of Mrs. Lucy Gore, of Loudoun county, Va. Mrs. Gore has sent the man $3,900 to loan for her. She supposed that everything was all right until a day or two ago, when she picked up a paper and saw an account of his embezzlements. She lost no time in engaging attorneys to prosecute her case in Ohio, and suit has just been brought in her behalf in the sum of $3,900 for the money she advanced Sweet. Sweet telegraphed to Bellefontaine that he would be home to-night, but nothing has been seen of him and it is not believed that he will venture home.

As a general liniment for sprains and bruises or for rheumatism, lame back, deep seated or insular pains, Chamberlain's Pain Balm is unrivaled. For sale by Owens & Minor Drug Company, 1007 Main street.

Five Children Burned to Death.—GRIFFIN, Ga., August 18.—Five children left at home looked up by their parents and found to death last night in Burkeville, and his wife, with his sister, had gone to church, leaving two children of a dead sister of Ellis and three of the other sister's children locked up in the building. The house caught on fire about 9 o'clock and the flames gained such headway that it was impossible to rescue the children, although their cries for help were heard. It is said the house was set on fire by incendiaries.

Grand Stand Gave Way.—LONDON, August 18.—The grand stand at the horse show being held in Hixson, Yorkshire, fell to-day while crowded with hundreds of people. About 700 persons were down in the ruins. Fortunately there were, so far as can be ascertained, no fatalities. The Right Rev. George Henry Sumner, D. D., Bishop of Guildford, who was present, escaped with a broken leg. Others also had arms and legs broken and some are said to be suffering from concussion of the brain.

Governor Buchanan's Illness.—NASHVILLE, TENN., August 18.—Governor Buchanan's illness is nervous prostration, brought on by the worry of the past few days. He is feeling better to-day, but is unable to leave his room and all work at the Capitol is being carried on by Adjutant-General Norman. It may be a week before the Governor leaves his room. He is very nervous and excited.

Threatened With Inundation.—NEW ORLEANS, August 18.—The town of Algiers is threatened with inundation, the result of a crack in the levee. The crack is about six inches wide and spreading rapidly. Large gangs are at work trying to stop the crevasse.

A passenger train of the Denver and Cheyenne road was entered by two masked and armed men at La Salle, near Greeley, Colo., on Tuesday night. The men were there to collect the passengers' valuables when one of the passengers opened fire upon the robbers and, after a lively fusillade, they were driven off.

The Man Who Had to Stay.—She had a French gardener. Whatever accomplishments he may have possessed in other ways, he was rather stupid about lawn duties. One morning his stupidity was beyond endurance. She told him most emphatically what she thought of him, and finished by saying: "Now, Francois, you can go. I'll not have you another day." He went, crestfallen, to the stables, where her husband chanced to be. He looked at the general thoughtfully for a minute, and then said, "Ah, general, I am very sorry for you." "Why, what is the matter with me, Francois?" said the general. "Vell, I can go, but you must stay."—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Not Surprised That Way.—The Post, of London, says: "It is impossible to read the accounts of labor troubles in America without feeling the gravity of the crisis through which the great American city is passing. The moral should be laid to heart in England, where the new unionism seems disposed to go to extreme lengths if a favorable opportunity presents."

Four Anglers Sheikhs have taken refuge in a Moslem sanctuary outside of Tangier, and they are offered, in behalf of the Angler's submission to the Sultan if amnesty is accorded to the rebel tribesmen. The imperial general of the Moorish army have agreed to suspend hostilities pending the submission by the Angler's of terms of surrender.

The ceremony was performed at St. Peter's chapel in Palace street. The chapel was crowded with a most distinguished assembly, many diplomats and members of the aristocracy being present.

The Star, commenting upon the marriage of the Duke of Devonshire and the Dowager Duchess of Manchester, says: "The Duke of Devonshire has married his old love, who is now aged sixty years. The story of their early separation is a romance. They were first attached while both were young, but the habitual indolence of Lord Hartington prevented a declaration."

A daring fraud has just been perpetrated on a well-known bank in Hamburg. A check for 30,000 marks, indorsed by the chief accountant of the Hamburg Commercial Bank, was recently presented for payment and was duly honored. It was discovered afterward that the same check had been paid in 1890. It appears that the check had been stolen from the bank, and that the date had been altered when the check was presented the second time for payment.

Hotting occurred in Prague and other places in Bohemia Wednesday evening, in connection with a Czech fête. A Czech fired four revolver shots at a party of Germans in one of the streets of Prague, causing a panic. The man was arrested. A number of men employed in the Moravetz glass factory at Brno, were recently present for payment and was duly honored. It was discovered afterward that the same check had been paid in 1890. It appears that the check had been stolen from the bank, and that the date had been altered when the check was presented the second time for payment.

The resolutions adopted at the meeting of the Irish Societies held at Ogden Grove, near Chicago on Monday last are being used by the Unionists to embarrass the Liberals. The Times says that one of the principal problems of the Separatists is the treatment of so-called political prisoners. It is probable, the Times says, that the Clericals, including Messrs. Dillon and Davitt, would readily acquiesce in a postponement of the subject to be discussed in the future, but that the feeling in patriotic circles on both sides of the Atlantic is too strong. This feeling affords the Farnellites a dangerous instrument with which they will keep prodding the Clericals. The Times regards the meeting as a proof that the Unionists still live. It is a proof that the Unionists still live. It is a proof that the Unionists still live. It is a proof that the Unionists still live.

NEWS FROM ABROAD.—During the epidemic of flux in this country in 1888, I had had work to keep a supply of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy on hand. People often come ten or twelve miles in the night to get a bottle of the remedy. I have been selling patent medicines for the past ten years and find that it has given better satisfaction in cases of diarrhoea and flux than any other medicine I have ever handled. J. H. Leachman, Druggist, Goldenshoe, Pope county, Ill. Over five hundred bottles of this Remedy were sold in that county during the epidemic referred to. It was a perfect success and was the only remedy that did cure the worst cases. Dozens of persons there will testify that it saved their lives. In four other epidemics of bowel complaint this remedy has been equally successful. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Owens & Minor Drug Company, 1007 east Main street.
