At a meeting held in the Y. M. C. A. building yesterday afternoon "The Stars" Base-Ball Club was organized for the season. Mr. B. H. Marsh was elected manager, and the players are as follows: Therpe and Harrison, catchers; Davis, Withers and Anthony, pitchers; Ford, first base; A. L. Richardson and W. Richardson, second base; Cox, third base; Brock and Crostick, short-stops; Holland, Binford and Laughtoh, in the field.

Manager Marsh told me last night in all probability the Richmond League Club would give them the first practice game of the season. The "Stars" Crganize. IN THE POLICE COURT.

Orders From the County Courts of Culpeper, Prince William, Dinwiddle and King William Pronounced Forgeries.

After disposing of his regular docket in the Police Court yesterday morning Justice Crutchfield called the case of the Commonwealth against Burnley Taylor The court-room was densely packed by a curious crowd, who were anxious to see the defendant in the case that had been surrounded by so much mystery. It was well known that while in juil a second warrant had been served on Tay-lor, charging him with uttering and attempting to pass a begus claim against the Commonwealth for the sum of $45, purporting to be a lawful account for the maintenance of one Frances Johnson, a lunatic. During the proceedings in the order this year. This is owing to the fact that the Saint's birthday will be on Sunday. It is customary to have a parade afternoon, however, it appeared that two more similar charges on bogus court orders, from Culpeper and Dir.widdle counties, for $156 and $154 respectively, had uet on Sunday next. The celebration will been preferred. comes a Sabbath function.

At a quarter to eight o'clock on Sunday

The prisoner was represented by Colo-nel William F. Wickham, Judge Edmund Waddill and Messrs, Hill Carter and W. D. Cardwell. The prisoner's counsel were prepared to go into the examination, but Commonwealth's Attorney Smith asked for a postponement. He stated that all witnesses for the Commonwealth ould not be present until 3 o'clock in amination was postponed until that hour. At 3:10 P. M. the court was again opened, and the list of witnesses for the Commonwealth was called as follows: Morton Marye, H. S. Wallerstein, W. E. Coons, J. E. Herrell, H. Southwood, J. N. Harris, B. C. Garrett, E. Nelson and J. C. Spain, They all answered to their vices in St. Patrick's church. At this service the panegyric usual on this day will be delivered by Father Wilson, of names, with the exception of Messrs outhwood and Harris, who had not yet

Commonwealth's Attorney Smith stated that he had before him four warrants against the accused, which all contained similar charges, and he suggested that they all be tried together. This was the witnesses were sworn.

the witnesses were sworn.

Mr. W. E. Evans, the clerk of the County Court of Culpeper, was the first witness called to the stand by the Commonwealth. He was shown an order purporling to have been signed by the deputy clerk of the Culpeper County Court, issued for $15 and for the maintenance of sued for $156.00, for the maintenance of lunatic by the name of Jane Mills Witness stated that such an order was never issued by his court, and that its zignature was not the name of his deputy. Mr. H. S. Wallerstein was the next witness. He stated that he was personally acquainted with the accused, and identifi-ed him in court. Witness also identified ed him in court. Witness also identified the order purporting to have been issued by the Culpeper County Court for $156, which was paid by the Commonwealth on February 18th, the same day when he received it. The order was handed to him by Mr. Taylor in person at his (witness') store, at 1820 east Main street. Witness gave the accused $50 in cash and witness him an order of goods, while he pped him an order of goods, while he used the balance of $13.30 to the credit Burnley Taylor, as instructed, with Title and Trust Company. The following additional court orders of a similar character were also identified by witness as those which he received from Burnley Taylor: One order for $192.50, purporting to have been signed by the clerk of the Prince William County Court. Witness paid the accused $50 in cash and shipped him a lot of goods on his written order. The amount in queswas paid to witness by the monwealth. Another order for $154, pur-porting to be signed by the clerk of the porting to be signed by the clerk of the Dinwiddle Connty Court, was enclosed in a letter by Taylor and handed to witness by the clerk of the accused. Witness paid to bearer $30 in cash on the same day, March 5th, and sent an order of goods for him to the depot, but as soon as witness was informed by Major Dee on that day about the sampleton Poe on that day, about the suspicion against Taylor witness re-called the PRONOUNCED THEM PORGERIES. Mr. B. C. Garrett, the clerk of the King William County Court, was shown the court's order for $45, which he pronounced a forgery, the signature of his name not being in his own handwriting. He was in the handwriting of the accused.

