

END OF A NOBLE LIFE.

A GOOD MAN NOW RESTS IN PEACE.

The Last Sad Tributes of Respect Paid to the Memory of the Lamented General Joseph R. Anderson.

The funeral of the late Joseph R. Anderson took place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Hours before the solemn ceremonies there was an ever-increasing throng about the residence on west Franklin street.

The cortege left the residence shortly before 4 o'clock and proceeded down Franklin to Fifth, to Grace, to St. Paul's church.

The white employes, employees in the colored ranks, led the procession, followed by friends containing committees from Lee Camp and the Chamber of Commerce.

The pews on either side of the middle aisle were reserved, as were also the galleries.

When the cortege reached the church the employes formed on either side of the street and the carriages and hearse proceeded through the line of bowed and uncovered heads.

The solemn procession moved into the church, headed by Rev. Hartley Carmichael, who read an appropriate verse of Scripture.

The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Williams, assistant pastor, and Rev. Mr. J. H. Powers, rector of St. Andrew's.

The employes occupied the galleries, the white men being in the eastern and the colored men in the western gallery.

The pall-bearers were: Active—Archer Anderson, Jr., J. R. Anderson, St. George Anderson, Morris Anderson, J. R. A. Hobson, Edwin L. Hobson, Jr., Graham B. Hobson, Detrafreud Hobson, Frank Hobson and Charles Bruce.

Honorary—Robert Scales, Philip Harall, Judge Truman, R. G. Pegram, Anton Osterberg, Edward Wade, Gordon McCabe, Thomas G. Peyton, John Purcell, Gideon Davenport, Dr. McCaw, George P. Ferrini, Mariand Mallory, Adolphus Blair, F. H. Mayo, James H. Dooley, Judge Whifford, F. H. Montague, Mr. Mason, C. E. King, E. H. Baskerville, Joseph Bryan, William E. Tanner, General Peyton Wise, F. W. Chamberlayne, H. D. Whitcomb, Colonel A. S. Buford, A. L. Bouliware, Charles S. Stringfellow, Dr. Caldwell, Arthur B. Clarke, and Isaacwell Elliot.

The interment was at Hollywood. Hundreds of people were present. The grave was bricked up after the services at the grave had been concluded.

Among the gentlemen at the church were: Messrs. J. K. Pace, B. A. Hancock, William Ryan, Rev. J. B. Nease, D. D. W. V. Walker, John H. R. Hall, Robert W. King, W. Archer, H. P. Edmunds, Alexander Cameron, George W. Allen, Rev. J. William Jones, D. D. Thomas, George B. McAdams, Charles H. Whitlock, R. C. Morton, E. V. Valentine, Thomas Elliott, James Lyons, Allan Tyler, Billip, B. H. H. Pugh, Rev. Mr. Mason, C. E. King, E. H. Baskerville, S. P. Mayo, John Bell Bigger, Charles P. Bigger and A. L. Ellett.

The Pegasus Battalion Association was represented by Colonel Thomas Brandt, Captain Thomas Elliott, Dr. H. Cabell Tabb (surgeon), Messrs. R. B. Munford, John Tyler and William Ellis Jones.

At a called meeting of the vestry of St. Paul's church, held yesterday, the following was adopted:

It is solemnly that one man signifies so much for so many years to a church and a community as Joseph R. Anderson signified for nearly half a century to the city of Richmond and to St. Paul's church.

His life was, all in all, so many sided, well rounded, influential and successful. Though his full portrait may better befit another occasion, yet our holy religion regards every earthly duty well discharged, every earthly station worthily filled as part and parcel of the service and the Kingdom of God.

We cannot, therefore, fairly express the weight of such a man as General Anderson, as a member of the Church of Christ, without noting that, in every department of honorable human activity, in business, in politics, in other matters of general and public interest, in the formation and elevation of public opinion and in society—not less than in the Church—he was, for more than a generation, not only a leader, but it is perhaps not improper to say, the leading citizen of this community. By his energy, his sagacity, his tact, his public spirit, his liberality, his straightforwardness, his kindly, hearty learning, his perfect temper, his tender, affectionate heart he built for himself a place and wielded among us an influence to which no one is likely to succeed.

But his richest life, after all, was in his home and his church. At the head of a large circle of children and grandchildren, his man was ever more lovable or more beloved and beloved. He loved the Church of God, too, with a devoted and unwearied affection, ever planning, working, giving with a loyalty and a liberality that knew no limit save the Church itself. His life was always found in the fullness of sympathy, both in his work and in his traits, and this vestry recognized in him its most faithful member and its wisest counselor. When we recall all this—what he was and what he did—and then realize that he is no longer among us, our hearts will be overwhelmed with grief, not for what we know of the unerring wisdom and the immeasurable grace of God.

