Petersburg Men's Names Forged to Notes Found in a Richmond Bank-New Reservoir Almost Completed.

PETERSBURG, VA., Nov. 22.-Special. Hon. M. W. Ransom, United States Senator from North Carolina, met with a very sericus accident last evening. He was driving in a double buggy over his farm, which is about six miles from Garysburg, when the pole of the vehicle became detached from the axle, which caused the team to kick vigorously. In handling the team Senator Ransom caused the horses to pull all to one side, and in doing so the Senator was thrown out and quite badly bruised.

I searned from a gentleman who arrived here to-day that Senator Kansom is confined to the house from his injuries. Mr. Thomas Ransom, a son of the Senator, was in the buggy with him at the time of the accident, but he escaped uninjured. MYSTERIOUS FORGERIES.

MYSTERIOUS FORGERIES.

Mr. James A. Pulley, Mr. Daniel I. Baxter and Mr. William Karl, of this city, were notified to-day by the First National Bank of Richmond that their notes went to protest on the 20th instant. These notes are all pronounced forgeries, but by whom the forgery was committed is not known. Mr. Pulley's note was for 18.65, Mr. Baxty's for $25.53, and Mr. Karl's for $31. Messrs. Pulley and Baxter are hucksters here, and Mr. Karl is a butcher.

THE NEW RESIRVOIR.

The NEW RESIRVOIR.

The new surface reservoir is expected to be completed within the next two weeks. The reservoir will have a capacity for three million gallons of water, and when completed will cost the city 8, 000. The work of laying the pipes to connect the western part of the city with this reservoir was begun to-day. The entire cost of the pipes, which were purchased in Philadelphia, will be $10,000.

A FAST RUN. The fastest run that has been made on the Atlantic Coast Line, for some time was that last evening. Major J. R. Kenley, general manager of the line, had received information of the illness of his father, who resides in one of the northern cities, and he was anxious to overtake passenger train No. 78, northbound, at Richmond, in order to reach his father as soon as possible. Major hound, at Richard as possible. Major Kenley left Rocky Mount in his own private car at 459 P. M. and agrived at Richmond at 7:38. The train was delayed thirty-five minutes on account of a hot box. The distance from Rocky Mount to Richmond is 122 miles.

WISE, VA., Nov. 22.-Special.-The examining trial of J. D. Datson for shootamining trial of J. D. Datson for shooting W. B. Renfro on election day, was yesterday closed by a strong effort to send the defendant to court, but the justice in his wisdom thought that the prisoner was justifiable in his act and liberated him. Renfro will recover, he being able to testify in the case. The ball, No. 41 calibre, entered under the left cheek-bone and lodged near the right collar bone.

Mecklenburg's Monument.

Boyldton, Va., Nov. 22.—Special.—Yesterday was a day of special interest to the people of this county, and to the public generally. The cornerstone of the monument erected to the Confederate soldiers of this county was laid. The ceremony was performed, according to their impressive rites, by the various lodges of Masons in the county. There were in line first the brass band of Clover, Va., which furnished the music for the occasion. This was followed by thirteen young girls, clad in red cloaks and capes, each with a flag. These represented the thirteen States. Then followed the Masons, in their regalla. Then there came the old veterans, and lastly men and boys bringing up the rear. Hon. E. B. 'VARSITY'S LAST VICTORY

THE PHILADELPHIA ATHLETIC CLUB DEFEATED BY A SCORE 64 TO 0.

The Virginians Play a Fine Game...The Quaker City Boys Couldn't Buck the 'Varsity's Centre_Other Games.

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA, Nov. 22.-Special.-Virginia added another to her string of victories this evening, by defeating the Philadelphia Athletic Club, by a score of 64 to 0.

Virginia gave the finest exhibition of foot-ball seen on the grounds this season, and the effect of Mackey's coaching was shown in the snap and fire with which the team played. The interfenence was superb, and time after time the backs circled the ends for long gains, behind beautiful interference. The line was a veritable stone wall. Time and again the Philadelphia men would rush against the centre in vain efforts to break through, but never an inch could they gain.

In justice to the visitors it should be said that they had travelled all the way from Philadelphia and went into the game with scarcely any rest, but the superb game which the 'Varsity team put up would have been almost invincible under any circumstances.

The game was witnessed by a large crowd of students, who were anxious to see what improvement had been male during the week of secret practice under see what improvement had been male during the week of secret practice under Mackey's supervision. They were amply rewarded for the improved team play, which was simply beautiful, augured well for the result of the game Thanksgiving day, from a Virginia standpoint.

