THE IST DAY OF JUNE, 1894,

at 1 o'clock P. M., the real and personal estate of said Richmond Mozart Association, in said trust deed conveyed, towit: All that certain lot of land lying and being in the city of Richmond, on the east side of Eighth street, between Franklin and Grace streets, fronting on Eighth street 89 feet and 11 inches, more or less, and running back between parallel lines perpendicular to Eighth street of the same width, 120 feet, more or less, to an alley in common, together with all the buildings and improvements thereon, and the equipments of the hall. The equipments of the house consist in part of about 1,400 opera chairs, from safe, large lot of costly scenery, grand plano, carpets, curtains, &c., &c., an inventory of which can be seen at the office of the suctioneer, and will be read at time of sale. The real and personal property will be soid as a whole if it shall appear desirable so to do. The said buildings and improvements were erected at a cost of about $42,000, and additions and alterations have since been made at a cost of $2,500. The present senting capacity of the hall is about 1,400, which can be materially increased by a moderate expenditure. With an inconsiderable outlay for electric lights, decorations, the lower hall can be made a most attractive place for fairs, balls, &c., which would largely increase the revenue from the property. As this hall has never been used for entertainments of doubtful character, it is now the leading and fashionable place of amusement of the community. Its convenient location, too, commends it to the theatre-going public, for it is situated right in the heart of the city, between the two most fashionable streets, and is within 125 yards of all the street car lines. As a safe investment, and one that will earn handsome returns on the sum expended, we commend this property to capitalists.
