STILL ANOTHER DELAY. More of the Jurers in the (adot Case Il'-

City Hall News.

The peculiar fatality which has visited those connected with the trial of S. S. Cadot, charged with the embezziement of Live Oak distillery funds, seems destined to follow it to the end. At the afternoon session of the Hustings Court two members of the jury, Joseph Strauss and T. J. Smith, were taken sick and the case had to be postponed until the morning. In the meantime the jury will be kept together at the hotel, where the gentlemen indisposed will receive every attention. Yesterday's testimony was of no particular interest. Mr. Lessenden, bookkeeper for the distillery company, said in his testimony that statements of the account of goods sold by Cadot were walled to him every sixty days, with instructions to collect up, as the accounts were past due. The only discounts this house allowed was 4 and 5 per cent. If Mr Cadot allowed more than this, it was not done with the knowledge of the company. A number of accounts were referred to, and the witness said that Mr. Cadot had admitted that they had been paid, although the ledger did not show it. Cadot, charged with the embezzlement

Mr. Lissenden then related an incident dating back as far as 1883, which was the most important testimony perhaps that has been given this week.

He said that in that year Mr. Cadot sold a bill of whisky for $1,700. of which he did not report the payment. The bill was sent to the huyers and they replied that they had paid the bill. Mr. Cadot denied that he had been paid.

The bill was again sent with Mr. Cadot's statement, and by return mail they received from the buyer Cadot's receipt for the amount.

Cadot was sent for and acknowledged the transaction, and secured the distillery company by two notes and a chattel mortgage on his personal property. These papers were filed as evidence in the case.

In the City Circuit Court yesterday the suit of Charles B. Stacy against Mil-waukee Furniture Company was tried before Judge Wellford and a jury. Ver-dict for the plaintiff for $287.20, with 6 per cent, interest from January 1, 1894. The trial of the five convicts who at-tempted to escape from the penitentiary for second conviction is set for June 5th.

The Press Club Excursion,

The Press Club Excursion.

The sale of tickets (gentlemen fifty cents, Indies twenty-five cents) for the Moonlight Excursion of the Old Dominion Press Club, on the evening of the 3d of July, on the new and beautiful steamer, Pocatonias, goes bravely on. There are still many tickets remaining-unsold, and everybody desirous of cool prezzes, beautiful water scenery, and opportunity for delightful tete-a-tete, while listening to sweet music, will do well to hasten and secure them before they are gone.

A committee from the club's most gal-lant members will see to the comfort and plensure of all excursionists on this oc-casion. There will be dancing, vocal and instrumental music and refreshments galore.

A new and attractive feature of entertainment will be fireworks let off at intervals on the trip, and blazing bonfires along the banks of the Hudson of Virginia will lend enchantment to the Yiew.

Richmond to Dutch Gap, through the Gap and return, will be the route, and Home. Sweet Home will be reached by early bedtime.

But They Did Not Swim.

But They Did Not Swim.

Every Friday afternoon at Mr. Westman's swimming pool is devoted to families, and gentlemen without ladies are not admitted.

Unmindful of this rule a number of gentlemen wint down yesterday afternoon, including several representatives of the press, and all were firmly, but politely refused admittance.

Though deeply disappointed they could but commend the strict adherance to his established rule.

A large number of ladies and children, accompanied by fathers and husbands, enjoyed the bath up to 7 o'clock, when it was thrown open to a crowd of hot and eager male swimmers.

A bright blaze was noticed from The Times office last night about 11 o'clock. The fire proved to be at the yards of the Westwood Brick Company, which are cituated about half a mile below the city limits. Over half of the sheds were destroyed, while a number of newlymade bricks were ruined. Neither the damage nor the origin of the fire could be learned.

A New Christian Endeavor Society. A Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor was organized last night at Dr. Hoge's church, E. B. Marquess was elected president, A. Sidney Lanler, vice-president, and Miss Alice Hartman, sec-retary. The society starts out under the most favorable circumstances.

At the meeting of Lee Camp last night it was decided that the Camp have an outing about the 23d of July, and a com-mittee was appointed to make the neces-sary arrangements. The usual routine business was transacted.

Sermon to the Masons, Rev. Dr. Ray will preach a sermon to the Masons in Union Station to-morrow, being St. John's Day, at 8:15. P. M., and the text will be, "Why speakest thou to them in parables?" Everybody will be welcome.

RICHMOND PLAYED BALL

WITH BAILEY IN THE BOX LYNCH-BURG IS BEATEN 3 TO I.

The Petersburgs Have Their Usual Good Luck and Win in the Ninth-Norfolk Defeats Roanoke_Other Games,

Lynchburg, Va., June 22, 1894. ICHMOND won the game to-day by the close score of 3 to 1. It was players, forty-five hits, and a total of sixty-seven participated in to-day's game.