The visitors soon found it of no avail to buck the 'Varsity centre and resorted to a kicking game almost entirely, in which Mintze did some excellent puning. For Philadelphia the best playing was done by Mintze, Marks, Roberts and Orbison.

done by Mintze, Marks, Roberts and Orbison.

The features of the game outside of the beautiful interference of the home team, were the beautiful runs of Pope, Jones and Groner. Taylor made a pretty run for forty-five yards and a touchdown on a double pass from the full back. Frice also made two pretty runs, of sixty and forty yards, on a double pass. Hicks, Bosher and Burlingamer ran well with the ball. In fact, the whole team played well. This is the last game to be played before Thanksgiving-Day. Next week the team will not have any hard practice, but will rest up and get on edge for North Carolina.

GREENWAY WILL NOT PLAY Physicans Say He Cannot Enter the Game

With Harvard.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Nov. 22 .- John C. Greenway, for two years end rush on the Yale eleven, has finally decided to the Yale eleven, has finally decided to yield to a physician's orders and will not play in the big games this year. In the game with West Point he received a strain which has caused his retirement till the present time, and now his physician has peremptorily forbidden Greenway appearing on the gridiron again this year, and the chances are that he will be unable to wear a Yale base-ball uniform next spring. Greenway is the 'Varsity catcher, and his presence behind the bat to support Carter is indispensible.

as usual, one or two candidates whose chances seemed excellent for securing places on the team, received uniforms.
The lucky candidates were F. A. Hinkey,

Harvard foot-ball authorities still refuse when the team lines up on Saturday.

of the line.

Arthur Brewer's injury to his side is probably more serious than has been generally allowed, and while he will undoubtedly start in playing in the first will be able to last through the game

At any rate, he has not had much hard

Drs. Brooks and Conant refused to Drs. Brooks and Conant refused to talk this afternoon about the condition of charley Brewer. One thing is certain, however, he will be found in his place as right half back in the game. Hallowell has braced up wonderfully in his playing since young Wheeler has beaun to make such a showing for left tackle, and he is now pretty sure of the place. Harvard will make an attempt to improve her cheering this year. Manager Mills has appointed eighteen leaders, who will be under the general charge of Evert Wendell, 92.

WHY THEY WERE BOUNCED.

eason for the Suspension of Buckenberger, Barnic and Pieffer.
PITTSBURG, PA., Nov. 22.-James A

PITTSBURG, PA., Nov. 22—James A. Hart, president of the Chicago base-ball club, is in the city, summoned to appear in the United States Court as defendant in the suit for damages brought against the Chicago club by Pitcher A. C. Gumbert Mr. Hart said that the League would neither resemd nor modify the manifesto of the National Board, suspending Messrs. Buckenberger, Pfeffer and Barnie, unless they prove their innocence of treachery to the League. President Hart says the proposed American Association had its origin in the refusal of the New York base-ball club to sign Fred. Pfeffer as second baseman, last september. According to Hart, Frank Richter, of the Sporting Life, was conducting the deal for the transfer of Pfeffer to the New York club, and had almost succeeded, when the New York players revolted and said they would not play with Pfeffer. Pitcher Meekin led the opposition, and charged Pfeffer with being down on ordinary players, going so far as to refuse to eat at the same table with them, and riding on a separate car when the Louisville club was traveling.

With this opposition toward Pfeffer, car when the Louisville club was traveling.

With this opposition toward Pfeffer, Director Talcott could not disrupt the New York club by signing Pfeffer to play second base. This angered Richter, and he forthwith started an organization to down the League. It was the original intention to put a club in each of the League clubs were away from home. Hart says while Richter posed as the emancipator of the ball players, he had done quite a business by selling players to the different League clubs. President Hart says the League was forced to take the action it did against Buckenberger, Barnie and Pfeffer, because Barnie and Pfeffer had approached the players of the Philadelphia club during the last series of games between Philadelphia and Chicago, and advised the Philadelphia players not to sign for next year with the League, as they had something better for them. Buckenberger is charged with the same offense while he was in the employ of the League.

CONDITION OF THE TERASURY. Hon. D. N. Morgan submits H . Feport to

Secretary Ca-Usle, WASHINGTON, Nov. 22,-The Treasurer of the United States, Hon. D. N. Morgan, has submitted to Secretary Carurer of the United States, Hon. D. N. Morgan, has submitted to Secretary Carlisle the annual report on the operations and conditions of the Treasury.

The net ordinary revenues for the fiscal year ending June 30th, cents omitted, were $25,722.08, a decrease of $8,95,99, as compared with the year before. The net ordinary expenses were $25,52,727, a decrease of $15,52,74.

