RIGHTS OF LABORERS. Attorney-General Olney's Suggestions to a Federal Judge.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—The controversy between the receivers of the Reading Railroad Company and such of its employees as are members of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen have produced an expression of opinion from Attorney-General Olney in the form of a letter to Judge DeLoach, of the United States Circuit Court, before whom the two organizations reached a crisis on August 21st.

STAND OF THE RAILWAY MEN. Vigorous protests were made against this alternative, and the receivers were urged to withdraw it.

The policy of this company is well known to be that it will not consent that persons in its service shall owe allegiance to other organizations which may be organized in the future, and which may be incompatible with their duties as employees. This position was taken advisedly, and we have no intention of departing from it.

ANTI-GAMBLING AMENDMENT. It May Stop Horse Racing in New York State.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The thirty-three constitutional amendments proposed on Tuesday, which have been adopted, make a considerable difference in the organic law of New York State, and will also make a considerable difference in the lives of many persons who are engaged in gambling. The most important of these is the amendment No. 32, prohibiting pool-gaming, book-making and forms of gambling, such as lotteries, etc.