2 to 1. It was a pitchers' and fielders' contest this time small chance being allowed for great batting. Fitzmorris was in the box for Lynch burg. Only three hits were made on him. Two of made in the fifth inning. This fact, added to an error by Sullivan, gave the visitors the three runs which won the game. Railey pitched for Richmond, and also did find work. The fielding on both sides was superb, only two errors being charged to each side.

The notable plays were a stop of a hot grounder by Ellis and a great ohe-handed eatch by the desired to the stop of the stop catch by Hodge, Richmond's centre fieldext.

The notable plays were a stop of a hot grounder by Ellis and a great one-handed catch by Hodge, Richmond's centre field-er.

Lynchburg's first and only run was made in the second inning. Jobe hit to right, stole second, and scored on Sullivan's single to centre field. Martin made his base on a slow grounder to third, and Webster got four balls. The bases were filled and nobody out. Hopes for Lynchburg went high, but Fitzmorris, Cleve, and Ellis came to the bat and went out on flies.

Neither side scored again until the fifth, when Morgan took up the stick for Richmond and lined out a two-basger. Napier knocked a ball to pitcher, which was thrown to third to stop Morgan, but failed to get there in time.

Napier was thrown out from Webster to Ellis while trying to steal second. Balley went to first on Sullivan's fumble. Kain's two-bagger scored Morgan. McGann's ball to third was thrown home, but not in time to keep Balley from scoring. Tate was caught out on a fly to right, and Kain scored after the ball was caught. Foster hit to left field, and then Hodge retired the side by striking out. Both sides were goose-egged in the remaining four innings.

To-day's was as good a game of ball as was ever played on the Lynchburg diamond, and a better is rarely seen anywhere.

Stauntons Lead Until the Ninth, When the Petersburgs Found Their Luck.

PETERSBURG, VA., June 22.-Special, The Stauntons and Petersburgs played another exciting game this afternoon, another exciting game this afternoon, which resulted in a victory for the home team by the narrow margin of 7 to 6. The Stauntons had the game up to the beginning of the ninth inning, but at this juncture singles by Keefer and Brodie, and a two bagger by Myers yielded three runs and won the game. The features of the game were the batting of Sanford and Brodie for the home team, and the fielding of Fultz and Sherer for the visitors. sixty-seven participated in to-day's game. Arthur Irwin's Hoo-Doos struck Grady in the fourth and he retired with a badly spiked leg. Cross went behind the bat. Irwin electrined the crowd by assuming a positon at short, while he sent scouts out for a player. In the fifth Professor Burruss, of the Washington College, at Chestertown, relieved Carsey, and another amateur, Mr. Yingling, went to short. Inks lost his speed after the fifth, and Brown then essayed the role of pitcher. After five runs had been made off him, Mullane appeared.

Burruss was badly treated in the sixth and eighth, the Orloles pilling up ten runs and winning the game.

President Hanlon's birthday to-day was marked by the presentation to him of a very handsome ring. Attendance, 2,971.

in Quality_The Summaries. SHEEPSHEAD BAY, June 22.-The pro gramme presented to-day was rather deficient in quality, but made up in quantity what it lacked in that respect, the entries being quite numerous. The weather was delightful and the attendance large. McCafferty gave the ring a taste of his methods in the first race, which was won by his horse, Hugh Penny, which he backed from 15 to 8. Harry Reed, the favorite, captured the second race, the Daisy stakes, after an exciting struggle with Annisette, while Ferrier, third choice, made a runnway race of the third, at a mile, winning quite handliy. The time, $23 +5, was within 2-5 of the track record. Pikknicker defeated Stoaway, the odds on favorite in the fourth race, and The Huffer, a favorite, took the fifth race, for two year olds, in a hard drive. Try and keep cool. Do not get excited.

Exertion is good; over-exertion, inju-Keep the blood cool, well circulated, and healthy. Do not eat fat or heavy foods, but those that will nourish and not overheat.

Don't eat unripe fruits or other unwholesome food.

Keep yourself clean, keep your home clean, and live in a clean neighborhood. If you feel heated, do not resort to loy drinks, but take a little pure medicinal whisky in loed water.

Remember that there is but one pure medicinal whisky in the market, and that is Duffy's Pure Mait, and that is the only kind that can safely be depended upon during hot weather.

It may be that some people, possibly your druggist or grocer, will tell you that there are other whiskys "just as good." If you are wise you will not be deceived, but insist upon having that which is purest, best, and certain to do you good. If you follow these common-sense suggestions there is no reason why you are not, through the summer, free from colds, summer complaints, and all the changes which surround us during this trying time of the year.