Prior to July, 1822, the gold reserve was but little affected by the withdrawal of coin, there never having been any considerable demand for the redemption of notes. Even when gold exports were heavy the metal was furnished by bankers from their vaults, or was obtained from the Treasury for gold certificates, of course without impairment to the reserve. During the last two years, however, the Treasury has been called upon to furnish nearly the whole of the requirements for exportation, and there have recently been considerable withdrawais for other uses.

The two important events of the year affecting the condition of the public debt were the issue of $50,000,000 of five per cent, bonds to replenish the gold reserve, and the stoppage of the purchase of silver bullion by issue of Treasury had been able to provide for the redemption of Treasury notes, the treasurer says that prior to August 1833, the Treasury had been able to provide for the redemption of Treasury notes in silver dollars out of the holdings of free silver, so that there had not been, up to that time, any impairment of the total amount of the silver fund accumulated under the act. On the third of that month, however, the silver dollars and bullion in the Treasury had become reduced to the amount reduired by law to be retained for the payment of outstanding Treasury potes and certificates, and the demand for the redemption of notes continuing in consehad become reduced to the amount required by law to be retained for the payment of outstanding Treasury notes and certificates, and the demand for the redemption of notes continuing in consequence of the scarcity of small denominations of currency, it became necessary to draw upon the dollars coined especially for that purpose.

The silver fund being thus impaired, the notes so redeemed were cancelled in order to preserve the required equality between the silver in the Treasury and the stotes outstarding. The total amount of the notes retired in this way up to October 31st was $4,79,834.

The amount of the new issues of United States paper currency put 1-50 circulation during the year was $59,99,190, having been exceeded but once, in 1832.

The amount of worn and mutilated notes redeemed was $19,90,200. This, also, has been exceeded but once in 1833. The total paper circulation reached its highest point in May last, when it stood at $1.17,000. Since then there has been a slight contraction, caused chiefly by the gradual redemption and retirement of gold certificates, the issue of which was suspended, as the law requires, when the gold reserve of the Treasury fell below $100,000,000.

10 PUT KOLB INTO OFFICE.

Twenty Thousand Fighting Men Stand Ready, Says Congressman-Elect Howard.

Congressman-glect M. W. Howard, of Alabama, appeared unexpectedly at the Union League Club, of Brooklyn, Wed-Union League Club, of Brooklyn, Wednesday evening, and eatertained the members of the club with a fifteen-minute speech, says the New York Sun. Several hundred members had assembled to be present at the regular monthly entertainment, and the appearance of the Republican-Popullst candidate was unexpected. Mr. Howard was warmly received. He speaks with a marked southern drawl. He said the Republicans of Alabama were no longer fishing for the negro vote. The Democrats had taken the place of the Republicans.

no longer fishing for the negro vote. The Democrats had taken the piace of the Republicans.

"The Democrats remind me of a story," said he. "A colored lover once tried to kiss his lady love in the night. He was black, she was black. The night was black, and the colored lover found difficulty in finding the mouth of his lady. After he had kissed at random and missed several times, he said, 'Wha the debit is you mouf. Cinthy?' So the Democrats of Alabama have been making love to the negroes in the dark, and in their desperation to find them the Democrats have said, 'Where the devil are you, anyhow?' in Alabama there are 65,000 colored voters, and for feer of Democratic influence at the polls only about 2,000 voted. The solid South has been broken and the country is better off. The wall has been broken down, and by this great popular Republican wave sweeping over the country the North and the South bave been made one. We are protection its in Alabama. We see how protection has made New England rich We will show you what we complished at Gravesend by what has happened in our State. In one county there was a registration of about three hundred, yet the Democratis pided up over fifty thousand votes in that county. How's that?"
"Gravesend wasn't in it," said some one

Gravesend wasn't in it," said some one in the audience.

Mr. Howard then dropped politics and

In an interview before the lecture Mr. Howard said:

"The purpose of Captain Kolb in going to Montgomery and taking the oath of office on the first day of next December is simply to force an investigation into the frauds of the late election. That is all. Captain Kolb will not only take the oath of office, but he will take possession of the State Government. This will result in two rival Governments, with the result of forcing some sort of a composition of the State Government. This will result in two rival Governments, with the result of forcing some sort of a composition. If we can secure this, we can prove by the most positive and unquestionable evidence that Kolb was legally elected, and that Ontes received a majority only through a fraudulent return. And having done this, we propose to seat Kolb as Governor. "I want you to understand that the people of Alabama are thoroughly in enrness, and that they can no longer be trifled with. The Populist party in this state includes the great majority of the men who fought in the Civil War, and the best fighting the Civil War, and the best fighting blood in the State. I believe that on a week from next Saturday, inauguration-day, there will be at least 20,00 fighting men in Montsomery to put Kolb into office. The State militia will be powerless, because a majority of the militulamen are in sympathy with us, and will throw down their arms before they will fire on their fellew-citizens. The Populists mean business, and if worst comes to worst, they mean war.