General Anderson was one of the original members of St. Paul's church and of its first vestry, having been elected vestryman in 1841, and having served continually and faithfully in that position. Colonel Thomas H. Ellis is now the sole survivor of that original vestry, but he has not for years been a resident of Richmond.

General Anderson was elected junior warden February 2, 1872, succeeding Mr. Macfarland, and senior warden April 1, 1873, succeeding Dr. Haxall. It is not much to say that loving loyalty to St. Paul's church was a life-long passion with him, and that his long service in its vestry was marked by a growing perfection of beauty which in late years became almost unattainable. While we all looked up to and followed him as our father and head, yet which of us can ever forget his gentle deference to the opinions of even the youngest of our number, or his tender regard for the feelings of every one of us at all times?

God has called his faithful servant whom we have loved and lost a while; therefore he is resolved, that in the death of General Joseph R. Anderson "there has fallen this

A BUSY CITY COUNCIL

WAS IN SESSION IN MANCHESTER.

A Large Amount of Important Business Transacted During the Long Session— News From Over the River.

MANCHESTER BUREAU (RICHMOND TIMES.) 1121 HULL STREET, BEATRICE BLOCK.

The regular meeting of the City Council of Manchester was held last evening. Present, Messrs. O'Brien (president), Sims, Weisiger, Ely, Hart, Taylor, Utz, Morton, Campbell, Clerk Vaden and City Attorney Clouton.

A communication from the mayor referred to the bad electric light service lately, and suggested that the city have the candle-power of the lights tested. He says the city is now in a good sanitary condition. He asked for a just increase of his salary, which, he says, is the smallest paid to any of the city officials. The communication was received. That part of it referring to his salary was referred to the committee on finance.

The second communication was the report of the police commissioners, forwarded by the mayor, recommending the increase of the police force by two members. After some discussion regarding the subject it was referred to the finance committee by a vote of five to four.

There was the point raised that the police force is the same in number now as when there were only 5,000 people in the city, and the increase is needed to meet the growth of the city.

Mr. Sims favored the increase in the force. Mr. Weisiger moved its reference to the finance committee, and Mr. Taylor spoke in favor of the same disposition of the matter so that the cost and ways might be seen into.

Mr. Morton favored an increase of the force, making the point that two men were insufficient. Especially as one man at least must look out for electric lights not burning, to report them, thus leaving one officer to patrol the city.

Mr. Taylor made a strong appeal for more police, stating that the other night when one officer had gone to Richmond with a prisoner and one was up-town making an arrest there was no officer to be had to arrest a negro who was disorderly in an electric car.

THE CHIEF'S REPORT. The report of the chief of police for the month of August was read and the details are as follows: Number of arrests, 72—for felony, 5; misdemeanors, 33; ordinance violations, 41; made as follows: By the chief, 19; first assistant, 2; second assistant, 2; third assistant, 2; first and third assistants, 2.

He asks for a telephone to be put in the office of the Chief of Police, so as to be in prompt communication with the public. Mr. Taylor moved that the Mayor be authorized to put in a telephone as desired by the chief, with the restriction that it shall be used for police work, fire alarms and official business only. There was much complaint about the telephone lately in that office. The resolution of Mr. Taylor was adopted. So the chief will have his telephone.

The report of the committee on streets was received, giving in detail the expenditures in this direction. Mr. Taylor moved its adoption, and the report was referred to the finance committee for comparison with former reports. The report of the total of expenditures for the month of streets, this amount is larger than usual in view of the extra cleaning done since the cholera question came up. The city is said to be in excellent condition from a sanitary point of view.

THE FINANCES. The report from the finance committee, giving the total of bills against the city for the month as paid, $765.26, was received. The fire commissioners made a verbal report through Mr. Morton, in which he stated they would make a full report to the next meeting of the council on the subject of the new fire company.

A report from the Standard Oil Company's Manchester branch asking for repairs to the street near their plant was referred to the street committee with the request that it be given prompt attention. A circular letter from the Board of World's Fair matters at Moore's building, which request an appropriation towards defraying expenses at the Chicago Columbian Exposition of the State exhibit. The letter was referred to the finance committee.

On motion of Mr. Taylor the street committee was authorized to put a stone gutter down on west side of Tenth street from Hull street to the Nelson stable property.

Mr. Hart moved that the street committee be instructed to lay down a stone gutter on Eleventh street between Hull and DeCATUR. The resolution was adopted.

Mr. Taylor moved that an attorney examine the contract between Manchester and Richmond regarding the lighting of the Free bridge and report which of the cities is responsible for the late lack of attention to the lights. This resolution was adopted with the request that prompt notice be given it.

THE WATER SUPPLY. Mr. Sims offered a resolution asking that the city attorney examine the rights of the city at the point where the Manchester Water Company receive their supply, it being affected by the works of the Old Dominion Iron and Nail Works Company. It is alleged now that this firm cuts off the water. This resolution was amended so that the rights of the city, in the event of its acquisition of the property in future, may be settled.