J. C. Spain, clerk of the Dinwiddle
County Court, when shown the order for 154, pronounced the same a forgery.
There was never such an order issued in his court, he said, and there was no deputy clerk in his county by the name deputy clerk in his county by the name of J. C. Young, the name attached to $192.50, stated that no such order had ever been issued in his court. The name was that of his deputy, J. E. Herrell, but it was not in his handwriting. Witness pronounced the paper a forgery. This closed the evidence for the Com-monwealth, and counsel for the defence stated that they had no testimony to offer. Justice Crutchfield then announced that they had no testimony t Justice Crutchfield then announce offer. Justice Crutchfield then announced that the accused was sent on to the grand jury in all four cases, and the witnesses were recognized in the sum of $300 each to make their appearance before the grand jury on April 1st.

Taylor was then sent back to fail.
His counsel remained in conference for some time, as to whether they should at-tempt to secure ball on a writ of habeas corpus, but up to this morning the pris-oner was still in jail. It is possible, how-ever, that an attempt will be made to-morrow to secure ball for him.

MADE HIS ESCAPE.

George B. Terry, for whose arrest on a similar charge as those against Com-missioner of the Revenue Burnley Taylor by State Auditor Morton Marye a war-rant had been issued on Friday, has made his escape from King William county.

It is allegd that he passed two bogus claims against the Commonwealth on a down town merchant, who collected their face value at the Treasurer's office. Sergeant Alex. Tomlinson and Officer Sergeant Alex. Tomlinson and Officer Gibson, very much bespattered with mud, returned to the city yesterday morning from an unsuccessful search for Terry. They drove twenty miles through King William on Friday night in a buggy looking for the man for whom they had

It was thought, however, that he had been only a tool of Taylor without any guilty knowledge of what he was

This view was suddenly changed, a Colonel Marye stated last night, when it became known that Taylor at the time of his arrest remarked to one of the officers that as soon as his arrest would become known some one else would disappear. It was then decided to arrest Terry as an accomplice, and the officers were im-

In view of the fact that under the existing law it is a comparatively easy matter to forge court orders, which at present only require the signatures of the clerk of the County Court or his deputy to become legal, it is expected that during the coming session of the Legislature the coming session of the Legislature a bill will be introduced throwing additional safe-guards around the issuing of such orders by requiring the judge to sign them as well as the clerk.

JUSTICE JOHN'S COURT. The Complainant Failed in an Attempt of Compromise. James Bland (colored) was brought before Justice Crutchfield, in the Police Court, yesterday, on the charge of assaulting, beating and attempting to cut with a knife Priscilla Wade. He was also charged with unlawfully assaulting and attempting to shoot Frank Hardin. It appeared from the investigation of the first charge that the complainant had been prevailed upon to compromise the suit, and that she had, at the request of the defendant's brother, advanced the money to the defendant to pay his lawyer. Justice Crutchfield did not feel like listening to a compromise, and fined Bland $19 and costs on the first charge and sent him to jail for sixty days in default of $100 security. The second charge was dismissed.

RALLYING FOR REAL REFORM.