"All we demand is that an honest and greatful composition wall be appointed."

zens. The Popullsts mean business, and if worst comes to worst, they mean war.

"All we demand is that an honest and impartial commission shall be appointed, something similar to the electoral commission of 1876, and that this commission shall impartially canvass the returns, investigate the frauds, hear the evidence, and make a fair canvass. If such a commission is appointed, we agree in advance to abide by its decision.

"There is no more peaceful and lawabiding citizen in the State than Captain Kolb. He is inclined to peace measures. That is why I should have liked to see a man of more nerve and decision nominated as the Popullst candidate. I reck-on if Governor Tillman had been running in Alabama, instead of South Carolina, that he would have been Governor without question. I am glad to see that Kolb has at last made up his mind to make a fight for the effect to which he has twice been fairly and honestly elected."

"Shaky Lil." in Indiana.

"Shaky kil." in Indiana.

About a mile and a half from Milton, Ind., is an elevation, which, from mysterious shakings and convulsions with which it is often seized, is known as "Shaky Hill." In the early settlement of the country a cabin was built upon this eminence, but the settler and his family were frightened away by violent shaking and strange rumbling noises, the home often being shaken as by an earthquake, and since that time "Shaky Hill" has been the scene of many mysterious goings on. Loggers have seen their logs started without any visible cause, large rocks have been moved from their beds, and in wet weather low, deep rumblings have been beard, accompanied by a very perceptible trembiling of the hill. These things are vouched for by old and reliable people, but no one has been able to determine the cause.—Cincinnatt Enquirer.

Man at firth Not ree.

Man at his birth is not free in any sense. He can squall and squirm, but he is absolutely at the disposal of his mother or of whoever else is in charge of him. It may be said that he becomes free, but that is equally ridiculous. He is not free to choose his language, his habits his standard of right and wrong. All these are imposed upon him by his surroundings.

are imposed upon him by his surroundings.

To call men equal at their births, or afterward, is a similar falsification of facts. The maxim does not mean that at birth men are equal in the total lack of freedom. Therefore, it means nothing at all as regards men at the momen's of their births. It is obviously inapplicable to their conditions in after life, in every stage of which the innate inequalities of capacity and their results become more and more marked.—The Quarterly Review.

DEFEAT OF M'INTYRE

BY IMDRA THE SURPRISE OF THE DAY AT ST. ASAPH.

ing Will Probably End During December_Other Events.

Four Favorites Finished First-The Meet-

ites again scored four of the events at the St. Asaph course to-day. The weather was clear and the track cuppy. The surprise of the day was the defeat of McIntyre, at odds-on, by Indra, a 12 to 1 shot. The opening event, a handi-cap, was won easily by Ed. Kearney. Oily Gamin was never headed in the third race, and Charter won the fourth after a hard drive with Baroness. The fifth race was a facer for the talent, Jack, the Jew, an almost even money favorite, running in the ruck and finishing far in the rear, while Beauregard, an outsider, bested Enchanter by two lengths. The closing event was a gift to Wernberg, Will Elliott pulling up lame.

Many of the stable owners now here will withdraw their horses upon the expiration of the licenses, though a number of them have announced their intention to remain. Secretary McIntyre and Starter Rowe are among those who will probably resign if the present plan is carried out. It is officially explained that the time lost and reduction of gate fees during election week, the opposition of the Alexander Island track, and the unavoidable deference of the inauguration meeting should justify the extension, which, the management claims, would be no more a violation of the rules than the extension granted the New Orleans meeting. Overtures between the two tracks for division of time are very improbable. Treasurer Kirk said to-night it was not the purpose of the club to extend the meeting at all beyond December. Summaries:

it was not the purpose of the culo to extend the meeting at all beyond December. Summaries:

WINTER RACING AT NASHYDLE.

winter racing at Nashville.

