

THE POISONER SENT ON. GEORGE BRATCHER'S CASE CERTIFIED TO THE JUSTICES COURT.

A Pleasant Entertainment—An "Echo Meeting"—Locomotive Inspector Appointed—Retail Matters—Personals.

MANCHESTER BUREAU RICHMOND TIMES. No. 1111 HULL STREET, BEATTIE BLOCK. I. Case of George Bratcher, the negro who is charged with attempting to poison the family of Peter Miller, who lives on the outskirts of Manchester, by putting arsenic in their sugar, and also in the spring from which they were accustomed to get their water, came before the Police Court again yesterday morning.

Tuesday night a number of young ladies gave an enjoyable entertainment to their gentlemen friends at the residence of Mrs. W. H. Wright, on Bathurst street. Games of various kinds were played and refreshments served. Those present were: Miss Adelaide Alexander, Alice Franklin, Clara and Emma Fisher, Clara Wright, Minnie and Maggie Carter, Susie Martin, Myrtle Marshall, Nellie Marshall, Tom Marshall, Thelma Waldhall, Willie Amos, Alfred Webb, Fred Wright, Harry Fitzgerald, Hob White, and Willie Tenney.

To-morrow evening the members of the Baptist Young People's Society will hold an "echo meeting" at which the subject for discussion will be the results of the national convention held last week in Baltimore. A good many people are expected to be present from Richmond, and a large gathering is anticipated.

A former Manchesterian, now residing in New York, has sent an order to a broker of this city, telling the merchant to send him at once some of the best cornmeal and flour he has in stock. He stated in his letter that while living in this city where nearly every luxury could be purchased, yet he never ate a meal of good cornmeal or flour until he had visited Virginia. The order was shipped to him at once.

MISS KATE KIMMEL, of Chesterfield, who has been visiting friends in Washington, has returned home.

MISS NANNIE G. HALLSHORE, is visiting Mrs. W. D. Porter, on Cowardin avenue.

MISS J. L. FLOURNEY is quite sick at her residence, Eleventh and Stockton streets.

MISS B. M. MORRISSETT is able to be out again, but is still suffering from a slight cold.

MISS B. M. CLARKE, of Swansboro, left yesterday for a visit to friends near the residence of Mr. H. H. HARRIS, at his residence in Swansboro.

MISS WILLIE PULLMAN is visiting relatives in King William county, this city, is visiting friends in Nelson county.

MISS MAMIE WRIGHT, of this city, is visiting friends in Nelson county.

MISS KATE KIMMEL, Mr. Williams Shiggins, Mr. A. S. Snellings, and Mr. Ellington were accidentally killed Tuesday in the list of members of the Tuesday night club.

There will be a watermelon feast to-night at the residence of Mrs. J. H. Johnson, on Clifton street, given by the West-End Pleasure Club of Swansboro. They expect to have an enjoyable time.

DISAPPEARED FROM HOME. A Henrico Citizen Leaves His Family. Other County News.

J. H. JOHNSON, a citizen of Henrico county, about sixty years of age, who lives at the corner of Thirty-first and S streets, with his wife and children, disappeared from his home about two weeks ago and has not been heard from since.

MISS JOHNSON can ascribe no reason for her husband's absence other than that his mind may be affected. He had been out of employment a long time before leaving home. Recently he was very dependent, and it is feared that some serious accident has befallen him.

The police have been notified, and they are trying to find a clue to the absent man's whereabouts.

Deputy Clerk Larnus, of the County Court, yesterday issued a marriage license to Mr. E. L. Moorman, of Bedford, who represented that county in the Virginia Legislature from 1882 to 1884. Mr. Moorman's intended bride is Miss Mary V. Grant, of Henrico.

A similar license was issued to Arminstead Shelly and Rosa Anna Thorpe, both of the county.