Proposed Union of all the Moral Forces in the City in an Arousyment of the People. The Executive Committee of the Indecendent Order of Good Templars (which rendent Order of Good Temple's (which is composed entirely of Christian men and women, actively identified with several of our leading denominations), at its meeting on Friday night freely discussed the question of a more thorough arousement of the people to the importance of systematic and practical efforts in behalf of genuine reform. With this end in view, it was determined to issue a call for a preliminary conference on the part of representatives from the Templars, the Woman's Christian Templers and the Woman's Christian Union, the Young Woman's Christian call for a preliminary conference of the part of representatives from the Templars, the Woman's Christian Terperance Union, the Young Woman's Christian Temperance Union, the several churches, and to include in the invitation all friends of the purposes of the movement who may not be identified with any organization. This formal call, or request, duly signed by the committee, will be duly permulgated, and will be supplemented by personal solicitation on the part of an active subcommittee. It is expecien that this preliminary conference (to be held at the Young Men's Christian Association Hall at 8 P. M. March 21st) will decide to provide for a series of grand public mass-meetings, in which prominent speakers will take part. These mass-meetings, it is intended, will crystalize public sentiment and eventuate in such an awakening of interest in the cause of genuine reform as to secure the organization of a powerful aliliance on the part of the several organized moral agencies. Mr. Bickers, the district chief Templar of the Good Templars, said to me: "This movement is non-sectarian and non-partisan. It is not started by adventurers for the promotion of personal interests, but originated with our own people for the good of society and our fellowmen. It has its birth in an ardent desire to conserve the highest interests of the people of this glorious old city. There is nothing sensational about it, but it is highly practicable, and should command the active sympathy and support of all good citizens, and most assuredly should be zealously aided by the Christian people in general. With such support this move will prove a great blessing to the community."

On the young man's person was also the words: "University Free Dispensary, Baltimore, Md.," and an affectionate let-ter dated "Spokane, Washington, January let dated sposane, tacherine Kirk-18, 1895," from his cousin, Katherine Kirk-patrick, No. 325 Eighth street. The letter indicated that the young man had come East to seek employment. Further than this, nothing could be learned as to his condition in life.

THE DESCRIPTION.

Young Arther is about twenty-five years old, pleasing countenance, regular features, dark, wavy hair, dark eyes and weighs about 150 pounds. He is about 5 feet 10 inches in height, and was dressed in a neat coat of dark material, dark trousers, and soft hat—quite a nice-looking young man. His appearance indi-cates that he was much higher in the social scale than a tramp.

A PITIFUL SIGHT.

An officer of the Third district, while passing a freight car standing on the Richmond. Fredericksburg and Potomac tracks, on Broad street, just below Hancock, yesterday morning about 9:30 o'clock, heard a groan in the car, and immediately went to investigating. The car was locked and was partially loaded with coal. Upon further examination, he saw the young man inside, trying to eat some of the coal, and performing other very unusual feats. He gave notice at the R. F. and P. local freight office, and the car was unlocked. It was soon learned that the unfortunate prisoner was delirious. He was pale and haggard a the face, and evidently bore the marks

A Birthday Entertainment.

An attractive entertainment was given by Mr. D. B. Pennington, of the Pullman Car Company, on Friday evening at the residence of Dr. T. E. Stratton, No. 4ll north Seventh street. The occasion was the celebration of Mr. Pennington's birthday, and invitations were sent to a number of his most intimate friends. The first part of the evening was spent in the execution of an attractive musical programme, and among the various numbers were several well-rendered duets by Messrs. J. J. Derrick and G. L. T. Mynich. An excellent supper was served later in the evening, which was immensely enjoyed by all. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Duke. Mr. and Mrs. Irvin, of Philadelphia; Messrs. E. E. A Family Affair.

A Family Affair,

Justice James T. Lewis had a family affair before him yesterday morning. Jesse Hoy was arrested on a charge of cursing and abusing Sallie Bell. He was made to pay costs and give security for good behavior for twelve months.

G. O. Ball, charged with shooting at Jesse Hoy, was fined $5$ for assault and required to give security for good behavior for twelve months.

The teachers of the Tuckahoe district, Henrico county, were paid off at the county court-house yesterday.

The Henrico Teachers' Association also met and arranged a programme for the next meeting.

Dr. S. F. Upham, professor in Drew Theological Seminary, and one of the most eminent and eloquent preachers of the Methodist Church, will preach at Park Place Methodist church this morn-