A proposed ordinance regarding the introduction and operation of a system of sewerage for the city was referred to the committee on streets.

A petition from Mr. John Carroll, asking the rebate of certain city taxes to the amount of $9.48, was referred to the finance committee, and a petition of Mrs. Charlotte Blackwell, regarding the line of her property on the street, was referred to the street committee.

A complaint from H. S. Bradley about a culvert on Bainbridge street at the railroad crossing came up again and was referred to the committee on streets.

A resolution that the water committee supply the colored school with water and lay pipes for that purpose was referred to that committee.

Mr. Sims offered a resolution amending the present ordinance regarding the restriction of the erection of wooden houses on Hull street so as to include that portion of the street from low water-mark on James river to Seventh street. It was referred to the ordinance committee to bring in a special ordinance concerning this section at once.

A number of building permits were granted to different parties all over the city. These show a great activity in building.

Dr. Lawrence Ingram, president of the board of health, sent in his mortality report for August.

ABOARD THE NORMANNIA

WHERE MISS HANDY IS PRISONER. There is a Lack of Disinfecting Material and a Scarcity of Water—The Captain Threatens to Go to His Dock.

Mr. J. S. Rosenthal, one of the imprisoned passengers on board the Normannia, wrote a letter to the Baltimore Sun which was published in that paper yesterday.

The Normannia is now lying at lower quarantine, and is the ship on which Miss May Handy, she having gone to Europe some months ago with the beautiful Mrs. Jesse Tyson, of Baltimore.

Lottie Collins is also on the steamer and is aiding the amusement committee by singing in her popular way. A portion of the letter reads as follows:

After an absence of about thirty hours the health officer appeared on board our ship, accompanied by Dr. Hamilton, surgeon-general of the United States, who came at the instance of Secretary of the Treasury Foster to examine the ship, and more particularly to have a conference with Senator McPherson, and from him ascertain the exact condition of affairs.

IN ADEQUATE DISINFECTING. It may be stated just here that up to 12 o'clock to-day no disinfecting materials had been received, although they have been expected since Saturday evening. The limited supply on board was exhausted early on Sunday, since which time disinfecting operations have necessarily ceased, leaving a considerable part of the ship uncleaned for twelve hours.

A committee from the association will have charge of the game. The cause is a good one, and a full attendance is hoped for. The Forest Hill Club plays the Cockade City Club in Petersburg this afternoon. A good game is expected.

Next Monday is Chesterfield county court day. Major Benjamin H. Nash, of Richmond, was in the city yesterday.

The Leader Hill German last evening, given by the Manchester German Club, on an occasion of pleasure to all who attended.

Many Manchester Democrats were in Richmond at the demonstration of the Union Club on Thursday night.

The Blues' Band, of Richmond, and the Diamond Quartette, of Norfolk, were the attractions at Forest Hill Park last night.

Miss Emma Latham has come back from a pleasant visit to Fredericksburg.

Mr. J. F. Barker and Miss Katie Ferney, of Boston, are the guests of Mrs. Andrew T. Snellings.

Squirrels are mentioned as very plentiful in the suburbs of Chesterfield.

Rev. L. R. Thornhill and family are here again from the country.

Rev. J. E. Jackson, of Middlethian, was in Manchester Thursday.

Mr. William D. Rice has an ill child.

Bishop Van de Vyver Returned. Calling at the episcopal residence, next to the cathedral, yesterday afternoon, Bishop Van de Vyver greeted me in his usual quiet, but hearty style.

Rev. John J. Keane, formerly bishop of Richmond, now rector of the Catholic University at Washington, and the Rev. Dr. O'Connell and other friends.

The Reformers Adjourned. At the meeting of the True Reformers yesterday morning, R. T. Hill, cashier of the Savings Bank, made his fourth annual report.

The bank has 1,225 depositors. The receipts for the past year amounted to $114,413.34, while the endowments paid out amounted to $26,755.72.

Last night, after speaking by George M. Rev. John J. Keane, and Rev. W. W. Browne, of Richmond, a banquet was given, after which the convention adjourned.

O. d. sh-m. Cary. The continued case of Isham Cary, an old colored man, charged with removing manufactured tobacco from the factory of Messrs. Cameron & Brother in Petersburg, Va., without having been properly packed, stamped and cancelled as required by law, and offering same for sale, was before United States Commissioner Henry Flegenheimer yesterday. The accused was set on to the grand jury and bailed for his appearance at the October term of the United States Court.

The Schools to Open. The public schools open for the coming session next Thursday, and this, along with the cool weather, is causing those of our families lingering in the mountains and after summer resorts to turn their faces homeward. Every incoming train brings a contingent, and the baggage-wagons, piled high with trunks, tell the tale of the wanderers' return.