NASHVILLE, TENN., Nov. 22—Notice was posted this afternoon that racing would be continued at Cumberland Park all next week, and probably longer. Recent developments in turf matters may result in the meeting 'asting nearly all the winter. Favorites won in all but one race to-day, and the other was won by a well-played second choize. Lynch, the owner of the Rosewood colt, made a killing in the first race. He beat an ordinary field in a common canter. Summaries:

First race—five furlongs—Rosewood Colt (102, McCue, 7 to 5) first, Hoyt second, Kosinett third. Time, 1913-4.

Second race—five furlongs—Leynas Last (105, I. Hill, 3 to 1) first, Dr. Work second, Miss Addie third. Time, 192.

Third race—six furlongs—Clara Bauer (104, Cassin, even) first, Theodore H. second, Bessie Nichols third. Time, 1941-2.

Fourth race—one mile—Fulcher C. (94, Gardner, even) first, Judge Woods second, Myrtle third. Time, 193.

Fifth race—one mile—Fulcher C. (94, Gardner, even) first, Jennie W. second, Miss Gallop third. Time, 1,421-4. THE WINN BS AT LUXINGTON.

LEXINGTON, KY., Nov. 22.—This was another day of fine sport and was enjoyed by a large crowd. The betting was brisk and the talent picked three winning borses, the other three being won by a second choice and two well-supported ones. Summaries:

First race-seven furlongs—The Ironmuster (97, Donahue, 11 to 10) first, Queen Bird second, Contest third. Time, 1:23-2-4.

Second race-four and one-half furlongs—Avalanche (10), Perkins, 8 to 5) first, Prairie second, Pleasantry third. Time, 56.

Frairie second, Freesantry 596.

Third race—six furlongs—Clintie C. (107, C. Graham, 6 to 1) first, Ralyalon second, Willard third. Time, 1:14-14.

Fourth race—one mile Greenwich (407, Thorpe, 4 to 1) first, Platus second, Voorhees third. Time, 1:32.

Fifth race—five furlongs—Tumo (96, Perkins, 2 to 1) first, Dante second, Rossmore third. Time, 1:02-14.

Sixth race—five furlongs—Tough Timber (93, J. Daily, 8 to 5) first, Queen May second, Necedah third. Time, 1:02-14.

Jumping Seeds and Other Galls.

The galls of Andricus saliens are known in California as "flea-weeds," from their jumping about on the ground; this results from the spasmode movements of the larva inside the thin-walled cavity of the gall. Another California gall has been described as covered with mobile hairs, which are sensitive to touch like the leaves of the mimosa. Very remarkable, too, is the relationship subsisting between the Cyripidae and ties.

Certain species or saw-fly deposit their eggs in the seed vessel, of the floreta in the interior of the wild fix. When fully developed the saw-flers emerge, covered with pollen obtained from the male flowers rear the opening of the fig. Following an ancient custom, the Greeks and Italians hang up bunches of the wild fruit on their cultivated fig trees, and the pollen-covered flies which escape from them enter the cultivated figs and fertilize the f-mais florets in their interiors. This operation is known as caprification.

The figs of the wild variety might almost be described as galls, since they serve as hatcheries for the saw-fles, Each specie of fig would appear to have its own special saw-fly. The Dead Sea fruit, or apples of Sodom, "which tempt the eye but turn to ashes on the lip," are probably galls on a species of oak produced by Cyups insana, though some suppose that the reference is to the fruit of a species of Ascleplas.—Knowledge.

An Old rlame.

An Old rlame,

The following anecdote was told me by my friend, Dr. Prior, who had it from Mr. John Benett, who was present when the incident occurred. At a dinner party at Bowood the Marchioness of Lansdowne introduced Canon Bowles to an elderly lady, and they sat down chatting away very pleasantly about things of the day, Bowles was perfectly oblivious that this was the very lady to whom he had been engaged to be married when he had very little income besides his curacy. The marriage had been broken off in consequence of their mutual want of means. The lady, of course, was perfectly well aware that she was talking to her quondam lover, but her marriad name had in no way enlightened him as to her personality. After a time, she said, having touched upon old days:

"But, Mr. Bowles, don't you remember me?"

"No, ma'am, I don't."

Then she added smiling "You used to

but, Mr. Bowles, don't you remember me?"
"No, ma'am, I don't."
Then she added, smiling, "You used to know me and pretend to be very fond of me. I was Miss..."
"Oh, what a wreck!" was the spontaneous exclamation of the poet.
Happily the lady enjoyed the joke immensiely, for she was a remarkably handsome woman for her age, and his burst of surprise was really only a compliment to the extreme beauty of her youth. One must come to the conclusion that the reverend canon had been an often engaged man in his time, and if his constancy was at fault his good taste was indisputable.—Temple Bar.
